39 At the end of Division 1 of Part V

Add:

39AA Dismissal of members of the Legislative Assembly

The Administrator may dismiss a member of the Legislative Assembly from office if the member has engaged, or is engaging, in:

- (a) seriously unlawful conduct; or
- (b) grossly improper conduct.

39AB Resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister

(1) If:

- (a) on a particular day, the Legislative Assembly passes a resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister; and
- (b) the Legislative Assembly does not, within the period of 10 days after that day, nominate a member of the Legislative Assembly to be the Chief Minister; and
- (c) the Governor-General does not, within that period of 10 days, dissolve the Legislative Assembly under section 39AC;

a general election of members of the Legislative Assembly is to be held on a day specified by the responsible Commonwealth Minister by notice published in the Commonwealth Gazette.

- (2) The specified day must not be earlier than 36 days, or later than 90 days, after the end of that period of 10 days.

- (3) The specified day must not be the polling day for:
 - (a) an election of the Senate; or
 - (b) a general election of the House of Representatives.
- (4) As soon as practicable after the publication of the notice under subsection (1), the responsible Commonwealth Minister must cause notice of the specified day to be published in the Norfolk Island Government Gazette.
- (5) During the period:
 - (a) beginning when the notice is published under subsection (1); and
 - (b) ending when the Legislative Assembly meets after the general election mentioned in subsection (1);the Administrator:
 - (c) is to exercise all the powers of the Administration, the Executive Council and Ministers in accordance with any directions given by the Governor-General; and
 - (d) if it is necessary to issue or spend public money of the Territory when not authorised to do so by or under enactment—may do so with the authority of the Governor-General.
- (6) The powers of the Governor-General under subsection (5) are to be exercised by Proclamation.
- (7) For the purposes of this Act, if a notice is published under subsection (1) on a particular day, the notice is taken to have been published at the last moment of that day.
- (8) A notice under subsection (1) or (4) is not a legislative instrument.
- (9) A Proclamation under subsection (5) is a legislative instrument, but section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 does not apply to the Proclamation.

39AC Dissolution of Legislative Assembly by the Governor-General

- (1) If, in the opinion of the Governor-General, the Legislative Assembly:
 - (a) is incapable of effectively performing its functions; or

- (b) is conducting its affairs in a grossly improper manner;
the Governor-General may dissolve the Legislative Assembly.
- (2) If the Legislative Assembly is dissolved, a general election of members of the Legislative Assembly is to be held on a day specified by the responsible Commonwealth Minister by notice published in the Commonwealth Gazette.
- (3) The specified day must not be earlier than 36 days, or later than 90 days, after the dissolution.
- (4) The specified day must not be the polling day for:
(a) an election of the Senate; or
(b) a general election of the House of Representatives.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the publication of the notice under subsection (2), the responsible Commonwealth Minister must cause notice of the specified day to be published in the Norfolk Island Government Gazette.
- (6) During the period:
(a) beginning when the Legislative Assembly is dissolved; and
(b) ending when the Legislative Assembly meets after the first general election of the Legislative Assembly that takes place after the dissolution;
the Administrator:
(c) is to exercise all the powers of the Administration, the Executive Council and Ministers in accordance with any directions given by the Governor-General; and
(d) if it is necessary to issue or spend public money of the Territory when not authorised to do so by or under enactment—may do so with the authority of the Governor-General.
- (7) The powers of the Governor-General under this section are to be exercised by Proclamation.
- (8) The responsible Commonwealth Minister must cause a statement of the reasons for the dissolution to be:
(a) published in the Commonwealth Gazette and the Norfolk Island Government Gazette as soon as practicable after the dissolution; and

- (b) tabled in each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after the dissolution.
- (9) A notice under subsection (2) or (5) is not a legislative instrument.
- (10) A Proclamation under this section is a legislative instrument, but section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 does not apply to the Proclamation.

40 At the end of section 42

Add:

- (7) If a motion of no confidence in the Chief Minister is before the Legislative Assembly, the Legislative Assembly must deal with that motion before proceeding to the despatch of any other business.

41 After section 42

Insert:

42A Resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister

- (1) A resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister passed by the Legislative Assembly has no effect unless:
 - (a) it affirms a motion that is expressed to be a motion of no confidence in the Chief Minister; and
 - (b) at least 14 days notice of the motion has been given in accordance with the standing rules and orders; and
 - (c) the resolution is passed by at least the number of members necessary to be a quorum; and
 - (d) the resolution is passed by a majority of the number of members present and voting at the meeting of the Assembly.
- (2) If a motion for a resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister is being voted on by the Legislative Assembly, each member present at the meeting of the Assembly must cast a vote on the motion.

- (3) If an application is made to the Federal Court for an injunction under subsection (1), the Court may, before considering the application, grant an interim injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct of a kind referred to in that subsection.

No undertakings as to damages

- (4) The Federal Court is not to require an applicant for an injunction under subsection (1), as a condition of granting an interim injunction, to give any undertakings as to damages.

Discharge or variation of injunctions

- (5) The Federal Court may discharge or vary an injunction granted under this section.

Certain limits on granting injunctions not to apply

- (6) The power of the Federal Court under this section to grant an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct of a particular kind may be exercised:
- (a) if the Court is satisfied that the person has engaged in conduct of that kind—whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind; or
 - (b) if it appears to the Court that, if an injunction is not granted, it is likely that the person will engage in conduct of that kind—whether or not the person has previously engaged in conduct of that kind and whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any person if the person engages in conduct of that kind.
- (7) The power of the Federal Court under this section to grant an injunction requiring a person to do an act or thing may be exercised:
- (a) if the Court is satisfied that the person has refused or failed to do that act or thing—whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to refuse or fail again, or to continue to refuse or fail, to do that act or thing; or
 - (b) if it appears to the Court that, if an injunction is not granted, it is likely that the person will refuse or fail to do that act or thing—whether or not the person has previously refused or failed to do that act or thing and whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any person if the person refuses or fails to do that act or thing.

Other powers of the Federal Court unaffected

- (8) The powers conferred on the Federal Court under this section are in addition to, and not instead of, any other powers of the Court, whether conferred by this Act or otherwise.

26AA Consultation—documents affecting Norfolk Island
intergovernmental relations

Scope

(1) This section applies if:

(a) either:

- (i) arrangements have been entered into between Norfolk Island and the Commonwealth about consultation under this section; or

- (ii) arrangements have been entered into between Norfolk Island and a State about consultation under this section; and
- (b) if subparagraph (a)(i) applies—a request is made to a Norfolk Island authority or Norfolk Island Minister for access to a document that:
 - (i) originated with, or was received from, the Commonwealth or an authority of the Commonwealth; or
 - (ii) contains information (Commonwealth-originated information) that originated with, or was received from, the Commonwealth or an authority of the Commonwealth; and
- (c) if subparagraph (a)(ii) applies—a request is made to a Norfolk Island authority or Norfolk Island Minister for access to a document that:
 - (i) originated with, or was received from, the State or an authority of the State; or
 - (ii) contains information (State-originated information) that originated with, or was received from, the State or an authority of the State; and
- (d) if subparagraph (a)(i) applies—it appears to the Norfolk Island authority or Norfolk Island Minister that the Commonwealth may reasonably wish to contend that:
 - (i) the document is conditionally exempt under section 47B (Commonwealth-State relations etc.); and
 - (ii) access to the document would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest for the purposes of subsection 11A(5); and
- (e) if subparagraph (a)(ii) applies—it appears to the Norfolk Island authority or Norfolk Island Minister that the State may reasonably wish to contend that:
 - (i) the document is conditionally exempt under section 47B (Commonwealth-State relations etc.); and
 - (ii) access to the document would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest for the purposes of subsection 11A(5).

Note: Access must generally be given to a conditionally exempt document unless it would be contrary to the public interest (see section 11A).

Consultation required

- (2) The Norfolk Island authority or Norfolk Island Minister must not decide to give the applicant access to the document unless consultation has taken place between:
- (a) if subparagraph (1)(a)(i) applies—Norfolk Island and the Commonwealth in accordance with the arrangements mentioned in that subparagraph; or
 - (b) if subparagraph (1)(a)(ii) applies—Norfolk Island and the State in accordance with the arrangements mentioned in that subparagraph.

Decision to give access

- (3) If, after such consultation has taken place, the Norfolk Island authority or Norfolk Island Minister decides to give the applicant access to the document, the Norfolk Island authority or Norfolk Island Minister must give written notice of the decision to:
- (a) if subparagraph (1)(a)(i) applies—the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) if subparagraph (1)(a)(ii) applies—the State; and
 - (c) in any case—the applicant.

Access not to be given until review or appeal opportunities have run out

- (4) However, the Norfolk Island authority or Norfolk Island Minister must not give the applicant access to the document unless, after all the opportunities of:
- (a) if subparagraph (1)(a)(i) applies—the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) if subparagraph (1)(a)(ii) applies—the State;
- for review or appeal in relation to the decision to give access to the document have run out, the decision still stands, or is confirmed.

Note 1: The decision to give access to the document is subject to internal review (see Part VI), review by the Information Commissioner (see Part VII) and review by the Tribunal (see Part VIIA).

Note 2: For when all opportunities for review or appeal in relation to the decision to give access to the document have run out, see subsection 4(1).

Edited copies, Commonwealth-originated information and State-originated information

- (5) This section applies:
- (a) in relation to an edited copy of a document in the same way as it applies to the document; and
 - (b) in relation to a document containing Commonwealth-originated information—to the extent to which the document contains such information; and
 - (c) in relation to a document containing State-originated information—to the extent to which the document contains such information.
