(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (3) of this Article, where the amount is in excess of the amount referred to in paragraph (3), the excess amount may also be claimed as compensation for damage. When awarding damages in such cases, the court may consider whether the person who infringed the trademark right or the exclusive license was willful or grossly negligent.

(5) In litigation related to the infringement of a trademark right or exclusive license, where the court recognizes that the nature of the facts of the case make it difficult to provide evidence proving the amount of damage that has occurred, notwithstanding paragraphs (1) to (4), the court may determine a reasonable amount based on an examination of the evidence and on a review of all the arguments.
