Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

- (3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Part to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.

- (5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Part in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:

44AC This Part binds the Crown

This Part binds the Crown in each of its capacities.

44AD Extra-territorial operation

It is the intention of the Parliament that the operation of this Part should, as far as possible, include operation in relation to the following:

- (a) things situated in or outside Australia;

Section 44AD

- (b) acts, transactions and matters done, entered into or occurring in or outside Australia;
- (c) things, acts, transactions and matters (wherever situated, done, entered into or occurring) that would, apart from this Act, be governed or otherwise affected by the law of a State, a Territory or a foreign country.

Division 2—Establishment of the AER

44AE Establishment of the AER

- (1) The Australian Energy Regulator (the AER) is established by this section.
- (2) The AER:
 - (a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession; and
 - (b) must have a common seal; and
 - (c) may acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property; and
 - (d) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.
- (3) However, the AER is taken, for the purposes of the finance law (within the meaning of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013):
 - (a) not to be a corporate Commonwealth entity; and
 - (b) to be a part of the Commonwealth, and a part of the Commission; and
 - (c) not to be a body corporate.

44AF AER to hold money and property on behalf of the Commonwealth

The AER holds any money or property for and on behalf of the Commonwealth.

44AG Constitution of the AER

The AER consists of:

- (a) a Commonwealth AER member, appointed in accordance with section 44AM; and
- (b) 2 State/Territory AER members, appointed in accordance with section 44AP.

Division 3—Functions and powers of the AER

44AH Commonwealth functions

The AER has any functions:

- (a) conferred under a law of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

Note: The AER may have functions under the Australian Energy Market Act 2004.

44AI Commonwealth consent to conferral of functions etc. on AER

General rule

- (1) A State/Territory energy law or a local energy instrument may confer functions or powers, or impose duties, on the AER for the purposes of that law or instrument.

Note: Section 44AK sets out when such a law or instrument imposes a duty on the AER.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not authorise the conferral of a function or power, or the imposition of a duty, by a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument to the extent to which:
 - (a) the conferral or imposition, or the authorisation, would contravene any constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER; or
 - (b) the authorisation would otherwise exceed the legislative power of the Commonwealth.
- (3) The AER cannot perform a duty or function, or exercise a power, under a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument unless the conferral of the function or power, or the imposition of the duty, is in accordance with the Australian Energy Market Agreement, or any other relevant agreement between the Commonwealth and the State or Territory concerned.

Section 44AJ

- (4) A local energy instrument may confer functions or powers, or impose duties, on the AER only if the instrument is designated for the purposes of this subsection under the Australian Energy Market Agreement, or any other relevant agreement between the Commonwealth and the State or Territory that made the instrument.
- (5) To avoid doubt, if a State/Territory energy law is also a local energy instrument, subsection (4) applies to the law.

44AJ How duty is imposed

Application

- (1) This section applies if a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument purports to impose a duty on the AER.

Note 1: Section 44AK sets out when such a law or instrument imposes a duty on the AER.

Note 2: Section 320 of the South Australian Energy Retail Legislation, as it applies as a law of a State or Territory, deals with the case where a duty purportedly imposed on a Commonwealth body under that applied law cannot be imposed by the State or Territory or the Commonwealth due to constitutional doctrines restricting such duties.

State or Territory legislative power sufficient to support duty

- (2) The duty is taken not to be imposed by this Part (or any other law of the Commonwealth) to the extent to which:
 - (a) imposing the duty is within the legislative powers of the State or Territory concerned; and
 - (b) imposing the duty by the law or instrument of the State or Territory is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the law or instrument of the State or Territory (the Commonwealth having consented under section 44AI to the imposition of the duty by that law or instrument).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

- (3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law or instrument of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Part to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.
- (4) If, because of subsection (3), this Part is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Part.
- (5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Part in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
 - (a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER.
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not limit section 44AI.

44AK When a State/Territory energy law etc. imposes a duty

For the purposes of sections 44AI and 44AJ, a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument imposes a duty on the AER if:

- (a) the law or instrument confers a function or power on the AER; and
- (b) the circumstances in which the function or power is conferred give rise to an obligation on the AER to perform the function or to exercise the power.

44AL Powers of the AER

The AER has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

Part IIIA The Australian Energy Regulator (AER)

- (3) An application for review must be made within 21 days after publication of the designated Minister's decision.
- (4) The review by the Tribunal is a re-consideration of the matter based on the information, reports and things referred to in section 44ZZOAA.

Note: There are limits on the information to which the Tribunal may have regard (see section 44ZZOAA) and time limits that apply to the Tribunal's decision on the review (see section 44ZZOA).

- (5) For the purposes of the review, the Tribunal has the same powers as the designated Minister.

- (1) Subject to this section, an application for review of a declaration under subsection 44K(1) does not:
- (a) affect the operation of the declaration; or
 - (b) prevent the taking of steps in reliance on the declaration.
- (2) On application by a person who has been made a party to the proceedings for review of a declaration, the Tribunal may:
- (a) make an order staying, or otherwise affecting the operation or the taking of steps in reliance on, the declaration if the Tribunal considers that:
 - (i) it is desirable to make the order after taking into account the interests of any person who may be affected by the review; and
 - (ii) the order is appropriate for the purpose of securing the effectiveness of the hearing and determination of the application for review; or
 - (b) make an order varying or revoking an order made under paragraph (a) (including an order that has previously been varied on one or more occasions under this paragraph).

Section 44KA

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the Tribunal must not:

- (4) Subsection (3) does not prohibit the Tribunal from making an order without giving to a person referred to in that subsection a reasonable opportunity to make a submission to the Tribunal in relation to a matter if the Tribunal is satisfied that, by reason of the urgency of the case or otherwise, it is not practicable to give that person such an opportunity.
- (5) If an order is made under subsection (3) without giving the Council a reasonable opportunity to make a submission to the Tribunal in relation to a matter, the order does not come into operation until a notice setting out the terms of the order is given to the Council.
- (6) An order in force under paragraph (2)(a) (including an order that has previously been varied on one or more occasions under paragraph (2)(b)):
- (a) is subject to such conditions as are specified in the order; and
 - (b) has effect until:
 - (i) if a period for the operation of the order is specified in the order—the expiration of that period or, if the application for review is decided by the Tribunal before the expiration of that period, the decision of the Tribunal on the application for review comes into operation; or

- (ii) if no period is so specified—the decision of the Tribunal on the application for review comes into operation.

- (2) However, the Tribunal must not make an order requiring the designated Minister to pay some or all of the costs of another party to proceedings unless the Tribunal considers that the designated Minister's conduct in the proceedings was engaged in without due regard to:
 - (a) the costs that would be incurred by the other party to the proceedings as a result of that conduct; or
 - (b) the time required by the Tribunal to make a decision on the review as a result of that conduct; or
 - (c) the time required by the other party to prepare their case for the purposes of the review as a result of that conduct; or
 - (d) the submissions or arguments made during the proceedings to the Tribunal by the other party or parties to the proceedings or by the Council.

Division 2C—Register of decisions and declarations

44Q Register of decisions, declarations and ineligibility decisions

The Commission must maintain a public register that includes:

- (a) each decision of the Commonwealth Minister that a regime established by a State or Territory for access to a service is an effective access regime for the service or proposed service; and
- (aa) each decision of the Commonwealth Minister to extend the period for which a decision under section 44N is in force; and

- (d) each decision of the Commission under section 44PC to revoke a decision under subsection 44PA(3).

Division 3—Access to declared services

Subdivision A—Scope of Division

44R Constitutional limits on operation of this Division

This Division does not apply in relation to a third party's access to a service unless:

- (a) the provider is a corporation (or a partnership or joint venture consisting wholly of corporations); or
- (b) the third party is a corporation; or
- (c) the access is (or would be) in the course of, or for the purposes of, constitutional trade or commerce.

Subdivision B—Notification of access disputes

44S Notification of access disputes

- (1) If a third party is unable to agree with the provider on one or more aspects of access to a declared service, either the provider or the third party may notify the Commission in writing that an access dispute exists, but only to the extent that those aspects of access are not the subject of an access undertaking that is in operation in relation to the service.

Note: An example of one of the things on which a provider and third party might disagree is whether a previous determination ought to be varied.

- (2) On receiving the notification, the Commission must give notice in writing of the access dispute to:
 - (a) the provider, if the third party notified the access dispute;
 - (b) the third party, if the provider notified the access dispute;
 - (c) any other person whom the Commission thinks might want to become a party to the arbitration.

Section 44T

44T Withdrawal of notifications

- (1) A notification may be withdrawn as follows (and not otherwise):
 - (a) if the provider notified the dispute:
 - (i) the provider may withdraw the notification at any time before the Commission makes its final determination;
 - (ii) the third party may withdraw the provider's notification at any time after the Commission issues a draft final determination, but before it makes its final determination;
 - (b) if the third party notified the dispute, the third party may withdraw the notification at any time before the Commission makes its determination.
- (2) Despite subparagraph (1)(a)(ii), if the provider notified a dispute over variation of a final determination, the third party may not withdraw the provider's notification.
- (3) If the notification is withdrawn, it is taken for the purposes of this Part never to have been given.

Subdivision C—Arbitration of access disputes

44U Parties to the arbitration

The parties to the arbitration of an access dispute are:

- (a) the provider;
- (b) the third party;
- (c) any other person who applies in writing to be made a party and is accepted by the Commission as having a sufficient interest.

44V Determination by Commission

- (1) Unless it terminates the arbitration under section 44Y, 44YA, 44ZZCB or 44ZZCBA, the Commission:
 - (a) must make a written final determination; and
 - (b) may make a written interim determination;

on access by the third party to the service.

Note 1: There are time limits that apply to the Commission's final determination: see section 44XA.

Note 2: The Commission may defer arbitration of the access dispute if it is also considering an access undertaking: see section 44ZZCB.

- (2) A determination may deal with any matter relating to access by the third party to the service, including matters that were not the basis for notification of the dispute. By way of example, the determination may:
- (a) require the provider to provide access to the service by the third party;
 - (b) require the third party to accept, and pay for, access to the service;
 - (c) specify the terms and conditions of the third party's access to the service;
 - (d) require the provider to extend the facility;
 - (da) require the provider to permit interconnection to the facility by the third party;
 - (e) specify the extent to which the determination overrides an earlier determination relating to access to the service by the third party.
- (3) A determination does not have to require the provider to provide access to the service by the third party.
- (4) Before making a determination, the Commission must give a draft determination to the parties.
- (5) When the Commission makes a determination, it must give the parties to the arbitration its reasons for making the determination.
- (6) A determination is not a legislative instrument.

44W Restrictions on access determinations

- (1) The Commission must not make a determination that would have any of the following effects:

Section 44W

- (a) preventing an existing user obtaining a sufficient amount of the service to be able to meet the user's reasonably anticipated requirements, measured at the time when the dispute was notified;
 - (b) preventing a person from obtaining, by the exercise of a pre-notification right, a sufficient amount of the service to be able to meet the person's actual requirements;
 - (c) depriving any person of a protected contractual right;
 - (d) resulting in the third party becoming the owner (or one of the owners) of any part of the facility, or of extensions of the facility, without the consent of the provider;
 - (e) requiring the provider to bear some or all of the costs of extending the facility or maintaining extensions of the facility;
 - (f) requiring the provider to bear some or all of the costs of interconnections to the facility or maintaining interconnections to the facility.
- (2) Paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply in relation to the requirements and rights of the third party and the provider when the Commission is making a determination in arbitration of an access dispute relating to an earlier determination of an access dispute between the third party and the provider.
- (3) A determination is of no effect if it is made in contravention of subsection (1).
- (4) If the Commission makes a determination that has the effect of depriving a person (the second person) of a pre-notification right to require the provider to supply the service to the second person, the determination must also require the third party:
- (a) to pay to the second person such amount (if any) as the Commission considers is fair compensation for the deprivation; and
 - (b) to reimburse the provider and the Commonwealth for any compensation that the provider or the Commonwealth agrees, or is required by a court order, to pay to the second party as compensation for the deprivation.

Section 44X

Note: Without infringing paragraph (1)(b), a determination may deprive a second person of the right to be supplied with an amount of service equal to the difference between the total amount of service the person was entitled to under a pre-notification right and the amount that the person actually needs to meet his or her actual requirements.

(4A) If an application for review of a declaration of a service has been made under subsection 44K(1), the Commission must not make a determination in relation to the service until the Tribunal has made its decision on the review.

(5) In this section:

existing user means a person (including the provider) who was using the service at the time when the dispute was notified.

pre-notification right means a right under a contract, or under a determination, that was in force at the time when the dispute was notified.

protected contractual right means a right under a contract that was in force at the beginning of 30 March 1995.

44X Matters that the Commission must take into account

Final determinations

- (1) The Commission must take the following matters into account in making a final determination:

 - (a) the legitimate business interests of the provider, and the provider's investment in the facility;

 - (d) the direct costs of providing access to the service;
 - (e) the value to the provider of extensions whose cost is borne by someone else;

Section 44XA

- (ea) the value to the provider of interconnections to the facility whose cost is borne by someone else;
 - (f) the operational and technical requirements necessary for the safe and reliable operation of the facility;
 - (g) the economically efficient operation of the facility;
 - (h) the pricing principles specified in section 44ZZCA.
- (2) The Commission may take into account any other matters that it thinks are relevant.

Interim determinations

- (3) The Commission may take the following matters into account in making an interim determination:
- (a) a matter referred to in subsection (1);
 - (b) any other matter it considers relevant.
- (4) In making an interim determination, the Commission does not have a duty to consider whether to take into account a matter referred to in subsection (1).

44XA Time limit for Commission's final determination

Commission to make final determination within 180 days

- (1) The Commission must make a final determination within the period of 180 days (the expected period) starting at the start of the day the application is received.

Stopping the clock

- (2) In working out the expected period in relation to a final determination, in a situation referred to in column 1 of an item of the following table, disregard any day in a period:
- (a) starting on the day referred to in column 2 of the item; and
 - (b) ending on the day referred to in column 3 of the item.

Section 44XA

Stopping the clock
Item	Column 1 Situation	Column 2 Start day	Column 3 End day
1	An agreement is made in relation to the arbitration under subsection (4)	The first day of the period specified in the agreement	The last day of the period specified in the agreement
2	A direction is given under subsection 44ZG(1) to give information or make a submission within a specified period	The first day of the period specified for the giving of the information or the making of the submission	The last day of the period specified for the giving of the information or the making of the submission
3	A decision is published under subsection 44ZZCB(4) deferring consideration of the dispute while the Commission considers an access undertaking	The day on which the decision is published	The day on which the Commission makes its decision on the access undertaking under subsection 44ZZA(3)
4	The Commission, under subsection 44ZZCBA(1) or (2), defers arbitrating the dispute while a declaration is under review by the Tribunal	The day on which the Commission gives the notice to defer arbitrating the dispute	The day the Tribunal makes its decision under section 44K on the review

(3) Despite subsection (2), do not disregard any day more than once.

- (5) The Commission must publish, by electronic or other means, the agreement.

Deemed final determination

- (6) If the Commission does not publish under section 44ZNB a written report about a final determination within the expected period, it is taken, immediately after the end of the expected period, to have:
- (a) made a final determination that does not impose any obligations on the parties or alter any obligations (if any) that exist at that time between the parties; and
 - (b) published a written report about the final determination under section 44ZNB.

44Y Commission may terminate arbitration in certain cases

- (1) The Commission may at any time terminate an arbitration (without making a final determination) if it thinks that:
- (a) the notification of the dispute was vexatious; or
 - (b) the subject matter of the dispute is trivial, misconceived or lacking in substance; or
 - (c) the party who notified the dispute has not engaged in negotiations in good faith; or
 - (d) access to the service should continue to be governed by an existing contract between the provider and the third party.
- (2) In addition, if the dispute is about varying an existing determination, the Commission may terminate the arbitration if it thinks there is no sufficient reason why the previous determination should not continue to have effect in its present form.

44YA Commission must terminate arbitration if declaration varied or set aside by Tribunal

If the Commission is arbitrating a dispute in relation to a declared service and the Tribunal sets aside or varies the declaration in relation to the service under section 44K, the Commission must terminate the arbitration.

Person may give a revised undertaking in response to notice

- (5) If a person receives an amendment notice, the person may, within the response period, respond to the notice by giving a revised undertaking to the Commission that incorporates one or more amendments.
- (6) If the revised undertaking incorporates one or more amendments that the Commission considers are not of the nature proposed in the amendment notice and do not address the reasons for the proposed amendments given in the amendment notice, the Commission must not accept the revised undertaking and must return it to the person within 21 days of receiving it.
- (7) If the person gives a revised undertaking under subsection (5) and the revised undertaking is not returned to the person under subsection (6), the revised undertaking is taken, after the time it is given to the Commission, to be the undertaking given under section 44ZZA for the purposes of this Part.

- (3) The fixed period must:
- (a) start:
 - (i) when the access undertaking comes into operation; or
 - (ii) at a later time ascertained in accordance with the undertaking; and
 - (b) extend beyond the expiry date of the undertaking.

Consideration of fixed principles

- (4) The Commission may reject the undertaking if it:
- (a) includes a term that is not a fixed principle and that the Commission considers should be a fixed principle; or
 - (b) includes a fixed principle that the Commission considers should not be fixed; or
 - (c) includes a fixed principle that the Commission considers should be fixed for a period that is different from the period specified in the undertaking.

Section 44ZZAAB

However, the Commission must not reject the undertaking solely on the basis that it is consistent with a fixed principle that is included in the undertaking in compliance with subsection (6).

Fixed principles must be carried over to later undertakings

- (5) Subsection (6) applies if:
- (a) the Commission accepts an undertaking (the earlier undertaking) in connection with the provision of access to a service that includes a fixed principle; and
 - (b) an undertaking (the later undertaking) is given to the Commission in connection with the provision of access to the service within the fixed period for the fixed principle; and
 - (c) at the time the later undertaking is given:

Variation or revocation of fixed principles when no undertaking is in operation

- (7) If there is no access undertaking in operation in connection with the provision of access to a service, the provider may revoke or vary a fixed principle that relates to the service (including the fixed period for the principle), but only with the consent of the Commission. The Commission may consent to the revocation or variation of the fixed principle if it thinks it appropriate to do so having regard to the matters in subsection 44ZZA(3).

Note: Subsection 44ZZA(7) contains provision for fixed principles to be varied or revoked in the situation where there is an access undertaking in operation. This may include a variation of the fixed period for the fixed principle.

Alteration of fixed principles

- (8) If an undertaking that is accepted by the Commission contains one or more fixed principles, the undertaking is accepted on the basis that:
- (a) the principle may be varied or revoked under subsection (7) or 44ZZA(7); and
 - (b) the principle may be cancelled, revoked, terminated or varied by or under later legislation; and
 - (c) no compensation is payable if the principle is cancelled, revoked, terminated or varied as mentioned in any of the above paragraphs.

44ZZMA How duty is imposed

Application

- (1) This section applies if a State or Territory access regime law purports to impose a duty on the Commission or Tribunal.

Note 1: Section 44ZZMB sets out when such a law imposes a duty on the Commission or Tribunal.

Note 2: Section 320 of the South Australian Energy Retail Legislation, as it applies as a law of a State or Territory, deals with the case where a duty purportedly imposed on a Commonwealth body under that applied law cannot be imposed by the State or Territory or the Commonwealth due to constitutional doctrines restricting such duties.

State or Territory legislative power sufficient to support duty

- (2) The duty is taken not to be imposed by this Act (or any other law of the Commonwealth) to the extent to which:
- (a) imposing the duty is within the legislative powers of the State or Territory concerned; and
 - (b) imposing the duty by the law of the State or Territory is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Commission or Tribunal.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the law of the State or Territory (the Commonwealth having consented under section 44ZZM to the imposition of the duty by that law).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

- (3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Act to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.
- (4) If, because of subsection (3), this Act is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Act.

- (5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Act in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
- (a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Commission or Tribunal.
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not limit section 44ZZM.

44ZZMB When a law of a State or Territory imposes a duty

For the purposes of sections 44ZZM and 44ZZMA, a State or Territory access regime law imposes a duty on the Commission or Tribunal if:

- (a) the law confers a function or power on the Commission or Tribunal; and
- (b) the circumstances in which the function or power is conferred give rise to an obligation on the Commission or Tribunal to perform the function or to exercise the power.

44ZZN Compensation for acquisition of property

- (1) If:
- (a) a determination would result in an acquisition of property; and
 - (b) the determination would not be valid, apart from this section, because a particular person has not been sufficiently compensated;
- the Commonwealth must pay that person:
- (c) a reasonable amount of compensation agreed on between the person and the Commonwealth; or
 - (d) failing agreement—a reasonable amount of compensation determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 44ZZNA

- (2) In assessing compensation payable in a proceeding begun under this section, the following must be taken into account if they arise out of the same event or transaction:
 - (a) any damages or compensation recovered, or other remedy, in a proceeding begun otherwise than under this section;
 - (b) compensation awarded under a determination.
- (3) In this section, acquisition of property has the same meaning as in paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution.

- is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to have been engaged in also by that individual, unless that individual establishes that he or she took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

*Dominant purpose of conduct relates to employment matters—
conduct by employee organisation and employees*

- (2) If:
- (a) an employee, or 2 or more employees who are employed by the same employer, engage in conduct in concert with another person who is, or with other persons each of whom is:
 - (i) an organisation of employees; or
 - (ii) an officer of an organisation of employees; and
 - (b) the conduct is only engaged in by the persons covered by paragraph (a); and
 - (c) the dominant purpose for which the conduct is engaged in is substantially related to the remuneration, conditions of employment, hours of work or working conditions of the employee, or any of the employees, covered by paragraph (a);

Section 45DD

the persons covered by paragraph (a) do not contravene, and are not involved in a contravention of, subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1) or 45DB(1) by engaging in the conduct.

Dominant purpose of conduct relates to environmental protection or consumer protection

- (3) A person does not contravene, and is not involved in a contravention of, subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1) or 45DB(1) by engaging in conduct if:
- (a) the dominant purpose for which the conduct is engaged in is substantially related to environmental protection or consumer protection; and
 - (b) engaging in the conduct is not industrial action.

Note 1: If an environmental organisation or a consumer organisation is a body corporate:

- (a) it is a “person” who may be subject to the prohibitions in subsections 45D(1), 45DA(1) and 45DB(1) and who may also be covered by this exemption; and
- (b) each of its members is a “person” who may be subject to the prohibitions in subsections 45D(1), 45DA(1) and 45DB(1) and who may also be covered by this exemption.

Note 2: If an environmental organisation or a consumer organisation is not a body corporate:

- (a) it is not a “person” and is therefore not subject to the prohibitions in subsections 45D(1), 45DA(1) and 45DB(1) (consequently, this exemption does not cover the organisation as such); but
- (b) each of its members is a “person” who may be subject to the prohibitions in subsections 45D(1), 45DA(1) and 45DB(1) and who may also be covered by this exemption.

Meaning of industrial action—basic definition

- (4) In subsection (3), industrial action means:
- (a) the performance of work in a manner different from that in which it is customarily performed, or the adoption of a practice in relation to work, the result of which is a restriction or limitation on, or a delay in, the performance of the work, where:

Section 45DD

- (i) the terms and conditions of the work are prescribed, wholly or partly, by a workplace instrument or an order of an industrial body; or
- (ii) the work is performed, or the practice is adopted, in connection with an industrial dispute; or
- (b) a ban, limitation or restriction on the performance of work, or on acceptance of or offering for work, in accordance with the terms and conditions prescribed by a workplace instrument or by an order of an industrial body; or
- (c) a ban, limitation or restriction on the performance of work, or on acceptance of or offering for work, that is adopted in connection with an industrial dispute; or
- (d) a failure or refusal by persons to attend for work or a failure or refusal to perform any work at all by persons who attend for work.

For this purpose, industrial body and workplace instrument have the same meanings as in the Fair Work Act 2009.

Meaning of industrial action—further clarification

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3):
 - (a) conduct is capable of constituting industrial action even if the conduct relates to part only of the duties that persons are required to perform in the course of their employment; and
 - (b) a reference to industrial action includes a reference to a course of conduct consisting of a series of industrial actions.

Subsections (1), (2) and (3) do not protect people not covered by them

- (6) In applying subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1) or 45DB(1) to a person who is not covered by subsection (1), (2) or (3) in respect of certain conduct, disregard the fact that other persons may be covered by one of those subsections in respect of the same conduct.

Defences to contravention of subsection 45DB(1)

- (7) In a proceeding under this Act in relation to a contravention of subsection 45DB(1), it is a defence if the defendant proves:
- (a) that a notice in respect of the conduct concerned has been duly given to the Commission under subsection 93(1) and the Commission has not given a notice in respect of the conduct under subsection 93(3) or (3A); or
 - (b) that the dominant purpose for which the defendant engaged in the conduct concerned was to preserve or further a business carried on by him or her.

Each person to prove defence

- (8) If:
- (a) a person engages in conduct in concert with another person; and
 - (b) the other person proves a matter specified in paragraph (7)(a) or (b) in respect of that conduct;
- in applying subsection 45DB(1) to the first person, ignore the fact that the other person has proved that matter.

Note: Section 415 of the Fair Work Act 2009 limits the right to bring actions under this Act in respect of industrial action that is protected action for the purposes of that section.

45E Prohibition of contracts, arrangements or understandings affecting the supply or acquisition of goods or services

Situations to which section applies

- (1) This section applies in the following situations:
- (a) a supply situation—in this situation, a person (the first person) has been accustomed, or is under an obligation, to supply goods or services to another person (the second person); or
 - (b) an acquisition situation—in this situation, a person (the first person) has been accustomed, or is under an obligation, to acquire goods or services from another person (the second person).

Section 45E

Despite paragraphs (a) and (b), this section does not apply unless the first or second person is a corporation or both of them are corporations.

Note : For the meanings of accustomed to supply and accustomed to acquire, see subsections (5) and (7).

Prohibition in a supply situation

- (2) In a supply situation, the first person must not make a contract or arrangement, or arrive at an understanding, with an organisation of employees, an officer of such an organisation or a person acting for and on behalf of such an officer or organisation, if the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding contains a provision included for the purpose, or for purposes including the purpose, of:
- (a) preventing or hindering the first person from supplying or continuing to supply such goods or services to the second person; or
 - (b) preventing or hindering the first person from supplying or continuing to supply such goods or services to the second person, except subject to a condition:
 - (i) that is not a condition to which the supply of such goods or services by the first person to the second person has previously been subject because of a provision in a contract between those persons; and
 - (ii) that is about the persons to whom, the manner in which or the terms on which the second person may supply any goods or services.

Prohibition in an acquisition situation

- (3) In an acquisition situation, the first person must not make a contract or arrangement, or arrive at an understanding, with an organisation of employees, an officer of such an organisation or a person acting for and on behalf of such an officer or organisation, if the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding contains a provision included for the purpose, or for purposes including the purpose, of:

- (a) preventing or hindering the first person from acquiring or continuing to acquire such goods or services from the second person; or
- (b) preventing or hindering the first person from acquiring or continuing to acquire such goods or services from the second person, except subject to a condition:
 - (i) that is not a condition to which the acquisition of such goods or services by the first person from the second person has previously been subject because of a provision in a contract between those persons; and
 - (ii) that is about the persons to whom, the manner in which or the terms on which the second person may supply any goods or services.

No contravention if second person gives written consent to written contract etc.

- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to a contract, arrangement or understanding if it is in writing and was made or arrived at with the written consent of the second person.

*Meaning of accustomed to supply

 - (a) a regular supplier of such goods or services to the second person; or
 - (b) the latest supplier of such goods or services to the second person; or
 - (c) a person who, at any time during the immediately preceding 3 months, supplied such goods or services to the second person.

Section 45E

Exception to subsection (5)

- (6) If:
- (a) goods or services have been supplied by a person to a second person under a contract between them that required the first person to supply such goods or services over a period; and
 - (b) the period has ended; and
 - (c) after the end of the period, the second person has been supplied with such goods or services by another person and has not also been supplied with such goods or services by the first person;

then, for the purposes of the application of this section in relation to anything done after the second person has been supplied with goods or services as mentioned in paragraph (c), the first person is not to be taken to be a person who has been accustomed to supply such goods or services to the second person.

Meaning of accustomed to acquire

- (7) In this section, a reference to a person who has been accustomed to acquire goods or services from a second person includes (subject to subsection (8)):
- (a) a regular acquirer of such goods or services from the second person; or
 - (b) a person who, when last acquiring such goods or services, acquired them from the second person; or
 - (c) a person who, at any time during the immediately preceding 3 months, acquired such goods or services from the second person.

Exception to subsection (7)

- (8) If:
- (a) goods or services have been acquired by a person from a second person under a contract between them that required the first person to acquire such goods or services over a period; and
 - (b) the period has ended; and

Section 45EA

(c) after the end of the period, the second person has refused to supply such goods or services to the first person;
then, for the purposes of the application of this section in relation to anything done after the second person has refused to supply goods or services as mentioned in paragraph (c), the first person is not to be taken to be a person who has been accustomed to acquire such goods or services from the second person.

Note: Conduct that would otherwise contravene this section can be authorised under subsection 88(7A).

45EA Provisions contravening section 45E not to be given effect

A person must not give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding if, because of the provision, the making of the contract or arrangement, or the arriving at the understanding, by the person:

- (a) contravened subsection 45E(2) or (3); or
- (b) would have contravened subsection 45E(2) or (3) if:
 - (i) section 45E had been in force when the contract or arrangement was made, or the understanding was arrived at; and
 - (ii) the words “is in writing and” and “written” were not included in subsection 45E(4).

Note: Conduct that would otherwise contravene this section can be authorised under subsection 88(7A).

45EB Sections 45D to 45EA do not affect operation of other provisions of Part

Nothing in section 45D, 45DA, 45DB, 45DC, 45DD, 45E or 45EA affects the operation of any other provision of this Part.

- (7) Without limiting the manner in which the purpose of a person may be established for the purposes of any other provision of this Act, a corporation may be taken to have taken advantage of its market power for a purpose referred to in subsection (2) even though, after all the evidence has been considered, the existence of that purpose is ascertainable only by inference from the conduct of the

Section 46B

- (6A) Subsection (6) does not apply to an application by the Minister for an injunction relating to Part IV.

Note: Section 60C is about price exploitation in relation to the carbon tax repeal.

(2) This section does not limit section 80.

(3) In this section:

price has the same meaning as in Part V.

regulated supply has the same meaning as in Part V.

80AB Stay of injunctions

(1) The Court may stay the operation of an injunction granted under section 80 if:

- (a) the injunction is in respect of conduct that constitutes or would constitute a contravention of subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1), 45DB(1), 45E(2) or 45E(3) or section 45EA or an associated contravention; and

- (2) An order staying the operation of the injunction may be expressed to have effect for a specified period and may be varied or rescinded by the Court at any time.
- (3) If the proceeding referred to in paragraph (1)(b) is terminated because the State or Territory court, tribunal or authority has settled the dispute to which the conduct relates by conciliation, the Court must not make any order in relation to the costs of the proceedings in respect of the granting of the injunction or in relation to the costs of any proceedings for the rescission of the injunction.

- (b) the person was granted, under Division 3 of Part VII (mergers), a clearance or an authorisation for the proposed acquisition on the basis of information that was false or misleading in a material particular; and
- (c) that information was given by the person or a body corporate that was related to the person; and
- (d) if that information had not been given, the clearance or authorisation would not have been granted; and
- (e) apart from the clearance or authorisation, the acquisition would contravene section 50 if it occurred;

then the Court may grant an injunction in such terms as the Court determines to be appropriate.

(2) However, the Court must not grant the injunction if:

- (a) the person was granted both a clearance and an authorisation for the acquisition under Division 3 of Part VII; and
- (b) the Court could not grant an injunction under this section in relation to both the clearance and the authorisation.

Example: If a clearance for an acquisition was granted by the Commission on the basis of false or misleading information, and an authorisation for the acquisition was granted by the Tribunal on the basis of true information, then the Court cannot grant an injunction under this section because it would not be able to grant the injunction in relation to the authorisation.

81 Divestiture where merger contravenes section 50 or 50A

- (1) The Court may, on the application of the Commission or any other person, if it finds, or has in another proceeding instituted under this Part found, that a person has contravened section 50, by order, give directions for the purpose of securing the disposal by the person of all or any of the shares or assets acquired in contravention of that section.

(1A) Where:

- (b) the Court finds, whether in that proceeding or any other proceeding instituted under this Part, that the person (in this section referred to as the vendor) from whom the acquirer acquired those shares or those assets, as the case may be, was involved in the contravention; and
- (c) at the time when the finding referred to in paragraph (b) is made, any of those shares or those assets, as the case may be, are vested in the acquirer or, if the acquirer is a body corporate, in any body corporate that is related to the acquirer;

the Court may, on the application of the Commission, declare that the acquisition, in so far as it relates to the shares or assets referred to in paragraph (c), is void as from the day on which it took place and, where the Court makes such a declaration:

- (d) the shares or the assets to which the declaration relates shall be deemed not to have been disposed of by the vendor; and
 - (e) the vendor shall refund to the acquirer any amount paid to the vendor in respect of the acquisition of the shares or assets to which the declaration relates.
- (1B) Where a declaration has been made under subsection 50A(1) in relation to the obtaining of a controlling interest in a corporation, or in each of 2 or more corporations, the Court may, on the application of the Minister or the Commission, if it finds, or has in a proceeding instituted under section 80 found, that that corporation, or any of those corporations, as the case may be (in this subsection referred to as the relevant corporation), has contravened subsection 50A(6), by order, for the purpose of ensuring that the obtaining of that controlling interest ceases to have the result referred to in paragraph 50A(1)(a), direct the relevant corporation to dispose of such of its assets as are specified in the order within such period as is so specified.
- (1C) Where an application is made to the Court for an order under subsection (1) or a declaration under subsection (1A), the Court may, instead of making an order under subsection (1) for the purpose of securing the disposal by a person of shares or assets or an order under subsection (1A) that the acquisition by a person of shares or assets is void, accept, upon such conditions (if any) as the Court thinks fit, an undertaking by the person to dispose of other shares or assets owned by the person.
- (2) An application under subsection (1), (1A) or (1B) may be made at any time within 3 years after the date on which the contravention occurred.
- (3) Where an application for directions under subsection (1) or for a declaration under subsection (1A) has been made, whether before or after the commencement of this subsection, the Court may, if the Court determines it to be appropriate, give directions or make a declaration by consent of all the parties to the proceedings, whether or not the Court has made the findings referred to in subsections (1) and (1A).

81A Divestiture where merger done under clearance or authorisation granted on false etc. information

Circumstances when this section applies

- (1) This section applies if the Court is satisfied that:
- (a) a person (the acquirer) has acquired shares in the capital of a body corporate or assets of another person; and
 - (b) before the acquisition, the acquirer was granted, under Division 3 of Part VII (mergers), a clearance or an authorisation for the acquisition on the basis of information that was false or misleading in a material particular; and
 - (c) that information was provided by the acquirer or a body corporate that was related to the acquirer; and
 - (d) the Court or another court has found that the acquirer or related body corporate has contravened section 95AZN or Part 7.4 of the Criminal Code by giving that information; and
 - (e) if that information had not been given, the clearance or authorisation would not have been granted; and
 - (f) apart from the clearance or authorisation, the acquisition would have contravened section 50; and
 - (g) any or all of those shares or assets are vested in the acquirer, the related body corporate or any other body corporate that is related to the acquirer.

Divestiture by the acquirer and related bodies corporate

- (2) The Court may, on the application of the Commission, by order, give directions for the purpose of securing the disposal of all or any of those shares or assets by the acquirer, the related body corporate or any other body corporate that is related to the acquirer.
- (3) However, the Court must not make an order under subsection (2) if:

Section 81A

- (a) the acquirer was granted, under Division 3 of Part VII, both a clearance and an authorisation for the acquisition; and
- (b) the matters in subsection (1) are not satisfied in relation to both the clearance and the authorisation.

Example: If a clearance for an acquisition was granted by the Commission on the basis of false or misleading information, and an authorisation for the acquisition was granted by the Tribunal on the basis of true information, then the Court cannot make an order under subsection (2) because subsection (1) would not be satisfied in relation to the authorisation.

Declaration that acquisition void—when vendor involved

- (4) In addition to being satisfied of the matters in subsection (1), if the Court, or another court, has found that the person (the vendor) from whom the acquirer acquired the shares or assets was involved in the contravention referred to in paragraph (1)(d), then the Court may, on the application of the Commission, by order, declare that the acquisition, in so far as it relates to those shares or assets, is void as from the day on which it occurred.
- (5) If the Court makes an order under subsection (4), then:
 - (a) the shares or assets to which the declaration relates are taken not to have been disposed of by the vendor; and
 - (b) the vendor must refund to the acquirer any amount paid to the vendor for acquiring the shares or assets.
- (6) However, the Court must not make an order under subsection (4) if:
 - (a) the acquirer was granted, under Division 3 of Part VII, both a clearance and an authorisation for the acquisition; and
 - (b) the matters in subsections (1) and (4) are not satisfied in relation to both the clearance and the authorisation.

Alternative to orders under subsections (2) and (4)

- (7) If an application is made to the Court for an order under subsection (2) or (4) against a person, the Court may, instead of making an order of the kind mentioned in that subsection, accept, upon such conditions (if any) as the Court thinks fit, an undertaking by the person to dispose of other shares or assets owned by the person.

When application for orders under this section must be made

- (8) An application under subsection (2) or (4) may be made at any time within 3 years after the day on which the acquisition occurred.

Court may make orders even if not satisfied of all matters

- (9) If an application for an order under subsection (2) or (4) is made, the Court may, if the Court determines it to be appropriate, make an order by consent of all the parties to the proceedings, whether or not the Court is satisfied of:
- (a) for an order under subsection (2)—the matters in subsection (1); and
 - (b) for an order under subsection (4)—the matters in subsections (1) and (4).

82 Actions for damages

- (1) A person who suffers loss or damage by conduct of another person that was done in contravention of a provision of Part IV or IVB, or of section 55B, 60C or 60K, may recover the amount of the loss or damage by action against that other person or against any person involved in the contravention.
- (2) An action under subsection (1) may be commenced at any time within 6 years after the day on which the cause of action that relates to the conduct accrued.

83 Finding in proceedings to be evidence

In a proceeding against a person under section 82 or in an application under subsection 51ADB(1) or 87(1A) for an order against a person, a finding of any fact by a court made in proceedings under section 77, 80, 81, 86C, 86D or 86E, or for an offence against section 44ZZRF or 44ZZRG, in which that person has been found to have contravened, or to have been involved in a contravention of, a provision of Part IV or IVB, or of section 55B, 60C or 60K, is prima facie evidence of that fact and the finding may be proved by production of a document under the seal of the court from which the finding appears.

Section 84

84 Conduct by directors, employees or agents

(1) If, in:

- (a) a prosecution for an offence against section 44ZZRF or 44ZZRG in respect of conduct engaged in by a body corporate; or
- (b) a proceeding under this Part in respect of conduct engaged in by a body corporate, being conduct in relation to which section 44ZZRJ or 44ZZRK, Division 1A of Part IV, section 46 or 46A Part IVB, section 55B or Part V applies;

it is necessary to establish the state of mind of the body corporate, it is sufficient to show that:

- (c) a director, employee or agent of the body corporate engaged in that conduct; and
- (d) the director, employee or agent was, in engaging in that conduct, acting within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
- (e) the director, employee or agent had that state of mind.

shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been engaged in also by the body corporate.

- (3) If, in:
- (a) a prosecution for an offence against section 44ZZRF or 44ZZRG in respect of conduct engaged in by a person other than a body corporate; or
 - (b) a proceeding under this Part in respect of conduct engaged in by a person other than a body corporate, being conduct in relation to which section 44ZZRJ or 44ZZRK, Division 1A of Part IV, Part IVB, section 55B or Part V applies;
- it is necessary to establish the state of mind of the person, it is sufficient to show that:
- (c) an employee or agent of the person engaged in that conduct; and
 - (d) the employee or agent was, in engaging in that conduct, acting within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
 - (e) the employee or agent had that state of mind.
- (4) Conduct engaged in on behalf of a person other than a body corporate:
- (a) by an employee or agent of the person within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the employee or agent; or
 - (b) by any other person at the direction or with the consent or agreement (whether express or implied) of an employee or agent of the first-mentioned person, where the giving of the direction, consent or agreement is within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the employee or agent;
- shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been engaged in also by the first-mentioned person.
- (4A) If:
- (a) a person other than a body corporate is convicted of an offence; and
 - (b) subsection (3) or (4) applied in relation to the conviction on the basis that the person was the person first mentioned in that subsection; and

Section 85

- (c) the person would not have been convicted of the offence if that subsection had not been enacted;
the person is not liable to be punished by imprisonment for that offence.
- (5) A reference in this section to the state of mind of a person includes a reference to the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person and the person's reasons for the person's intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

85 Defences

If, in any proceedings under this Part against a person other than a body corporate, it appears to the Court that the person has or may have:

- (a) engaged in conduct in contravention of a provision of Part IV; or
(aa) engaged in conduct in contravention of section 60C or 60K;
or
(b) engaged in conduct referred to in paragraph 76(1)(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f);

but that the person acted honestly and reasonably and, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, ought fairly to be excused, the Court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from liability to any penalty or damages on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

Part VIA—Proportionate liability for misleading and deceptive conduct

87CB Application of Part

- (1) This Part applies to a claim (an apportionable claim) if the claim is a claim for damages made under section 236 of the Australian Consumer Law for:
 - (a) economic loss; or
 - (b) damage to property;caused by conduct that was done in a contravention of section 18 of the Australian Consumer Law.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, there is a single apportionable claim in proceedings in respect of the same loss or damage even if the claim for the loss or damage is based on more than one cause of action (whether or not of the same or a different kind).
- (3) In this Part, a concurrent wrongdoer, in relation to a claim, is a person who is one of 2 or more persons whose acts or omissions (or act or omission) caused, independently of each other or jointly, the damage or loss that is the subject of the claim.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part, apportionable claims are limited to those claims specified in subsection (1).
- (5) For the purposes of this Part, it does not matter that a concurrent wrongdoer is insolvent, is being wound up or has ceased to exist or died.

87CC Certain concurrent wrongdoers not to have benefit of apportionment

- (1) Nothing in this Part operates to exclude the liability of a concurrent wrongdoer (an excluded concurrent wrongdoer) in proceedings involving an apportionable claim if:

- (a) the concurrent wrongdoer intended to cause the economic loss or damage to property that is the subject of the claim; or
 - (b) the concurrent wrongdoer fraudulently caused the economic loss or damage to property that is the subject of the claim.
- (2) The liability of an excluded concurrent wrongdoer is to be determined in accordance with the legal rules (if any) that (apart from this Part) are relevant.
- (3) The liability of any other concurrent wrongdoer who is not an excluded concurrent wrongdoer is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

87CD Proportionate liability for apportionable claims

- (1) In any proceedings involving an apportionable claim:
- (a) the liability of a defendant who is a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to that claim is limited to an amount reflecting that proportion of the damage or loss claimed that the court considers just having regard to the extent of the defendant's responsibility for the damage or loss; and
 - (b) the court may give judgment against the defendant for not more than that amount.
- (2) If the proceedings involve both an apportionable claim and a claim that is not an apportionable claim:
- (a) liability for the apportionable claim is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Part; and
 - (b) liability for the other claim is to be determined in accordance with the legal rules, if any, that (apart from this Part) are relevant.
- (3) In apportioning responsibility between defendants in the proceedings:
- (a) the court is to exclude that proportion of the damage or loss in relation to which the plaintiff is contributorily negligent under any relevant law; and

Section 87CE

- (b) the court may have regard to the comparative responsibility of any concurrent wrongdoer who is not a party to the proceedings.
- (4) This section applies in proceedings involving an apportionable claim whether or not all concurrent wrongdoers are parties to the proceedings.
- (5) A reference in this Part to a defendant in proceedings includes any person joined as a defendant or other party in the proceedings (except as a plaintiff) whether joined under this Part, under rules of court or otherwise.

87CE Defendant to notify plaintiff of concurrent wrongdoer of whom defendant aware

- (1) If:
 - (a) a defendant in proceedings involving an apportionable claim has reasonable grounds to believe that a particular person (the other person) may be a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim; and
 - (b) the defendant fails to give the plaintiff, as soon as practicable, written notice of the information that the defendant has about:
 - (i) the identity of the other person; and
 - (ii) the circumstances that may make the other person a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim; and
 - (c) the plaintiff unnecessarily incurs costs in the proceedings because the plaintiff was not aware that the other person may be a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim;the court hearing the proceedings may order that the defendant pay all or any of those costs of the plaintiff.
- (2) The court may order that the costs to be paid by the defendant be assessed on an indemnity basis or otherwise.

87CF Contribution not recoverable from defendant

A defendant against whom judgment is given under this Part as a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to an apportionable claim:

- (a) cannot be required to contribute to any damages or contribution recovered from another concurrent wrongdoer in respect of the apportionable claim (whether or not the damages or contribution are recovered in the same proceedings in which judgment is given against the defendant); and
- (b) cannot be required to indemnify any such wrongdoer.

87CG Subsequent actions

- (1) In relation to an apportionable claim, nothing in this Part or any other law prevents a plaintiff who has previously recovered judgment against a concurrent wrongdoer for an apportionable part of any damage or loss from bringing another action against any other concurrent wrongdoer for that damage or loss.
- (2) However, in any proceedings in respect of any such action, the plaintiff cannot recover an amount of damages that, having regard to any damages previously recovered by the plaintiff in respect of the damage or loss, would result in the plaintiff receiving compensation for damage or loss that is greater than the damage or loss actually sustained by the plaintiff.

87CH Joining non-party concurrent wrongdoer in the action

- (1) The court may give leave for any one or more persons to be joined as defendants in proceedings involving an apportionable claim.
- (2) The court is not to give leave for the joinder of any person who was a party to any previously concluded proceedings in respect of the apportionable claim.

87CI Application of Part

Nothing in this Part:

Section 87CI

- (a) prevents a person being held vicariously liable for a proportion of an apportionable claim for which another person is liable; or
- (b) prevents a partner from being held severally liable with another partner for that proportion of an apportionable claim for which the other partner is liable; or
- (c) affects the operation of any other Act to the extent that it imposes several liability on any person in respect of what would otherwise be an apportionable claim.

87F Basic rule

- (1) A court must not award personal injury damages in a proceeding to which this Part applies if the proceeding was commenced:
 - (a) after the end of the period of 3 years after the date of discoverability for the death or injury to which the personal injury damages would relate; or
 - (b) after the end of the long-stop period for that death or injury.

- (2) This diagram shows when this Division prevents an award of personal injury damages.

87G Date of discoverability

Definition

- (1) The date of discoverability for the death or injury is the first date when the plaintiff in the proceeding knows or ought to know each of the following:
 - (a) that the death or personal injury has occurred;
 - (b) that the death or personal injury was attributable to a contravention of this Act;
 - (c) that in the case of a personal injury—the injury was significant enough to justify bringing an action.

Section 87G

Constructive knowledge

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the plaintiff ought to know a fact if the plaintiff would have ascertained the fact had the plaintiff taken all reasonable steps before the date in question to ascertain the fact.

Use of the plaintiff's conduct and statements

- (3) In determining what the plaintiff knows or ought to have known, the court may have regard to the plaintiff's conduct, and to the plaintiff's oral or written statements.

Minors

- (4) If the plaintiff is a minor, facts that a capable parent or guardian of the plaintiff knows or ought to know are taken for the purposes of subsection (1) to be facts that the plaintiff knows or ought to know.

 - (b) there is a guardian of the plaintiff, or other person to manage all or part of the plaintiff's estate, under a law of a State or Territory relating to the protection of incapacitated persons;
- facts that the guardian or other person knows or ought to know are taken for the purposes of subsection (1) to be facts that the plaintiff knows or ought to know.

Proceedings by personal representatives

- (6) Despite subsection (1), if the plaintiff brings the proceeding in the capacity of the personal representative of a deceased person, the date of discoverability for the death or injury is the earliest of:
- (a) if, had the deceased person commenced a proceeding, in relation to the contravention to which the death or injury relates, before his or her death, the date of discoverability

- under subsection (1) would have occurred more than 3 years before the death—that date; or
- (b) if, at the time of the plaintiff's appointment as personal representative, the plaintiff knew, or ought to have known, all of the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c)—the date of the appointment; or
 - (c) if the first time at which the plaintiff knew, or ought to have known, all of the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c) was after the date of appointment—the date of that first time.

87H Long-stop period

- (1) The long-stop period for the death or injury of a person is:
 - (a) the period of 12 years following the act or omission alleged to have caused the death or injury; or
 - (b) that period as extended by the court.
- (2) The court must not extend the period by more than 3 years beyond the date of discoverability for the death or injury.
- (3) In considering whether to extend the period, the court must have regard to the justice of the case, and, in particular, must have regard to:
 - (a) whether the passage of time has prejudiced a fair trial; and
 - (b) the nature and extent of the person's loss or damage; and
 - (c) the nature of the defendant's conduct alleged to have caused the death or injury; and

Section 87K

- (a) a minor who is not in the custody of a capable parent or guardian; or

 - (b) make a determination granting an authorization under subsection 88(1) in respect of a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding that is or may be an exclusionary provision unless it is satisfied in all the circumstances that the provision has resulted, or is likely to

- (4) The Commission must not make a determination varying an authorization to which, if it were a new authorization, subsection 90(5A), (5B), (5D), (6) or (7) would apply, unless the Commission is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, the variation would not result, or would be likely not to result, in a reduction in the extent to which the benefit to the public of the authorization outweighs any detriment to the public caused by the authorization.
- (5) The Commission must not make a determination varying an authorization to which, if it were a new authorization, subsection 90(5C), (8), (8A), (8B) or (9) would apply, unless the Commission is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, the variation would not result, or would be likely not to result, in a reduction in the benefit to the public that arose from the original authorization.
- (6) Nothing in this section prevents a person from applying for 2 or more variations in the same application.
- (7) If:

 - (i) at the same time; or

- (ii) in such close succession that the variations could conveniently be dealt with by the Commission at the same time; and

- (8) An application for a minor variation may be withdrawn by notice in writing to the Commission at any time.

91B Revocation of an authorization

- (6) An application for revocation may be withdrawn by notice in writing to the Commission at any time.
- (7) The Commission may disregard any objection that, in its opinion, is either vexatious or frivolous.

 - (ii) each reference to the applicant or other person were a reference only to the other person.

Section 93A

proposes to give the notice under subsection 93(3) or (3A) or 93AC(1) or (2).

- (4) If each of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2):
- (a) notifies the Commission in writing within the period of 14 days mentioned in that subsection that the person does not wish the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft notice; or
 - (b) does not notify the Commission within that period that he or she wishes the Commission to hold such a conference;
- the Commission must decide after the end of that period whether or not to give the notice under subsection 93(3) or (3A) or 93AC(1) or (2).
- (5) If any of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2) notifies the Commission in writing within the period of 14 days mentioned in that subsection that he or she wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft notice, the Commission shall appoint a date (being not later than 30 days after the expiration of that period), time and place for the holding of the conference and give notice of the date, time and place so appointed to each of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2).
- (6) At the conference:
- (a) the Commission shall be represented by a member or members of the Commission (being a member or members who participated in the preparation of the draft notice) nominated by the Chairperson; and
 - (b) each person to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2) and any other interested person whose presence at the conference is considered by the Commission to be appropriate is entitled to attend and participate personally or, in the case of a body corporate, may be represented by a person who, or by persons each of whom, is a director, officer or employee of the body corporate; and

- (c) a person participating in the conference in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) is entitled to have another person or other persons present to assist him or her but a person who so assists another person at the conference is not entitled to participate in the discussion; and
 - (e) no other person is entitled to be present.
- (7) A member of the Commission participating in the conference shall make such record of the discussions as is sufficient to set out the matters raised by the persons participating in the conference.

Section 95

- (10A) After the conference, the Commission must decide whether or not to give a notice under subsection 93(3) or (3A) or 93AC(1) or (2).
- (11) For the purposes of this section, interested person means a person who has notified the Commission in writing that he or she, or a specified unincorporated association of which he or she is a member, claims to have an interest in the matter, being an interest that, in the opinion of the Commission, is real and substantial.
- (12) Where the Commission is of the opinion that two or more notices given to the Commission under subsection 93(1) or 93AB(1A) or (1) by the same person, or by persons being bodies corporate that are related to each other, deal with substantially similar conduct or proposed conduct, the Commission may treat the notices as if they constituted a single notice and may prepare one draft notice in relation to the notices so given to the Commission and hold one conference in relation to that draft notice.

Subdivision D—Register of notifications

Division 3—Merger clearances and authorisations

Subdivision A—Preliminary

95AA Simplified outline of this Division

This Division is about merger clearances and merger authorisations.

It relates to section 50: that section prohibits a person acquiring shares in the capital of a body corporate or assets of another person if the acquisition would have, or be likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market. If a person has a clearance or authorisation for the acquisition, section 50 will not prevent the person from making the acquisition.

The main differences between merger clearances and authorisations are:

- different bodies decide whether they should be granted;
- different timeframes apply for when the body must make its decision;
- they have different tests that need to be satisfied for them to be granted;
- merits review is not available for decisions on authorisations.

For merger clearances (see Subdivision B):

- the Commission grants them;

Section 95AB

- it must make its decision whether to grant within 40 business days (which can be extended if the applicant agrees or the Commission so decides), and if it does not, the application is taken to be refused;
- it cannot grant the clearance unless it is satisfied that the acquisition would not have the effect, or be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market;
- if it refuses to grant a clearance, or grants a clearance subject to conditions, then the person who applied for the clearance may apply to the Tribunal under Division 3 of Part IX for review of the Commission's decision.

For merger authorisations (see Subdivision C):

- the Tribunal grants them;
- it must make its decision whether to grant within 3 months (which can be extended to 6 months in special circumstances), and if it does not, the application is taken to be refused;
- it cannot grant the authorisation unless it is satisfied that the acquisition would result, or be likely to result, in such a benefit to the public that the acquisition should be allowed to take place.

Subdivision D contains a prohibition on providing false or misleading information to the Commission or Tribunal under this Division or Division 3 of Part IX.

95AB Definitions

In this Division:

authorisation means an authorisation granted under this Division.

business day means a day that is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a public holiday in the Australian Capital Territory.

clearance means a clearance granted under this Division.

merger authorisation register means the register kept under section 95AZ.

merger clearance register means the register kept under section 95AH.

minor variation, in relation to a clearance or an authorisation, is a single variation that does not involve a material change in the effect of the clearance or authorisation.

Subdivision B—Merger clearances

95AC Commission may grant clearance for a merger

- (1) The Commission may grant a clearance to a person:
 - (a) to acquire shares in the capital of a body corporate; or
 - (b) to acquire assets of another person.

Note: Section 95AN prohibits the Commission from granting a clearance for an acquisition unless the Commission is satisfied that the acquisition would not have the effect, or be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition.

- (2) If the Commission does so, then section 50 does not prevent the person from acquiring the shares or assets in accordance with the clearance.

Note: The acquisition will only be protected from the operation of section 50 if it takes place in accordance with the clearance. If it does not, then section 50 will apply to the acquisition. If the acquisition contravenes section 50, then the remedies in Part VI will apply (see, for example, penalties under section 76 and divestiture under section 81).

- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), an acquisition will not be in accordance with a clearance if any conditions of the clearance are not complied with (whether the conditions are to be complied with before, during or after the acquisition).

Section 95AD

95AD Application for clearance

A person who wants a clearance to acquire shares or assets must apply to the Commission for it.

95AE Requirements for valid clearance application

- (1) To be valid, the application must:
 - (a) be in a form prescribed by the regulations and contain the information required by the form; and
 - (b) be accompanied by such other information or documents as are prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe that the application form contain a requirement that the applicant give an undertaking under section 87B that the applicant will not make the acquisition while the application is being considered by the Commission.

95AF Commission to notify if clearance application is invalid

If the Commission receives a purported application that it considers is not a valid application, it must, within 5 business days of receiving the purported application, give the person who made the purported application a written notice:

- (a) stating that the person has not made a valid application; and
- (b) giving reasons why the purported application does not comply with this Division.

95AG Application to be published on the internet

After receiving an application for a clearance, the Commission must:

- (a) subject to section 95AI (confidentiality), put a copy of the application, and accompanying information or documents, on its website; and

- (b) by notice on its website, invite submissions in respect of the application within the period specified by it.

95AH Merger clearance register

- (1) The Commission must keep a register (the merger clearance register) of:
- (a) applications for clearances; and
 - (b) applications for minor variations of clearances; and
 - (c) applications for, or the Commission's proposals under section 95AS for, the revocation of clearances or for the revocation of clearances and the substitution of other clearances;
- including applications that have been withdrawn or proposals that have been abandoned.
- (2) The register must include:
- (a) any document given to the Commission in relation to an application or proposal referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) particulars of any oral submission made to the Commission in relation to such an application or proposal; and
 - (c) the determination of the Commission on such an application or proposal and the statement of the reasons given by the Commission for that determination;
- unless section 95AI (confidentiality) prevents the inclusion.

95AI Confidentiality claims etc.

Requests for confidential treatment

- (1) If a person gives information to the Commission in relation to an application or proposal referred to in subsection 95AH(1), the person may, at the time of giving the information, request that the information be excluded from the merger clearance register and the Commission's website because of its confidential nature.

Section 95AI

Confidentiality claims to be determined first

- (2) If such a request is made, the Commission must exclude the information from the register and its website until it has made a determination on the request.

When Commission must exclude information—request made

- (3) If such a request is made, the Commission must exclude the information from the register and its website if the information contains particulars of:
- (a) a secret formula or process; or
 - (b) the cash consideration offered for the acquisition of shares in the capital of a body corporate or assets of a person; or
 - (c) the current costs of manufacturing, producing or marketing goods or services.

When Commission may exclude information—request made

- (4) If such a request is made, the Commission may, if it is satisfied that it is desirable to do so because of the confidential nature of the information, exclude the information from the register and its website.

If request refused, document may be withdrawn

- (5) If the Commission refuses such a request and the information is contained in a document, the Commission must, if the person who gave the document to it so requires, return the document or part of the document to the person. In that case, it must exclude the document or the part of the document (as the case requires) from the register and its website.

If request refused, oral submission may be withdrawn

- (6) If the Commission refuses such a request and the information was given by way of oral submission, the person who made the submission may withdraw all or part of the submission. In that case, the Commission must exclude the submission or part of the submission (as the case requires) from the register and its website.

When Commission may exclude information—no request made

- (1) The Commission must make a determination in writing:
 - (a) granting the clearance; or
 - (b) refusing to grant the clearance.

Section 95AN

Note: The Commission must make its determination within the time limit set out in section 95AO. If it does not, then it is taken to have refused to grant the clearance.

- (2) In making its determination, the Commission must take into account:
- (a) any submissions in relation to the application made to it by the applicant, the Commonwealth, a State, a Territory or any other person that are received within the period specified under paragraph 95AG(b); and
 - (b) any information received under section 95AJ within the period specified in the relevant notice under that section; and
 - (c) any information received under subsection 95AK(1) within the period specified in the relevant notice under that subsection; and
 - (d) any information obtained from consultations under subsection 95AK(2).
- (2A) In making its determination, the Commission may disregard:
- (a) any submissions in relation to the application made to it by the applicant, the Commonwealth, a State, a Territory or any other person that are received after the period specified under paragraph 95AG(b); and
 - (b) any information received under section 95AJ after the period specified in the relevant notice under that section; and

- (2) To avoid doubt, a clearance cannot be granted for an acquisition that has occurred.

95AO Time limits for determining application

- (1) If the Commission has not made a determination on the application within the period that begins on the day the application was given to the Commission and ends on the 40th business day after that day, the Commission is, subject to subsection (3), taken to have made a determination refusing to grant the clearance.
- (2) The applicant may, before the end of the period referred to in subsection (1) (including any period that is taken to be substituted for that period by any other application or applications of this subsection), agree to the Commission taking a specified longer period to make its determination. If the applicant does, the longer period is taken to be substituted for the period referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) However, if before the end of the period referred to in subsection (1) (including any period that is taken to be substituted for that period by any other application or applications of subsection (2)), the Commission decides that the matter cannot be dealt with properly within that period, either because of its complexity or because of other special circumstances, which must be notified in writing by the Commission to the applicant, the period is extended by a further 20 business days and the longer period is taken to be substituted for the period referred to in subsection (1) (or any other period that is taken to be substituted for that period by any other application or applications of subsection (2)).

95AP Clearance subject to conditions

- (1) The Commission may grant a clearance subject to such conditions as are specified in the clearance.

Note 1: Under subsection 95AS(5), the Commission may revoke a clearance if a condition of the clearance has not been complied with.

Section 95AQ

Note 2: If an acquisition takes place without complying with a condition of the clearance (whether the condition is to be complied with before, during or after the acquisition), the acquisition will not be in accordance with the clearance and so might contravene section 50 (see subsections 95AC(2) and (3)). If the acquisition contravenes section 50, then the remedies in Part VI will apply (see, for example, penalties under section 76 and divestiture under section 81).

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Commission may grant a clearance subject to the condition that the person to whom the clearance is granted must make, and comply with, an undertaking to the Commission under section 87B.

95AQ When clearance is in force

- (1) A clearance that is not subject to conditions comes into force on the day on which the determination granting the clearance is made.
- (2) A clearance that is subject to conditions comes into force:
- (a) if an application is made to the Tribunal for a review of the Commission's determination and the application is not withdrawn—on the day on which the Tribunal makes a determination on the review; or
 - (b) if an application is made to the Tribunal for a review of the Commission's determination and the application is withdrawn—on the day on which the application is withdrawn; or
 - (c) if the person to whom the clearance was given gives a notice in writing to the Commission stating that the person will not make an application to the Tribunal for review—on the day on which the notice is given; or
 - (d) in any other case—at the end of the period in which an application may be made to the Tribunal for review of the determination.

 - (b) be accompanied by such other information or documents as are prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations.
- (2A) The regulations may prescribe that the application form contain a requirement that the applicant give an undertaking under section 87B that the applicant will not make the acquisition while the application is being considered by the Commission.

Commission to notify if application is invalid

- (3) If the Commission receives a purported application that it considers is not a valid application, it must, within 5 business days of receiving the purported application, give the person who made the purported application a written notice:
- (a) stating that the person has not made a valid application; and
 - (b) giving reasons why the purported application does not comply with this Division.

Application to be published on the internet

- (4) The Commission must, if it is satisfied that the variation sought in the application is a minor variation:
- (a) subject to section 95AI (confidentiality), put a copy of the application on its website; and

Section 95AR

- (b) by notice on its website, invite submissions in respect of the application within a period specified by it.

Commission must make a determination on the application

- (5) The Commission must make a determination in writing:
 - (a) varying the clearance; or
 - (b) refusing to vary the clearance.

The Commission must notify the applicant in writing of its determination and give written reasons for it.

- (5A) In making its determination, the Commission must take into account:
 - (a) any submissions received within the period specified under subsection (4); and
 - (b) any information received under section 95AJ within the period specified in the relevant notice under that section (as that section applies because of subsection (11) of this section); and subsection (as that subsection applies because of subsection (11) of this section).

When variation must not be granted

- (6) The Commission must not make a determination varying a clearance unless it is satisfied that the acquisition to which the clearance (as varied) would apply would not have the effect, or be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition (within the meaning of section 50).

Determination varying clearance may also vary clearance conditions

- (6A) A determination varying a clearance may also vary the conditions (if any) of the clearance to take account of the variation of the clearance.

Time limits for determining application

- (7) If the Commission has not made a determination on the application within the period that begins on the day the application was given to the Commission and ends on the 40th business day after that day, the Commission is, subject to subsection (8A), taken to have made a determination refusing to vary the clearance.

- (8A) However, if before the end of the period referred to in subsection (7) (including any period that is taken to be substituted for that period by any other application or applications of subsection (8)), the Commission decides that the matter cannot be dealt with properly within that period, either because of its complexity or because of other special circumstances, which must be notified in writing by the Commission to the applicant, the period is extended by a further 20 business days and the longer period is taken to be substituted for the period referred to in subsection (7) (or any other period that is taken to be substituted for that period by any other application or applications of subsection (8)).

2 or more variations at the same time

- (9) If:
- (a) a person applies for 2 or more variations:
 - (i) at the same time; or
 - (ii) in such close succession that the variations could conveniently be dealt with by the Commission at the same time; and
 - (b) the Commission is satisfied that the combined effect of those variations, if all were granted, would not involve a material change in the effect of the clearance;
- the Commission may deal with all of those variations together as if they were a single minor variation.

Applicant may withdraw application

- (10) The applicant may, by notice in writing to the Commission, withdraw the application at any time.

Powers of Commission

- (11) The following sections apply in relation to an application for a minor variation of a clearance in the same way as they apply in relation to an application for a clearance:
- (a) section 95AJ (Commission may seek additional information from applicant);
 - (b) section 95AK (Commission may seek further information and consult others).

95AS Revocation of clearance or revocation of clearance and substitution of a new clearance

Commission to notify if application is invalid

- (3) If the Commission receives a purported application that it considers is not a valid application, it must, within 5 business days of receiving the purported application, give the person who made the purported application a written notice:
- (a) stating that the person has not made a valid application; and
 - (b) giving reasons why the purported application does not comply with this Division.

- (a) that was invited under subsection (4) or (6); and
 - (b) that is received within the period specified;

Section 95AS

the Commission must not make a determination revoking the clearance unless it is satisfied that it would, if the clearance had not already been granted, be prevented under section 95AN from granting the clearance.

- (9) The Commission must not make a determination revoking a clearance and substituting another clearance unless it is satisfied that it would not be prevented under section 95AN from granting the substituted clearance, if it were a new clearance sought under section 95AD.

 - (b) giving reasons why the purported application does not comply with this Division.

- (4) The Tribunal must, if it is satisfied that the variation sought in the application is a minor variation, give a copy of it to the Commission within 3 business days of receiving it.

Applicant may withdraw application

- (12) The applicant may, by notice in writing to the Tribunal, withdraw the application at any time.

Time limits for determining application

- (11) If the Tribunal has not made a determination on an application under subsection (1) or (6) within the relevant period, the Tribunal is taken to have refused to revoke the authorisation.

Price inquiries

- (2) First, it provides for the Commission or another body to hold price inquiries in relation to the supply of goods or services.
- (3) These inquiries may relate to the supply of goods or services by a particular person. If so, the person's ability to increase the prices of those goods or services during a particular period is restricted. However, there is a way for the person to increase prices during that period.

Price notifications

- (4) Second, this Part allows the Minister or the Commission to declare goods or services to be notified goods or services and to declare a person to be a declared person in relation to such goods or services.
- (5) If this happens, the person's ability to increase the prices of such goods or services during a particular period is restricted. However, there is a way for the person to increase prices during that period.

Price monitoring

- (6) Third, this Part allows the Minister to direct the Commission to undertake price monitoring.
- (7) This may be in relation to supplies of goods or services in a particular industry or in relation to supplies of goods or services by particular persons.

Price notifications

- (5) The Commission is to consider locality notices and to take, in relation to such notices, such action in accordance with this Part as it considers appropriate.

Price monitoring

- (6) The Commission is to monitor prices, costs and profits in any industry or business that the Minister directs it to monitor and is to give the Minister a report on the results of such monitoring.

General

- (7) In exercising its powers and performing its functions under this Part, the Commission must, subject to any directions given under section 95ZH, have particular regard to the following:
 - (a) the need to maintain investment and employment, including the influence of profitability on investment and employment;

- (b) the need to discourage a person who is in a position to substantially influence a market for goods or services from taking advantage of that power in setting prices;
- (c) the need to discourage cost increases arising from increases in wages and changes in conditions of employment inconsistent with principles established by relevant industrial tribunals.
