Regulation 1.1

Part 1 Preliminary

1.1 Name of regulations [see Note 1]

These Regulations are the Trade Marks Regulations 1995.

1.2 Commencement

These Regulations commence on 1 January 1996.

Part 2 Interpretation

2.1 Interpretation

In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears:

ACCC means the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission established under the Trade Practices Act 1974.

accredited course of study means a course of study that is accredited by the Board under regulation 20.2A of the Patents Regulations 1991.

Act means the Trade Marks Act 1995.

certificate of verification means a statement:

- (a) that a document to which the statement relates:
  - (i) has been translated by a person who is proficient in both the language from which the document has been translated into English and English; and
  - (ii) is a true and complete translation of the accompanying document to the best of the knowledge of the person who signs the statement; and
- (b) that is dated and signed.

earlier application, in relation to an application for the registration of a trade mark for which a right of priority is claimed, means an application for the registration of that trade mark in a Convention country:

- (a) that was filed, at the trade marks office (or its equivalent) of that Convention country, before the application for which the right of priority is claimed; and
- (b) on which the claim for the right of priority is based.

International Register has the meaning given by regulation 17A.2.

international registration has the meaning given by regulation 17A.2.

IRDA has the meaning given by regulation 17A.2.

Madrid Protocol means the Protocol Relating to the Madrid Agreement concerning the International Registration of Marks, as signed at Madrid on 28 June 1989.

month, for a period with a length expressed in months, has the meaning given by regulation 2.2.

priority date, for a trade mark that is the subject of an IRDA or a protected international trade mark, has the meaning given by regulation 17A.3.

protected international trade mark has the meaning given by regulation 17A.2.

Record of International Registrations has the meaning given by regulation 17A.2.

2.2 Period expressed in months

In these Regulations, a period expressed in months and dating from an event, ends:

- (a) on the day, in the relevant subsequent month, which has the same number as the day of the event; or
- (b) if the relevant subsequent month has no day with the same number — on the last day of the month.

Note This provision displaces section 36 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, and is in accordance with the Madrid Protocol. The difference between the two occurs when the initiating event is on the last day of a calendar month, which has fewer days than the month in which the period ends. For example, a period of 3 months from an event on 30 September ends on 30 December under this rule; it would end on 31 December under the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 provision.

Part 3                      Trade marks and trade mark rights

3.1            Classification of goods and services

- (1) For the purposes of subsection 19 (3) of the Act (which deals with the classification of goods and services):

  - (b) services are divided into the classes of services described in column 2 of Part 2 of Schedule 1.
- (2) Each class of goods or services described in Schedule 1 has:
  - (a) a class number corresponding to the item number of that class in column 1 of Part 1 or 2 of Schedule 1; and
  - (b) a class heading corresponding to the description of that class in column 2 of Part 1 or 2 of Schedule 1.

3.2            Period in which action for infringement may be brought

For the purposes of paragraph 26 (1) (b) of the Act (which deals with powers of the authorised user of a trade mark), the prescribed period is 2 months from the day on which the authorised user of a trade mark asks the registered owner of the trade mark to bring an action for infringement of the trade mark.

Regulation 3A.1

- (a) the Registrar has deferred acceptance of an application for registration of a trade mark under subsection 33 (3) of the Trade Marks Act 1955; and
- (b) the deferment was in force immediately before the commencement of these regulations;
