Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) Act 1995

No. 90 of 1995

Version incorporating amendments as at 3 November 2014

The Parliament of Victoria enacts as follows:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to give effect to the Commonwealth/State/Territory scheme for the classification of publications, films and computer games set out in the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 of the Commonwealth by—

- (a) providing for the enforcement of classification decisions made under that Act; and
- (b) prohibiting the publishing of certain publications, films and computer games; and
- (c) prohibiting certain material on on-line information services.

2 Commencement

- (1) Part 1 comes into operation on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the remaining provisions of this Act come into operation on a day or days to be proclaimed.

- (3) If a provision referred to in subsection (2) does not come into operation within the period of 12 months beginning on, and including, the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent, it comes into operation on the first day after the end of that period.

No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.2(c)(i)).

- (5) A police officer must not, in response to a request under subsection (4)—

- (a) refuse or fail to comply with the request; or
- (b) state a name or rank that is false in a material particular; or
- (c) state as his or her place of duty an address other than the name of the police station which is the police officer's ordinary place of duty; or
- (d) refuse to comply with the request in writing if requested to do so.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

S. 21(6)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.2(d)).

- (6) If a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that any of the particulars given by a person under subsection (1) are false, the police officer may require the person to produce within a reasonable time evidence of the correctness of the particulars given by the person.
- (7) A person must not fail or refuse to produce satisfactory evidence of the correctness of particulars required under subsection (6).

Penalty: 1 penalty unit.

(8) If—

- (a) a film is about to be exhibited in a public place in contravention of this Part; and
- (b) a demand under subsection (1) is made to a person attending the exhibition; and
- (c) the person immediately leaves the public place after the demand is made—the person is not guilty of an offence against subsection (3).

22 Leaving films in certain places

(1) A person must not leave in a public place or, without the occupier's permission, on private premises—

- (a) a film classified RC, X 18+, R 18+ or MA 15+; or

39 Private demonstration of RC and R 18+ computer games in presence of a minor

amended by
No. 72/2012
s. 6(2)(3).

- (1) A person must not demonstrate in a place, other than a public place, in the presence of a minor a computer game classified RC or R 18+ or an unclassified computer game which would, if classified, be classified RC or R 18+.

Penalty:

- (a) if the computer game is classified, or is subsequently classified, R 18+—40 penalty units;
- (b) if the computer game is classified, or is subsequently classified, RC—240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) to prove that—

S. 39(2)(a)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 20.13).

- (a) the accused believed on reasonable grounds that the minor was an adult; or
- (b) the parent or guardian of the minor consented to the minor being present at the demonstration of the computer game.

40 Computer games to bear determined markings and consumer advice

- (1) A person must not sell a computer game unless the determined markings relevant to the classification of the computer game and relevant consumer advice, if any, are displayed on the container, wrapping or casing of the computer game.

Penalty: in the case of a natural person,
20 penalty units;
in the case of a body corporate,
50 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not sell an unclassified computer game if the container, wrapping or casing in which the computer game is sold bears a marking that indicates or suggests that the computer game has been classified.

Penalty: in the case of a natural person,
20 penalty units;
in the case of a body corporate,
50 penalty units.

- (3) A person must not sell a classified computer game if the container, wrapping or casing in which the computer game is sold bears a marking that indicates or suggests that the computer game is unclassified or has a different classification.

Penalty: in the case of a natural person,
20 penalty units;
in the case of a body corporate,
50 penalty units.

- (3A) A person must not make a computer game available for playing on a pay and play basis (for example, a coin operated arcade game) unless the determined markings relevant to the classification of the computer game and relevant consumer

(3B) If two or more computer games are available for playing on a device referred to in subsection (3A), the determined markings and consumer advice to be displayed on the device are those relevant to the computer game with the highest classification under the Commonwealth Act.

substituted by
No. 69/2001
s. 11(2).

(4) If—
(a) a computer game is reclassified under section 39 of the Commonwealth Act; or
(b) the Board revokes a classification or consumer advice for a computer game under section 22B(3) of that Act—display of the determined markings and consumer advice applicable to the computer game before that reclassification or revocation is sufficient compliance with this section for a period of 14 days after the decision to reclassify or revoke takes effect.

41 Keeping unclassified or RC computer games with other computer games

(1) If a person keeps or possesses an unclassified computer game or a computer game classified RC on any premises where classified computer games are sold or demonstrated, the person and the occupier of the premises are each guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by—

- (a) if the computer game is subsequently classified MA 15+—a fine not exceeding 60 penalty units or imprisonment not exceeding 6 months; S. 41(1)(a) amended by No. 6/2005 s. 6(e).
- (ab) if the computer game is subsequently classified R 18+—a fine not exceeding 120 penalty units or imprisonment not exceeding 1 year; S. 41(1)(ab) inserted by No. 72/2012 s. 7.
- (b) if the computer game is classified, or is subsequently classified, RC—a fine not exceeding 240 penalty units or imprisonment not exceeding 2 years;
- (c) in any other case—30 penalty units.
- (2) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) to prove that the accused did not know, and could not reasonably have known, that the computer game was on the premises. S. 41(2) amended by No. 68/2009 s. 97(Sch. item 20.14).

42 Sale or delivery of certain computer games to minors

 - (b) the parent or guardian of the minor had consented to the sale or delivery.

43 Power to demand name, age and address

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.3(a)).

- (1) A police officer who has reasonable cause to suspect that a person to whom a computer game is being or is about to be demonstrated, sold or delivered has contravened or is about to contravene a provision of this Part may demand the person's name, age and address.

- (2) A police officer who makes a request under subsection (1) must inform the person of the grounds for his or her suspicion in sufficient detail to allow the person to understand the nature of the contravention.
- (3) Subject to subsection (8), a person must not give false particulars or fail or refuse to give satisfactory particulars demanded under subsection (1).
- Penalty: 5 penalty units.
- (4) A person who is requested by a police officer under subsection (1) to state his or her name, age and address may request the police officer to state, orally or in writing, his or her name, rank and place of duty.
- (5) A police officer must not, in response to a request under subsection (4)—
- (a) refuse or fail to comply with the request; or
 - (b) state a name or rank that is false in a material particular; or
 - (c) state as his or her place of duty an address other than the name of the police station which is the police officer's ordinary place of duty; or
 - (d) refuse to comply with the request in writing if requested to do so.
- Penalty: 5 penalty units.
- (6) If a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that any of the particulars given by a person under subsection (1) are false, the police officer may require the person to produce within a reasonable time evidence of the correctness of the particulars given by the person.

57 Publication or transmission of objectionable material

(1) A person must not use an on-line information service to publish or transmit, or make available for transmission, objectionable material.

Penalty: 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(2) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) to prove that the accused believed on reasonable grounds that the material was not objectionable material.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who provides an on-line information service or a telecommunication service unless the person creates or knowingly downloads or copies objectionable material.

(4) Nothing in subsection (1) makes it an offence for—

(a) any member or officer of a law enforcement agency; or

(b) a person authorised in writing by the Chief Commissioner of Police who is assisting a member or officer; or

72/2012 s. 19
(ILA s. 39B(1)).

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) makes it an offence for—
- (a) any member or officer of a law enforcement agency; or
- (b) a person authorised in writing by the Chief Commissioner of Police who is assisting a member or officer; or
- (c) a person belonging to a class of persons authorised in writing by the Chief Commissioner of Police who is assisting a member or officer—

inserted by
No. 72/2012
s. 19.

to do anything referred to in subsection (1) in the exercise or performance of a power, function or duty conferred or imposed on the member or officer by or under this or any other Act or at common law.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a minor (A) if—
- (a) the objectionable material is an image; and
 - (b) the image depicts A alone or with an adult; and
 - (c) the image is child pornography because of its depiction of A.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a minor (A) if—
- (a) the objectionable material is an image; and
 - (b) the image depicts A with another minor; and
 - (c) the image is child pornography because of its depiction of A or another minor; and
 - (d) where the image is child pornography because of its depiction of a minor other than A, at the time at which the image is published or transmitted, or made available for transmission—
 - (i) A is not more than 2 years older than the youngest minor whose depiction in the image makes it child pornography; or
 - (ii) A believes on reasonable grounds that they are not more than 2 years older than the youngest minor whose depiction in the image makes it child pornography; and
 - (e) the image does not depict an act that is a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment.

inserted by
No. 74/2014
s. 28.

S. 57A(4)
inserted by
No. 74/2014
s. 28.

Example

The image depicts the minor (A) taking part in an act of sexual penetration with another minor who is not more than 2 years younger. Both are consenting to the act. The offence in subsection (1) does not apply to A in respect of the image.

(5) Subsection (1) does not apply to a minor (A) if—

- (a) the objectionable material is an image; and
- (b) the image depicts A alone or with another person; and
- (c) the image depicts an act that is a criminal offence; and
- (d) A is a victim of that offence.

S. 57A(5)
inserted by
No. 74/2014
s. 28.

Example

The image depicts the minor (A) being raped by another person. The offence in subsection (1) does not apply to A in respect of the image.

(6) Subsection (1) does not apply to a minor (A) if—

- (a) the objectionable material is an image; and
- (b) the image does not depict A; and
- (c) the image—
 - (i) does not depict an act that is a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment; or
 - (ii) depicts an act that is a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment but A believes on reasonable grounds that it does not; and
- (d) at the time at which the image is published or transmitted, or made available for transmission—
 - (i) A is not more than 2 years older than the youngest minor whose depiction in the image makes it child pornography; or
 - (ii) A believes on reasonable grounds that they are not more than 2 years older than the youngest minor whose depiction in the image makes it child pornography.

inserted by
No. 74/2014
s. 28.

Example

The image depicts a minor being sexually penetrated. A believes on reasonable grounds that they are not more than 2 years older than the minor is at the time at which the image is transmitted. The offence in subsection (1) does not apply to A in respect of the image.

- (7) In subsections (4) and (6), a reference to the age of the youngest minor whose depiction in the image makes it child pornography is a reference to the age of that minor at the time at which the image was made or produced.
- (8) The accused bears the burden of proving (on the balance of probabilities) the matter referred to in subsection (4)(d)(ii) or (6)(c)(ii) or (d)(ii).
- (9) In this section—
child pornography has the meaning given by section 67A of the Crimes Act 1958.

(b) the accused—

- (i) did not know and could not reasonably have known that the person to whom the material was published or transmitted, or made available for transmission, was a minor under 15; and
- (ii) had taken reasonable steps to prevent publishing or transmitting, or making available for transmission, the material to a minor under 15.

(6) Subsection (4) does not apply to a person who provides an on-line information service or a telecommunication service unless the person knowingly publishes, transmits or makes available for transmission to a minor under 15 material unsuitable for minors under 15.

amended by
No. 72/2012
s. 20 (ILA
s. 39B(1)).

59 Advertising of objectionable material etc.

(1) A person must not—

- (a) publish an advertisement or notice; or
- (b) transmit, or make available for transmission, on an on-line information service an advertisement or notice; or
- (c) knowingly allow an on-line information service to be used for publishing or transmitting, or making available for transmission, an advertisement or notice—that objectionable material is available for on-line computer access.

Penalty: 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) makes it an offence for—
- (a) any member or officer of a law enforcement agency; or
 - (b) a person authorised in writing by the Chief Commissioner of Police who is assisting a member or officer; or
 - (c) a person belonging to a class of persons authorised in writing by the Chief Commissioner of Police who is assisting a member or officer—

item 19.6).

69 Entry, search and seizure

A police officer may enter any place, and may search for and seize anything that the police officer believes on reasonable grounds to be connected with an offence against this Act that is found on or in the place if the entry, search and seizure are made—

- (a) with the informed consent of the occupier of the place; or
- (b) in accordance with a warrant issued under section 71.

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.7).

70 Informed consent

S. 70(1)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.8).

- (1) An occupier of any place gives informed consent to a request to enter and search the place if he or she consents to the request after a police officer informs the occupier—
 - (a) of the purpose of the search; and
 - (b) that anything seized during the search may be used in evidence in court; and
 - (c) that the occupier may refuse to give consent to the entry and search.

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.8).

- (2) If an occupier consents to an entry and search, the police officer who requested consent must ask the occupier to sign an acknowledgment in the prescribed form stating—
 - (a) that the occupier has been informed of the purpose of the search and that anything seized during the search may be used in evidence in court; and
 - (b) that the occupier has been informed that he or she may refuse to give consent to the entry and search; and
 - (c) that the occupier has given such consent; and
 - (d) the date and time of the giving of such consent.
- (3) An occupier who signs an acknowledgment must be given a copy of the signed acknowledgment immediately.
- (4) If, in any proceeding, an acknowledgment is not produced to the court, it must be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the occupier did not consent to an entry and search.

71 Search warrant

- (1) A police officer may apply to a magistrate for the issue of a search warrant in relation to a particular place if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that there is or has been or will be a contravention of this Act on or in the place. S. 71(1) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 19.9(a)).
- (2) If a magistrate is satisfied by the evidence, on oath or by affidavit, of a police officer that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, or may be within the next 28 days, a thing or things of a particular kind connected with an offence against this Act on or in a place, the magistrate may issue in accordance with the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 a search warrant authorising a police officer named in the warrant—
- (a) to enter the place specified in the warrant, if necessary by force; and
- (b) to search for and seize a thing named or described in the warrant and which the police officer believes on reasonable grounds to be connected with the offence. S. 71(2)(b) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 19.9(b)(i)(ii)).
- (3) A search warrant issued under this section must state—
- (a) the purpose for which the search is required and the nature of the offence suspected; and
- (b) any conditions to which the warrant is subject; and
- (c) whether entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or night or during stated hours of the day or night; and
- (d) a day, not later than 28 days after the issue of the warrant, on which the warrant ceases to have effect. S. 71(2)(b) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 19.9(b)(iii)).

- (4) Except as provided by this Act, the rules to be observed with respect to search warrants mentioned in the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 extend and apply to warrants under this section.

72 Announcement before entry

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.10(a)).

- (1) On executing a search warrant, the police officer executing the warrant must announce that he or she is authorised by the warrant to enter the place and, if the police officer has been unable to obtain unforced entry, must give any person at the place an opportunity to allow entry to the place.

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.10(b)).

- (2) A police officer need not comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the place is required to ensure the safety of any person or that the effective execution of the search warrant is not frustrated.

73 Details of warrant to be given to occupier

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.11).

If the occupier or another person who apparently represents the occupier is present at premises when a search warrant is being executed, the police officer must—

- (a) identify himself or herself to that person; and
- (b) give to the person a copy of the warrant.

74 Seizure of things not mentioned in warrant

S. 74
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 19.12).

If, in the course of executing a search warrant, a police officer finds a thing that he or she believes on reasonable grounds to be—

- (a) connected with the offence although not the thing, or kind of thing, named or described in the warrant; or

(b) connected with another offence against this Act—and the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to seize that thing in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction, or its use in committing, continuing or repeating the offence or the other offence, the warrant is deemed to authorise the police officer to seize the thing.

75 Forfeiture

(1) If a person is charged with an offence in relation to—

(a) a film classified RC or X 18+; or

S. 75(1)(a)
amended by
No. 6/2005
s. 7(h).

(b) a publication or computer game classified RC; or

(c) an objectionable film or objectionable publication—

and the court is satisfied that the person committed the offence, the court may order that the film, publication or computer game is forfeited to the Crown.

(2) If, despite the acquittal of a person charged with an offence referred to in subsection (1), the court is satisfied that an offence has been committed in relation to the film, publication or computer game, the court may order that the film, publication or computer game is forfeited to the Crown.

(3A) If a film, publication or computer game, other than one referred to in subsection (3)(a), (b) or (c), has been lawfully seized by a police officer and the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that a person, other than a person charged with an offence in relation to the seized item, is the owner of the seized item, the police officer must give notice in writing to the person of—

(a) the date and place of seizure; and

(b) the nature of the seized item.

S. 75(3B)

(3B) A person to whom notice is given under subsection (3A) may apply within 60 days after the notice to the Magistrates' Court for the return of the film, publication or computer game.

- (4) The owner of a film, publication or computer game that has been lawfully seized by a police officer may apply within 60 days of the seizure to the Magistrates' Court for the return of the film, publication or computer game.
- (4A) An applicant under subsection (4) must give notice in writing of the application to the Chief Commissioner of Police containing—
- (a) the name and address of the applicant; and
 - (b) the address of the premises from which the film, publication or computer game was seized; and
 - (c) the date of seizure; and
 - (d) the nature of the seized item the return of which is sought.
- (5) On an application under subsection (3B) or (4), if the Magistrates' Court is satisfied that the applicant is the owner of the film, publication or computer game, the Court must order that, at the expiration of 12 months after the seizure, the film, publication or computer game be returned to the applicant unless the applicant has been charged with an offence in relation to the film, publication or computer game.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), a film, publication or computer game which is forfeited under this section may be destroyed or otherwise dealt with as directed by the Minister or, if a court orders the forfeiture, as directed by the court.
- (7) The Minister or court must not direct the destruction of a film, publication or computer game before the expiration of the time allowed for instituting an appeal against the order or, if an appeal is lodged within that time, before the determination of the appeal.

PART 10—GENERAL

76 Restricted publications area—construction and management

- (1) A restricted publications area must be so constructed that no part of the interior of the area is visible to any person outside the area.
- (2) Each entrance to a restricted publications area—
 - (a) must be fitted with a gate or door capable of excluding persons from the area; and
 - (b) must be closed by means of that gate or door when the area is not open to the public.
- (3) A restricted publications area must be managed by an adult who must be in attendance in or near the area at all times when the area is open to the public.
- (4) The manager of a restricted publications area must cause a notice in the form in the Schedule, in legible letters not less than 15 millimetres in height and of a colour that contrasts with the background colour of the notice, to be displayed in a prominent place on or near each entrance to the area, so that it is clearly visible from outside the area.
- (5) If any of the requirements of this section are contravened, the owner of the business which occupies the restricted publications area is guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

77 Restricted publications area—offences

- (1) The manager of a restricted publications area must not permit a minor to enter that area.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (2) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) to prove that the accused believed on reasonable grounds that the minor was an adult.

amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 20.25).

78 Evidence

- (1) In any proceeding for an offence against this Act, a certificate, or a copy of a certificate, signed or purporting to be signed by the Director, Deputy Director or Convenor and stating that—

(a) a film or publication or computer game is classified as specified in the certificate and, if the case requires, the determined markings for that type of classification are as specified in the certificate; or

(ab) a film or publication or computer game was, on a date specified in the certificate, classified as specified in the certificate and, if the case requires, the determined markings for that type of classification were as specified in the certificate; or

(b) a classified film or a classified computer game specified in the certificate is modified in a manner specified in the certificate; or

(c) a film or publication or computer game is not classified, or is not classified at a classification specified in the certificate; or

- (2) A certificate referred to in subsection (1) in respect of a film, publication, computer game or advertisement applies to each copy of the film, publication, computer game or advertisement the particulars of which correlate with the particulars in the certificate.

79 Commencement of prosecution for an offence

- (1) A prosecution for an offence against this Act in relation to a film, publication or computer game that is unclassified at the time of the alleged offence—
 - (a) must not be commenced until the film, publication or computer game has been classified; and
 - (b) unless the contrary intention appears, may be commenced not later than 12 months after the date on which the film, publication or computer game was classified.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply if a person has been apprehended in accordance with section 458 of the Crimes Act 1958.

80 Proceeding against body corporate

- (1) If, in a proceeding for an offence against this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show that—

- (a) the conduct was engaged in by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
 - (b) the director, employee or agent had that state of mind.
- (2) If a director, employee or agent of a body corporate engages in conduct on behalf of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority, the body corporate must be taken, for the purposes of a prosecution for an offence against this Act, also to have engaged in the conduct unless the body corporate establishes that it took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.
- (3) Unless the contrary intention appears, if a body corporate is found guilty of an offence against this Act, the court may impose a fine not exceeding 5 times the maximum amount which the court could otherwise impose in respect of the offence.

amended by
No. 60/1998
s. 14(a)(b).

81 Employees and agents

- (1) If, in a proceeding for an offence against this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a person other than a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show that—
- (a) an employee or agent of the person had that state of mind; and
 - (b) the employee or agent engaged in the conduct within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority.

- (2) If an employee or agent of a person other than a body corporate engages in conduct on behalf of the person within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority, the person must be taken, for the purposes of a prosecution for an offence against this Act, also to have engaged in the conduct unless the person establishes that he or she took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

amended by
No. 5/2008
s. 12.

82 Costs

If a person is charged with an offence against this Act and the court is satisfied that the person committed the offence, the court may order the person to pay by way of costs, in addition to any other costs, the amount of any fee incurred by the prosecution for classification or the provision of any certificate by the Director, Deputy Director or Convenor.

83 Publication to prescribed person or body

Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, a person may publish to a prescribed person or a prescribed body, or to a person or body of a prescribed class or description of persons or bodies—

amended by
No. 6/2005
s. 7(j)(i)–(iii).

- (a) a film classified RC, X 18+, R 18+ or MA 15+; or

S. 83(b)
amended by
Nos. 6/2005
s. 7(j)(iv),
72/2012 s. 16.

- (b) a computer game classified RC, R 18+ or MA 15+; or
- (c) a publication classified Category 1 restricted, Category 2 restricted or RC; or
- (d) a submittable publication.

84 Regulations

The Governor in Council may make regulations for or with respect to any matter or thing required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed or necessary to be prescribed to give effect to this Act.

87D Films and computer games classified before 2005 amendments

- (1) An amendment of this Act made by sections 4, 5, 6, 7 and 13 of the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) (Amendment) Act 2005 extends to a film or computer game classified before the commencement of the amendment.
- (2) For that purpose, a reference in this Act to a classification of a film or computer game, in relation to an offence against this Act that is alleged to have been committed on or after the commencement of sections 4, 5, 6, 7 and 13 of the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) (Amendment) Act 2005, is a reference to the classification that the film or computer game has or is taken to have under the Commonwealth Act on or after the commencement of Schedule 1 to the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Amendment Act 2004 of the Commonwealth.

- (3) If a film or computer game was classified before the commencement of Schedule 1 to the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Amendment Act 2004 of the Commonwealth—
- (a) a person does not commit an offence against section 18(3) or 40(3) of this Act by selling the film or computer game in a container, wrapping or casing that displays a marking indicating the equivalent former classification of the film or computer game; and
- (b) a person does not commit an offence against section 53(2) of this Act by publishing an advertisement for the film or computer game that indicates the equivalent former classification of the film or computer game.

87E Offences committed before 2005 amendments

inserted by
No. 6/2005
s. 11.

- (1) This section applies to offences against this Act alleged to have been committed before the commencement of sections 4, 5, 6, 7 and 13 of the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) (Amendment) Act 2005.
- (2) Any proceeding for an offence referred to in subsection (1) is to be dealt with as if sections 4, 5, 6, 7 and 13 of the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) (Amendment) Act 2005 had not been enacted, except as otherwise provided by this section.
- (3) For the purposes of any proceeding for an offence referred to in subsection (1), a reference in this Act to a classification of a film or computer game is a reference to the classification that had effect under the Commonwealth Act before the commencement of Schedule 1 to the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Amendment Act 2004 of the Commonwealth.

- (4) If an offence referred to in subsection (1) is alleged to have been committed in relation to an unclassified film or unclassified computer game that is subsequently classified on or after the commencement of Schedule 1 to the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Amendment Act 2004 of the Commonwealth, in any proceeding for the offence—
- (a) the film or computer game is taken to have been classified with the equivalent former classification; and
 - (b) evidence or proof that the film or computer game is classified at a specified classification is taken to be evidence or proof of the equivalent former classification.
