CHAPTER 78:45

REGISTRATION OF UNITED KINGDOM
PATENTS ACT

1961 Ed.
Cap. 325.
9 of 1925.

AN ACT relating to patents granted in the United Kingdom.

Commencement.

[23rd April 1925]

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the –

REGISTRATION OF UNITED KINGDOM
PATENTS ACT.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act –

“Court” means High Court;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of the High Court.

Application for registration.

3. Any person being the grantee of a patent in the United Kingdom or any person deriving his right from the grantee by assignment, transmission or other operation of law may apply within three years from the date of issue of the patent to have the patent registered in the State. Where any partial assignment or transmission has been made, all proper parties shall be joined in the application for registration.

Certificate to accompany application.

4. Every application under this Act shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the specification or specifications (including drawings, if any) of the United Kingdom patent and a certificate of the Comptroller General of the United Kingdom Patent Office giving full particulars of the issue of the patent on the specification or specifications.

Formalities
before issue of certificate of registration.
[1 of 1973
20 of 1977].

5. (1) Upon the application being received, together with the documents mentioned in section 4, the Registrar shall advertise the application in such manner as may be prescribed, and any person may at any time within two months from the date of the advertisement give notice to the Registrar of opposition to the issue of a certificate of registration upon any of the grounds prescribed by section 10 of the Patents Act, for opposition to the grant of letters patent.

Ch. 78:40.

(2) Where notice of opposition is given within the prescribed time, the Registrar shall transmit a copy of the notice to the applicant and after hearing both parties, if desirous of being heard, shall decide on the

(3) If there is no opposition or, in the case of opposition, if the decision of the Registrar is in favour of the issue of the certificate of registration, the Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration, and for the certificate there shall be paid to the credit of the general revenue a fee of fifty dollars.

6. The certificate of registration shall confer on the applicant privileges and rights subject to all conditions established by the law of the State as though the patent had been issued in the State.

Rights on grant of certificate.
[12 of 1990].

7. Privileges and rights so granted shall date from the date of the patent in the United Kingdom and shall continue in force only so long as the patent remains in force in the United Kingdom: Provided that no action for infringement shall be entertained in respect of any manufacture, use or sale of the invention prior to the date of issue of the certificate of registration in the State.

Commencement and duration of rights.

8. (1) The Court shall have power upon the application of any person who alleges that his interests have been prejudicially affected by the issue of a certificate of registration, to declare that the exclusive privileges and rights conferred by the certificate of registration have not been acquired on any of the grounds upon which the United Kingdom patent might be revoked under the law in force in the United Kingdom on 2nd November 1978.

Powers of Court over rights conferred by certificate of registration.

(2) The grounds shall be deemed to include the manufacture, use or sale of the invention in the State before the priority date applicable to the patent in the United Kingdom, but not to include the manufacture, use or sale of the invention in the State by some person or persons after the priority date applicable to the patent in the United Kingdom and before the date of the issue of the certificate of registration under section 6.

For the purposes of this subsection the expression "priority date" in its application to a patent in the United Kingdom has the meaning assigned to it in section 5 of the Patents Act 1949 (United Kingdom).

12, 13 & 14
Geo.6 c:87.

9. Wherever the specification or drawings of a United Kingdom patent registered in the State has been amended by way of disclaimer, correction or explanation, according to the law of the United Kingdom, a request, accompanied by a copy of the specification and drawings (if

Substitution of amended specification and drawings for those originally any) as amended, duly certified by the Comptroller General of the United Kingdom Patent Office, may be made to the Registrar to substitute a copy of the specification and drawings as amended for the specification and drawings originally filed.

Registration of assignment or transmission.

10. Where a person becomes entitled by assignment, transmission or other operation of law to the privileges and rights conferred by a certificate of registration or to any interest therein, he may make application in the prescribed manner to the Registrar of patents for the entry on the register of the assignment, transmission or other instrument affecting the title or giving an interest therein.

Rules.

11. The Registrar may make such general Rules and do such things as he may think expedient, subject to the provisions of this Act, for regulating procedure under this Act, and for prescribing the fees to be paid in respect of proceedings under this Act.
