

1982 No. 299 DESIGNS

The Designs (Companies Re-registration) Rules 1982

Made	4th March 1982
Laid before Parliament	15th March 1982
Coming into Operation	5th April 1982

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by section 36 of the Registered Designs Act 1949¹ and now vested in him², hereby makes the following Rules:—

1. These Rules may be cited as the Designs (Companies Re-registration) Rules 1982 and shall come into operation on 5th April 1982.

2. Where a body corporate has re-registered under the Companies Act 1980³ with the same name as that with which it was registered immediately before the re-registration save for the substitution as, or the inclusion as, the last part of the name (in either upper or lower case of letters and with or without punctuation marks) of—

- (a) the words “public limited company” or their equivalent in Welsh; or
- (b) the abbreviation “p.l.c.” or its equivalent in Welsh, then references to the name of the body corporate in any application to the registrar, in the register of designs and in any other record kept at, or any document issued by, the Patent Office and relating to designs shall be treated on and after the date of such re-registration as references to the name with which the body corporate is so re-registered.

Reginald Eyre,
Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State,
Department of Trade.

4th March 1982.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules provide that when a company re-registers as a public company under the Companies Act 1980 (which re-registration does not constitute a new legal entity but merely subjects the company to certain additional company law rules) applications to the registrar, the register of designs and other records kept at or documents issued by the Designs Registry of the Patent Office shall be treated as changed accordingly without the need for an application to the Designs Registry.
