Schedule 1—Responses to the Productivity Commission

Part 1—PBR in essentially derived varieties

Plant Breeder's Rights Regulations 1994

1 After regulation 3A

Insert:

3BA Essential derivation for non-PBR protected varieties—publication of notification of application in Journal

For the purposes of subsection 41B(1) of the Act, a notification in the Plant Varieties Journal of an application under section 41A of the Act for a declaration of essential derivation must include the following information about the applicant and the application:

- (a) a description of the initial variety and the second variety;
- (b) details, as stated in the application, of:
 - (i) the eligible person (within the meaning of section 41A of the Act) making the application; and
 - (ii) any person (or persons) the applicant reasonably believes to be the breeder of the second variety;
- (c) any other information about those plant varieties, or the application, that the Registrar considers appropriate to publish, other than information that the Registrar is satisfied is commercial-in-confidence;
- (d) details of the opportunity for a person (an interested person) claiming to be the breeder of the second variety, or to have another interest in the second variety, to be heard in relation to the application under section 41C of the Act, including the requirement under subsection 41C(2) of the Act to give the Registrar an address for service;
- (e) a statement to the effect that the Registrar may draw an inference in deciding the application that is unfavourable to an interested person's interest if:
 - (i) the interested person does not provide an address for service, within the hearing period, under subsection 41C(2) of the Act; or
 - (ii) the interested person declines the opportunity to be heard under subsection 41C(6) of the Act.

3BB Essential derivation for non-PBR protected varieties—opportunity to be heard

Scope

- (1) This regulation is made for the purposes of subsection 41C(4) of the Act.

When information is given in accordance with an opportunity to be heard

- (2) Information is given by an interested person in accordance with the person's opportunity to be heard in relation to an application under section 41A of the Act for a declaration of essential derivation if:
- (a) the person gives the information:
 - (i) in a written submission made in accordance with a request of the Registrar under paragraph (3)(a); or
 - (ii) in the course of a hearing convened by the Registrar under subregulation (4); and
 - (b) the person pays the fee (if any) prescribed under subsection 80(2) of the Act in relation to the opportunity to be heard; and
 - (c) the person complies with any other requirements under this regulation.

Notification to give written submissions or to appear at a hearing

- (3) The Registrar must, unless the interested person declines the opportunity to be heard by giving notice to the Registrar under paragraph 41C(6)(a) of the Act, give a notification to the interested person including any or all of the following:
- (a) a request to the interested person to give written submissions in relation to the application to the Registrar within a period, stated in the notification, of no less than 10 business days after the notification is given;
 - (b) a statement that, on request to the Registrar, a hearing may be convened in relation to the application, beginning at a place, at a time and on a date determined by the Registrar by a further notification (a hearing notice) to the person no less than 10 business days after the hearing notice is given;
 - (c) a statement (a hearing notice) that a hearing will be convened by the Registrar in relation to the application beginning at a notified time and place, and on a notified date no less than 10 business days after the notification is given.

Note: A hearing notice mentioned in paragraph (b) or (c) may include requirements for the interested person in relation to the hearing (see paragraph (5)(d) and subregulation (6)).

Hearings

- (4) The Registrar may convene a hearing in relation to the application as mentioned in paragraph (3)(b) or (c).
- (5) For the purposes of the hearing:
- (a) the interested person may appear in person, or participate by telephone or another means of telecommunication reasonably allowed by the Registrar; and
 - (b) the Registrar may adjourn the hearing from time to time or from place to place by notice to each interested person taking part; and
 - (c) the interested person must, if directed by the Registrar in a hearing notice, provide a written summary of submissions to be made at the hearing; and
 - (d) the interested person must, if required by a hearing notice, take reasonable steps to do any of the following before or at the hearing:
 - (i) perform an act;
 - (ii) file a document;

- (iii) produce evidence; and
 - (e) the interested person must comply with any reasonable directions of the Registrar in relation to practice and procedure during the hearing.
- (6) The Registrar may include a requirement for the purposes of paragraph (5)(d) in a hearing notice only if the Registrar reasonably believes it is necessary for the proper conduct of the hearing.

2 Clause 1 of Schedule 1 (table item 9)

Omit “subsection 40(1)”, substitute “section 40 or 41A”.

Schedule 2—Other measures

Part 1—Extensions of time

Trade Marks Regulations 1995

1 At the end of Subdivision B of Division 2 of Part 5

Add:

5.13A Extension of time for filing—application

- (1) A person may apply to the Registrar to extend the period for filing, under subsection 52A(1) of the Act, a notice of intention to defend.
 - (2) The application must be made before the end of the period of 2 months beginning on the day after the end of the period mentioned in subregulation 5.13(1).
 - (3) The application must:
 - (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) be accompanied by a declaration stating the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds for making the application.
- Note: Regulations 21.6 and 21.7 deal with making and filing declarations.
- (4) The application may be made only on either or both of the following grounds:
 - (a) an error or omission by the person, the person’s agent, the Registrar or an employee;
 - (b) circumstances beyond the control of the person, other than an error or omission by the person, the person’s agent, the Registrar or an employee.

5.13B Extension of time for filing—grant

- (1) The Registrar may grant an application under subregulation 5.13A(1) for an extension of time only if the Registrar is satisfied that the grounds set out in the application justify the extension.
- (2) However, if the application is made after the period mentioned in subregulation 5.13(1) has ended, the Registrar must not grant the extension unless the Registrar is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for the delay in making the application.
- (3) The Registrar must decide the length of the extended period having regard to what is reasonable in the circumstances.

2 Subregulation 9.15(3)

After “subregulation (1)”, insert “or that period as extended”.

3 At the end of Subdivision B of Division 3 of Part 9

Add:

9.15A Extension of time for filing—application

- (2) The application must be made before the end of the period of 2 months beginning on the day after the end of the period mentioned in subregulation 9.15(1).
- (3) The application must:
 - (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) be accompanied by a declaration stating the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds for making the application.

Note: Regulations 21.6 and 21.7 deal with making and filing declarations.

- (4) The application may be made only on either or both of the following grounds:
 - (a) an error or omission by the person, the person's agent, the Registrar or an employee;
 - (b) circumstances beyond the control of the person, other than an error or omission by the person, the person's agent, the Registrar or an employee.

9.15B Extension of time for filing—grant

- (1) The Registrar may grant an application under subregulation 9.15A(1) for an extension of time only if the Registrar is satisfied that the grounds set out in the application justify the extension.
- (2) However, if the application is made after the period mentioned in subregulation 9.15(1) has ended, the Registrar must not grant the extension unless the Registrar is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for the delay in making the application.
- (3) The Registrar must decide the length of the extended period having regard to what is reasonable in the circumstances.

4 Subregulation 17A.34H(4)

After “subregulation (1)”, insert “or that period as extended”.

5 After regulation 17A.34H

Insert:

17A.34HA Extension of time for filing—application

- (1) A person may apply to the Registrar to extend the period for filing a notice of intention to defend.
- (2) The application must be made before the end of the period of 2 months beginning on the day after the end of the period mentioned in subregulation 17A.34H(1).
- (3) The application must:
 - (a) be in the approved form; and

- (b) be accompanied by a declaration stating the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds for making the application.

Note: Regulations 21.6 and 21.7 deal with making and filing declarations.

- (4) The application may be made only on either or both of the following grounds:
 - (a) an error or omission by the person, the person's agent, the Registrar or an employee;
 - (b) circumstances beyond the control of the person, other than an error or omission by the person, the person's agent, the Registrar or an employee.

17A.34HB Extension of time for filing—grant

- (1) The Registrar may grant an application under subregulation 17A.34HA(1) for an extension of time only if the Registrar is satisfied that the grounds set out in the application justify the extension.
- (2) However, if the application is made after the period mentioned in subregulation 17A.34H(1) has ended, the Registrar must not grant the extension unless the Registrar is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for the delay in making the application.
- (3) The Registrar must decide the length of the extended period having regard to what is reasonable in the circumstances.

6 Subregulation 17A.48Q(3)

After “subregulation (1)”, insert “or that period as extended”.

- (b) direct the registered owner of the registered trade mark who made the request for amendment, and a person (an opponent) who filed a notice of opposition, accordingly.

8.6 Amendment because of inconsistency with international agreements— hearing

- (1) The Registrar:
 - (a) must hold a hearing of an opposition under subsection 83A(4) of the Act if requested by the registered owner of the registered trade mark, or an opponent, in writing; or
 - (b) may decide, on the Registrar's own initiative, to hold a hearing of the opposition.
- (2) The hearing may, at the Registrar's discretion, be:
 - (a) an oral hearing; or
 - (b) by written submissions.
- (3) If the Registrar decides on an oral hearing:
 - (a) the Registrar must notify the registered owner of the registered trade mark, and each opponent, of the date, time and place of the hearing; and
 - (b) the registered owner of the registered trade mark must file a summary of submissions at least 5 business days before the hearing; and
 - (c) each opponent must file a summary of submissions at least 10 business days before the hearing.
- (4) If the registered owner of the registered trade mark, or an opponent, fails to file a summary of submissions under subregulation (3), the Registrar may take that failure into account in making an award of costs.
- (5) The Registrar must:
 - (a) decide the opposition; and
 - (b) notify the registered owner of the registered trade mark, and each opponent, of the Registrar's decision.
- (6) Regulations 21.15 and 21.16 do not apply in relation to an opposition under subsection 83A(4) of the Act.

8.7 Amendment because of inconsistency with international agreements—opposition directions

- (1) The Registrar may give a direction in relation to an opposition under subsection 83A(4) of the Act:
 - (a) if requested by the registered owner of the registered trade mark, or an opponent, in writing; or
 - (b) on the Registrar's own initiative.
- (2) If the Registrar proposes to give a direction, the Registrar must give the registered owner of the registered trade mark, and each opponent, an opportunity to make representations about the direction.
- (3) A direction must not be inconsistent with the Act or these Regulations.
- (4) The Registrar must notify the registered owner of the registered trade mark, and each opponent, of the direction as soon as practicable.

8.8 Amendment because of inconsistency with international agreements—notification of dismissal or discontinuance of opposition

If an opposition under subsection 83A(4) of the Act is dismissed under section 222 of the Act or is discontinued, the Registrar must notify the registered owner of the registered trade mark, and each opponent, of the dismissal or discontinuance.
