XVIII - to condition the sale of goods to the acquisition of another or use of a service, or to condition the provision of a service to another or to the acquisition of goods, and

XIX - to abusively exercise or exploit intellectual or industrial property rights, technology or trademark.

CHAPTER III

PENALTIES

Art. 37. The practice of violation of the economic order subjects the ones responsible to the following penalties:

I - in the case of company, a fine of one tenth percent (0.1%) to twenty percent (20%) over the gross sales of the company, group or conglomerate, in the last fiscal year before the establishment of the administrative proceeding, in the field of the business activity in which the violation occurred, which will never be less than the advantage obtained, when possible the estimation thereof;

II - in the case of other natural persons or public or private legal entities, as well as any association of persons or de facto or de jure legal entities, even if temporarily, incorporated or unincorporated, which do not perform business activity, not being possible to use the gross sales criteria, the fine will be between fifty thousand reais (R$ 50,000.00) to two billion reais (R$ 2,000,000,000.00);

III - if the administrator is directly or indirectly responsible for the violation, when negligence or willful misconduct is proven, a fine of one percent (1%) to twenty percent (20%) of that applied to the company, in the case set forth in Item I of the caput of this article, or to legal entities, in the cases set forth in item II of the caput of this article.

§ 2 In the calculation of the value of the fine referred to in item I of the caput of this article, Cade may consider the total turnover of the company or group of companies, when the value of sales in the field of business activity in which the violation occurred is not available, defined by Cade, or when it is incompletely presented and/or not unequivocally and credibly demonstrated.

Art. 38. Without prejudice to the penalties set forth in Article 37 of this Law, when so required according to the seriousness of the facts or public interest, the following penalties may be imposed, whether individually or cumulatively:

I - the publication, in half a page and at the expenses of the perpetrator, in a newspaper stated in the conviction, the extract from final conviction for two (2) consecutive days, of one (1) to three (3) consecutive weeks;

II - ineligibility for official financing and for participation in biddings whose object is acquisitions, divestitures, performance of works and services, provision of public services, in the federal, state, municipal and Federal District public administration, as well as in indirect administration entities, for a term of not less than 5 (five) years;

III - the registration of the wrongdoer with the National Registry for Consumer Protection;

IV - recommendation to the competent public agencies so that:

a) a compulsory license over the intellectual property rights held by the wrongdoer be granted, when the violation is related to the use of that right;

b) the violator be denied installment payment of federal taxes owed by him or to be canceled, in full or in part, tax incentives or public subsidies;

V - the spinoff of the company, transfer of corporate control, sale of assets or partial interruption of activity;

VI - the prohibition of carrying on trade on its own behalf or as representative of a legal entity for a period of five (5) years, and

VII - any other act or measure required to eliminate the harmful effects to the economic order.

Art. 39. If any acts or situations that represent violation of the economic order continue to be practiced, after the Court has determined its termination, and if the obligations imposed are not complied with, or if the preventive measures or commitment to cease such acts provided for in this Law are not complied with, the person responsible shall be subject to a daily fine set at five thousand reais (R$ 5,000.00), which can be increased by up to fifty (50) times, if so recommended according to the economic status of the transgressor and the severity of the infraction.

Art. 40. The refusal, failure or unwarranted delay of information or documents requested by Cade or the Secretary for Economic Monitoring constitutes a violation punishable by daily fines of five thousand reais (R$ 5,000.00), which can be increased by up to twenty (20) times, if necessary, to ensure its effectiveness thereof, due to the economic situation of the transgressor.

§ 1 The amount fixed for the daily fine referred to in the caput of this article shall appear in the document containing the request of the competent authority.

§ 2 The requesting authority shall be responsible for the application of the fine set forth in the caput of this article.

§ 3 In the case of foreign company, its subsidiary, branch, affiliated company or office located in Country shall be jointly liable for the payment of the fine referred to in the caput of this article.

Art. 41. Unjustified absence of the defendant or third parties, when subpoenaed to provide clarification, in the course of investigation or administrative proceeding, shall subject it to the fine of five hundred reais (R$ 500.00) to fifteen thousand reais (R$ 15,000.00) for each absence, applied according to the defendant's economic situation.

Sole paragraph. The fine referred to in the caput of this Article shall apply upon notice of violation by the competent authority.

Art. 42. Prevent, obstruct or otherwise hinder the performance of inspection authorized by the Plenary of the Court, by the Reporting Commissioner or by the General Superintendence during the preparatory proceeding, administrative investigation, administrative proceeding or any other proceeding, shall subject the inspected party to a fine of twenty thousand reais (R$ 20,000.00) to four hundred thousand reais (R$ 400,000.00), according to the economic status of the transgressor, upon the issuance of the notice of violation by the competent body.

Art. 43. The deceitfulness or falsity of information, documents or statements made by any person to Cade or to the Secretary for Economic Monitoring shall be punishable with a fine of five thousand reais (R$ 5,000.00) to five million reais (R$ 5,000,000.00), according to the seriousness of the facts and the economic status of the transgressor, without prejudice to other applicable legal sanctions.

Art. 44. The one who provide services to Cade or Seae, in any way, and that gives cause, even if recklessly, to the improper dissemination of information about the company, protected by confidentiality, shall be punishable with a fine of one thousand reais (R$ 1,000.00) to twenty thousand reais (R$ 20,000.00), without prejudice to the opening of other applicable procedures.

§ 1 If the author of the improper dissemination serves Cade due to an office, or as a Federal Prosecutor or Chief Economist, the fine shall be doubled.

§ 2 The Regulation defines the procedure for the information to be regarded as confidential under the Cade and Seae.

Art. 45. In the application of the penalties set forth in this Law, the following shall be taken into consideration:

I - the seriousness of the violation;

II - the good faith of the transgressor;

III - the advantage obtained or envisaged by the violator;

IV – whether the violation was consummated or not;

V - The degree of injury or threatened injury, to the free competition, the national economy, the consumers, or third parties

VI - the negative economic effects produced in the market

VII - the economic status of the transgressor, and

VIII – the recurrence.

CHAPTER IV
STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Art. 46. The punitive actions of the Federal Government are limited to 5 (five) years, directly and indirectly, in order to establish violations to the economic order, as of the date the illegal act is committed or, in the case of permanent or continuing violation, as of the day such unlawful practice has ceased.

§ 1 Any administrative or judicial act whose purpose is to determine the violation against the economic order mentioned in the caput of this article shall interrupt the limitation period, as well as notice or subpoena served to the investigated person.

§ 2 The limitation period is suspended during the effective term of the cease-and-desist commitment or agreement on antitrust control.

§ 3 Statute of limitations shall be applicable to the administrative procedure paralyzed for more than three (3) years, pending trial or order, whose record shall be filed ex officio or upon request of the interested party, without prejudice to the determination of functional responsibility resulting from the interruption, as the case may be.

§ 4 When the fact object of the punitive action also constitutes a crime, the prescription shall be governed by the term set forth in the criminal law.

CHAPTER V
RIGHT OF ACTION

Art. 47. The aggrieved parties, by themselves or by someone legally entitled referred to in Article 82 of Law No. 8078, of September 11th, 1990, may take legal action in defense of their individual interests or individual homogeneous interests, so that the practices constituting violations to the economic order cease, and compensation for the losses and damages suffered be received, regardless of the investigation or administrative proceeding, which will not be suspended due to court action.

TITLE VI
DIFFERENT TYPES OF ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

CHAPTER I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 48. This Law regulates the following administrative proceedings established to prevent, investigate and suppress violations to the economic order:

I - preparatory procedure for an administrative investigation to investigate violations to the economic order;

II - administrative investigation to investigate violations to the economic order;

III - administrative proceeding to impose administrative sanctions for violations to the economic order;

IV - administrative proceeding for the analysis of act of economic concentration;

V - administrative procedure to investigate act of economic concentration, and

VI - administrative proceeding to impose incidental procedural sanctions.

Art. 49. The Court and the General Superintendence shall ensure, in regard to the procedures provided in items II, III, IV and VI of Article 48 of this Law, the confidential treatment of documents, information and procedural steps necessary for the elucidation of the facts or required according to the company's interests.

Sole paragraph. The parties may request confidential treatment of documents or information, in a time and manner defined in the internal regulations.

Art. 50. The General Superintendence or Reporting Commissioner may admit the intervention in the administrative proceeding of:

I – third parties who are holders of rights or interests which may be affected by the decision to be adopted; or

II - legitimized to bring civil action under items III and IV of Article 82 of Law No. 8078, of September 11th, 1990.

Art. 51. In the processing of proceedings before the Cade, the following provisions shall be observed, other than those set forth in the internal regulations:

I - the concentration acts shall have priority over the judgment of other matters;

II - the trial session of the Court is public, except in cases in which confidential treatment is given to the case, in which case sessions will be reserved;

III - in the trial sessions of the Court, the General Superintendent, Chief Economist, the Chief Prosecutor and parties to the case may require the use of the word, which shall be granted to them, in that order, and under the conditions and terms defined by the internal regulations, in order to verbally support their reasons before the Court;

IV - the agenda of the trial sessions will be set by the President, which will determine its publication, at least 120 (one hundred twenty) hours in advance, and

V - the actions and terms to be practiced in the records of the proceedings listed in Article 48 of this Law may be submitted electronically or submitted on magnetic media or equivalent in accordance with the rules of Cade.

Art. 52. Compliance with the decisions of the Court and commitments and agreements made under this Law may, at the discretion of the Court, be supervised by the General Superintendent, by means of submitting the records thereto, after the Court's final decision.

§ 1 In the monitoring phase of the implementation of decisions of the Court, as well as the fulfillment of commitments and agreements celebrated under this Law, the General Superintendence may avail himself of all investigation powers attributed to it under this Law.

§ 2 Upon full compliance with the Court's decision or agreements on concentration control and cease-and-desist commitments, the General Superintendence, ex officio or upon request of the Interested Party, shall manifest itself on the compliance therewith.

CHAPTER II

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING IN THE CONTROL OF ACTS OF ECONOMIC CONCENTRATION

Section I

Administrative Proceeding in the General Superintendence

Art. 53. The request for approval of the acts of economic concentration referred to in Art. 88 of this Law must be addressed to Cade and must contain the information and documents indispensable to the filing of the administrative proceeding, defined in the resolution passed by Cade, in addition to the receipt of payment of the respective fee.

§ 1 If verified that the petition does not satisfy the requirements established in the caput of this article or presents defects and irregularities capable of making it difficult to judge the merit, the General Superintendence shall determine, just once, that applicants amend it, under penalty of dismissal.

§ 2 After the protocol for submission of the act of concentration, or amendment thereto, the General Superintendence shall publish the notice, indicating the name of the applicants, the nature of the transaction and economic sectors involved.

Art. 54. After the measures indicated in Art. 53 are complied with, the General Superintendence shall:

I – directly appreciate the request, rendering a final decision, when the proceeding dismisses new diligences or in the event of lower offensive potential to competition, so defined by Cade’s resolution; or

II – determine that complementary fact-finding be performed, specifying the diligences to be produced.

Art. 55. After the conclusion of the complementary fact finding, determined in item II of the caput of Art. 54 of this law, the General Superintendence shall manifest itself on the satisfactory compliance therewith, considering it proper to the analysis of the merits or determining that it be redone, due to being incomplete.

Art. 56. The General Superintendence may, by means of a reasoned decision, declare the operation as complex and determine the performance of new complementary fact finding, specifying the diligences to be produced.

Sole paragraph. Once the operation is declared as complex, the General Superintendence may require to the Court the extension of the term referred to in § 2 of Art. 88 of this Law.

Art. 57. After the conclusion of the complementary fact-finding referred to in item II of Art. 54 and Art. 56 of this Law, the General Superintendence shall:

I – render a decision approving the act without restrictions;

II – present an objection to the Court, if it understands that the act must be rejected, approved with restrictions or if there is no conclusive elements in regards to its effects in the market.

Sole paragraph. The objection of the act presented to the Court, must show, within a context, the potential of the act to cause harm to the competition and the reasons why it must not be fully approved or rejected.

Section II

Administrative Proceeding in the Court

Art. 58. The applicant may offer, within thirty (30) days as of the objection date of the General Superintendence, in a written petition, directed to the President of the Court, a manifestation exposing the findings of fact and matters of law against the objection to the act of concentration of the General Superintendence, attaching all evidences, studies and opinions supporting its requests.

Sole paragraph. Within up to forty-eight (48) hours after the decision related to the objection presented by the General Superintendence, set forth in item II of the caput of Art.

57 of this Law and under the terms of item I of Art. 65 of this Law, the case shall be assigned, randomly, to a Reporting Advisor.

Art. 59. After the manifestation of the applicant, the Reporting Commissioner shall:

I – render a decision determining that the case be submitted to trial, if he understands that the fact finding has been sufficient;

II – determine the performance of complementary fact finding, if necessary, being able, at his criteria, to require that it be performed by the General Superintendence, stating the controversial points and specifying the investigations to be produced.

§ 1 The Reporting Commissioner may authorize, as the case may be, precarious and preliminarily, the performance of the act of economic concentration, imposing conditions aiming at preserving the reversibility of the transaction, when so recommended by the conditions of the concrete case.

§ 2 The Reporting Commissioner may follow up the performance of the diligences referred to in item II of the caput of this article

Art. 60. After the fact-finding is concluded, the Reporting Commissioner shall determine the submission of the case to trial.

Art. 61. During the judgment of the petition for the approval of the act of economic concentration, the Court may fully approve it, reject it or partially approve it, in which case the restrictions to be observed as a condition for the validity and efficacy of the act .

§ 1 The court shall determine the applicable restrictions in order to mitigate occasional negative effects of the act of economic concentration over the affected relevant markets.

§ 2 The restrictions mentioned in § 1 of this article include:

I – the sale of assets or a group of assets that constitutes a business activity;

II – the spinoff of the company;

III – transference of corporate control;

IV – accounting or legal division of activities;

V – compulsory licensing of intellectual property rights; and

VI – any other act or measure necessary to eliminate the harmful effects to the economic order.

§ 3 Once the merits are judged, the act may not be submitted once again nor reviewed within the scope of the Executive.

Art. 62. In case of refusal, omission, deceitfulness, falsity or unjustified delay, by the applicants, of information or documents whose submission is determined by Cade, without prejudice to the other applicable sanctions, the petition for approval of the act of economic concentration may be rejected due to lack of evidences, in which case the applicant may only perform the act upon submission of a new petition, under the terms of Art. 53 of this Law.

Art. 63. The terms set forth in this Chapter shall not be suspended or interrupted for any reason, except as set forth in § 5 of Art. 6 of this Law, as the case may be.

Art. 64. Vetoed.

Section III

Appeal against General Superintendence Decision to Approve the Act

Art. 65. Within fifteen (15) days as of the publication of the decision by the General Superintendence approving the act of concentration, under the terms of item I of the caput of Art. 54 and item I of the caput of Art. 57 of this Law:

I – an appeal may be submitted to the Court, which may be filed by third parties or, in regards to regulated markets, by the respective regulatory agency;

II – the Court may, upon request of one of its Commissioners and upon a reasoned decision, submit the case to trial, provided that the Commissioner responsible for the request shall be advised thereof.

§ 1 Within up to five (5) business days as of the receipt of the appeal, the Reporting Commissioner shall:

I – appreciate the appeal and determine its submission to trial;

II – appreciate the appeal and determine the performance of a complementary fact finding, being permitted, at its criteria, to require that the General Superintendence perform such fact finding, stating the controversial points and specifying the investigations to be produced; or

III – not appreciate the appeal, determining its dismissal.

§ 2 Applicants may manifest themselves about the appeal, within five (5) business days after such appeal is appreciated at the Court or after the report is received with the conclusion obtained from the complementary fact-finding prepared by the General Superintendence, whichever occurs last.

§ 3 The litigator acting in bad faith shall incur a fine, in favor of the Diffuse Right Defense Fund, to be arbitrated by the Court between five thousand reais (R$ 5,000.00) and five million reais (R$ 5,000,000.00), taking into account the economic status of the litigator, his acts in the case and unjustified delay caused to the approval of the act.

§ 4 The filing of appeal referred to in the caput of this article or the decision to make such request shall suspend the execution of the act of economic concentration until the Court renders a final decision.

§ 5 The Reporting Commissioner may follow up the performance of the investigations referred to in item II of § 1 of this article.

CHAPTER III

ADMINISTRATIVE INVESTIGATION TO VERIFY VIOLATIONS TO THE ECONOMIC ORDER AND PREPARATORY PROCEDURE

Art. 66. The administrative investigation, investigatory procedure of inquisitorial nature, shall be initiated by the General Superintendence in order to verify violations to the economic order.

§ 1 The administrative investigation shall be installed ex officio or in view of any reasoned statement by any interested party, or as a result of informative briefs, when the indications of violation to the economic order are not sufficient to initiate the administrative proceeding.

§ 2 The General Superintendence may initiate an administrative investigation preparatory procedure to verify violations to the economic order and determine if the conduct under analysis is under the competence of the Brazilian System for Defense to Competition, under the terms of this Law.

§ 3 The diligences adopted within the scope of the administrative investigation preparatory procedure to verify violations to the economic order must be performed within thirty (30) days at the most.

§ 4 From the order determining the dismissal of the preparatory procedure, rejecting the request to open the administrative investigation, or dismissal thereof, an appeal may be submitted by any interested party to the General Superintendent, as determined in the regulation, reaching the ultimate decision.

§ 6 Petitions presented by the National Congress Commission, or any of its houses, as well as Secretary for Economic Monitoring, regulatory agencies and Attorney General's Office associated to Cade, does not depend on preparatory procedures, and the administrative investigation or administrative proceeding is immediately established.

§ 7 The representative and respondent may require any diligence, which may be performed or not, at the discretion of the General Superintendence.

§ 8 The General Superintendence may require the participation of the police authorities or Public Prosecution in the investigations.

§ 9 The administrative investigation must be concluded within a term of one hundred and eighty (180) days, as of its starting date, and it can be extended for sixty (60) more days, by means of a reasoned order, and when the fact is of difficult elucidation and when so justified by the circumstance of the concrete case.

§ 10. The preparatory procedure, as well as administrative investigation, may be treated as confidential, if interesting to the investigations, at the criteria of the General Superintendence.

Art. 67. Within up to ten (10) business days as of the closing date of the administrative investigation, the General Superintendence shall decide to initiate or dismiss the administrative proceeding.

§ 1 The Court may, upon demand of an Commissioner and according to a reasoned decision, request the administrative investigation or administrative investigation preparatory procedure filed by the General Superintendence, provided that the Commissioner who presented such demand shall be advised.

§ 2 Once the administrative investigation is requested, the Reporting Commissioner shall have thirty (30) business days to:

I – confirm the dismissal decision of the General Superintendence, as well as, if deemed necessary, to provide grounds for its decision;

II – transform the administrative investigation in administrative proceeding, determining that a complementary fact finding be performed, being also possible, at its criteria, to require that the General Superintendence performs it, stating the controversial points and specifying the diligences to be produced.

§ 3 The administrative investigation may be treated as confidential, in the interest of the investigations, at the discretion of the Plenary of the Court.

Art. 68. The failure to comply with the terms set forth in this Chapter by the General Superintendence, as well as by its servants, without a duly evidenced reason in the records, may result in the respective administrative, civil and criminal liability.

CHAPTER IV

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING FOR THE IMPOSITION OF ADMINISTRATIVE SANCTIONS TO VIOLATIONS TO THE ECONOMIC ORDER

Art. 69. The administrative proceeding, contradictory proceeding, aims to guarantee to the accused party wide defense in regard to the conclusions of the administrative investigation, whose final technical note, approved under the terms of Cade's rules, shall constitute the initial pleading.

Art. 70. In the decision that initiates the administrative proceeding, that the notification of the respondent shall be determined so that, within thirty (30) days, he presents a defense and specifies the evidences to be produced, presenting the complete qualification of up to three (03) witnesses.

§ 1 The initial notice shall contain the entire contents of the decision approving the initiation of the administrative proceeding and representation, as the case may be.

§ 2 The initial notification of the respondent shall be sent by mail, with return receipt in his own name, or by any other means which assure the awareness of the interested party or, if the notification sent by mail is not successful, such notification shall be published in the Federal Official Gazette and in a newspaper of wide circulation in the State in which the respondent resides or is headquartered, provided that the term for the inclusion of the return receipt, or publication, as the case may be, shall be counted, as the case may be.

§ 3 Subpoena on the other procedural acts shall be served upon publication in the Federal Official Gazette, which shall contain the name of the respondent and of his attorney, if any.

§ 4 The respondent may follow up the administrative proceeding by its holder, directors or managers, or by his attorney, guaranteeing to them wide access to the records of the Court.

§ 5 The term of thirty (30) days mentioned in the caput of this article may be extended for up to ten (10) days, not extendable, upon respondent's request.

Art. 71. The respondent shall be considered in default if, after being notified, the respondent does not present defense within the legal term, incurring in confession regarding the subject de fato, provided that the other deadlines shall continue to run against him, regardless of notice.

Sole paragraph. Regardless of the procedural phase, the defaulter may intervene, without the right to repeat any act already practiced.

Art. 72. Within up to thirty (30) business days after the expiration of the term set forth in Art. 70 of this Law, the General Superintendence, upon a reasoned order, shall determine the production of the evidences it considers relevant, provided that it shall be entitled to exercise the fact finding powers set forth in this Law, maintaining the legal secrecy, as the case may be.

Art. 73. Within up to five (5) business days as of the conclusion of the fact finding phase set forth in Art. 72 of this Law, the General Superintendence shall notify the respondent to present new allegations, within five (5) business days.

Art. 74. Within up to fifteen (15) business days as of the expiration of the term set forth in Art. 73 of this Law, the General Superintendence shall submit the records to the President of the Court, who shall decide, on a reasoned report, whether to dismiss it or reaffirm the violation.

Art. 75. After the proceeding is received, it shall be assigned by the President of the Court, randomly, to the Reporting Advisor, who may, if he considers necessary, require that the Attorney General's Office associated to Cade manifest itself within twenty (20) days.

Art. 76. The Reporting Commissioner may determine diligences, by means of reasoned orders, and may also, at its criteria, require that the General Superintendence perform them, within the established term.

Sole paragraph. After the conclusion of the diligences determined under this article, the Reporting Commissioner shall notify the respondent so that, within fifteen (15) business days, he can present his final arguments.

Art. 77. Within fifteen (15) business days as of the date of receipt of the final arguments, the Reporting Commissioner shall require that the case be submitted to trial.

Art. 78. Upon the President's invitation and indication of the Reporting Advisor, any person can present clarifications to the Court, about the matters under analysis.

Art. 79. The Court's decision, in any event, shall be well grounded, and when deciding on the existence of violation to the economic order, it shall contain:

I – specification of the facts constituting the verified violation and indication of the measures to be taken by the people responsible for ceasing it;

II – Vetoed.

III – stipulated fine;

IV – daily fine in case the violation is continued; and

V – fine in case of non-compliance with the stipulated measures.

Sole paragraph. The Court's decision shall be published within five (5) business days in the Federal Official Gazette.

Art. 80. The provisions contained in Law No. 8.437, of June 30th, 1992 shall be applicable to the decisions rendered by the Court.

Art. 81. Upon failure to comply with the decision, in full or in part, such fact shall be informed to the President of the Court, which shall determine that the Attorney General's Office associated to Cade arranges for its legal enforcement.

Art. 82. The failure to comply with the terms set forth in this Chapter by the members of Cade, as well as by its respective servants, without duly evidenced justification in the records, may result in the assessment of the respective administrative, civil and criminal liability.

Art. 83. Cade shall complementarily manifest itself on the administrative investigation and proceeding.

CHAPTER V

PREVENTIVE MEASURE

Art. 84. In any phase of the administrative investigation to assess violations or administrative proceedings to impose sanctions for violations to the economic order, the Reporting Commissioner or General Superintendent may, at their initiative or upon the request of the Chief Prosecutor of Cade, adopt preventive measures, upon indication or reasoned concern that the defendant directly or indirectly causes or may cause irreparable or hardly repairable damages to the market, or make ineffective the final outcome of the process.

§ 1 In the preventive measures, the immediate cessation of the practice shall be determined, being ordered, when materially possible, the reversal to the previous situation, setting a daily fine pursuant to art. 39 of this Law.

§ 2 The decision to adopt a preventive measure may be voluntary appealed to the Plenary of the Court, within five (5) days, without suspensive effect.

CHAPTER VI

CEASE-AND-DESIST COMMITMENT

Art. 85. In the administrative proceedings referred to in items I, II and III of Art. 48 of this Law, Cade may obtain from the defendant a cease-and-desist commitment related to the practice under investigation or its harmful effects, if duly grounded, for convenience and at the proper time, and if it understands that it complies with the interests protected by law.

§ 1 The agreement should contain the following elements:

I - the specification of the defendant's obligations not to practice the investigated activity or its harmful effects, as well as obligations deemed applicable;

II – the establishment of the fine to be paid in case of failure to comply, in full or in part, with the undertaken obligations;

III - establishment of the pecuniary contribution to be paid to the Diffuse Rights Defense Fund, whenever applicable.

§ 2 In regard to the investigation of a violation related to or resulting from the conduct set forth in items I and II of § 3 of Article 36 of this Law, among the obligations referred to in Item I of § 1 of this article it shall appear, necessarily, the obligation to pay to the Fund for the Defense of Diffuse Rights a monetary value that can not be less than the minimum required under Article 37 of this Law.

§ 3 The execution of the cease-and-desist commitment may be proposed until the end of the fact-finding of the administrative proceeding in relation to the practice being investigated.

§ 4 The proposed cease-and-desist commitment may only be submitted once.

§ 6 The presentation of the cease-and-desist commitment does not suspend the administrative proceeding in course.

§ 7 The cease-and-desist commitment shall be public, and it shall be published at Cade within five (5) days after its execution.

§ 9 The administrative proceeding shall be suspended while the cease-and-desist commitment is being complied with and shall be filed at the end of the established deadline, if all the conditions set forth therein are satisfied.

§ 10. The suspension of administrative proceeding referred to in § 9 of this Article shall be given only in relation to the defendant who has signed the commitment, following its regular course in relation to the other defendants.

§ 11. If such cease-and-desist commitment is not complied with, Cade shall apply the sanctions provided for therein and determine the continuation of the administrative proceeding and other administrative and legal measures for the enforcement thereof.

§ 12. The conditions of the cease-and-desist commitment may be changed by Cade if proved to be excessively burdensome for the defendant, provided that the change does not cause damages to third parties or to the collectivity.

§ 13. The proposal of execution of the cease-and-desist commitment shall be rejected when the authority does not reach an agreement with defendants regarding its terms.

§ 14. Cade shall define, by resolution, the additional rules applicable to the cease-and-desist commitment.

§ 15. The provisions contained in Article 50 of this Law shall apply to the cease-and-desist commitment.

CHAPTER VII

LENIENCY PROGRAM

Art. 86. Cade, by means of the General Superintendence, may enter into leniency agreements, with the extinction of any punitive action of the public administration or reduction from one (1) to two thirds (2/3) of the applicable penalty, under the terms of this article, with natural persons or legal entities that cause violation to the economic order, provided that they effectively cooperate with the investigations and administrative proceeding resulting from such cooperation:

I – The identification of the other persons involved in the violation; and

II – The obtainment of information and documents proving the informed or investigated violation

§ 1 The agreement referred to in the caput of this article may only be executed if the following requirements are cumulatively fulfilled:

I – the company is the first to be qualified in relation to the informed or investigated violation;

II – the company completely ceases its involvement in the informed or investigated violation, as of the date the agreement is proposed;

III - the General Superintendence does not have sufficient evidences to guarantee the conviction of the company or natural person at the time the agreement is proposed; and

IV – the company confesses to having participated in the tort and fully and permanently cooperates with the investigations and administrative proceeding, appearing, under its expenses, whenever required, to all procedural acts, until the conclusion thereof.

§ 2 In relation to the natural persons, they may enter into leniency agreements provided that requirements II, III and IV of § 1 hereof are complied with.

§ 3 The leniency agreement entered into with Cade, by means of the General Superintendence, shall set forth the conditions necessary to guarantee effective cooperation and useful result from the proceeding.

§ 4 The Court shall, upon the judgment of the administrative proceeding, once the compliance with the agreement is verified:

I – determine the extinction of the punitive action of the public administration in favor of the transgressor, if the settlement proposal has been submitted to the General Superintendence without prior knowledge of the notified violation; or

II – in the other cases, reduce the applicable penalties from one (1) to two thirds (2/3), observing what is set forth in Art. 45 of this Law, also considering the classification of the penalty the effective cooperation provided and transgressor's good faith in the compliance with the lenience agreement.

§ 5 In the case described in item II of § 4 of this article, the penalty over which the reducing factor shall incur shall not be higher than the lowest penalty applicable to the other transgressors, in relation to the percentage established for the application of the fines referred to in item I of Art. 37 of this Law.

§ 6 The effects of the lenience agreement shall be extended to companies of the same group, de facto or de jure, and to their directors, administrators or employees involved in the violation, provided they enter into it jointly, respecting the imposed conditions.

§ 7 The company or natural person that does not obtain, during the investigation or administrative proceeding, qualification to enter into the agreement referred to in this article, may enter into with the General Superintendence, until the case is submitted to trial, a lenience agreement related to another violation, of which Cade has not prior knowledge.

§ 8 Under the terms of § 7 of this article, the transgressor shall benefit from reduction of one third (1/3) of the penalty applicable to him in that case, without prejudice to obtaining the benefits mentioned in item I of § 4 this article about the new reported violation.

§ 9 The agreement proposal referred to in this Article is considered confidential, except in the interest of the investigations and the administrative proceeding.

§ 10. The rejection of the proposed leniency, of which no disclosure shall be made, shall not be considered a confession as to the facts nor recognition of the wrongfulness of the conduct under analysis.

§ 11. The application of this Article shall observe the rules to be issued by the Court.

§ 12. In case of failure to comply with the leniency agreement, the beneficiary will be unable to enter into a new leniency agreement for a period of three (3) years as of the trial date.

Art. 87. In crimes against the economic order, as defined by Law No. 8137, of December 27th, 1990, and other crimes directly related to cartel conduct, such as defined by Law No. 8666, of June 21st, 1993, and the ones defined in article 288 of Decree-Law No. 2,848, of December 7th, 1940 - Penal Code, the execution of a lenience agreement under this Law, determines the suspension of the statute of limitations and prevents denunciation from being offered in relation to the leniency beneficiary agent.

Sole paragraph. Once the leniency agreement has been complied with by the agent, the punishments for the crimes set forth in the caput of this article shall automatically cease.

TITLE VII
CONCENTRATION CONTROL
CHAPTER I
CONCENTRATION ACTS

Art. 88. The following shall be submitted to Cade by the parties involved in the operation of acts of economic concentration in which, cumulatively:

I - at least one of the groups involved in the transaction has registered, in the last balance sheet, annual gross sales or total turnover in the country, in the year preceding the transaction, equivalent or superior to four hundred million reais (R$ 400,000,000.00); and

II - at least one other group involved in the transaction has registered, in the last balance sheet, gross annual sales or total turnover in the country, in the year preceding the transaction, equivalent to or greater than thirty million reais (R$ 30,000,000.00).

§ 1 The values mentioned in item I and II of the caput of this article may be adequate, simultaneously or independently, on indication of Cade, by inter-ministerial decree of the Ministries of Finance and Justice.

§ 2 The control of the concentration acts referred to in the caput of this Article will be prior and shall be performed within, at the latest, two hundred and forty (240) days, as of the application protocol or amendment thereto.

§ 3 The acts found under the provisions set forth in the caput of this article shall not be fulfilled before being appreciated, under this article and the procedure set forth in Chapter II of Title VI of this Law, under penalty of nullity, a pecuniary fine also being imposed, in a value not less than sixty thousand reais (R$ 60,000.00) nor more than sixty million reais (R$ 60,000,000.00) to be applied under the regulations, without prejudice to the opening of an administrative proceeding, under Article 69 of this Law.

§ 4 Until the final decision on the transaction, the conditions of competition shall be preserved between the companies involved, under penalty of incurring the sanctions provided for in § 3 of this article.

§ 5 The concentration acts involving elimination of competition in a substantial portion of the relevant market, which could create or strengthen a dominant position or that can result in the domination of the relevant market of goods or services shall be prohibited, except as set forth in § 6 of this Article .

§ 6 The acts referred to in § 5 of this Article may be permitted, provided they are within the limits strictly necessary to achieve the following objectives:

I - cumulatively or alternatively:

- a) increase productivity or the competitiveness;
- b) improve the quality of goods or services; or
- c) encourage efficiency and technological or economic development;

and

II - a relevant part of the resulting benefits are transferred to consumers.

§ 7 Cade may, within one (1) year as of the respective date of fulfillment, require the submission of the concentration acts that do not fall within the provisions of this article.

§ 8 Changes in equity control of publicly-held companies and records of merger, without prejudice to the obligation of the parties involved, must be reported to Cade by the Securities and Exchange Commission - CVM and by the National Registry of Commerce of the Ministry of Development, Industry and Foreign Trade, respectively, within five (5) business days, if necessary, to be examined.

§ 9 The term mentioned in § 2 of this article may only be extended:

I - for up to 60 (sixty) days, unextendable, upon request of the parties involved in the transaction, or

II - up to 90 (ninety) days, upon a reasoned decision rendered by the Court, specifying the reasons for the extension, the period of extension, which may not be renewed, and the measures which are necessary for the submission of the case to trial.

Art. 89. In order to analyze the concentration act submitted, the procedures set forth in Chapter II of Title VI of this Law shall be observed.

Sole paragraph. Cade shall regulate, by means of Resolution, the previous analysis of the concentration acts undertaken with the specific purpose of participating in auctions, biddings and acquisitions of shares through public offering.

Art. 90. For the purposes of Article 88 of this Law, a concentration act shall be carried out when:

I - two (2) or more previously independent companies merge;

II - one (1) or more companies acquire, directly or indirectly, by purchase or exchange of stocks, shares, bonds or securities convertible into stocks or assets, whether tangible or intangible, by contract or by any other means or way, the control or parts of one or other companies;

III – one (1) or more companies incorporate one or other companies, or

IV - two (2) or more companies enter into an associative contract, consortium or joint venture.

Sole paragraph. What is described in item IV of the caput, when destined to biddings promoted by direct and indirect public administration and to contracts arising therefrom shall not be considered concentration acts, for the purposes of Article 88 of this Law, .

Art. 91. The approval referred to in article 88 of this Law may be reviewed by the Court, ex officio or upon request of the General Superintendence, if the decision is based on false or misleading information provided by the interested party, in case of non-compliance with any of its obligations or if the intended benefits are not achieved.

Sole paragraph. In the case described in the caput of this article, the falsity or deceitfulness shall be punished with a pecuniary fine, equivalent to not less than sixty thousand reais (R$ 60,000.00) nor more than six million reais (R$ 6,000,000.00) to be applied according to the rules of Cade, without prejudice to the opening of administrative proceedings, pursuant to article 67 of this Law, and the adoption of any other appropriate measures.

CHAPTER II

AGREEMENT ON CONCENTRATION CONTROL

Art. 92. Vetoed.

TITLE VIII

JUDICIAL ENFORCEMENT OF CADE'S DECISIONS

CHAPTER I PROCEEDING

Art. 93. The decision of the Plenary of the Court, resulting in fine or imposing obligations, constitutes an extrajudicial executive title.

Art. 94. Enforcements whose exclusive purpose is the collection of pecuniary fines shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Law No. 6830, of September 22nd, 1980.

Art. 95. For enforcements whose purpose, in addition to the collection of fines, is the compliance with obligations, the Judge shall grant the specific protection of the obligation, or determine other measures to ensure the practical result equivalent to that of compliance.

§ 1 The conversion of specific obligations to compensation for losses or damages shall only be admissible if specific protection or obtainment of the corresponding practical result is impossible.

§ 2 The compensation for losses and damages shall be made without prejudice to fines.

Art. 96. Enforcement will be performed by all means, including by means of intervention in the company, if necessary.

Art. 97. The enforcement of Cade's decisions will be promoted in the Federal Court of the Federal District or headquarters or domicile of the judgment debtor, at Cade's choice.

Art. 98. The establishment of embargoes or the filing of any action seeking cancelation of the executive title shall not suspend the enforcement, if a bond on the value of the court fines is not posted, in order to ensure compliance with the final decision on the case, including with respect to daily fines.

§ 1 To ensure compliance with specific performance obligations, the judge must set adequate bail.

§ 2 Once the injunction is revoked, the deposit of the value corresponding to the fine shall be converted into income of the Fund for the Defense of Diffused Rights.

§ 3 The cash deposit shall not suspend the effect of interest and monetary correction, and Cade may, in the case described in § 2 of this article, enforce the collection of the difference between the value reverted to the Fund for the Defense of Diffused Rights and the updated value of the fine, with the legal increases, as if the enforcement of the credit had never been suspended.

§ 4 In the action that has Cade's decision as an object, the plaintiff must deduce all questions de facto and de jure, under penalty of estoppel, all claims that could be deduced being considered deduced so that the petition is granted, provided that such petition cannot be deduced under different causes of action in different actions, except with regard to subsequent events.

Art. 99. Due to the severity of the violation of the economic order, and upon well-grounded fear of irreparable damage or difficult to repair, in spite of the deposit of fines and provision of security, the judge may determine the immediate adoption, in full or in part, of the provisions contained in the executive title.

Art 100. In order to calculate the daily fine for continued violation, the final date set by Cade for the voluntary adoption of the measures contained in its decision shall be considered as the initial term, and the day it is actually complied with shall be considered as the final term.

Art 101. The process to enforce in court the decisions rendered by Cade shall take precedence over other kinds of action, except habeas corpus and writ of mandamus.

CHAPTER II

JUDICIAL INTERVENTION

Art 102. The Judge shall order intervention in the company when is required to ensure the specific performance, appointing an intervener.

Sole paragraph. The decision which determines the intervention shall be duly substantiated and shall indicate, clearly and precisely, the steps to be taken by the appointed intervener.

Art 103. If, within forty-eight (48) hours, the debtor challenges the intervener due to incapacity or lack of good standing, if such claim is proved within three (3) days, the judge will decide within the same period.

Art 104. If the challenge is upheld, the judge shall appoint a new intervener within five (5) days.

Art 105. The intervention may be withdrawn before the deadline, provided that full compliance with the obligations that has determined it is demonstrated.

Art 106. The judicial intervention should be restricted to those actions necessary to comply with the legal decision that has determined it and shall have the maximum duration of one hundred and eighty (180) days, leaving the intervener responsible for its actions and omissions, especially in cases of abuse of power and misuse of purpose.

§ The provisions of arts. 153-159 of Law No. 6404, of December 15th, 1976, shall be applicable to the intervener, as appropriate.

§ 2 The intervener's compensation will be arbitrated by the judge, who may replace him at any time, being such replacement obligatory upon civil insolvency, when he is considered as the passive or active subject in any form of corruption or malfeasance, or violation of any of his duties .

Art. 107. The judge may dismiss from their duties the administrators of the company that are proven to hinder the performance of acts incumbent on the intervener, provided that any possible replacement shall be performed as set forth in the company's bylaws.

§ 1 If, despite the measures set forth in the caput of this article, one or more persons in charge of the administration of the company continue to impede the action of the intervener, the judge shall proceed in the manner set forth in § 2 of this article.

§ 2 If the majority of the persons in charge of the administration of the company refuse to cooperate with the intervener, the judge shall order that he takes over the full administration of the company.

Art 108. The intervener shall have the following obligations:

I – conduct or order the performance of all acts necessary for the enforcement;

II - advise the Judge of any irregularities committed by the company, which he becomes aware of;

III - submit to the Judge a monthly report of his activities.

Art 109. The expenses resulting from the intervention shall be borne by the debtor against whom it has been decreed.

Art 110. After the period of intervention, the intervener shall submit a detailed report to the judge about its management, proposing the extinction and filing of the case or asking for an extension of the term, in case it was not possible to fully comply with the ordered decision.

Art. 111. Whoever opposes to or prevents any intervention or, after the end thereof, performs any acts that directly or indirectly annul its effects, in full or in part, or disobey legal orders given by the intervener shall, as the case may be, be held criminally liable for resistance, disobedience or coercion during the proceeding, under the terms of articles 329, 330 and 344 of Decree-Law No. 2848, of December 7th, 1940 - Penal Code.

TITLE IX

FINAL AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Art 112. Vetoed.

Art 113. In order to implement the transition to the system of mandates that do not coincide, the appointment of Commissioners shall meet the following criteria in regard to the terms of office, in the following order:

I - two (2) years for the first two (2) vacant seats; and

II - three (3) years for the third and fourth vacant seats.

§ 1 The terms of office of the members of Cade and the Chief Prosecutor in force on the enactment date of this Law shall be maintained and exercised to its original completion, and the subsequent appointments following the extinction of such terms of office shall observe what is set forth in this article.

§ 2 In the case of § 1 of this article, the Commissioner who exercises his first term of office at Cade, after the end of his original term of office, may be reappointed for the same position, as set forth in items I and II of the caput of this article.

§ 3 The Commissioner who is exercising his second term at Cade, after the end of his original term of office, may not be appointed again for the subsequent period.

§ 4 There will be no reappointment for the Chief Prosecutor exercising his term of office at Cade, after the end of his original term of office, and he may be designated to remain in office, as set forth by art. 16 of this Law.

Art 114. Vetoed.
