AUSTRALIAN WINE AND BRANDY CORPORATION ACT 1980

An Act to establish an Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation, and for related purposes

PART I—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation Act 1980.¹

Commencement

- (1) Sections 1 and 2 and subsection 13 (4) shall come into operation on the date on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (2) The remaining provisions of this Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by Proclamation.

Objects

3.—

- (1) The objects of this Act are:

- (a) to promote and control the export of grape products from Australia;
- (b) to promote and control the sale and distribution, after export, of Australian grape products;
- (c) to promote trade and commerce in grape products among the States, between States and Territories and within the Territories; and
- (d) to improve the production of grape products, and encourage the consumption of grape products, in the Territories; and this Act shall be construed and administered accordingly.

- (2) The Corporation shall perform its functions or exercise its powers only for the purpose of achieving an object specified in subsection (1).

Interpretation

4.—

- (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

“annual general meeting” means a meeting that the Corporation is required to convene under section 29W;

“annual operational plan” means a plan developed by the Corporation and approved by the Minister in accordance with Division 2 of Part VA;

- (b) the Deputy Chairperson may be referred to as the Deputy Chairman or the Deputy Chairwoman, as the case requires.

Declared winemakers organisations

5A. Where the minister considers that an organisation is a national organisation which is representative of winemakers, the Minister may, by notice in writing published in the Gazette, declare that organisation to be a declared winemakers organisation.

PART II—THE AUSTRALIAN WINE AND BRANDY CORPORATION

Establishment of Corporation

6. There is established by this Act a corporation by the name of the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation.

Functions of Corporation

7. The functions of the Corporation are:

- (a) to promote and control the export of grape products from Australia;
- (b) to encourage and promote the consumption and sale of grape products both in Australia and overseas;
- (c) to improve the production of grape products in Australia;
- (d) to conduct, arrange for, and assist in, research relating to the marketing of grape products; and
- (e) such other functions in connection with grape products as are conferred on the Corporation by this Act or the regulations.

Powers of Corporation

8.–

(1) Subject to this Act, the Corporation has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, the performance of its functions.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the powers of the Corporation referred to in that subsection include power:

- (a) to control the export of grape products from Australia by determining the persons, other than the Corporation, who shall be permitted to export grape products and the conditions under which such exports will be permitted;
- (b) at the request of a person engaging, or proposing to engage, in the export of a grape product, to co-ordinate activities relating to the promotion of the export of the grape product;
- (c) where a grape product proposed to be exported from Australia to a foreign country meets the requirements of that country for importation into that country, issue certificates that the product meets those requirements;
- (d) to the extent required to promote the export of grape products from Australia, or the sale of grape products overseas, by persons other than the Corporation, to buy, sell or otherwise engage in trade in grape products and do all things necessary or convenient for engaging in that trade;
- (e) to engage, or make arrangements with, persons, organisations or companies to perform work, or act as agent, for the Corporation, whether in Australia or overseas;
- (f) to charge such fees as are fair and proper to enable the Corporation to meet costs incurred by the Corporation in administering licensing arrangements relating to the export of grape products (including costs in relation to the grant or renewal of licences) and in ensuring that persons who are licensed to export grape products comply with the conditions under which the export of the grape products is permitted;
- (g) to charge for the provision of services, or the performance of work, by, or on behalf of, the Corporation; and
- (h) to waive the payment of fees and charges payable to the Corporation.

(3) Subject to subsection 31K (4), the Corporation shall endeavour to ensure, to the extent that it is practicable to do so, that the performance at any time of its functions and the exercise at any time of its powers is consistent with, and designed to give effect to, the provisions of any corporate plan and of any annual operational plan in force at that time.

Contracts for carriage of grape products

(1) The Corporation may, by notice published in the Gazette, approve a person as a carrier for the purposes of the carriage of a specified grape product to a specified place outside Australia.

(2) The Corporation may, by notice published in the Gazette, determine that a contract, or a contract included in a class of contracts, for the carriage of a specified grape product to a specified place outside Australia shall not be entered into except with the approval of the Corporation.

(3) An approval under subsection (2) may be given subject to such conditions (if any) as the Corporation determines.

(4) While an approval under subsection (1) is in force in relation to a place outside Australia, a person shall not enter into a contract with another person for the carriage by that other person of a grape product specified in the notice of approval to that place unless that other person is approved under that subsection in relation to that place.

Penalty: $6,000.

(5) A person other than the Corporation shall not enter into a contract with another person for the carriage by that other person of a grape product in relation to which a notice under subsection (2) is in force to a place outside Australia specified in that notice except with the approval of the Corporation and in conformity with the conditions (if any) to which that approval is subject.

Penalty: $6,000.

(6) Subsection (4) does not apply to the Corporation in relation to any grape product when acting on its own behalf or as the agent of the owner of the grape product or of a person having the authority to export the grape product.

(7) A collector or officer for the purposes of the Customs Act 1901 may require a person who seeks to export from Australia to a place outside Australia in relation to which a notice under subsection (2) is in force a grape product specified in the notice, on making entry of the grape product under that Act and before the entry has been passed, to satisfy him that:

- (a) the contract for the carriage of the grape product to that place was entered into with the approval of the Corporation and in conformity with the conditions (if any) to which that approval is subject; and
- (b) the carrier undertaking the carriage of the grape product to that place is approved by the Corporation under subsection (1) as a carrier for the purposes of the carriage to that place of a grape product of a kind to which that contract relates;

and the collector or officer may refuse to pass the entry until that person has so satisfied him.

(8) A contract entered into for the carriage of a grape product to a place outside Australia is not unenforceable, voidable or void by reason only of the contract having been entered into in contravention of subsection (4) or (5).

Power to enter into arrangements etc.

10. Without limiting the generality of section 8, the Corporation may enter into arrangements or agreements with persons, authorities or organizations in Australia or overseas, or, with the consent of the Minister, with a State, for the purposes of the Corporation.

Committees

11.–

(1) The Corporation may appoint a committee to assist the Corporation in relation to a matter.

(1A) Without limiting subsection (1), the Corporation may appoint a committee under that subsection to perform the functions appropriate for an executive committee of the Corporation.

(2) A committee established under this section shall consist of such persons, including at least 1 member of the Corporation, as the Corporation thinks fit.

PART III–CONSTITUTION AND MEETINGS OF THE CORPORATION

Nature of Corporation

12.–

(1) The Corporation:

- (a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession;
- (b) shall have a common seal;
- (c) may acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property; and
- (d) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(2) All courts, judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the common seal of the Corporation affixed to a document and shall presume that it was duly affixed.

Membership of Corporation

(1) The Corporation shall consist of:

- (a) a Chairperson;
- (b) a Government member; and
- (c) 6 other members.

(2) The members shall be appointed by the Minister in writing.

(3) The members shall be appointed as part-time members.

(4) The Minister shall not appoint a person to be a member referred to in paragraph (1) (c) unless the Minister is satisfied that the person has knowledge of, or experience in, winemaking, grape growing, marketing, finance, administration or business management.

(5) The members referred to in paragraph (1) (c) shall be appointed from persons nominated by the Selection Committee in accordance with section 29F.

(6) A member holds office on such terms and conditions (in respect of matters not provided for by this Act) as are determined by the Minister in writing.

(7) The performance of the functions and the exercise of the powers of the Corporation are not affected by reason only of there being a vacancy or vacancies in the membership of the Corporation.

Term of office of members

14.–

(1) Subject to this Act, the Chairperson or a member referred to in paragraph 13 (1) (c) holds office for such period, not exceeding 3 years, as is specified in the instrument of appointment, but he or she is eligible for re-appointment.

(2) The member referred to in paragraph 13 (1) (b) holds office during the pleasure of the Minister.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a person who has attained the age of 65 years shall not be appointed as a member and a person shall not be appointed as a member for a period that extends beyond the day on which the person will attain the age of 65 years.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to the appointment of a person as a member if the Minister is satisfied that that person possesses special skills that the Corporation requires for the performance of its functions.

(5) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of Chairperson or of a member referred to in paragraph 13 (1) (c) before the expiration of the person's term of office, the Minister may, in accordance with, and subject to, section 13, appoint a person to the office for the remainder of that period.

Deputy Chairperson

(1) The Minister shall, by writing signed by the Minister, appoint a member other than the Chairperson or the member referred to in paragraph 13 (1) (b) to be Deputy Chairperson of the Corporation.

(2) The Minister shall not appoint a member as the Deputy Chairperson unless the Minister has consulted with the Chairperson and the Presiding Member concerning the appointment.

(3) Subject to this Act, the Deputy Chairperson holds office for such period as is specified in the instrument of appointment, but he or she is eligible for re-appointment.

(4) The Minister may, at any time, terminate an appointment under subsection (1).

(5) A member holding office as Deputy Chairperson may resign that office by writing signed by him or her and delivered to the Minister.

(6) A member holding office as Deputy Chairperson ceases to hold that office if he or she ceases to be a member.

(7) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of Deputy Chairperson before the expiration of the period of his or her appointment, the Minister may, in accordance with this section, appoint another member to hold that office for the remainder of that period.

(8) While the office of Chairperson is vacant or the Chairperson is absent from Australia or is, for any other reason, unable to perform the functions of the office of Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson is available to perform the functions of the office of Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson has and may exercise all the powers, and shall perform all the functions, of the Chairperson under this Act.

Leave of absence

16.–

- (1) The Minister may grant leave of absence to the Chairperson from a meeting or meetings of the Corporation.
- (2) The Chairperson may grant leave of absence to another member from a meeting or meetings of the Corporation.

Resignation of members

17. A member may resign from the office of member by writing signed by the member delivered to the Minister.

Termination of appointments

- (1) The Minister may terminate the appointment of a member by reason of the misbehaviour, or the physical or mental incapacity, of the member.
- (4) If a member:
 - (a) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit;
 - (b) fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with his or her obligations under section 21;
 - (c) being a member to whom subsection 40 (7) applies, fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the condition referred to in that subsection; or
 - (d) is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the Corporation otherwise than:
 - (i) on business of the Corporation undertaken with the approval of the Corporation or of a committee of the Corporation; or
 - (ii) on leave of absence granted under section 16;the Minister shall terminate the appointment of the member.

Disclosure of interests by members of Corporation

- (1) A member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Corporation shall, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the knowledge of the member, disclose the nature of that interest at a meeting of the Corporation.
- (2) A disclosure under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Corporation and the member shall not, unless the Minister or the Corporation otherwise determines:
 - (a) be present during any deliberation of the Corporation with respect to that matter; or
 - (b) take part in any decision of the Corporation with respect to that matter.
- (3) For the purpose of the making of a determination by the Corporation under subsection (2) in relation to a member who has made a disclosure under subsection (1), a member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the matter to which the disclosure relates shall not:
 - (a) be present during any deliberation of the Corporation for the purpose of making the determination; or

(b) take part in the making by the Corporation of the determination.

(4) A member who is a wine maker or a grape grower shall not be taken to have a pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Corporation by reason only of being a winemaker or a grape grower.

Meetings of Corporation

(1) Subject to this section, meetings of the Corporation shall be held at such times and places as the Corporation from time to time determines.

(2) The Chairperson may at any time convene a meeting of the Corporation.

(3) At a meeting of the Corporation, 5 members constitute a quorum.

(4) The Chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the Corporation at which the Chairperson is present.

(5) If the Chairperson is not present, but the Deputy Chairperson is present, at a meeting of the Corporation, the Deputy Chairperson shall preside at that meeting.

(6) If neither the Chairperson nor the Deputy Chairperson is present at a meeting of the Corporation, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside at that meeting.

(7) A question arising at a meeting of the Corporation shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.

(8) The member presiding at a meeting of the Corporation has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, has a casting vote.

(9) The Corporation shall keep minutes of its proceedings.

(10) Subject to the preceding provisions of this section, the procedure at meetings of the Corporation shall be as determined by the Corporation.

(11) The Corporation may invite a person to attend a meeting of the Corporation for the purpose of advising or informing the Corporation on any matter.

(12) A person referred to in subsection (11) shall be paid such fees, allowances and expenses (if any) as the Corporation determines in respect of the person's attendance at a meeting of the Corporation.

PART IVA—AUSTRALIAN WINE AND BRANDY CORPORATION SELECTION COMMITTEE

Establishment of Committee

29A. A Committee by the name of the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation Selection Committee is established.

Functions of Committee

29B. The functions of the Committee are:

- (a) to select persons to be nominated for appointment as members of the Corporation referred to in paragraph 13 (1) (c); and
- (b) to nominate persons so selected to the Minister for appointment as members of the Corporation.

Powers of Committee

29C. The Committee has power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, the performance of its functions.

Minister may request nominations

29D. The Minister may, by notice in writing given to the Presiding Member, request the Committee to give to the Minister, within the period specified in the notice:

- (a) written nominations of persons for appointment as members of the Corporation referred to in paragraph 13 (1) (c); or
- (b) where a casual vacancy occurs in the office of a member of the Corporation referred to in paragraph (a)—a written nomination of a person for appointment to that office.

Selection of persons by Committee

29E.—

- (1) The Committee shall not nominate a person for appointment as a member of the Corporation unless the person possesses one or more of the qualifications referred to in subsection 13 (4).
- (2) The Committee shall not nominate a person for appointment as a member of the Corporation if:
 - (a) the person is a member of the Committee; or
 - (b) the person has been a member of the Committee within 12 months of the day on which the nomination is given to the Minister.

Nomination

29F.—

- (1) Where the Minister gives a request to the Presiding Member under section 29D:
 - (a) the Committee shall, before the end of the period specified in the notice, select a person or persons to be nominated for appointment to the office or offices concerned; and
 - (b) the Presiding Member shall, on behalf of the Committee, before the end of that period, give to the Minister the written nomination or nominations concerned.
- (2) The Committee shall give to the Minister only one nomination in respect of each appointment to be made by the Minister.
- (3) Where the Committee proposes to nominate a person for appointment as a member of the Corporation, the Presiding Member shall cause to be prepared and attached to the nomination a statement setting out:
 - (a) details of the person's qualifications and experience; and

(b) such other information relating to the person as the Committee thinks will assist the Minister in considering whether to appoint the person.

(4) The Committee may nominate a person for appointment even though the Minister has previously rejected a nomination of that person or the Committee has previously decided not to nominate the person for appointment.

Minister may reject nominations

29G. Where the Minister is not satisfied that a person nominated by the Committee for appointment as a member of the Corporation should be appointed as such a member, the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the Presiding Member, reject the nomination and may include in that notice a further request under section 29D for a nomination of a person for appointment to the office concerned.

Membership of Committee

29H.–

(1) Committee shall consist of the following members:

(a) a Presiding Member; and

(b) such other number of members as is determined by the Minister.

(2) The members of the Committee shall be appointed in writing by the Minister and, subject to this Act, hold office for such period, not exceeding 3 years, as is specified in the instrument of appointment, but are eligible for re-appointment.

(3) Each member of the Committee referred to in paragraph (1) (b) shall be a person who has been nominated by a declared winemakers organisation.

(4) All members of the Committee shall be appointed as part-time members.

(5) A person who is a member of the Corporation is not eligible to be appointed under subsection (2) as a member of the Committee.

(6) The appointment of a member of the Committee is not invalidated, and shall not be called in question, because of a defect or irregularity in or in connection with the member's nomination or appointment.

(7) The exercise of a power or the performance of a function by the Committee is not invalidated because of a vacancy or vacancies in the membership of the Committee.

Acting Presiding Member

29J.–

(1) The Minister may appoint a person to act as Presiding Member:

(a) during a vacancy in the office of Presiding Member (whether or not an appointment has previously been made to the office); or

(b) during any period, or during all periods, when the Presiding Member is absent from Australia or is, for any other reason, unable to perform the functions of the office of Presiding Member;

but a person appointed to act during a vacancy shall not continue to act for more than 12 months.

(2) An appointment of a person under subsection (1) may be expressed to have effect only in such circumstances as are specified in the instrument of appointment.

(3) The Minister may determine the terms and conditions of appointment, including remuneration and allowances, of a person acting as the Presiding Member.

(4) The Minister may terminate an appointment made under subsection (1) at any time.

(5) Where a person is acting as Presiding Member in accordance with paragraph (1) (b) and the office of Presiding Member becomes vacant while the person is so acting, then, subject to subsection (2), the person may continue to act until the Minister otherwise directs, the vacancy is filled or a period of 12 months from the day on which the vacancy occurred expires, whichever first happens.

(6) The appointment of a person to act as Presiding Member ceases to have effect if the person resigns the appointment by writing signed by the person and delivered to the Minister.

(7) While a person is acting as Presiding Member, the person has and may exercise all the powers, and shall perform all the functions, of the Presiding Member under this Act.

(8) Anything done by or in relation to a person purporting to act under subsection (1) is not invalid on the ground that:

- (a) the occasion for the person's appointment had not arisen;
- (b) there is a defect or irregularity in connection with the person's appointment;
- (c) the person's appointment had ceased to have effect; or
- (d) the occasion for the person to act had not arisen or had ceased.

Casual vacancy

29K. Where a member of the Committee ceases to hold office before the expiration of the term of office of the member of the Committee:

- (a) in the case of the Presiding Member—the Minister may appoint a person to be the Presiding Member until the expiration of that term; or
- (b) in the case of any other member of the Committee—the Minister may appoint a person to be a member until the expiration of that term.

Remuneration and allowances of members of Committee

29L.—

(1) A member of the Committee shall be paid such remuneration as is determined by the Remuneration Tribunal, but, if no determination of that remuneration by the Tribunal is in operation, the member shall be paid such remuneration as is prescribed.

(2) A member shall be paid such allowances as are prescribed.

(3) This section has effect subject to the Remuneration Tribunals Act 1973, other than subsections 7 (9) and (13) of that Act.

Leave of absence

29M.–

(1) The Minister may grant leave of absence to the Presiding Member from a meeting of the Committee.

(2) The Presiding Member may grant leave of absence to another member of the Committee from a meeting of the Committee.

Resignation

29N. A member of the Committee may resign from office by writing signed by the member and delivered to the Minister.

Determination of appointment of members of Committee

29P.–

(1) The Minister may terminate the appointment of a member of the Committee by reason of misbehaviour or physical or mental incapacity.

(2) If a member of the Committee:

- (a) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit;
- (b) fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with his or her obligations under section 29Q; or
- (c) is absent, without leave of absence under section 29M, from 3 consecutive meetings of the Committee;

the Minister shall terminate the appointment of the member of the Committee.

Disclosure of interests by members of Committee

29Q.–

(1) A member of the Committee who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Committee shall, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the knowledge of the member, disclose the nature of that interest at a meeting of the Committee.

(2) A disclosure under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Committee and the member shall not, unless the Minister or the Committee otherwise determines:

- (a) be present during any deliberation of the Committee with respect to that matter; or
- (b) take part in any decision of the Committee with respect to that matter.

(3) For the purpose of the making of a determination by the Committee under subsection (2) in relation to a member who has made a disclosure under subsection (1), a member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the matter to which the disclosure relates shall not:

- (a) be present during any deliberation of the Committee for the purpose of making the determination; or

(b) take part in the making by the Committee of the determination.

(4) A member of the Committee who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Committee in accordance with section 29S shall, as soon as practicable after the relevant facts have come to the knowledge of the member, disclose the nature of that interest to the Minister.

(5) A member of the Committee who is required to make a disclosure under subsection (4) in respect of a matter shall not, unless the Minister otherwise determines, sign a document with respect to that matter in accordance with section 29S.

(6) A member of the Committee who is a winemaker shall not be taken to have a pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Committee by reason only of being a winemaker.

Meetings of Committee

29R.—

(1) Meetings of the Committee shall be held at such times and places as the Committee from time to time determines.

(2) A meeting of the Committee may be called by the Presiding Member.

(3) At a meeting of the Committee, a number one less than the number of members of the Committee constitutes a quorum.

(4) The Presiding Member shall preside at all meetings of the Committee at which the Presiding Member is present.

(5) If the Presiding Member is not present at a meeting of the Committee, the members of the Committee who are present shall elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.

(6) A question arising at a meeting of the Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members of the Committee present and voting.

(7) The member of the Committee presiding at a meeting of the Committee has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, also has a casting vote.

(8) The Committee shall keep minutes of its proceedings.

Resolutions without meetings

29S. Where:

(a) a copy of a document setting out a proposed resolution of the Committee comes into the possession of the number of members of the Committee constituting a quorum; and

(b) a majority of those members sign a copy of the document;

a resolution of the Committee in the terms set out in the document shall be deemed to have been passed at a meeting of the Committee on the day on which the copies of the document were signed or, if the members of the Committee who signed the copies of the document did not sign on the same day, on the latest day on which a copy of the document was signed by such a member.

Staff and consultants

29T.–

(1) The Presiding Member may, on behalf of the Committee, engage persons to perform administrative and clerical services in connection with the performance of its functions.

(2) The Presiding Member may, on behalf of the Committee, engage persons having suitable qualifications and experience as consultants to the Committee to assist the Committee in identifying persons suitable for nomination to the Minister.

(3) The terms and conditions of engagement of persons engaged under subsection (1) or (2) shall be such as are determined by the Committee.

PART IVB—ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE INDUSTRY

Interpretation

29U.–

(1) In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

“eligible winemaker”, in relation to a year, means a person on the list of winemakers prepared in that year;

“Levy Act” means the Wine Grapes Levy Act 1979;

“list of winemakers” means a list of winemakers prepared under section 29V.

(2) For the purposes of this Part and of regulations made for the purposes of this Part, where 2 or more persons become liable to pay levy imposed under the Levy Act because they are members of a partnership or are the trustees of a trust estate, that partnership or trust estate shall be taken to be the person liable to pay that levy.

(3) Where, under this Part, rights are conferred upon a body corporate, a partnership or a trust estate to participate at an annual general meeting, those rights shall be exercised by a natural person appointed, in writing, for the purpose by the body corporate, the members of the partnership or the trustees of the trust estate, as the case may be.

List of winemakers

29V.–

(1) As soon as practicable after 30 September in each year that begins on or after 1 July 1987, the Department shall prepare and give to the Corporation a list of the persons who the Department, at the time of the preparation of the list, knows became liable to pay levy imposed during the immediately preceding year under the Levy Act.

(2) The Corporation shall not use a list of winemakers otherwise than for the purposes of this Part.

Corporation to convene annual general meeting

29W.–

(1) The Corporation shall, within 3 months after the annual report of the Corporation is laid before a House of the Parliament or after the list of winemakers is prepared in the year immediately following the year to which the annual report relates, whichever occurs last, or within such longer period as is approved by the Minister, but not earlier than 42 days after the preparation of that list, cause an annual general meeting of the industry to be convened at a time and place determined by the Corporation.

(2) The Corporation shall, not later than 42 days before the intended day of an annual general meeting in a year, send to each eligible winemaker for that year:

- (a) a notice of the day, time and place of the meeting; and
- (b) a copy of the most recent annual report of the Corporation.

Purpose of annual general meeting

29X. The purpose of an annual general meeting is to provide an opportunity for eligible winemakers:

- (a) to consider the most recent annual report of the Corporation;
- (b) to receive an address by the Chairperson with respect to the performance of the Corporation in the year to which the annual report relates and with respect to the economic outlook for the industry, and the intended activities of the Corporation, in the year next following that year;
- (c) to question the members of the Corporation concerning any aspect of the Corporation's activities during the year to which the annual report relates and any aspect of the intended activities of the Corporation; and
- (d) to debate, and vote upon, any motion relating to a matter within the responsibilities of the Corporation.

Conduct of annual general meeting

29Y.–

(1) An annual general meeting may be attended by:

- (a) the members of the Corporation;
- (b) eligible winemakers for the year in which the meeting is held;
- (c) persons invited by the Corporation to attend the meeting; and
- (d) such members of the staff of the Corporation as the Chairperson determines to be appropriate having regard to the business of the meeting.

(2) The Chairperson shall preside at an annual general meeting at which he or she is present.

(3) The Corporation shall cause a record to be kept of the proceedings of an annual general meeting of the industry.

Voting at annual general meetings

29Z.–

(1) An eligible winemaker for a year is entitled to vote upon any matter to be determined at the annual general meeting in that year and, for the purpose of so voting, to cast such number of votes as is calculated in accordance with a method determined by the regulations, being a method that has regard to the amount of the levy imposed during the immediately preceding year under the Levy Act for which the person became liable that is an amount of levy by reference to which payments are made to the Corporation under section 32.

(2) Regulations may provide for a procedure relating to voting at annual general meetings which will ensure that the amount referred to in subsection (1) for which a person became liable remains confidential.

Minister to be notified of resolutions

29ZA. The Corporation shall, when making a recommendation referred to in subsection 9 (2) of the Levy Act, notify the Minister of any resolution relating to the recommendation passed or defeated at the most recent annual general meeting, of the number of votes cast for the resolution and of the number of votes cast against the resolution.

PART V—STAFF

Employees

30.—

- (1) The Corporation may engage such employees as it thinks necessary for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The terms and conditions of employment (including remuneration) of the person holding the position of principal employee (however described) of the Corporation shall be such as are, subject to the approval of the Minister, determined by the Corporation.
- (3) The terms and conditions of employment (including remuneration) of an employee, other than the employee referred to in subsection (2) shall be such as are determined by the Corporation.

PART VA—OPERATION OF CORPORATION

Division 1—Corporate Plans

Corporation to develop corporate plans

31.—

- (1) The Corporation shall, in accordance with this section, develop, for the purpose of the more effective performance by the Corporation of its functions, a plan:
 - (a) defining what, in the opinion of the Corporation, should be the principal objectives of the Corporation;
 - (b) giving a broad outline of the strategies that should, in the opinion of the Corporation, be pursued in achieving those objectives;
 - (c) setting out the Corporation's assessment, for the period to which the plan relates, of the market outlook and the economic outlook for the industry.

(2) The first corporate plan shall relate to such period, being a period commencing on 1 November 1986 or such later day as the Minister approves and ending on 30 June 1989, 30 June 1990 or 30 June 1991, as the Corporation determines.

(3) Each subsequent corporate plan shall relate to such period, being a period of 3, 4 or 5 years commencing on the 1 July immediately following the end of the period to which the previous plan related, as the Corporation determines.

Agreement to corporate plans

31A.—

(1) The Corporation shall cause a copy of a corporate plan prepared under section 31 to be given to the Minister:

- (a) in the case of the first plan—on or before 1 October 1986 or such later day as the Minister approves; or
- (b) in any other case—at least 3 months before the commencement of the period to which the plan relates.

(2) Where a copy of a corporate plan is given to the Minister, the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the Corporation:

- (a) agree to the plan; or
- (b) if the Minister is of the opinion that, in the interests of the industry or of a particular sector of the industry, the plan should be revised in some respect—request the Corporation to revise the plan appropriately.

(3) The Minister shall include in the notice of request under paragraph (2) (b) a statement setting out the Minister's reasons for making the request.

(4) Where the Corporation receives a request under paragraph (2) (b), the Corporation shall consider the request and statement of reasons, make such revision of the corporate plan as it considers appropriate and re-submit the revised plan to the Minister for the Minister's agreement.

(5) A corporate plan comes into force:

- (a) at the commencement of the period to which the plan relates; or
 - (b) on the day on which the Corporation receives notice of the Minister's agreement;
- whichever is the later.

Variation of corporate plans by Corporation

31B.—

(1) Subject to subsection (4), the Corporation shall not vary a corporate plan of its own motion except with the agreement of the Minister.

(2) Where the Corporation wishes to vary a corporate plan, the Corporation shall prepare written proposals for the variations and give a copy of the proposals to the Minister together with a statement setting out the Corporation's reasons for making the proposals.

(3) The Minister may, after considering proposals for variation of a corporate plan submitted under subsection (2) and the reasons for making those proposals, by notice in writing given to the Corporation, agree to or reject the proposals.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents the Corporation making variations of a minor nature to a corporate plan.

Variations of corporate plans at request of Minister

31C.–

(1) The Minister may, by notice in writing given to the Corporation, request the Corporation to vary a corporate plan in the manner set out in the notice of request.

(2) Where the Minister makes a request under subsection (1), the Minister shall include in the notice of request a statement setting out the Minister's reasons for making the request.

(3) Where the Corporation receives a request under subsection (1), the Corporation shall consider the request and statement of reasons, prepare written proposals for such variation of the plan as the Corporation considers appropriate and submit those proposals to the Minister for the Minister's agreement.

(4) The Minister may, after considering proposals for variation of a corporate plan submitted under subsection (3), by notice in writing given to the Corporation, agree to or reject the proposals.

Date of effect of variations

31D. Where:

- (a) a corporate plan has come into force; and
- (b) a variation to the plan is agreed to by the Minister under section 31B or 31C or the Corporation makes a variation of a minor nature to the plan;

the plan shall continue in force on and after the day on which the Corporation receives notice of the Minister's agreement or the day on which the Corporation makes the variation of a minor nature, as the case may be, as if the Minister had originally agreed to the plan as so varied.

Notice of variation of corporate plans

31E. Where a variation of a corporate plan is agreed to by the Minister in accordance with section 31B or 31C, particulars of the variation shall be included in the annual report of the Corporation for the year in which the variation was made.

Division 2—Annual Operational Plans

Corporation to develop annual operational plans

31F.–

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Corporation shall, in relation to each financial year of a period to which a corporate plan relates or to which an intended corporate plan will relate, develop an annual operational plan setting out particulars of the action that the Corporation intends to take in order to give effect to or further, during that year, the matters set out in that corporate plan.

(2) The first annual operational plan shall relate to the period commencing on the day on which the first corporate plan comes into force and ending on the first 30 June after that day and, for the purposes of the operation of subsection (1) in relation to that first annual operational plan, references in that subsection to a financial year shall be read as references to the period to which that first plan relates.

(3) Each subsequent annual operational plan shall relate to the financial year commencing immediately after the end of the period to which the previous annual operational plan related.

Agreement to annual operational plans

31G.–

(1) The Corporation shall cause a copy of an annual operational plan prepared under section 31F to be given to the Minister:

- (a) in the case of the first plan—on or before 1 October 1986 or such later day as the Minister approves; or
- (b) in any other case—at least 2 months before the commencement of the period to which the plan relates.

(2) Where a copy of an annual operational plan is given to the Minister, the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the Corporation:

- (a) agree to the plan; or
- (b) if the Minister is of the opinion that the plan is inconsistent with the provisions of the corporate plan that relates, or the intended corporate plan that will relate, to a period that includes, or will include, the period to which the first-mentioned plan will relate—request the Corporation to revise the first-mentioned plan appropriately.

(3) The Minister shall include in the notice of a request under paragraph (2) (b) a statement setting out the Minister's reasons for making the request.

(4) Where the Corporation receives a request under paragraph (2) (b), the Corporation shall consider the request and statement of reasons, make such revision of the annual operational plan as it considers appropriate and re-submit the revised plan to the Minister for the Minister's agreement.

(5) An annual operational plan comes into force:

- (a) at the commencement of the period to which the plan relates; or
- (b) on the day on which the Corporation receives notice of the Minister's agreement; whichever is the later.

Variation of annual operational plans

31H.–

(1) Sections 31B, 31C and 31D apply to annual operational plans in the same manner as those sections apply to corporate plans.

(2) Where, if a proposed variation of a corporate plan were to be agreed to by the Minister, a relevant annual operational plan would not be consistent with the provisions of the corporate plan, the Corporation shall, at the time of submitting to the Minister for agreement proposals for variation to the corporate plan, also submit to the Minister proposals for appropriate variations of that annual operational plan.

Notice of variation of annual operational plan

31J. Where a variation of an annual operational plan is agreed to by the Minister in accordance with section 31H, particulars of the variation shall be included in the annual report of the Corporation for the year in which the variation was made.

Division 3—Directions

Directions to Corporation

31K.—

(1) Except as provided by this section, the Corporation is not subject to direction by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Government.

(2) Subject to this section, where the Minister is satisfied that, because of the existence of exceptional circumstances, it is necessary to give a direction to the Corporation in order to ensure that the performance of the functions, or the exercise of the powers, of the Corporation does not conflict with major government policies, the Minister may, by notice in writing to the Corporation, give the direction to the Corporation with respect to the performance of its functions and the exercise of its powers.

(3) The Minister shall not give a direction under subsection (2) unless and until the Minister has given the Chairperson:

- (a) notice in writing that the Minister is contemplating giving the direction; and
 - (b) an adequate opportunity to discuss with the Minister the need for the proposed direction.
- (4) The Corporation shall comply with any direction given under subsection (2).
- (5) Where the Minister gives a direction to the Corporation under subsection (2):
- (a) the Minister shall cause a notice in writing setting out particulars of the direction to be published in the Gazette as soon as practicable after giving the direction;
 - (b) the Minister shall cause a copy of that notice to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of the House after giving the direction;
 - (c) particulars of the direction shall be included in the annual report of the Corporation for the year in which the direction was given; and
 - (d) that report shall include particulars of the impact of that direction on the operations of the Corporation.

PART VI—FINANCE

Payments to Corporation

32. There shall be paid to the Corporation out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is appropriated accordingly, amounts equal to:

- (a) so much of the amounts from time to time received by the Commonwealth as levy under the Wine Grapes Levy Act 1979 as is so received by virtue of subsection 6 (1), other than paragraph 6 (1) (g) of that Act; and

- (b) so much of the amounts (if any) received by the Commonwealth under section 5 of the Wine Grapes Levy Collection Act 1979 or section 15 of the Primary Industries Levies and Charges Collection Act 1991 as is attributable to non-payment of levy referred to in subsection 6 (1), other than paragraph 6 (1) (g), of the Wine Grapes Levy Act 1979.

Payments by Corporation to Commonwealth

33. Where a refund is made by the Commonwealth in accordance with section 7 of the Wine Grapes Levy Collection Act 1979 or section 18 of the Primary Industries Levies and Charges Collection Act 1991 in respect of an amount that has been paid or overpaid to the Commonwealth by way of an amount of levy that is payable to the Commonwealth by virtue of subsection 6 (1), other than paragraph 6 (1) (g), of the Wine Grapes Levy Act 1979, the Corporation shall pay to the Commonwealth an amount equal to the amount of the refund.

Borrowing

34.–

- (1) The Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister:
- (a) borrow money otherwise than from the Commonwealth; or
- (b) raise money otherwise than by borrowing, on terms and conditions that are specified in, or consistent with, the approval.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Corporation may, under that subsection, borrow money, or raise money otherwise than by borrowing, by dealing with securities.
- (3) A borrowing of money, or a raising of money otherwise than by borrowing, under subsection (1), may be made, in whole or in part, in a currency other than Australian currency.
- (4) An approval may be given under subsection (1) in relation to a particular transaction or in relation to transactions included in a class of transactions.
- (5) An approval under subsection (1) shall be given in writing.
- (6) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) the issue by the Corporation of an instrument acknowledging a debt in consideration of:
- (i) the payment or deposit of money; or
- (ii) the provision of credit;
- otherwise than in relation to a transaction that is in the ordinary course of the day-to-day operations of the Corporation shall be deemed to be a raising by the Corporation, otherwise than by borrowing, of an amount of money equal to the amount of the money paid or deposited or the value of the credit provided, as the case may be; and
- (b) the obtaining of credit by the Corporation otherwise than in relation to a transaction that is in the ordinary course of the day-to-day operations of the Corporation shall be deemed to be a raising by the Corporation, otherwise than by borrowing, of an amount of money equal to the value of the credit so obtained.
- (7) In this section, “securities” includes stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, notes, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange and similar instruments or documents.
- (8) A reference in this section to dealing with securities includes a reference to:

- (a) creating, executing, entering into, drawing, making, accepting, indorsing, issuing, discounting, selling, purchasing or re-selling securities;
- (b) creating, selling, purchasing or re-selling rights or options in respect of securities; and
- (c) entering into agreements or other arrangements relating to securities.

Corporation may give security

34A. The Corporation may give security over the whole or any part of its land or other assets for:

- (a) the repayment by the Corporation of money borrowed by the Corporation under paragraph 34 (1) (a) and the payment by the Corporation of interest (including any interest on that interest) on money so borrowed; or
- (b) the payment by the Corporation of amounts (including any interest) that the Corporation is liable to pay with respect to money raised by the Corporation under paragraph 34 (1) (b).

Borrowings not otherwise permitted

34B. The Corporation shall not borrow money, or raise money otherwise than by borrowing, except in accordance with section 34.

Application of money of Corporation

35. Subject to section 36, the moneys of the Corporation may be applied only:

- (a) in payment or discharge of the expenses, charges, obligations and liabilities incurred or undertaken by the Corporation in or in connection with the performance of its functions, or the exercise of its powers, under this Act;
- (aa) in payment or discharge of the expenses, charges, obligations and liabilities incurred or undertaken by the Presiding Member or the Committee in or in connection with the performance of the functions, or the exercise of the powers, of the Committee under this Act;
- (ab) in payment to the Commonwealth of amounts equal to the expenses incurred by the Commonwealth in relation to:
 - (i) the collection or recovery of amounts referred to in paragraph 32 (a) or (b); or
 - (ii) the administration of section 32;
- (b) in payment of any remuneration, allowances, fees or expenses payable under this Act; and
- (c) in making any other payments that the Corporation is authorized or required to make under this Act.

Investment

36. Without limiting the generality of section 63E of the Audit Act 1901 in its application to the Corporation by virtue of section 38 of this Act, moneys of the Corporation not immediately required for the purposes of the Corporation may be invested in securities of, or guaranteed by, the Commonwealth or a State.

Application of Division 2 of Part XI of Audit Act

38.–

- (1) It is hereby declared that the Corporation is a public authority to which Division 2 of Part XI of the Audit Act 1901 applies.
- (2) Division 2 of Part XI of the Audit Act 1901 applies in relation to the Corporation:
 - (a) as if the reference in subsection 63D (1) of that Division to an approved bank or approved banks included a reference to the Reserve Bank of Australia;
 - (b) where an auditor for the Corporation has been appointed under section 38A, as if the references in sections 63G and 63H to the Auditor-General were references to the auditor so appointed; and
 - (c) subject to the modification contained in subsection (3) of this section.
- (3) Section 63H of the Audit Act 1901 applies in relation to the Corporation as if the reference in subsection (1) of that section to as soon as practicable after 30 June in each year were a reference to as soon as practicable after, but not more than 6 months after, 30 June in each year.

Appointment of commercial auditors

38A.–

- (1) The Corporation may request the Minister, in writing, to appoint a company auditor specified in the request to be the auditor of the Corporation.
- (2) Where the Minister receives a request under subsection (1), the Minister shall cause particulars of the request to be given to the Auditor-General.
- (3) Where particulars of a request under subsection (1) are given to the Auditor-General under subsection (2), the Auditor-General shall consider whether or not the company auditor referred to in the request is suitable to be the auditor of the Corporation and shall inform the Minister in writing of the Auditor-General's decision and of the reasons for that decision.
- (4) Where the Auditor-General has informed the Minister that the Auditor-General is satisfied that a company auditor is suitable to be the auditor of the Corporation, the Minister shall cause to be given to the Chairman of the Joint Committee of Public Accounts particulars of the request and of the Auditor-General's advice.
- (5) The Joint Committee of Public Accounts shall consider the advice given by the Auditor-General and shall inform the Minister in writing whether or not the Committee agrees to the appointment of the company auditor as the auditor of the Corporation.
- (6) If the Joint Committee of Public Accounts informs the Minister that it agrees to the appointment of the company auditor as the auditor of the Corporation, the Minister may, in writing, appoint that auditor accordingly.
- (7) Where the Minister makes or refuses to make an appointment under subsection (6), the Minister shall inform the Corporation, in writing, of the Minister's decision and, in the case of a refusal, of the reasons for that decision.
- (8) In this section, "company auditor" means a firm carrying on the business of auditing accounts.

Liability to taxation

39.–

(1) The Corporation is subject to taxation (other than income tax) under the laws of the Commonwealth.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Corporation is not subject to taxation under a law of a State or Territory.

(3) The regulations may provide that subsection (2) does not apply in relation to taxation under a specified law.

PART VIA–LABEL INTEGRITY PROGRAM

Division 1–Preliminary

Object of Part

39A. The object of this Part is to advance the objects of this Act by helping to ensure the truth, and the reputation for truthfulness, of statements made on wine labels, or made for commercial purposes in other ways, about the vintage, variety or region of origin of wine manufactured in Australia.

Operation of Part

39B. Without prejudice to its effect apart from this subsection, this Part has the effect it would have if the references in it to a wine manufacturer were, by express provision, confined to a wine manufacturer who is:

- (a) a foreign corporation, within the meaning of paragraph 51 (xx) of the Constitution; or
- (b) a trading or financial corporation formed within the limits of the Commonwealth, within the meaning of that paragraph; or
- (c) a corporation that is controlled by a corporation described by paragraph (a) or (b); or
- (d) a partnership at least one of the partners in which is a corporation described by paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

Interpretation

39C. In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

“approved” means approved by the Corporation in writing;

“blend” means wine manufactured by blending different wines;

“different wines” means wines that are different because at least one of their characteristics of vintage, variety or region of origin is different;

“direct sale” means a sale of wine to a consumer visiting a winery or ordering the wine from its manufacturer;

“examinable document” means:

- (a) any document required to be kept under this Part; or
- (b) any wine label or other document relating to the vintage, variety or region or origin of wine goods; or
- (c) any document relating to advertising the vintage, variety or region of origin of wine goods;

“geographical area” includes a vineyard, a district and a State, but does not include Australia or a larger area;

“grape extract” means grape juice, must, or concentrate obtained from grapes;

“inspection power”, in relation to wine premises, means:

- (a) power to search any part of the premises; or
- (b) power to inspect, examine, take measurements of, or conduct tests (including by the taking of samples) concerning, any wine goods or other thing on the premises; or
- (c) power to take extracts from, and make copies of, any examinable documents on the premises; or
- (d) power to take onto the premises such equipment and materials as the inspector requires for the purpose of exercising any other inspection power on the premises;

“inspector” means a person appointed under section 39ZA;

“label claim”, in relation to wine goods, means a claim about their vintage, variety or region of origin made on a wine label, in a commercial document or in an advertisement, and includes a claim so made about the vintage, variety or region of origin of wine goods from which they were manufactured;

“label law” means:

- (a) this Part; or
- (b) the regulations; or
- (c) another law of the Commonwealth relating to the description of wine; or
- (d) a law of a State or an internal Territory relating to the description of wine;

“label offence” means an offence against a label law;

“made”, in relation to a claim, includes implied;

“manufacturer”, in relation to wine, means the wine manufacturer who operates the winery where the wine is made;

“manufacturing wine” includes blending different wines;

“package”, in relation to wine, means a container in which the wine is sold or transferred for sale;

“principal employee” means the person holding the position of principal employee (however described) of the Corporation;

“region of origin” means:

- (a) in relation to grapes—any geographical area in which they were grown; or
- (b) in relation to wine or grape extract—any geographical area in which the grapes from which it was obtained were grown;

“single wine” means a wine other than a blend;

“supplier”, in relation to wine goods received by a wine manufacturer, means:

- (a) where the wine manufacturer produced them—the wine manufacturer; or

(b) where another person produced them—the person who supplied them to the wine manufacturer;
“variety”, in relation to wine or grape extract, means the variety of the grapes from which it was obtained;
“vintage” means:

- (a) in relation to grapes—the year in which they were harvested; or
- (b) in relation to wine or grape extract—the year in which the grapes from which it was obtained were harvested;

“wine” includes a grape product declared by the regulations to be wine for the purposes of this Part;

“wine goods” means wine, grapes or grape extract;

“wine label” means a label attached to a bottle or other package of wine and includes that part of a package of wine on which there is writing;

“wine manufacturer” means a person who operates a winery;

“wine premises” means a winery or other premises occupied by a wine manufacturer, and includes premises at which wine goods or examinable documents are held on behalf of a wine manufacturer;

“winery” means an establishment at which:

- (a) wine is manufactured for commercial purposes; or
 - (b) grape extract is manufactured for use in the manufacture of wine for commercial purposes;
- and, in relation to a wine manufacturer, means a winery operated by the manufacturer.

Sales with a label claim

39D.—

(1) For the purposes of this Part, wine is sold with a label claim if a label claim is made in relation to the wine when or before it is sold.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, where a blend is sold with a label claim, the claim not only relates to the blend but also relates to a wine used in the blend unless:

- (a) the claim is one that the blend, or wine used in the blend, has a particular characteristic; and
- (b) the first-mentioned wine does not have, but another wine used in the blend does have, that characteristic.

Penalties

39E.—

(1) Penalties of $15,000 specified in this Part are for offences committed by corporations.

(2) Where a natural person is convicted of any offence against this Part for which such a penalty is specified, the maximum penalty for the offence is $3,000.

Division 2—Records relating to Label Claims

Wine manufacturers to keep records of receipt of wine goods

39F. A wine manufacturer who receives wine goods for processing at the manufacturer's winery must make and keep a record in writing of their receipt showing:

- (a) the date of their receipt; and

Making of records

39S. A requirement of this Division to make a record is a requirement to make the record as soon as it is practicable to do so.

Records to relate to a winery

39T. A requirement of this Division (other than sections 39M and 39R) to make a record includes a requirement to make a record that shows the winery to which the record relates.

Keeping of records

39U. A requirement of this Division to keep a record is a requirement to keep the record for 7 years, or a shorter approved period, after the record is made.

Record of person

39V. For the purposes of this Division, a record of the identity of a person is a record of particulars of the person's name and address that are enough to identify the person.

Characteristics to be recorded

39W. Where, under section 39G, 39H, 39J, 39K, 39M, 39N, 39P, 39Q, or 39R, a record relating to wine or grape extract is to show such characteristics of the wine or extract as are required by this section, the requirement is for the record to show:

- (a) where the section requiring the record applies because of a claim about vintage—the vintage of the wine or extract; or
- (b) where that section applies because of a claim about variety—the variety of the wine or extract; or
- (c) where that section applies because of a claim about region of origin—the region of origin of the wine or extract.

Record of variety

39X.—

(1) For the purposes of this Division, where there is uncertainty about the variety of wine goods, a record showing their variety is a record showing whichever variety the wine manufacturer making the record considers on reasonable grounds most likely to be their variety.

(2) For the purposes of this Division, where a variety of wine goods is known by more than one name, a record showing the variety is a record showing any one of those names.

Record of region of origin

39Y. For the purposes of this Division, a record showing the region of origin of wine goods is a record showing the name or description of any geographical area that is a region of origin of the goods.

Record of blends etc.

39Z.—

(1) For the purposes of this Division, where:

- (a) a wine manufacturer makes only one label claim about wine; and
- (b) the wine is a blend manufactured by blending wine with the characteristic claimed and other wine;

a record showing the characteristic of the blend required because of the claim is a record showing what proportion of the blend is represented by wine with the characteristic claimed.

(2) For the purposes of this Division, where:

- (a) a wine manufacturer makes label claims about 2 or more of the characteristics of wine; and
- (b) the wine is a blend manufactured by blending wine with all the characteristics claimed and other wine;

a record showing the characteristics of the blend required because of the claims is a record showing what proportion of the blend is represented by wine with the characteristics claimed.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), for the purposes of this Division, a record showing the vintage, variety or region of origin of a blend is:

- (a) a record showing what proportions of the blend are represented by each different wine in the blend; and
- (b) a record, in respect of each of those wines, showing its vintage, variety or region of origin, as the case may be.
- (4) For the purposes of this Division, a record showing the vintage, variety or region of origin of grape extract derived from grapes of different vintages, varieties or regions of origin is:
 - (a) a record showing what proportions of the goods are derived from each kind of grape; and
 - (b) a record, in respect of each kind of grape, showing its vintage, variety or region or origin, as the case may be.

Offences in relation to record-keeping

39ZAAA. If a wine manufacturer who is required by this Division to make and keep a record of a matter:

- (a) knowingly or recklessly fails to make or keep the record as required by this Division; or
- (b) knowingly or recklessly makes or keeps a record of the matter that is false, misleading or incomplete in a material particular;

the manufacturer is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $15,000.

Corporation may require records

39ZAA.–

(1) If the Corporation has reason to believe that a wine manufacturer or other person holds or controls a record required by this Division to be made and kept, the Corporation may, by notice in writing served on the person, require the person to produce the record to the Corporation, within the period and in the manner specified in the notice.

(2) The period specified in the notice must not be less than 14 days from the day on which it is served.

(3) The notice must set out the effects of section 39ZAB.

Failure to comply with section 39ZAA notice

39ZAB.–

(1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a notice under section 39ZAA.

Penalty: $15,000.

(2) It is a reasonable excuse for a person to refuse or fail to comply with a notice if complying would tend to incriminate the person.

Corporation may retain records

39ZAC. If a record is produced to the Corporation under section 39ZAA:

- (a) the Corporation may keep it for 60 days, or, if a prosecution for a label offence of whose commission the record may be evidence is instituted within that period, until the completion of the proceedings for the offence and of any appeal from the decision in relation to the proceedings; and
- (b) the Corporation may inspect the record and may make and retain copies of all or part of it; and
- (c) while the Corporation has possession of the record, the Corporation must:
 - (i) allow the record to be inspected at any reasonable time by a person who would be entitled to inspect it if it were not in the Corporation's possession; and
 - (ii) allow such a person to make a copy of the record.

Division 3—Inspection

Appointment of inspectors

39ZA.—

- (1) The principal employee may, on behalf of the Corporation:
 - (a) appoint an eligible person to be an inspector; or
 - (b) appoint a class of eligible persons to be inspectors.
- (2) The appointment of an inspector ceases if he or she ceases to be an eligible person.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the following are eligible persons:
 - (a) employees of the Corporation;
 - (b) officers and employees of the Commonwealth or of authorities of the Commonwealth;
 - (c) officers and employees of a State or internal Territory whom a Minister of the Crown of the State, or Minister of the Territory, has agreed may be appointed as inspectors;
 - (d) officers and employees of a local government body whom the body has agreed may be appointed as inspectors.

Identity cards

39ZB.—

- (1) The principal employee may cause an identity card to be issued to an inspector.
- (2) An identity card must:
 - (a) contain a recent photograph of the inspector to whom it is issued; and
 - (b) be in an approved form.
- (3) An inspector whose appointment ceases must, as soon as practicable, return his or her identity card to the Corporation.

Penalty: $100.

Monitoring powers of inspectors—exercised with consent

39ZC. For the purpose of finding out whether label laws are being complied with, an inspector may, with the consent of, and after producing the inspector's identity card for inspection by, the occupier of wine premises, enter, and exercise inspection powers on, the premises.

Monitoring warrants

39ZD.—

(1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant under this section in relation to particular wine premises.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the magistrate may issue the warrant if the magistrate is satisfied, by information on oath, that it is reasonably necessary that the inspector should have access to the premises for the purpose of finding out whether label laws are being complied with.

(3) The magistrate must not issue the warrant unless the inspector or some other person has given to the magistrate, either orally or by affidavit, such further information (if any) as the magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought.

(4) The warrant must:

- (a) authorise an inspector (whether or not named in the warrant), with such assistance and by such force as is necessary and reasonable:
 - (i) to enter the premises; and
 - (ii) to exercise inspection powers on the premises; and
- (b) state whether the entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night; and
- (c) specify the day (not more than 6 months after the issue of the warrant) on which the warrant ceases to have effect; and
- (d) state the purpose for which the warrant is issued.

Offence powers of inspectors—exercised with consent

39ZE.—

(1) Where an inspector has reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is on wine premises a particular thing that may afford evidence of the commission of a label offence, the inspector may, with the consent of, and after producing the inspector's identity card for inspection by, the occupier of the premises, enter, and exercise inspection powers on, the premises.

(2) An inspector who has entered premises under subsection (1) must leave them if requested to do so by their occupier.

Offence related warrants

39ZF.—

(1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant under this section in relation to particular wine premises.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the magistrate may issue the warrant if the magistrate is satisfied, by information on oath, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, or there may be within the next 72 hours, on the premises a particular thing that may afford evidence of the commission of a label offence.

(3) The magistrate must not issue the warrant unless the inspector or some other person has given to the magistrate, either orally or by affidavit, such further information (if any) as the magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought.

(4) The warrant must:

- (a) state the name of the inspector; and
- (b) authorise the inspector, with such assistance and by such force as is necessary and reasonable:
 - (i) to enter the place; and
 - (ii) to exercise inspection powers on the premises; and
 - (iii) to seize the thing that might afford evidence; and
- (c) state whether the entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night; and
- (d) specify the day (not more than 7 days after the issue of the warrant) on which the warrant ceases to have effect; and
- (e) state the purpose for which the warrant is issued.

Discovery of evidence

39ZG.—

(1) Where an inspector enters wine premises under a warrant under section 39ZF and finds the thing (in this section called the “evidence”) that may afford evidence of the commission of a label offence and which the inspector entered to find:

- (a) the inspector may seize the evidence; and
- (b) the inspector may keep the evidence for 60 days, or, if a prosecution for a label offence in the commission of which the evidence may have been used or otherwise involved is instituted within that period, until the completion of the proceedings for the offence and of any appeal from the decision in relation to the proceedings; and
- (c) if the evidence is a book, record or document—while the inspector has possession of the evidence, the inspector must:
 - (i) allow the evidence to be inspected at any reasonable time by a person who would be entitled to inspect it if it were not in the inspector’s possession; and
 - (ii) allow such a person to make a copy of the evidence.

(2) If in the course of searching wine premises entered under section 39ZE or a warrant under section 39ZF, the inspector:

- (a) finds a thing that the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds to be:
 - (i) a thing (other than the evidence) that will afford evidence of the commission of the label offence mentioned in subsection (1); or
 - (ii) a thing that will afford evidence of the commission of another label offence; and
- (b) the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to seize the thing to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction;

subsection (1) applies to the thing as if it were the evidence.

Power to require persons to answer questions and produce documents

39ZH.–

(1) An inspector who is on wine premises that the inspector has entered under a warrant issued under section 39ZD or 39ZF may require any person on the premises to:

- (a) answer any questions put by the inspector; and
- (b) produce any examinable documents requested by the inspector.

(2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (1).

Penalty: $3,000.

(3) It is a reasonable excuse for a person to refuse or fail to answer a question or produce a document if answering the question, or producing the document would tend to incriminate the person.

Division 4–Use of Records and Results of Inspection

Corporation to assist enforcement of laws on description of wine

39ZJ.–

(1) For the purpose of achieving the object of this Part, the Corporation may give information obtained under this Part or section 42, and other assistance, to:

- (a) the Trade Practices Commission; or
 - (b) a Department of, or an authority or other body established for a public purpose by, the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory with responsibilities relating to the labelling, description or quality of wine; or
 - (c) a person prosecuting, or taking other proceedings against, or proposing to prosecute or take other proceedings against, a person in relation to the false description of the vintage, variety or region of origin of any wine.
- (2) This section does not limit any powers and duties of the Corporation.

Proceedings not to lie against Corporation etc.

39ZK. No proceedings lie against:

- (a) the Corporation; or
- (b) a member of the Corporation; or
- (c) an employee of the Corporation; or
- (d) an inspector;

in relation to any loss incurred or damage suffered because of information or assistance given under section 39ZH.

Corporation may assist in relation to levy

39ZL.–

(1) For the purpose of assisting, and achieving administrative savings in connection with, the calculation and collection of levy imposed by the Wine Grapes Levy Act 1979 or the Grape Research Levy Act 1986, the Corporation may, with the consent of a wine manufacturer, give to a Department of the Commonwealth with responsibilities relating to the levy information kept by, or held on behalf of, the manufacturer that is obtained by the Corporation under this Part or under section 42.

(2) A wine manufacturer is to be taken to have consented to the giving of information under subsection (1) where the occupier of the wine premises where the information is kept or held gave such consent.

PART VII–MISCELLANEOUS

Remuneration and allowances of members of Corporation etc.

40.²

(1) This section applies to a person who is:

- (a) a member; or
- (c) a member of a committee constituted under section 11 other than a member of the Corporation.

(2) Subject to this section, a person to whom this section applies shall be paid such remuneration as is determined by the Remuneration Tribunal, but, if no determination of that remuneration by the Tribunal is in operation, the person shall be paid such remuneration as is prescribed.

(3) Subject to this section, a person to whom this section applies shall be paid such allowances as are prescribed.

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) have effect subject to the Remuneration Tribunals Act 1973.

(5) Payments under this section shall be made out of the funds of the Corporation.

(6) If:

- (a) a person to whom this section applies is also a member of, or a candidate for election to, the Parliament of a State; and
- (b) under the law of that State the person would not be eligible to remain, or to be elected as, a member of that Parliament if he or she were entitled to remuneration under this Act;

the person shall not be paid remuneration or allowances under this Act but shall be reimbursed such expenses as the person reasonably incurs because of the person's performing the functions of the office under this Act held by the person.

(7) If a person to whom this section applies is also:

- (a) a member of the Parliament of a State (other than a State referred to in subsection (6)); or
- (b) in the service or employment of a State or an authority of a State, or holds or performs the duties of any office or position established by or under a law of a State, on a full-time basis;

it is a condition of the person's holding the office under this Act held by the person that the person pay to the State, within one month of receiving an amount of remuneration under this Act, an amount equal to that first-mentioned amount, and the person:

- (c) shall not be paid allowances under this Act; and
- (d) shall be reimbursed such expenses as the person reasonably incurs because of the person's performing the functions of the office under this Act held by the person.
- (8) An amount payable to a State by a person under subsection (7) is a debt due to the State and the State may recover that amount by action against the person in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (9) In this section:
 - “Parliament”, in relation to the Northern Territory, means the Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory;
 - “State” includes the Northern Territory.

Indemnity

41. A member is not personally liable for an act or default of the Corporation or of the member acting as such.

Corporation may require information

42.–

(1) The Corporation may, by notice in writing given, or sent by post, to a person, require the person to furnish, within such time as is specified in the notice not being less than 14 days, such information, in addition to any other information that the person is required to furnish under this Act or any other Act, in relation to the production of prescribed goods or grape products to matters relating to the description of wine, other than matters about which records are required to be kept under Part VIA, or to prescribed goods or grape products owned by the person or under the person's control as is specified in the notice.

(2) A person shall not, without reasonable excuse, fail or neglect duly to furnish information that the person is required to furnish by virtue of a notice given, or sent by post, to the person under subsection (1).

(3) A person is not excused from furnishing information that the person is required to furnish by virtue of a notice given, or sent by post, to the person under subsection (1) on the ground that the information might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty, but any information so furnished is not admissible in evidence against the person in proceedings other than proceedings for an offence against subsection (4).

(4) A person shall not furnish to the Corporation information that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Penalty:

- (a) in the case of a natural person—imprisonment for 6 months; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate—$5,000.

Delegation

43.–

(1) The Corporation may, either generally or as otherwise provided by the instrument of delegation, by writing under its common seal, delegate to a person or to a committee established under section 11 any of its powers under this Act, other than this power of delegation.

(2) A power so delegated, when exercised by the delegate, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been exercised by the Corporation.

(3) A delegation under this section does not prevent the exercise of a power by the Corporation.

Offences in relation to export of grape products

44. A person shall not export a grape product from Australia in contravention of the regulations.

Penalty:

- (a) in the case of a natural person—$6,000; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate—$10,000.

Conduct by directors, servants or agents

44A.—

(1) Where, in proceedings for an offence against this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show:

- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by a director, servant or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
- (b) that the director, servant or agent had the state of mind.

(2) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate by a director, servant or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority is to be taken, for the purposes of a prosecution for an offence against this Act, to have been engaged in also by the body corporate unless the body corporate establishes that it took reasonable precautions to avoid the conduct.

(3) Where, in proceedings for an offence against this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a natural person in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show:

- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by a servant or agent of the person within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
- (b) that the servant or agent had the state of mind.

(4) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a natural person by a servant or agent of the person within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority is to be taken, for the purposes of a prosecution for an offence against this Act, to have been engaged in also by the first-mentioned person unless the first-mentioned person establishes that the first-mentioned person took reasonable precautions to avoid the conduct.

(5) Where:

- (a) a natural person is convicted of an offence; and
- (b) the person would not have been convicted of the offence if subsections (3) and (4) had not been enacted;

the person is not liable to be punished by imprisonment for that offence.

(6) A reference in subsection (1) or (3) to the state of mind of a person includes a reference to:

- (a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and

(b) the person's reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

(7) A reference in this section to a director of a body corporate includes a reference to a constituent member of a body corporate incorporated for a public purpose by a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory.

(8) A reference in this section to engaging in conduct includes a reference to failing or refusing to engage in conduct.

(9) A reference in this section to an offence against this Act includes a reference to:

(a) an offence created by the regulations; and

(b) an offence created by section 6, 7 or 7A, or subsection 86 (1), of the Crimes Act 1914, being an offence that related to the Act or the regulations.

Operation of certain laws not restricted

45. Nothing in this Act or the regulations restricts the operation of the Customs Act 1901, the Commerce (Trade Descriptions) Act 1905 or the Export Control Act 1982, or of any regulations made under any one or more of those Acts.

Regulations

46.–

(1) The Governor-General may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act, and, in particular:

- (a) making provision with respect to annual general meetings including, in particular, provisions in respect of:
- (i) the giving of notice of motions to be moved at such meetings;
 - (ii) the moving of motions at such meetings by the Corporation;
 - (iii) the procedure at such meetings;
 - (iv) the appointment by persons entitled to attend such meetings of other persons to be their proxies at such meetings; and
 - (v) the means of determining whether or not motions voted upon at such meetings have been passed;
- (c) prohibiting the export of a grape product from Australia except subject to and in accordance with prescribed conditions, including, in particular:
- (i) conditions requiring an exporter to be the holder of a licence to export the grape product;
 - (ii) conditions requiring an exporter to obtain the approval of the Corporation for particular exports of the grape product;
 - (iii) conditions requiring the purchaser of the grape product, or the person to whom the grape product is consigned as an agent or representative of the purchaser or exporter in the country to which the grape product is consigned, to be a person approved by the Corporation; or
 - (iv) conditions relating to the price, or form of consignment, of the grape product;
- (d) making provision with respect to:

- (i) the grant, suspension or cancellation by the Corporation, or a person authorized by it, of licences to export a grape product from Australia; and
 - (ii) the issuing or revocation by the Corporation, or by a person authorized by it, in respect of particular exports of a grape product, of certificates as to compliance with the conditions subject to which the grape product may be exported;
- (e) providing for the period for which a licence, or a licence included in a class of licences, granted under the regulations remains in force;
- (f) authorizing the Corporation, or a person authorized by it:
 - (i) to determine prices or other matters for the purposes of the regulations; or
 - (ii) to give to the holder of a licence to export a grape product granted under the regulations directions, in writing, with respect to the quantities of the grape product that may be exported by the holder of the licence either generally or otherwise as provided in the regulations;
- (g) requiring persons to furnish returns and information necessary for the purposes of this Act; and

 - (i) if the person is a natural person, a fine not exceeding $1,000; or
 - (ii) if the person is a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $5,000;for offences against the regulations.

PART VIII—REPEAL OF CERTAIN ACTS AND CONSEQUENT TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Interpretation

47. In this Part, “Board” means the Australian Wine Board established by the Wine Overseas Marketing Act 1929.—

Repeal of certain Acts

48. The Acts specified in the Schedule are repealed.

Rights etc. of Board to vest in Corporation etc.

49.—

- (1) Upon the commencing date:
 - (a) any rights, property or assets that, immediately before that date, were vested in the Board are, by force of this subsection, vested in the Corporation; and
 - (b) the Corporation becomes, by force of this subsection, liable to pay and discharge any debts, liabilities or obligations of the Board that existed immediately before that date.
- (2) An arrangement or contract entered into by or on behalf of the Board as a party and in force immediately before the commencing date continues in force, notwithstanding the repeal of the Acts specified in the Schedule, but that arrangement or contract has effect, on and after the commencing date, as if:

- (a) the Corporation were substituted for the Board as a party to the arrangement or contract; and
- (b) any reference in the arrangement or contract to the Board were (except in relation to matters that occurred before that date) a reference to the Corporation.

(3) Where, immediately before the commencing date, proceedings to which the Board was a party were pending in any court, the Corporation is, by force of this subsection, substituted for the Board as a party to the proceedings and has the same rights in the proceedings as the party for which it is substituted.

Instrument etc. not liable to stamp duty etc.

50. An instrument or document that the Secretary to the Department of Primary Industry or an officer of that Department authorized by him in writing for the purpose of this section certifies to have been made, executed or given by reason of, or for a purpose connected with or arising out of, the operation of this Part is not liable to stamp duty or other tax under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory.

Application of moneys of Corporation

51. The moneys of the Corporation may be applied in payment or discharge of the debts, liabilities and obligations referred to in paragraph 49 (1) (b).

Moneys to be paid to Corporation in respect of levy etc.

52. There shall be paid to the Corporation out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is appropriated accordingly, an amount equal to the aggregate of any amounts received by the Commonwealth, before the commencing date:

- (a) as charge under the Wine Grapes Charges Act 1929 (including that Act in its application by virtue of subsection 3 (2) of the Wine Grapes Charges (Repeal) Act 1979;
- (b) as levy under the Wine Grapes Levy Act 1979; or
- (c) as penalties under section 5 of the Wine Grapes Levy Collection Act 1979;

that have not been taken into account in making a payment to the Board under subsection 21 (1) of the Wine Overseas Marketing Act 1929, less an amount equal to the aggregate of any amounts to be paid by the Commonwealth by way of refund under section 7 of the Wine Grapes Levy Collection Act 1979 in respect of any amounts so received.

Employees of Board

53.–

(1) A person who, immediately before the commencing date, was employed by the Board shall, by virtue of this subsection, be deemed to be, on that date, engaged as an employee of the Corporation under section 30.

(2) Terms and conditions of employment applicable to a person referred to in subsection (1) immediately before the commencing date shall, by virtue of this subsection, be deemed to be terms and conditions of employment determined under subsection 30 (2), but those terms and conditions may, at any time after the commencing date, be varied under that subsection.

Report on operations of Board

54.–

(1) The Corporation shall, not later than 6 months after the commencing date, prepare and submit to the Minister a report on the operation of the Wine Overseas Marketing Act 1929 during the period that:

- (a) commenced immediately after the expiration of the last period in respect of which a report was submitted by the Board to the Minister in pursuance of section 29 of that Act; and
- (b) ended immediately before the commencing date.

(2) The Minister shall cause a copy of the report, together with a statement by the Minister regarding the operation of the Wine Overseas Marketing Act 1929 during the period to which the report relates, to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after the receipt of the report by the Minister.

(3) The persons who, immediately before the commencing date, were members of the Board shall furnish to the Corporation such information as is necessary to enable the Corporation to prepare the report.

Regulations

55. The regulations may make provision for and in relation to the continued effect, for the purposes of the regulations, of licences and certificates in force, immediately before the commencing date, under regulations made for the purposes of the Wine Overseas Marketing Act 1929.–
