25. (1) The Commission shall, not later than 30th September in each financial year, prepare and present to the National Assembly through the President for approval, a statement of estimated income and expenditure for the following financial year.

(2) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (1), the Commission may also, in each financial year, submit supplementary or adjusted statements of estimated income and expenditure to the National Assembly through the President for approval.

(3) The Commission shall prepare and submit to the President through the Minister, and to the National Assembly, not later than 30th June in each year, a report in such form as the Minister may direct on the activities of the Commission during the immediate preceding year, and shall include in the report, a copy of the audited accounts of the Commission for that year and the auditors' report on the account.

26.—(1) The Commission may, with the consent of, or in accordance with the general authority given by the Minister of Finance, borrow such sums of money as the Commission may require in the exercise of its functions under this Act or its subsidiary legislation.

Borrowing powers, gifts
etc.

(2) The Commission may accept gifts or grants of money or aids or other property from national, bilateral and multi-lateral organisations and upon such terms and conditions, if any, as may be agreed upon between the donor and the Commission provided that such gifts are not inconsistent with the objectives and functions of the Commission under this Act.

PART VI—ENFORCEMENT WARRANTS AND REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION

27.—(1) The Commission may, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any undertaking has engaged, is engaging or is likely to engage in conduct constituting or likely to constitute a contravention of this Act, require an authorised officer to—

Enforcement
the Commission.

(a) enter and search any premises ; and

(b) inspect and remove from the premises any article, document or extract in the possession or under the control of any person.

(2) Except as otherwise directed by the Commission, an officer authorised by the Commission shall only exercise the powers conferred by subsection (1) with a warrant issued under section 28 of this Act.

(3) The Commission shall, if there are grounds to believe that a violation, civil or criminal, of the provisions of this Act or regulations made under this Act, was, is being or will be committed, take any interim measure, including authorising an authorised officer to exercise powers contained in subsection (1) pending the issuance of a warrant to that effect.

(4) In the circumstance described in subsection (3), the Executive Vice-Chairman shall depose to an affidavit verifying these facts before interim measures can be taken.

Issuance of
warrant

28.—(1) Where a Judge is satisfied on the information on oath that there is reasonable ground for believing that any undertaking has engaged or is engaging or likely to engage in conduct constituting or likely to constitute the contravention of this Act, the Judge may issue a warrant permitting an authorised officer to exercise the powers conferred by section 27 (1) of this Act in relation to any premises specified in the warrant.

(2) An authorised officer who applied for a warrant shall, having made reasonable inquiries, disclose to the court—

(a) the details of every previous application for a warrant to search the place that the officer knows has been made within the preceding 12 months ; and

(b) the result of the application.

(3) A warrant issued under subsection (1) shall specify a time-limit beyond which articles or documents removed shall not be detained.

(4) The occupier or person in charge of any premises entered pursuant to this section shall provide the authorised officer with all reasonable facilities and assistance for the effective discharge of the officer's duty under this section.

(5) A person who obstructs or impedes an authorised officer in the performance of his duties under this section commits an offence in accordance with the relevant laws and liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine not exceeding N5,000,000 or to both fine and imprisonment.

Powers conferred by warrant

29.—(1) A warrant issued under section 28 (1) of this Act shall authorise the person named in the warrant to request any police officer or public official to provide assistance to the person named in the warrant in the execution of the warrant.

(2) The assistance to be provided under subsection (1) shall be at the written request of the person named in the warrant.

(3) The warrant shall confer powers—

(a) to enter and search the place or premises specified in the warrant on one occasion within 30 days of the date of issue of the warrant at a time that is reasonable in the circumstances ;

(b) to use such assistance as is reasonable in the circumstances;

(c) to use such force for gaining entry and for breaking open any article or thing as is reasonable in the circumstances ;

(d) to search for and remove documents or any article or thing that the person executing the warrant believes on reasonable grounds may be relevant ;

(e) where necessary, to make copies of documents or extracts from documents, that the person executing the warrant believes on reasonable grounds may be relevant ; and

(f) where necessary, to require a person to reproduce or assist any person executing the warrant to reproduce, in usable form, information recorded or stored in a document or retrieval system.

(4) A police officer or public officer assisting the person executing the warrant also has the powers stated in subsection (3) (c), (d) and (e) of this section.

(5) A warrant shall be executed in accordance with such conditions as may be specified in the warrant when it is issued.

30.—(1) A person executing a warrant shall—

(a) be in possession of the warrant at the time of its execution ;

(b) produce it on initial entry and, if requested, at any subsequent time ; and

(c) produce a valid identification to the owner or occupier or person in charge of the place if that person is present.

(2) A person executing a warrant shall, on entry into any premises pursuant to a warrant, produce a valid identification document and the authority to enter.

(3) A person executing a warrant shall, before leaving the premises, leave in a conspicuous place at the premises searched—

(a) in the case of a search carried out at a time when the owner or occupier was not present, a written notice stating—

(i) the date and time when the warrant was executed, and

(ii) the name of the person who executed the warrant and the names of the person or persons who rendered assistance in the course of executing the warrant ; and

person executing a warrant.

(b) upon the completion of the search authorised by a warrant, where a document or article or thing was removed from the place being searched, leave a schedule containing a list of articles, documents, extracts or things removed from the premises during the search.

(4) Where it is not practicable to prepare a schedule before completing the search, or if the owner or occupier of the place being searched consents, the person executing the warrant—

(a) may, instead of leaving a schedule, leave a notice stating that documents, articles or things have been removed during the search and that, within seven days of the search, a schedule will be delivered, left, or sent stating the documents, articles or things that have been removed ; and

(b) shall, within seven days of the search—

(i) deliver a schedule to the owner or occupier,

(ii) leave a schedule in a prominent position at the place searched, or

(iii) send a schedule by registered mail to the owner or occupier of the place searched.

(5) Every schedule prepared under subsection (3) or (4) shall state—

(a) the documents, articles and things that were removed ;

(b) the location from which they were removed ; and

(c) the location where they are being held.

(6) The Commission, or any person authorised by the Commission for that purpose, may inspect and make copies of any document or extract from such document, obtained pursuant to a warrant.

Duties of occupiers.

31. The occupier or person in charge of the place that an authorised officer, under a warrant, enters for the purpose of a search shall provide that authorised officer with all reasonable facilities and cooperation in executing the warrant.

Request for
documents.

32.—(1) Where the Commission considers it necessary, desirable or expedient for the purpose of carrying out its functions under this Act, the Commission may, by notice in writing served on any person, require that person to—

(a) furnish to the Commission, in writing signed by that person or, in the case of an undertaking, by a director or competent officer or agent of the undertaking, within the time and in the manner specified in the notice, any information or class of information as may be specified in the notice ;

(b) produce to the Commission or a person specified in the notice, acting on its behalf in accordance with the notice, any document or class of documents specified in the notice ; or

(c) appear before the Commission at a time and place specified in the notice to give evidence, either orally or in writing and produce any document or class of documents specified in the notice.

(2) The Commission shall obtain such information as it considers necessary to assist it in its investigations or inquiries and where it considers appropriate, shall examine and obtain verification of documents submitted to it.

(3) Where the information provided in subsection (1) is not furnished to the satisfaction of the Commission, the Commission may make findings on the basis of information available to it.

33.—(1) A summons to attend and give evidence or to produce documents before the Commission issued under the hand of the Secretary or any member of the Commission shall be served on the person concerned.

Summons to attend and give evidence or produce documents

(2) Hearings of the Commission shall take place in public, but the Commission may, whenever the circumstances warrant, particularly in order to preserve the business secrets of the undertaking concerned, conduct hearing in camera.

(3) A person who, without sufficient cause, fails or refuses to—

(a) appear before the Commission in compliance with a summons, or

(b) produce a document which the person is required by such summons to produce, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or a fine not exceeding ₦20,000,000.00 or both the fine and imprisonment.

(4) A person who wilfully obstructs or interrupts the proceedings of the Commission commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or a fine not exceeding ₦20,000,000.00 or both the fine and imprisonment.

34. (1) For the purpose of carrying out its functions and powers under this Act, the Commission may receive in evidence any statement, document, information or matter that may, in its opinion, assist it in dealing effectively with the matter before it, whether or not such evidence is otherwise admissible in a court of law.

Procedures for handling of evidence by the Commission.

(2) The Commission may take evidence on oath and for that purpose a member of the Commission, any employee or agent of the Commission duly authorised for that purpose may administer an oath.

(c) appear before the Commission at a time and place specified in the notice to give evidence, either orally or in writing and produce any document or class of documents specified in the notice.

(2) The Commission shall obtain such information as it considers necessary to assist it in its investigations or inquiries and where it considers appropriate, shall examine and obtain verification of documents submitted to it.

(3) Where the information provided in subsection (1) is not furnished to the satisfaction of the Commission, the Commission may make findings on the basis of information available to it.

33.—(1) A summons to attend and give evidence or to produce documents before the Commission issued under the hand of the Secretary or any member of the Commission shall be served on the person concerned.

Summons to attend and give evidence or produce documents

(2) Hearings of the Commission shall take place in public, but the Commission may, whenever the circumstances warrant, particularly in order to preserve the business secrets of the undertaking concerned, conduct hearing in camera.

(3) A person who, without sufficient cause, fails or refuses to—

(a) appear before the Commission in compliance with a summons, or

(b) produce a document which the person is required by such summons to produce, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or a fine not exceeding ₦20,000,000.00 or both the fine and imprisonment.

(4) A person who wilfully obstructs or interrupts the proceedings of the Commission commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or a fine not exceeding ₦20,000,000.00 or both the fine and imprisonment.

34. (1) For the purpose of carrying out its functions and powers under this Act, the Commission may receive in evidence any statement, document, information or matter that may, in its opinion, assist it in dealing effectively with the matter before it, whether or not such evidence is otherwise admissible in a court of law.

Procedures for handling of evidence by the Commission.

(2) The Commission may take evidence on oath and for that purpose a member of the Commission, any employee or agent of the Commission duly authorised for that purpose may administer an oath.

(3) The Commission may require the evidence to be furnished to be given on oath and for that purpose a member of the Commission or any officer of the Commission duly authorised for that purpose may administer an oath.

(4) The Commission may permit a person appearing as a witness before it to give evidence by tendering a written statement and, where the Commission deems fit, verify a written statement by oath.

(5) Where a person has appeared as a witness before the Commission pursuant to a notice issued in that behalf or has given evidence before the Commission, whether pursuant to a notice or not, the Commission may, if it deems fit, order any sum to be paid to that witness on account of his travelling expenses.

(6) The Commission shall ensure that business secrets of all parties concerned in an investigation conducted by it are adequately protected during all stages of an investigation or inquiry.

(7) The Commission may hear orally any person who, in its opinion, will be affected by an investigation or inquiry being carried out by it.

Prohibition of disclosure
of

35.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Commission may by order prohibit the publication or communication of any information, document or evidence which is furnished, given or tendered to, or obtained by the Commission in connection with its operations.

(2) An order made by the Commission under subsection (1) may be expressed to have effect for such period as is specified in the order, which shall not be less than two years, but the order shall not have effect where that order was made in connection with an investigation or inquiry conducted by the Commission, after the conclusion of that investigation or inquiry.

(3) A person who, contrary to an order made by the Commission under subsection (1), publishes or communicates any information, document or evidence commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ₦1,000,000.00 in the case of an individual and ₦50,000,000.00 in the case of a body corporate.

Destruction of records.

36. A person who destroys any record which may be required by the Commission for the performance of any of its functions under this Act, with intent to mislead the Commission or to prevent or impede any investigation or inquiry under this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a term of imprisonment for three years or a fine not exceeding ₦50,000,000.00 or both the fine and imprisonment.

37.—(1) Where the Commission, at any stage of an investigation or inquiry under this Act, is of the opinion that the matter being investigated or subject to inquiry does not justify further investigation or inquiry, the Commission may discontinue the investigation or inquiry. Discontinuance of inquiry or investigation.

(2) Where the Commission discontinues an investigation or inquiry, it shall, within 14 days thereafter, give written notice to the parties concerned in the investigation or inquiry, stating the reasons for discontinuing the investigation or inquiry.

38.—(1) Subject to regulations made by the Commission, appeals from any decision of the Commission shall lie to the Tribunal established under section 39 of this Act. Appeals

(2) The Commission shall adopt regulations specifying all relevant procedures and requirements in relation to appeals under subsection (1) of this section.

(a) hear appeals from or review any decision of the Commission taken in the course of the implementation of any of the provisions of this Act as may be referred to it ;

(b) hear appeals from or review any decision from the exercise of the powers of any sector of specific regulatory authority in a regulated industry in respect of competition and consumer protection matters ;

(c) issue such orders as may be required of it under this Act ; and

(d) make any ruling or such other orders as may be necessary or incidental to the performance of its functions under this Act.

Jurisdiction of the Tribunal.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) (b), all appeals or request for review of the exercise of the power of any sector of specific authority shall first be heard and determined by the Commission before such appeals can lie before or be determined by the Tribunal.

48.—(1) The Chairman of the Tribunal shall be responsible for the management and assignment of cases before the Tribunal to the other members of the Tribunal.

Management of the work of the Tribunal.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), members of the Tribunal shall be constituted into Panels of at least three members.

(3) Further to the provision of subsection (2), the Chairman shall ensure that at least one member of each Panel has requisite legal training, experience and good knowledge of competition and consumer protection matters.

(4) The Chairman shall designate a member to preside over proceedings of a Panel at any sitting.

(5) Where, as a result of withdrawal from a hearing for the reason stated in section 49 (2) of this Act or for any other reason, a member of a Panel is unable to complete the proceedings in a matter assigned to that Panel, the Chairman shall—

(a) direct that the hearing of that matter proceed before the remaining members of the Panel, subject to the requirements of subsection (4), or

(b) terminate the proceedings before that Panel and constitute another Panel, which may include any member of the original Panel and direct that panel to conduct a new hearing.

(6) The decision of a Panel on a matter referred to it shall be in writing and include reasons for that decision.

(7) The Tribunal may extend or reduce a period prescribed for the taking or doing of any action required to be done under this Part.

(8) A decision of a Panel contemplated in subsection (6) or of a majority of the members of a Panel shall be the decision of the Tribunal.

Disclosure of interest by members of a panel

49.—(1) A member of the Tribunal is not entitled to sit on a Panel if, during the hearing, it appears to the Tribunal that the matter concerns a financial or other interest of that member.

(2) A member affected by the provision of subsection (1) shall—

(a) immediately and fully disclose the fact and nature of the interest to the Chairman and to the presiding member at that hearing ; and

(b) withdraw from any further involvement in that hearing.

Procedural
Tribunal.

50.—(1) The Tribunal may make rules regulating its procedures.

(2) The Tribunal shall, for the purpose of discharging its duty under this Act, have power to—

(a) summon and enforce the attendance of any person, including the power to examine a person under oath ;

(b) require the discovery and production of documents ;

(c) call for and examine witnesses under oath ;

(d) receive evidence on affidavits ; and

(e) do anything which, in the opinion of the Tribunal, is deemed necessary to issue a final and reasoned decision on the merit of the matter before it.

51.—(1) The Tribunal may impose administrative penalties only for—
(a) a prohibited practice under this Act ; or
(b) the contravention of, or failure to comply with, an interim order of the Tribunal.

Powers of the Tribunal
to impose
penalties

(2) An administrative penalty imposed under subsection (1) shall not exceed 10% of the undertaking's annual turnover in Nigeria and its exports from Nigeria during the preceding financial year.

(3) When determining an appropriate penalty under subsection (1), the Tribunal shall consider—

- (a) the nature, duration, gravity and extent of the contravention ;
- (b) any loss or damage suffered as a result of the contravention ;
- (c) the behaviour of the defaulting party ;
- (d) the market circumstances in which the contravention took place ;
- (e) the level of profit derived from the contravention ;
- (f) the degree to which the defaulting party has co-operated with the Commission and the Tribunal ; or
- (g) whether the defaulting party has previously been found to be in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act.

52.—(1) The Tribunal may make an order directing any undertaking to sell any portion or all of its shares, interest or assets if the practice prohibited under this Act—

Powers of
the Tribunal
to order sale of assets

- (a) cannot adequately be remedied under any other provision of this Act ; or
- (b) is substantially a repeat by that undertaking of conduct previously found by the Tribunal to be a prohibited practice.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) may provide for time-frame for compliance and any other term that the Tribunal considers appropriate, having regard to the commercial interests of the parties concerned.

53. The Tribunal shall provide the parties to the proceedings before it and other members of the public reasonable access to the record of its proceedings, subject to any requirement to protect confidential information as required under the provisions of this Act and regulations made under this Act or any other enactment.

the Tribunal.

54. An order, ruling, award or judgment of the Tribunal shall be—
(a) binding on the parties before the Tribunal ; and
(b) registered with the Federal High Court for the purpose of enforcement only.

Judicial review by
Appeal.

55.—(1) Any party to a proceeding who is not satisfied with a ruling, award or judgment of the Tribunal may appeal to the Court of Appeal upon giving notice in writing to the Registrar to the Tribunal within 30 days after the date on which the ruling, award or judgment was given.

(2) A notice of appeal filed pursuant to subsection (1) shall set out all the grounds on which the review is sought.

(3) Upon the receipt of a notice of appeal under subsections (1) and (2), the Registrar to the Tribunal shall cause the notice to be given to the Chief Registrar of the Court of Appeal along with the record of proceedings and exhibits tendered at the hearing before the Tribunal.

Right to legal representation.

56.—(1) Any party to a proceeding before the Tribunal may either appear in person or authorise one or more legal practitioners or any of its officers to represent the party before the Tribunal.

(2) Where a party or its representative is unable for good cause to attend a hearing before the Tribunal, the Tribunal may adjourn the hearing for such reasonable time as it deems fit, or admit the matter to be made by some other person or by way of a written address.

Payment of allowances and emoluments of members of the Tribunal.

57. The Chairman and other members of the Tribunal shall be paid such allowances, emoluments and benefits as the Federal Government may approve.

Funding of
the Tribunal

58.—(1) The Tribunal shall establish and maintain a fund, which shall be applied towards the performance of its functions under this Act.

(2) There shall be paid and credited into to the Fund established under subsection (1)—

(a) annual subventions and budgetary allocations from the Federal Government with respect to recurrent and capital expenditures ; and

(b) fees collected for services rendered by the Tribunal under this Act, and such other sums of money as may be provided by the Federal Government for the Tribunal.

(3) The Tribunal shall, at the end of each financial year, submit its budget for the following year to the Minister.

(4) The Minister shall ensure that adequate budgetary provision is made for the payment of emoluments and allowances of members and staff of the Tribunal including all other expenditures of the Tribunal for the efficient discharge of the duties and responsibilities of the Tribunal under this Act.

PART VIII—RESTRICTIVE AGREEMENTS

59.—(1) Any agreement among undertakings or a decision of an association of undertakings that has the purpose of actual or likely effect of preventing, restricting or distorting competition in any market is unlawful and, subject to section 61 of this Act, void and of no legal effect.

Prohibition
agreements in restraint
competition.

(2) The prohibited acts under subsection (1) include, in particular—

(a) directly or indirectly fixing a purchase or selling price of goods or services, subject to section 107 of this Act ;

(b) dividing markets by allocating customers, suppliers, territories or specific types of goods or services ;

(c) limiting or controlling production or distribution of any goods or services, markets, technical development or investment, subject to section 108 of this Act ;

(d) engaging in collusive tendering, subject to section 109 of this Act ; or

(e) making the conclusion of an agreement subject to acceptance by the other parties of supplementary obligations which, by their nature or according to commercial usage, have no connection with the subject of such agreement.

60. The provision of section 59 of this Act shall not apply to an agreement among undertakings, or a decision of an association of undertakings, or a category of agreements or decisions of associations of undertakings, the entry into which is authorised by the Commission, provided that the Commission is satisfied that the agreement or decision—

authorised
Commission.

(a) contributes to the improvement of production or distribution of goods, services or the promotion of technical or economic progress, while allowing consumers a fair share of the resulting benefit ;

(b) imposes on the undertakings concerned only such restrictions as are indispensable to the attainment of the objectives referred to in paragraph (a) of this section ; and

(c) does not afford the undertakings concerned the possibility of eliminating competition in respect of a substantial part of the goods or services concerned.

Prohibition
agreements containing
provisions.

61. An undertaking or association of undertakings shall not request another undertaking or association of undertakings to refuse to sell or purchase any goods or services with the intention of harming certain undertakings.

Agreements
by suppliers.

62.—(1) No two or more undertakings shall enter into any agreement whereby they undertake to—

(a) withhold supplies of goods or services from dealers (whether parties to the agreement or not) who resell or have resold any goods or services in breach of any condition as to the price at which those goods or services may be resold; or

(b) refuse to supply goods or services to the dealers referred to in paragraph (a) except on terms and conditions that are less favourable than those applicable to other dealers carrying on business in similar circumstances.

(2) No two or more undertakings shall enter into, or carry out, any agreement authorising the recovery of penalties, however described, by or on behalf of the parties to the agreement from dealers who resell or have resold goods or services in breach of any condition described in paragraph (a).

Prohibition of minimum
maintenance.

63.—(1) Any term or condition of an agreement for the sale of any goods or services is void to the extent that it purports to establish minimum prices to be charged on the resale of the goods or services in Nigeria.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsections (3) and (4), no undertaking or its agent shall—

(a) include in an agreement for the sale of goods or services, a term or condition which is void under this Act; or

(b) notify dealers or otherwise publish on or in relation to any goods or services, price stated or calculated to be understood as the minimum price which may be charged on the resale of the goods or services in Nigeria.

(3) The provisions of subsection (2)(a) do not affect the enforceability of an agreement except in respect of the term or condition which is void under this Act.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as precluding an undertaking or association, or person acting on the undertaking's behalf, from notifying the dealers or otherwise publishing prices recommended as appropriate for the resale of goods or services supplied or to be supplied by that undertaking.

64.—(1) The provisions of section 63 of this Act shall apply to patented goods, including goods made by a patented process.

Patented products.

(2) Notice of any term or condition which is void under section 63 of this Act, or which would be so void if included in an agreement relating to the sale of patented goods, is of no effect for the purpose of limiting the right of a dealer to dispose of those goods without infringement of the patent.

(3) Nothing contained in this Act or this section shall affect the validity, as between the parties to an agreement and their successors, of any term or condition of—

(a) a licence granted by the proprietor of a patent or a licensee under any such licence ; or

(b) any assignment of a patent so far as it regulates the price at which goods produced or processed by the licensee or assignee may be sold by him.

65.—(1) No undertaking shall withhold supplies of any goods or services from a dealer seeking to obtain them for resale on the ground that the dealer—

Maintenance of minimum resale prices.

(a) has sold goods or services obtained either directly or indirectly from that undertaking at a price below the resale price or has supplied them either directly or indirectly to a third party who had done so ; or

(b) is likely, if the goods or services are supplied to that dealer, to sell them at a price below the resale price, or supply them either directly or indirectly to a third party who would be likely to do so.

(2) In this section, “the resale price”, in relation to a sale of any description, means the price—

(a) notified to the dealer or otherwise published by or on behalf of a supplier of the goods or services in question, whether lawfully or not, as the price or minimum price which is to be charged on or is recommended as appropriate for a sale of that description ; or

(b) prescribed or purporting to be prescribed for that purpose by an agreement between the dealer and any supplier.

(3) Where, under this section, it would be unlawful for an undertaking to withhold supplies of goods or services, it is also unlawful for the undertaking to cause or procure any other undertaking to do so.

66.—(1) For the purposes of this Part, an undertaking shall be treated as withholding goods or services from a dealer if—

Withholding of products from a dealer by a supplier

(a) the undertaking refuses to supply those goods or services to the order of the dealer ;

(b) the undertaking refuses to supply those goods or services to the dealer except at prices or on terms or conditions as to credit, discount or other matters which are significantly less favourable than those at or on which the undertaking normally supplies those goods or services to other dealers carrying on business in similar circumstances ; or

(c) although the undertaking enters into an agreement to supply goods or services to the dealer, the undertaking treats the dealer in a manner significantly less favourable than that in which it normally treats other dealers in respect of times or methods of delivery or other matters arising in the execution of the agreement.

(2) An undertaking shall not be treated as withholding goods or services on any ground mentioned in this Part if, in addition to that ground, the undertaking has other grounds which, standing alone, would have led the undertaking to withhold those goods or services.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), where in the proceedings brought against an undertaking in respect of a contravention of the provisions of subsection (1), the matters specified in subsection (4) are proved, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the goods or services concerned were withheld on the ground that the dealer had acted or was likely to act as described in subsection (1).

(4) The matters referred to in subsection (3) are—

(a) supplies of goods or services were withheld from a dealer :

(b) during a period ending immediately before the supplies were so withheld, the undertaking was doing business with the dealer or was supplying goods or services of the same description to other dealers carrying on business in similar circumstances ; and

(c) the dealer, to the undertaking's knowledge, had within the preceding six months, acted as described in subsection (1) of this Act or had indicated its intention to act in relation to the goods or services in question.

(5) The provisions of subsections (3) and (4) shall not apply where the proof that goods or services were withheld consists only of evidence of requirements imposed by the undertaking in respect of the time at which or the form in which payment was to be made for goods or services supplied or to be supplied.

67.—(1) Where the Commission determines that an agreement or decision contravenes the provisions of this Act, it shall serve an order on the parties concerned stating the reasons for its decision and requiring the parties to cease their anti-competition practices.

(2) Any person who has suffered a loss as a result of any restrictive agreement or decision may make a complaint to the Commission and the Commission may, if it is satisfied that the circumstances of the case so warrant, exercise any of the powers granted to it under this Act as it deems fit, including making interim orders mandating the cessation of the restrictive agreement pending the conclusion of investigation.

(3) Any person who may have suffered loss as a result of this agreements or not satisfied with the decision of the Commission may apply to the Tribunal for review.

Commission
of restrictive
agreements

68.—(1) Nothing in this Act prohibits—

(a) combinations or activities of employees for the reasonable protection of employees ;

(b) arrangements for collective bargaining on behalf of employers and employees for the purpose of fixing minimum terms and conditions of employment ;

(c) activities of professional associations designed to develop or enforce standards of professional qualifications ;

(d) a contract or an arrangement among partners, none of whom is a body corporate, in so far as it contains provisions in relation to the terms of the partnership or the conduct of the partnership business or in relation to competition between the partnership and a party to the contract, arrangement or understanding while that party is, or after that party ceases to be a partner ;

(e) a contract of service or a contract for the provision of services in so far as it contains provisions by which a person, not being a body corporate, agrees to accept restrictions as to the work, whether as an employee or otherwise, in which that person may engage during or after the termination of the contract and this period shall not be more than two years ;

(f) a contract for the sale of a business or shares in the capital of a body corporate carrying on business in so far as it contains a provision that is solely for the protection of the purchasers in respect of the goodwill of the body corporate ; or Exceptions.

(g) any act done to give effect to a provision of a contract or an arrangement referred to in paragraphs (a) to (f) of this subsection.

(2) With respect to professional services subject to the regulation of professional bodies, the Commission may issue guidelines for the application of certain provisions of this Act to the supply of services or conduct of business by members of such professional associations.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Commission shall, from time to time, publish a list of professional bodies to whom the subsection applies.

(4) Any privilege or exemption granted by the Commission under subsection (1) shall be consistent with the provisions of this Act.

(5) The Commission shall, as it considers appropriate, develop and publish procedural rules to be applied to group inquiries.

Offences and penalties
under this Part

69.—(1) An undertaking that makes or enters into an agreement or decision declared unlawful under this Part commits an offence and is liable on conviction where the undertaking is—

(a) a natural person, to imprisonment not exceeding a term of five years, or to a fine not exceeding ₦5,000,000.00 or both the fine and imprisonment; and

(b) a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year.

(2) Where the offence is committed by a body corporate, each director of the body corporate shall be liable to be proceeded against and on conviction dealt with as specified in subsection (1) (a).

(3) An undertaking that fails to obey an order served by the Commission under subsection (1) of section 67 (1) of this Act commits an offence and where the undertaking is—

(a) a natural person, it is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to payment of a fine not exceeding ₦50,000,000.00 or both the fine and imprisonment; or

(b) a body corporate, it is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year.

(4) Where the offence is committed by a body corporate, each director of the body corporate shall be liable to be proceeded against and on conviction dealt with as specified in subsection (1) (a).

PART IX.—ABUSE OF A DOMINANT POSITION

70.—(1) For the purpose of this Act, an undertaking is considered to be in a dominant position if it is able to act without taking account of the reaction of its customers, consumers or competitors.

Dominant position and abuse of dominant position in the relevant market.

(2) A dominant position in a relevant market exists where an undertaking enjoys a position of economic strength enabling it to prevent effective competition being maintained on the relevant market and having the power to behave to an appreciable extent independently of its competitors, customers and ultimately consumers.

(3) The Commission shall publish the size of market share that may constitute dominant position in particular markets.

71. For the purpose of delineating the relevant market under this Act, the criteria that shall be taken into account include the—

Criteria for identifying the relevant market.

(a) geographical boundaries that identify groups of sellers and buyers of goods or services within which competition is likely to be restrained ;

(b) goods or services which are regarded as interchangeable or substitutable by the consumer by reason of their characteristics, prices and the intended use ; and

(c) suppliers to which consumers may turn to in the short term, if the abuse of dominance leads to a significant increase in price or to other detrimental effect upon the consumer.

72.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), any abuse by one or more undertakings of a dominant position in a market is prohibited.

Abuse of a dominant position prohibited.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, an abuse of dominant position occurs where one or more undertakings in a dominant position—

(a) charge an excessive price to the detriment of consumers ;

(b) refuse to give a competitor access to an essential facility when it is economically feasible to do so ;

(c) engage in an exclusionary act, other than an act listed in paragraph (d), if the anti-competitive effect of that act outweighs its technological efficiency and other pro-competitive gains ; or

(d) engage in any of the following exclusionary acts, unless the firm concerned can show technological efficiency and other pro-competitive gains which outweigh the anti-competitive effect of its act—

(i) requiring or inducing a supplier or customer not to deal with a competitor,

(ii) refusing to supply scarce goods to a competitor when supplying those goods is economically feasible,

(iii) selling goods or services on condition that the buyer purchases separate goods or services unrelated to the object of a contract, or forcing a buyer to accept a condition unrelated to object of a contract,

(iv) selling goods or services below their marginal or average cost, or

(v) buying up a scarce supply of intermediate goods or resources required by a competitor.

(3) For the purpose of assessing market dominance, account shall be taken in particular of—

(a) the market share of the undertaking or undertakings concerned in the relevant market ;

(b) its or their financial power ;

(c) its or their access to supplies or markets ;

(d) its or their links with other undertakings ;

(e) legal or factual barriers to market entry by other undertakings ;

(f) actual or potential competition by undertakings established within or outside the scope of application of this Act ;

(g) its or their ability to shift supply or demand to other goods or services ; and

(h) the ability of the opposite market side to resort to other undertakings.

(3) An undertaking shall not be treated as abusing a dominant position if its conduct—

(a) contributes to the improvement of production or distribution of goods or services or the promotion of technological or economic progress, while allowing consumers a fair share of the resulting benefit ;

(b) is indispensable to the attainment of the objectives referred to in paragraph (a) ; and

(c) does not afford the undertaking the possibility of eliminating competition in respect of a substantial part of the goods or services concerned.

(4) An undertaking may be considered as abusing its dominant position with regard to subsection (3) (c) of this section if the Commission is satisfied that its activities—

(a) have the effect of unreasonably lessening competition in a market ; and

(b) impede the transfer or dissemination of technology.

73.—(1) Where the Commission finds that an undertaking has abused or is abusing its dominant position in a market, the Commission shall prepare a report indicating the practices that constitutes the abuse and shall—

Consequences of abuse of a dominant position.

(a) notify the undertaking of its findings accompanied by a copy of the report ; and

(b) direct the undertaking to immediately cease the abusive practice.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to exclusive dealing arrangements or market restrictions between or among affiliated or interconnected undertakings.

(3) An undertaking that abuses its dominant position in a market commits an offence under this Act and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year or such higher percentage as the court may determine under the circumstances of the particular case.

74.—(1) An undertaking that fails to cease an abusive practice after receiving an order of the Commission to that effect commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year or to such higher percentage as the court may determine given the circumstances of the particular case.

Penalties for failure to comply with a cease order

(2) Any director of an undertaking that commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to payment of a fine not exceeding ₦50,000,000.00 or to both the fine and imprisonment.

75. Where upon receipt of the directive under section 73 (1)(b) of this Act, the undertaking or undertakings concerned submits or submit to the Commission the measures it or they propose to take to cease the abusive practice and a timetable for giving effect to the measures, and the Commission is satisfied as to the measures, the Commission may decide not to proceed with the institution of action that leads to the penalties prescribed in section 74 of this Act against the undertaking or undertakings.

Suspension of punishment.

PART X—MONOPOLY

76. Where it appears to the Commission that there are grounds for believing that a monopoly situation may exist in relation to the production or distribution of goods or services of any description, or in relation to exports of goods or services of any description from Nigeria, it shall cause an investigation to be held into a particular sector of the economy or into a particular type of agreements across various sectors to determine the extent of the situation in relation to the market.

82. (1) Any person or body corporate may make a request for a monopoly investigation to the Commission.

Request for a monopoly
investigation.

(2) A monopoly investigation may be referred to the Commission by a court, agency of the Government of the Federation or any State or Local Government of the Federation.

(3) A request made under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by an affidavit deposing to the facts giving rise to the request.

(4) In responding to a request or referral referred to in subsections (1) and (2), the Commission may limit its report to—

(a) whether a monopoly situation exists in relation to the matters set out in the request or reference ;

(b) where a monopoly situation is determined to exist, which of the provisions of this Act is applicable ;

(c) the undertaking or undertakings in whose favour the monopoly situation exists ;

(d) the acts taken by way of anti-competition practices or otherwise by the undertaking or undertakings concerned to exploit or maintain the monopoly situation or to further an anti-competitive practice ; and

(e) any act or omission on the part of the undertaking or undertakings concerned attributable to the existence of the monopoly situation and, if so, by what manner it is so attributable.

83. Where the Commission gives a direction under this Act with respect to a request for or a referral of a monopoly investigation, the Commission shall notify all relevant parties in writing and shall place a notice of such direction on the website of the Commission.

Notification
of a request for a

investigation

84.—(1) The Commission shall furnish to the Tribunal reports on completed monopoly investigations at such times or intervals as may be agreed from time to time between the Tribunal and the Commission.

Report on a monopoly
investigation.

(2) In making a report on a monopoly investigation, the Commission shall include in the report definite conclusions on the questions or issues that prompted the investigation, together with an account of the Commission's reasons for those conclusions.

(3) Where the Commission finds that a monopoly situation exists and that facts found by the Commission in pursuance of its investigation operate or may be expected to operate against the public interest, its report shall specify those facts and the particular effects which in the Commission's opinion, those facts have or may be expected to have.

(4) The Commission—

(a) shall, as part of any investigation under this Part, consider the actions to be taken to remedy or prevent any adverse effects resulting from a monopoly situation ; and

(b) may, if it deems fit, include in its report on a monopoly investigation recommendations in support of the actions to be taken.

(5) The phrase “action to be taken” in subsection (4) (a) and (b) means the action to be taken by—

(a) the Minister or any other Minister of the Government of the Federation or any department or agency of Government where the resulting adverse effects affects the sphere of responsibility or the statutory function of any Minister or of any of the departments or agencies of Government ; or

(b) the undertaking or undertakings in whose favour the monopoly situation in question exists.

Time frame for a report on a monopoly

85.—(1) Upon the commencement of a monopoly investigation under this Part, the Commission shall specify a period within which the Commission is to report on the monopoly investigation.

(2) Where a report of the Commission is not made before the end of the period specified by the Commission under subsection (1) or if one or more extended periods allowed for making the report under subsection (3) is not met before the end of that extended period or of the last of those extended periods, as the case may be, the investigation shall cease to have effect and no action or, if action has already been taken, no further action shall be taken in relation to that investigation.

(3) Where a monopoly investigation cuts across the sphere of responsibilities of more than one Minister and the period of reporting on an investigation has already been extended once or more than once under any direction issued under this subsection, a joint directive of all the Ministers concerned may be issued allowing the Commission such extended period to report on the reference as may be specified in the direction.

Powers of
the Tribunal
in relation to a report on a monopoly
investigation.

86.—(1) The provisions of this section shall have effect where a report of the Commission on a monopoly investigation is referred to the Tribunal with the conclusions of the Commission that—

(a) a monopoly situation exists and that facts found by the Commission in its investigations operate or may be expected to operate, against the public interest ; and

(b) a report of the Commission herein shall specify particular adverse effects of the monopoly situation to the public interest.

(2) The Tribunal may, based on the findings of the Commission pursuant to subsection (1), exercise any of its powers under this Act or make such orders as considered necessary for the purpose of remedying or preventing the adverse effects specified in the report.

(3) An order of the Tribunal made under subsection (2) may, in particular—

(a) declare an agreement to be unlawful to such extent and in such circumstances as may be provided by this Act or regulations made under this Act ;

(b) require any party to such agreement as may be specified or described in the order to terminate the agreement within such time as may be so specified, either wholly or to such extent as may be specified ;

(c) require a person supplying goods or services to publish a list of prices, with or without such further information as may be specified or described in the order ;

(d) prohibit or restrict the acquisition by any undertaking of the whole or part of another undertaking ; or

(e) provide for the division of any undertaking by the sale of any part of its shares, assets or otherwise for which purpose all the activities carried on by way of business by any one undertaking or by any two or more interconnected undertakings may be treated as a single business or for the division of any group of interconnected undertakings and for all such matters as may be necessary to effect or take account of the division, including the—

(i) transfer or vesting of property rights, liabilities or obligation,

(ii) adjustment of contracts, whether by discharge or reduction of any liability or obligation or otherwise,

(iii) creation, allotment, surrender or cancellation of shares, stock or securities,

(iv) formation or winding up of an undertaking or association, corporate or unincorporated, or the amendment of the memorandum and articles or other instruments regulating any undertaking or association,

(v) extent to which and the circumstances in which provisions of the order affecting an undertaking or association in its share capital, constitution or other matters may be altered by the undertaking or association and the registration under any enactment of the order by undertakings or associations so affected, or

(3) Continuation with any necessary change of parties of any legal proceedings.

(4) The reference in subsection (3) (e) to the division of an undertaking shall be construed as including a reference to the separation by the sale of any part of any shares or assets concerned of undertakings which are under joint control.

(5) In determining whether or not and to what extent or in what manner to exercise any of the powers referred to in subsection (2), the Tribunal shall take into account the objectives of this Act.

(6) Where a report made under subsection (1) specifies that the undertaking in whose favour the monopoly situation exists is a body corporate fulfilling the following conditions—

(a) that the affairs of the body corporate are managed by its members, and

(b) that by virtue of any enactment, those members are appointed by a supervising Minister of that body corporate, the Tribunal shall, if requested, receive representations from the Minister who appointed members of that body corporate and shall consider such representations before making any orders or exercising any powers.

(7) In relation to any such undertaking as is mentioned in subsection (6) the powers exercisable under subsection (2) shall not include the powers specified in subsection (3)(e).

General provisions relating to orders made under this Part.

87.—(1) The provisions of this section shall apply to an order made under section 86 of this Act.

(2) An order made under section 86 of this Act declaring certain acts to be unlawful shall apply to all undertakings or to such undertakings as may be specified or described in the order.

(3) Nothing in any order made under section 86 of this Act shall have effect so as to apply to any undertaking in relation to its conduct outside Nigeria, unless that undertaking is—

(a) a citizen of Nigeria : or

(b) a body corporate incorporated under the Companies and Allied Matters Act and carrying on business in Nigeria, either alone or in partnership with one or more other undertakings.

Cap. C20, LFN. 2004.

(4) An order to which this section applies may be extended so as to prohibit the carrying out of any agreement already in existence on the date on which the order is made.

(5) Nothing in any order to which this section applies shall have the effect as to restrict any act for the purpose of restraining an infringement of a Nigerian patent or so as to restrict any undertaking as to the conditions which it attaches to a licence to do anything the doing of which would, but for the licence, be an infringement of a Nigerian patent.

(6) The Tribunal shall include, in an order made under section 86 of this Act, the power to give any directive to a person, body corporate or association specified in the order to—

(a) take such steps within its competence as may be specified or described in the direction for the purpose of carrying out, or securing compliance with the order ; or

(b) do or refrain from doing anything so specified or described which the person, body corporate or association may be required by the order to do or refrain from doing, and may authorise the Minister in charge of the person, body corporate or association to vary or revoke any directives so given.

(7) Prior to making any order under section 87 of this Act, the Tribunal shall publish, in such manner as it deems appropriate, a notice—

(a) stating its intention to make the order ;

(b) indicating the nature of the provisions to be embodied in the order ; and

(c) requesting any person, body corporate or association whose interest is likely to be affected by the order and who is desirous of making representations in respect of the order to do so in writing within 30 days from the date of publication of the notice for consideration by the Tribunal.

PART XI—PRICE REGULATION

88. (1) For the purpose of regulating and facilitating competition only, the President may, from time to time, by order published in the Federal Gazette, declare that the prices for goods or services specified in the order shall be controlled in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Declaration of price
regulations.

(2) The President shall not make an order under subsection (1) unless the President is satisfied that—

(a) goods or services to which the order relates are or will be supplied or acquired in a market in which competition is limited or is likely to be lessened ;

(b) it is necessary or desirable for the prices of those goods or services to be controlled in accordance with this Act in the interest of users, consumers, or, as the case may be, suppliers ; and

(c) the declaration of price regulation is narrowly designed, both in terms of duration and the list of goods and services affected, as is necessary to remedy the effects of the absence of competition in the relevant market.

(3) An order shall not be made under subsection (1) prior to the submission to the President of a report of the Commission assessing the state of competition in the relevant market and providing recommendations on the desirability and likely effects of implementing price regulation or other remedies.

(4) An order made under subsection (1) shall identify the goods or services to which it pertains by—

- (a) a description of the goods or services ;
- (b) a description of the kind or class of the goods or services ;
- (c) a description of the market to which the goods or services belong ; and
- (d) the specification of the sector of the economy affected or likely to be affected.

(5) Any order made under subsection (1) shall specify the date on which it shall expire.

Commission to report to the President on price regulation.

89.—(1) The President may, by notice in writing, require the Commission to report by such date as the President shall specify in the notice, on the need to amend, vary or revoke an order made under section 88 of this Act.

(2) Upon the issuance of a notice to the Commission under subsection (1)—

(a) the Commission shall cause to be published in such manner as the Commission may consider appropriate, including the mass media, a notice—

(i) stating that the requirement has been made and specifying the matter to which it pertains, and

(ii) inviting interested persons to present their views on that matter to the Commission, and specifying the time and manner within which they may do so ; and

(b) the Commission shall not submit a report to the President until it has given a reasonable opportunity to interested persons to furnish their views in accordance with the requirement of paragraph (a) (ii).

(3) The Commission may at its discretion recommend to the President to amend, vary or revoke an order made under section 88 of this Act.

(4) The President shall cause a copy of every report submitted by the Commission under this section to be published in such manner as it considers appropriate.

90. (1) For the purpose of this Part, “regulated goods” or “regulated services” means goods or services in respect of which there is, for the time being in force, an order made under section 88 of this Act.

Regulated goods or services to be supplied in accordance with authorised prices.

(2) Within a reasonable period after an order under section 88 of this Act is made, the Commission shall set and cause to be published an authorised price of the regulated goods or services that are the subject of the order.

(3) Following the publication of an authorised price by the Commission under subsection (2), an undertaking shall not supply the regulated goods or services in Nigeria other than for the authorised price.

(4) Any provision of an agreement in violation of the provisions subsection (3) is unenforceable.

(5) A person who violates any of the provisions of this Part commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ₦50,000,000.00.

(6) A body corporate that violates any of the provisions of this Part commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of the turnover of the body corporate in the business year preceding the date of the commission of the offence.

(7) Each director of the body corporate referred to in subsection (6) shall be liable to be proceeded against and on conviction dealt with as specified in subsection (5).

91.—(1) Any undertaking that supplies or distributes regulated goods or services shall retain all accounting and costing records on the regulated goods or services as the Commission may specify either in relation to suppliers or distributors of those goods or services generally or in relation to a particular supplier or distributor of the goods or services.

Retention of accounting and costing records by suppliers or distributors.

(2) Any undertaking that supplies or distributes regulated goods or services shall retain the records referred to in subsection (1) for a period of three years from the date of the revocation or expiry of the order in respect of the regulated goods or services to which they relate.

PART XII—MERGERS

Merger
defined.

92.—(1) For the purposes of this Act—

(a) a merger occurs when one or more undertakings directly or indirectly acquire or establish direct or indirect control over the whole or part of the business of another undertaking; and

(b) a merger contemplated in paragraph (a) of this subsection may be achieved in any manner, including through—

(i) the purchase or lease of the shares, an interest or assets of the other undertaking in question,

(ii) the amalgamation or other combination with the other undertaking in question, or

(iii) a joint venture.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an undertaking has control over the business of another undertaking if it—

(a) beneficially owns more than one half of the issued share capital or assets of the undertaking;

(b) is entitled to cast a majority of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting of the undertaking or has the ability to control the voting of a majority of those votes, either directly or through a controlled entity of that undertaking;

(c) is able to appoint or to veto the appointment of a majority of the directors of the undertaking;

(d) is a holding company, and the undertaking is a subsidiary of that company as contemplated under the Companies and Allied Matters Act.

(e) in the case of an undertaking that is a trust, has the ability to control the majority of the votes of the trustees, to appoint the majority of the trustees or to appoint or change the majority of the beneficiaries of the trust;

(f) has the ability to materially influence the policy of the undertaking in a manner comparable to a person who, in ordinary commercial practice, can exercise an element of control referred to in paragraphs (a) to (f).

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), an undertaking shall not be deemed to exercise control over the business of another undertaking where—

(a) credit institutions or other financial institutions or insurance companies, the normal activities of which include transactions and dealing in securities for their own account or for the account of others, hold on a temporary basis securities which they have acquired in an undertaking with a view to reselling them, provided that they do not exercise voting rights in respect of those securities with a view to determining the competitive behaviour of that undertaking or provided that they exercise such voting rights only with a view to preparing the disposal of all or part of that undertaking or of its assets or the disposal of those securities and that any such disposal takes place within one year of the date of acquisition: that period may be extended by the Commission on request where such institutions or companies can show that the disposal was not reasonably possible within the period set; or

(b) control is acquired by an office-holder according to the laws of the Federation relating to liquidation, winding up, insolvency, cessation of payments, compositions or analogous proceedings.

(4) For the purposes of this Act—

(a) a “small merger” means a merger with a value at or below the threshold stipulated by the Commission by regulations; and

(b) a “large merger” means a merger with a value above the threshold stipulated by the Commission by regulations.

93. (1) Subject to the notification threshold to be determined from time to time as set out in this Part, a proposed merger shall not be implemented unless it has first been notified to and approved by the Commission.

Commission
to approve mergers.

(2) The Commission shall, by regulations, determine—

(a) a threshold of annual turnover for the purposes of determining the categories of mergers contemplated under section 92 (4) of this Act; and

(b) a method for the calculation of annual turnover to be applied in relation to the threshold determined under paragraph (a).

(3) Prior to making a determination contemplated in subsection (2), the Commission shall publish, in the Federal Gazette, a notice—

(a) setting out the proposed threshold and method of calculation for purposes of this section; and

(b) inviting written submissions on that proposal.

(4) Within 60 days after publishing a notice as required under subsection (3), the Commission shall publish, in the Federal Gazette, a notice setting out—

(a) the threshold and method of calculation for the purposes of this section; and

(b) the effective date of the threshold.

Consideration
by the Commission of effect of a merger on competition.

94.—(1) When considering a merger or a proposed merger, the Commission shall—

(a) determine whether or not the merger is likely to substantially prevent or lessen competition, by assessing the factors set out in subsection (2) ;

(b) if it appears that the merger is likely to substantially prevent or lessen competition, then determine—

(i) whether or not the merger is likely to result in any technological efficiency or other pro-competitive gain which will be greater than, and off-set, or is likely to result from the merger, and would not likely be obtained if the merger is prevented, and

(ii) whether the merger can or cannot be justified on substantial public interest grounds by assessing the factors set out in subsection (3) ;

(c) otherwise, determine whether the merger can or cannot be justified on substantial public interest grounds by assessing the factors set out in subsection (3).

(2) When determining whether or not a merger or a proposed merger is likely to substantially prevent or lessen competition, the Commission shall assess the strength of competition in the relevant market and the probability that the undertakings in the market, after the merger, will behave competitively or co-operatively, taking into account any factor that is relevant to the competition in that market, including—

(a) the actual and potential level of import competition in the market ;

(b) the ease of entry into the market, including tariff and regulatory barriers ;

(c) the level and trends of concentration, and history of collusion in the market ;

(d) the degree of countervailing power in the market ;

(e) the dynamic characteristics of the market, including growth, innovation, and product differentiation ;

(f) the nature and extent of vertical integration in the market ;

(g) whether the business or part of the business of a party to the merger or proposed merger has failed or is likely to fail ; and

(h) whether the merger or proposed merger will result in the removal of an effective competitor.

(3) Where it appears that a merger or proposed merger is likely to substantially prevent or lessen competition, the Commission shall determine—

(a) whether or not the merger or proposed merger is likely to result in any technological efficiency or other pro-competitive advantage which will be greater than, and offset, the effects of any prevention or lessening of competition, while allowing consumers a fair share of the resulting benefit ; and

(b) whether the merger or proposed merger can or cannot be justified on substantial public interest grounds by assessing the factors set out in subsection (4).

(4) When determining whether a merger or proposed merger can or cannot be justified on grounds of public interest, the Commission shall consider the effect that the merger or proposed merger will have on—

(a) a particular industrial sector or region ;

(b) employment ;

(c) the ability of national industries to compete in international markets ; and

(d) the ability of small and medium scale enterprises to become competitive.

95.—(1) A party to a small merger—

(a) is not required to notify the Commission of that merger unless the Commission requires it to do so in accordance with the provision of subsection (3) ; and

(b) may implement that merger without approval, unless it is required to notify the Commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (3).

(2) A party to a small merger may voluntarily notify the Commission of that merger at any time.

(3) Within six months after a small merger is implemented, the Commission may require the parties to that merger to notify it of the merger in the prescribed manner and form if, in the opinion of the Commission, having regard to the provisions of the section, the merger may substantially prevent or lessen competition.

(4) The notification of the merger referred to in subsection (3) shall be published within five business days after receipt by the Commission.

(5) A party to a merger to which subsection (4) applies may take no further steps to implement that merger until the merger has been approved by the Commission with or without conditions.

Notification requirements for a small
merger.

(6) Within 20 business days after parties to a small merger have fulfilled the notification requirement referred to in subsection (3), the Commission may extend the period in which it has to consider the merger by a single period not exceeding 40 business days and, in that case, the Commission shall—

- (a) issue an extension notice to any party who notified it of the merger ; or
- (b) after having considered the merger as required under this section, issue a report in the prescribed form—
 - (i) approving the merger,
 - (ii) approving the merger subject to any conditions,
 - (iii) prohibiting implementation of the merger, if it has not been implemented, or
 - (iv) declaring the merger to be prohibited.

(7) Where, upon the expiry of the 20 business days provided for in subsection (6), the Commission has not issued the extension notice referred to in subsection (6) (a) or, upon the expiry of an extension period referred to in that subsection, the Commission has not issued a report referred to in subsection (6) (b), the merger shall be deemed to have been approved.

(8) The Commission shall—

- (a) publish a notice of any decision it makes pursuant to this section in the Federal Government Gazette ; and
- (b) issue written reasons for the decision if—
 - (i) it prohibits or conditionally approves a merger, or
 - (ii) requested to do so by a party to a merger.

Notification
of a large
merger.

96.—(1) A party to a large merger shall notify the Commission of the merger in the prescribed manner and form.

(2) The notification of the merger referred to in subsection (1) shall be published within five business days after receipt by the Commission.

(3) The primary acquiring undertaking and the primary target undertaking shall each provide a copy of the notice contemplated in subsection (1) to—

- (a) any registered trade union that represents the employees in the acquiring and target undertakings respectively ; or
- (b) the employees or representatives of the employees of the acquiring and target undertakings, if there are no such registered trade unions.

(4) The parties to a large merger shall not implement the merger unless approved, with or without conditions, by the Commission in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) Any action undertaken by any party in violation of the provisions of subsection (4) is void.

(6) The Commission may exercise any of the powers available to it under this Act to render void any violation of the provisions of subsection (3).

(7) An undertaking that violates the provision of subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of turnover of the undertaking in the business year preceding the date of the commission of the offence or to such other percentage as the court may determine having regard to the circumstances of the case.

97.—(1) Within 60 business days after the parties to a large merger have fulfilled all notification requirements referred to in section 96 of this Act, the Commission—

Power of the Commission to extend the period of consideration of a large merger.

(a) may extend the period in which it has to consider the proposed merger to 120 business days and issue an extension notice to all parties to the merger ; or

(b) after having considered the merger in accordance with the provisions of this Act, issue a report in the prescribed form—

(i) approving the merger,

(ii) approving the merger subject to conditions, or

(iii) prohibiting implementation of the merger.

(2) Where upon the expiry of the 60 business day period provided for in subsection (1), the Commission has not issued an extension notice as provided for in that subsection or, upon the expiry of an extension period contemplated in subsection (1) (a), the Commission has not issued a report referred to in subsection (1) (b), the merger shall be regarded as having been approved, subject to the provision of section 99 of this Act.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Part, the Commission shall—

(a) give to the parties applying for approval of a large merger its decision and cause a notice of the decision to be published in at least two national newspapers ; and

(b) issue written reasons for its decision where—

(i) it prohibits or conditionally approves the merger, or

(ii) it is requested to do so by a party to the merger.

98. The Commission may direct any of its officers to investigate a merger, and may require any person or undertaking to provide information in respect of the merger.

Investigation of a proposed merger.

Revocation of merger approval.

99. (1) The Commission may revoke its own decision to approve or conditionally approve a small or large merger if—

(a) the decision was based on incorrect information for which a party to the merger is responsible ;

(b) the approval was obtained by deceit ;

(c) the parties fail to implement the merger within 12 months after the approval was granted : or

(d) an undertaking concerned has breached an obligation attached to the decision of the Commission approving the merger.

(2) Where the Commission revokes its decision approving a merger under subsection (1), it may prohibit that merger even though any time limit set out under the relevant provision of this Part may have elapsed and the merger was approved on account of the failure of the Commission to reach a decision within the period prescribed under this Act.

the Minister.

100.—(1) The Minister is entitled to make representations on any public interest ground indicated in section 94 (4) to the Commission with respect to any merger which is under consideration by the Commission.

(2) Subject to the overriding objectives of this Act, the Commission shall have special regard to the representations made by the Minister on and public interest grounds indicated in section 94 (4) in arriving at the decision on a merger notification.

(3) Further to the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the Minister may participate as an observer in any merger proceeding before the Commission in the prescribed manner.

Power to hear persons in merger
proceedings.

101.—(1) In making a determination in respect of a merger notification, the Commission may hear any person, other than parties to the merger, who, in the opinion of the Commission, is able to assist in making a determination on the merger notification.

(2) Before making a determination in relation to a merger or a proposed merger, the Commission may decide to hold a hearing publicly or in private and shall appoint a date, time and place for holding the hearing and give notice of the date, time, and place so appointed and of the matters to be considered at the hearing to the persons entitled to be present at the hearing.

102.—(1) Any undertaking making a merger notification shall furnish to the Commission such documents and information as may be required in the consideration of the merger or proposed merger to enable the Commission exercise their functions under this Act.

Provisions of documentations on proposed merger to the Commission.

(2) Any undertaking that has given notice in respect of a merger or proposed merger may, at any time by notice in writing to the Commission, advise the Commission that it does not wish to proceed with the implementation of the merger and the Commission shall not give a decision on the notification.

103. A person aggrieved by the Commission's decision under this Part may file an application for review before the Tribunal and where the decision relates to a decision of the Tribunal, to the Court of Appeal.

Appeals.

PART XIII—REGULATED INDUSTRIES

104. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law but subject to the provisions of the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, in all matters relating to competition and consumer protection, the provisions of this Act shall override the provisions of any other law.

Supremacy of the Federal Competition and Consumer Protection Act.

105.—(1) The operation by an undertaking in an industry subject to the authority of a regulatory agency set up by an Act of the National Assembly or the Laws of a State is sufficient to make such an undertaking a member of a regulated industry for the purpose of this Act.

Designation of regulated industries.

(2) In so far as this Act applies to an industry or sector of an industry that is subject to the jurisdiction of another government agency by the provisions of any other law, in matters or conducts which affect competition and consumer protection, this Act shall be construed as establishing a concurrent jurisdiction between the Commission and the relevant government agency, with the Commission having precedence over and above the relevant government agency.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, any government or regulatory agency whose mandate includes enforcement of competition and consumer protection Laws or principles is hereby recognized as a government agency for the avoidance of conflicts between the powers and functions of the Commission conferred by or under this Act and the powers and functions of any other government agency as contained in any other law, rule or regulation in force.

(4) The Commission shall negotiate agreements with all government agencies whose mandate includes enforcement of competition and consumer protection for the purpose of coordinating and harmonising the exercise of jurisdiction over competition and consumer protection matters within the relevant industry or sector, and to ensure the consistent application of the provisions of this Act.

(5) A government agency or regulatory authority which, in accordance with the provision of an existing law or regulation, has jurisdiction in respect of an industry or sector, shall commence negotiation of agreements with the Commission as anticipated in subsection (5) and shall conclude such negotiations within one year, and in respect of matters within its jurisdiction, may exercise its jurisdiction by way of such an agreement.

(6) An agreement under subsections (4) and (5) shall—

(a) identify and establish efficient procedures for the management of areas of concurrent jurisdiction ;

(b) promote cooperation between the regulatory agency and the Commission ;

(c) preserve the coordinating and leadership role of the Commission in relation to the exercise of the concurrent power as envisaged under this Act ;

(d) provide for the exchange of information and the protection of confidential information ; and

(e) be published in the Federal Government Gazette.

(7) Where the negotiations contemplated by subsections (4) and (5) are inconclusive, the areas of disagreement shall be referred to the Attorney-General and Minister of Justice in the case of a large merger, for advice on public interest grounds.

(8) In resolving the areas of disagreement as provided in (7), the Attorney-General of the Federation and Minister of Justice shall take into account the advice of the Tribunal.

Exemption

106.—(1) Whenever it is alleged that a provision of this Act has been contravened by an undertaking acting or operating within any regulated industry designated under section 105 of this Act, the undertaking against whom such allegation is made must demonstrate that the conduct in question was ordered or required by a regulatory agency possessing jurisdiction over that regulated industry.

(2) Where the undertaking against whom an allegation referred to in subsection (1) is made demonstrates that the conduct in question was ordered or required by a regulatory agency possessing jurisdiction over the regulated industry, the Commission may, subject to the agreement referred to in section 105, proceed with the issuance of a cease-and-desist order prohibiting the undertaking concerned from further violations of the provisions of this Act.

PART XIV—SPECIFIC OFFENCES AGAINST COMPETITION

107.—(1) An undertaking shall not directly or indirectly—

Price-fixing

(a) by agreement, threat, promise or any other means, attempt to influence or conspire to influence upward or discourage the reduction of, the price at which any other undertaking supplies, offers to supply or advertises any goods or services; or

(b) refuse to supply goods or services to or otherwise discriminate against any undertaking because of the pricing policy of that undertaking.

(2) The provision of subsection (1) (a) shall not apply if the undertaking attempting to influence the conduct of another undertaking and that other undertaking are interconnected undertakings as defined by this Act or, as the case may be, principal and agent.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), the publication by an undertaking, other than a retailer, of any notice or advertisement that mentions a resale price of any goods or services constitutes an attempt to influence upward the selling price of those goods or services, unless the resale price is so expressed as to make it clear to a reasonable person that the goods or services may be sold at a lower price.

(4) An undertaking that violates any of the provisions of this section commits an offence and—

(a) where the undertaking is a natural person, is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to payment of a fine not exceeding ₦10,000,000.00 or to both the fine and imprisonment;

(b) where the undertaking is a body corporate, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year; and

(c) in the case of a corporate body referred to in paragraph (b), each director of the body corporate is liable to be proceeded against and on conviction dealt with as specified in paragraph (a).

Conspiracy.

108.—(1) An undertaking shall not conspire, combine, agree or arrange with another undertaking to—

(a) limit unduly the facilities for transporting, producing, manufacturing, storing or dealing in or supplying any goods or services ;

(b) prevent, limit or reduce unduly, the manufacture or production of any goods or services or to unreasonably enhance the price of any goods or services ;

(c) unduly reduce competition in the production, manufacture, purchase, barter, sale, supply, rental or transportation of any goods or services or in the price of personal or property insurance ; or

(d) otherwise unduly restrain or injure competition.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) applies to a conspiracy, combination, agreement or arrangement which relates only to a service and to standards of competence and integrity that are reasonably necessary for the protection of the public—

(a) in the practice of a trade or profession relating to the service ; or

(b) in the collection and dissemination of information relating to the service.

(3) An undertaking that violates any provision of this section commits an offence and where the undertaking is—

(a) a natural person, is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to payment of a fine not exceeding ₦10,000,000.00 or to both fine and imprisonment ;

(b) a body corporate, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year ; and

(c) a body corporate referred to in paragraph (b), each director of the body corporate is liable to be proceeded against and on conviction dealt with as specified in paragraph (a).

Bid-rigging.

109.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), no two or more undertakings shall enter into an agreement whereby—

(a) one or more of them agree not to submit a bid in response to a call or request for bids or tenders ; or

(b) as bidders or tenderers, they submit, in response to a call or request, bids or tenders that are arrived at by agreement between or among themselves.

(2) This section shall not apply in respect of an agreement that is entered into or a submission that is arrived at only by undertakings each of which, in respect of every one of the others, is an affiliate.

(3) An undertaking that violates any provision of this section commits an offence and where the undertaking is—

(a) a natural person, is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to payment of a fine not exceeding ₦10,000,000.00 or to both fine and imprisonment;

(b) a body corporate, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year; and

(c) a body corporate referred to in paragraph (b), each director of the body corporate is liable to be proceeded against and on conviction dealt with as specified in paragraph (a).

110. Any person, who, in any manner, impedes, prevents or obstructs any investigation or inquiry by the Commission under this Act commits an offence and is liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term of not less than two years or to a fine of not less than ₦2,000,000.00 or to both the fine and imprisonment.

Obstruction
of
investigation or inquiry.

111.—(1) An undertaking that—

(a) refuses to produce any document or supply any information when required to do so by the Commission under this Act,

(b) destroys or alters any document or causes a document to be destroyed or altered, or

(c) intentionally withholds the production of a document within his possession or control,

Offence against records

(2) An undertaking that commits an offence under subsection (1), where the undertaking is a—

(a) natural person, is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to payment of a fine not exceeding ₦10,000,000.00 or to both the fine and imprisonment;

(b) body corporate, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year; and

(c) body corporate referred to in paragraph (b), each director of the body corporate is liable to be proceeded against and on conviction dealt with as specified in paragraph (a).

Giving of false or misleading
information.

112. An undertaking that gives to the Commission or an authorised officer of the Commission, any information which the undertaking knows to be false or misleading commits an offence and where the undertaking is a—

(a) natural person, is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to payment of a fine not exceeding ₦10,000,000.00 or to both the fine and imprisonment ;

(b) body corporate, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year : and

Failure to attend or give evidence.

113.—(1) A person who has been required to appear before the Commission and—

(a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to appear, or

(b) refuses to take an oath or to make an affirmation as a witness or to answer a question put to him, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to a fine not exceeding ₦10,000,000.00 or to both fine and imprisonment.

(2) The Commission may prosecute or refer violations of criminal offences created under this Act to the office of the Attorney-General of the Federation and Minister for Justice for prosecution and imprisonment.

PART XV—CONSUMERS' RIGHTS

Right to information
in plain and understandable language.

114.—(1) The producer of a notice, document or visual representation that is required under this Act or any other law, to be produced, provided or displayed to a consumer must produce, provide or display that notice, document or visual representation—

(a) in the prescribed form, if any, for that notice, document or visual representation : or

(b) in plain language, if no form has been prescribed for that notice, document or visual representation.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a notice, document or visual representation is in plain language if it is reasonable to conclude that an ordinary consumer of the class of persons for whom the notice, document or visual representation is intended, with average literacy skills and minimal experience as a consumer of the relevant goods or services, could be expected to understand the content.

significance, and import of the notice, document or visual representation without undue effort, having regard to—

(a) the context, comprehensiveness and consistency of the notice, document or visual representation ;

(b) the organisation, form and style of the notice, document or visual representation ;

(c) the vocabulary, usage and sentence structure of the notice, document or visual representation ; and

(d) the use of any illustrations, examples, headings or other aids to reading and understanding.

(3) The Commission may publish guidelines on methods for assessing whether a notice, document or visual representation satisfies the requirements of subsections (1) and (2).

115.—(1) An undertaking shall not display any goods or services for sale without adequately displaying to the consumer a price of those goods or services.

Disclosure of price of goods or services.

(2) For the purposes of this subsection, a price is adequately displayed to a consumer if, in relation to any particular goods or services, a written indication of the price, expressed in the currency of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, is annexed or affixed to, written, printed, stamped or located upon, or otherwise applied to the goods or services or to any band, ticket, covering, label, package, reel, shelf, or other thing used in connection with the goods or services, or on which the goods or services are mounted for display or exposed for sale, or published in relation to the goods or services in a catalogue, brochure, newspaper, circular or similar publication available to the consumer, or to the public generally.

(3) An undertaking shall not require a consumer to pay a price for any goods or services higher than the displayed price for those goods or services, or if more than one price is concurrently displayed, higher than the lower or lowest of the prices so displayed.

116.—(1) For the purposes of this section, a trade description is applied to goods if it is—

labeling and
descriptions.

(a) applied to the goods, or to any covering, label or reel in or on which the goods are packaged, or attached to the goods ;

(b) displayed together with, or in proximity to, the goods in a manner that is likely to lead to the belief that the goods are designated or described by that description ; or

(c) is contained in any sign, advertisement, catalogue, brochure, circular, wine list, invoice, business letter, business paper, or other commercial communication on the basis of which a consumer may request or order the goods.

(2) An undertaking shall not knowingly apply to any goods a trade description that is likely to mislead consumers as to any matter implied or expressed in that trade description or alter, deface, cover, remove or obscure a trade description or trade mark applied to any goods in a manner calculated to mislead consumers.

(3) An undertaking shall not supply, offer to supply or display any goods if the undertaking knows, reasonably could determine, or has reason to suspect, that—

(a) a trade description applied to those goods is likely to mislead consumers as to any matter implied or expressed in that trade description ; or

(b) a trade description or trade mark applied to those goods has been altered.

reconditioned or second-hand goods.

117. An undertaking that offers or agrees to supply, or supplies, any goods that have been used or are second-hand or have been re-conditioned, re-built or re-made, must apply a conspicuous notice to those goods stating clearly that they have been used or are second-hand or have been re-conditioned, re-built or re-made.

Sales
records.

118. Except where it is impracticable to do so, an undertaking shall provide a written record of each transaction to any consumer to whom goods or services are sold or supplied, and include in that record at least—

(a) the undertaking's full name, or registered business name ;

(b) the address of the premises at which, or from which, the goods or services were sold or supplied ;

(c) the date on which the transaction occurred ;

(d) a name or description of any goods or services supplied or to be supplied ;

(e) the unit price of any particular goods or services supplied or to be supplied ;

(f) the quantity of any particular goods or services supplied or to be supplied ;

(g) the total price of the transaction, before any applicable taxes ;

- (h) the amount of any applicable taxes ; and
- (i) the total price of the transaction, including any applicable taxes.

119. An undertaking shall not require, as a condition of offering to supply or supplying any goods or services, or as a condition of entering into an agreement or transaction, that a consumer shall—

Consumer's
right to select suppliers.

- (a) purchase any other particular goods or services from that undertaking,
- (b) enter into an additional agreement or transaction with the same undertaking or a designated third party, or
- (c) agree to purchase any particular goods or services from a designated third party, unless the undertaking can demonstrate that the convenience to the consumer in having those goods or services bundled outweighs the limitation of the consumer's right to choice, or that the bundling of those goods or services results in economic benefit for the consumer.

120.—(1) A consumer shall have the right to cancel any advance booking, reservation or order for any goods or services, subject to a reasonable charge for cancellation of the order or reservation by the supplier or service provider.

cancel advance reservation, booking or order.

(2) For the purpose of this section, a charge is unreasonable if it exceeds a fair amount in the circumstances, having regard to—

- (a) the nature of the goods or services that were reserved, booked or ordered ;
- (b) the length of notice of cancellation provided by the consumer ;
- (c) the reasonable potential for the supplier or service provider, acting diligently, to find an alternative consumer between the time of receiving the cancellation notice, and the time of the cancelled reservation, booking or order ; and
- (d) the general practice of the relevant industry.

(3) A supplier or service provider may not impose any cancellation fee in respect of a booking, reservation or order if the consumer is unable to honour the booking, reservation or order because of the death or hospitalisation of the person for whom, or for whose benefit the booking, reservation or order was made.

121.—(1) Notwithstanding any statement or notice to the contrary, a consumer or potential consumer is not responsible for any loss or damage to any goods displayed by a supplier, unless the loss or damage results from action by the consumer amounting to gross negligence or recklessness, malicious behaviour or criminal conduct.

right to choose or examine goods.

(2) Where goods are displayed in or sold from open stock, a consumer has the right to select or reject any particular item from that stock before completing the transaction.

(3) Where a consumer has agreed to purchase goods solely on the basis of a description or sample, or both provided by the supplier, the goods delivered to the consumer shall in all material respects and characteristics, correspond to that which an ordinary alert consumer would have been entitled to expect based on the description, or on a reasonable examination of the sample, as the case may be.

(4) Where the supply of goods is by sample, as well as by description, it is not sufficient that any of the goods correspond with the sample, if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

return goods.

122. In addition to the consumer's right to return unsafe or defective goods under any law or enactment, the consumer may return goods to the supplier and receive a full refund of any consideration paid for those goods, if the supplier has delivered—

(a) goods intended to satisfy a particular purpose communicated to the supplier and within a reasonable time after delivery to the consumer, the goods have been found to be unsuitable for that particular purpose ; or

(b) goods that the consumer did not have an opportunity to examine before delivery, and the consumer has rejected delivery of the goods within a reasonable time after delivery to the consumer for the reason that the goods do not correspond with description, sample or that they are not of the type and quality reasonably contemplated in the sales agreement.

General standards for
marketing of goods and services.

123.—(1) A producer, importer, distributor, retailer, trader or service provider shall not, in pursuance of trade and for the purpose of promoting or marketing, directly or indirectly, goods or services make any representation to a consumer—

(a) in a manner that is likely to imply any false or incorrect representation concerning those goods or services ;

(b) that is reasonably misleading or likely to be misleading in any material respect concerning those goods and services ;

(c) in a manner that is erroneous, fraudulent or deceptive in any way, including in respect of—

(i) the nature, properties, advantages or uses of the goods or services,

(ii) the manner in, or conditions on, which those goods or services may be supplied,

(iii) the price at which the goods or services may be supplied, or the existence of, or relationship of the price to, any previous price, or competitor's price for comparable or similar goods or services,

(iv) the sponsoring of any event, or

(v) any other material aspect of the goods or services ;

(d) in the form of a statement, warranty or guarantee of performance, efficacy or length of life of products that is not based on an adequate and proper test of the goods or services, the proof of which lies on the person making the representation :

(e) in a form that purports to be a warranty or a guarantee of any goods or services, or a promise to replace, maintain or repeat an article or any part thereof or to repeat or continue the service until it has achieved a specified result, if the form of purported warranty, guarantee or promise is materially misleading or there is no reasonable prospect that it will be carried out :

(f) to falsely represent to the public in the form of a statement, warranty or guarantee that services are of a particular kind, standard, quality or quantity, or are supplied by any particular undertaking or any undertaking of a particular trade, qualification or skill ;

(g) that is materially a misleading representation to the public concerning the price at which particular goods or services or like goods or services have been, are or will be ordinarily supplied.

(2) For the purpose of this Act, the following types of representations shall be deemed to be made to the public by, and only by, the undertaking who caused it to be expressed, made or contained, that is to say, a representation that is—

(a) expressed on goods or services offered or displayed for sale ;

(b) expressed on anything attached to, inserted in or accompanying goods offered or displayed for sale, their wrapper or container, or anything on which the goods are mounted for display or sale ;

(c) expressed on a display in the place where the goods or services are sold ;

(d) made in the course of selling goods or services to the ultimate consumer ; or

(e) contained in or on anything that is sold, sent, delivered, transmitted or in any other manner made available to a member of the public.

(3) Where the undertaking referred to in subsection (2) is outside Nigeria, the representation shall be deemed to be made—

(a) in a case described in subsection (2) (a), (b) or (e), by the undertaking that imported the goods or services ; and

(b) in the case described in subsection (2) (c), by the undertaking that imported the display into Nigeria.

Right to fair
dealings.

124.—(1) An undertaking or any person acting on its behalf shall not use physical force, coercion, undue influence or pressure, harassment, unfair tactics or any other similar conduct against any person in connection with—

(a) marketing of any goods or services ;

(b) supply of goods or services to a consumer ;

(c) negotiation, conclusion, execution or enforcement of an agreement to supply any goods or services to a consumer ;

(d) demand for, or collection of, payment for goods or services by a consumer ; or

(e) the conduct of a legitimate business transaction.

(2) In addition to any conduct contemplated in subsection (1), an undertaking or any person acting on its behalf shall not knowingly to take advantage of the fact that a potential consumer was substantially unable to protect the consumer's own interests because of physical or mental disability, illiteracy, ignorance, inability to understand the language of an agreement, or any other similar factor.

False, misleading or deceptive
representations.

125.—(1) Where in the marketing of any goods or services an undertaking or any person acting on its behalf by words or conduct—

(a) directly or indirectly expresses or implies a false, misleading or deceptive representation concerning a material fact to a consumer or prospective consumer, or

(b) fails to correct an apparent misapprehension on the part of a consumer or prospective consumer, amounting to a false, misleading or deceptive representation or permit or require any other person to do so, the undertaking is liable for damages to any person damaged, and shall be ordered to make monetary restitution.

(2) A person acting on behalf of a supplier of any goods or services shall not—

(a) falsely represent that the person has any sponsorship, approval or affiliation, or

(b) engage in any conduct that the supplier is prohibited from engaging in under subsection (1).

126.—(1) An undertaking shall not, for the purpose of promoting, directly or indirectly, the supply or use of any goods or services or any business interest, make a representation to the public that a test as to the performance, efficacy or length of life of the goods or services has been made by any person or publish a testimonial with respect to the products, unless it can establish the matters specified in subsection (2).

Representation
test and publication
testimonials.

(2) The matters referred to in subsection (1) are—

(a) that the representation or testimonial was previously made or published by the person by whom the test was made or the testimonial was given, as the case may be ; or

(b) that before the representation or testimonial was made or published, it was approved and permission to make or publish it was given in writing by the person who made the test or gave the testimonial, as the case may be, and it accords with the representation or testimonial previously made, published or approved.

127. (1) An undertaking shall not—

(a) offer to supply, supply, or enter into an agreement to supply, any goods or services at a price that is manifestly unfair, unreasonable or unjust, or on terms that are unfair, unreasonable or unjust ;

(b) market any goods or services, or negotiate, enter into or administer a transaction or an agreement for the supply of any goods or services, in a manner that is unfair, unreasonable or unjust ; or

(c) require a consumer, or other person to whom any goods or services are supplied at the direction of the consumer, to waive any rights, assume any obligation, or waive any liability of the undertaking, on terms that are unfair, unreasonable or unjust, or impose any term as a condition of entering into a transaction.

Unfair, unreasonable or unjust
terms.

(2) Without limiting the generality of the provision of subsection (1), a transaction or agreement, a term or condition of a transaction or agreement, or a notice to which a term or condition is purportedly subject, is unfair, unreasonable or unjust if—

(a) it is excessively one-sided in favour of any person other than the consumer or other person to whom goods or services are to be supplied ;

(b) the terms of the transaction or agreement are so adverse to the consumer as to be inequitable ;

(c) the consumer relied upon a false, misleading or deceptive representation or a statement of opinion provided by or on behalf of the undertaking that supplied the goods or services concerned, to the detriment of the consumer ; or

(d) the fact, nature and effect of that term, condition or notice was not drawn to the attention of the consumer.

Notice
required for certain terms
and
conditions.

128.—(1) Any notice to consumers or potential consumers, or provision of a consumer agreement, which purports to—

(a) limit in any way the risk or liability of an undertaking supplying goods or services or any other person,

(b) constitute an assumption of risk or liability by the consumer,

(c) impose an obligation on the consumer to indemnify an undertaking supplying goods or services or any other person for any cause, or

(d) be an acknowledgement of any fact by the consumer, shall be drawn to the attention of the consumer in a conspicuous manner and form that is likely to attract the attention of an ordinarily alert consumer having regard to the circumstances.

(2) Before the consumer enters into the transaction, or is required or expected to offer consideration for the transaction or agreement, the consumer shall be given adequate opportunity in the circumstances to receive and comprehend the provision or notice.

Prohibited transactions, agreements,
terms or conditions.

129.—(1) An undertaking shall not make a transaction or agreement subject to any term or condition if—

(a) its general purpose or effect is to defeat the purposes and policy of this Act, mislead or deceive the consumer, or subject a consumer to fraudulent conduct ;

(b) it directly or indirectly purports to—

(i) waive or deprive a consumer of a right to return defective goods or any right set out in this Act,

(ii) avoid the undertaking's obligation or duty under this Act,

(iii) set aside or override the effect of any provision of this Act,

(iv) authorise the undertaking to do anything that is unlawful under this Act, and

(v) or fail to do anything that is required under this Act ;

(c) it purports to—

(i) limit or exempt the undertaking from liability for any loss directly or indirectly attributable to the gross negligence of the undertaking or any person acting for or controlled by the undertaking,

(ii) constitute an assumption of risk or liability by a consumer for the said loss,

(iii) impose an obligation on a consumer to pay for damage, or

(iv) otherwise assume the risk of handling any goods displayed by the supplier;

(d) it falsely expresses an acknowledgment by the consumer that before an agreement was made, no representations or warranties were made in connection with the agreement by the undertaking or a person acting on behalf of the undertaking or the consumer has received goods or services, or a document that is required by this Act to be delivered to the consumer; and

(e) it expresses an agreement by the consumer to—

(i) deposit with the undertaking, or with any other person at the direction of the undertaking, an identity document, credit or debit card, bank account or automatic teller machine access card, or any similar identifying document or device, and

(ii) provide a personal identification code or number to be used to access an account.

(2) A purported transaction or agreement, provision, term or condition of a transaction or agreement, or notice to which a transaction or agreement is purported to be subject, is void to the extent that it contravenes the provisions of this section.

130.—(1) When an undertaking agrees to perform any service for or on behalf of a consumer, the consumer has a right to—

(a) the timely performance and completion of those services, and timely notice of any unavoidable delay in the performance of the services;

(b) performance of the services in a manner and quality that reasonable persons are generally entitled to expect;

(c) the use, delivery or installation of goods that are free of defects and of a quality that persons are generally entitled to expect, if the goods are required for the performance of the services; and

(d) the return of any property or control over any property of the consumer in at least as good a condition as it was when the consumer made it available to the undertaking for the purpose of performing the services, having regard

pertaining to the quality and safety of goods and

to the circumstances of the supply, and any specific criteria or conditions agreed between the undertaking and the consumer before or during the performance of the services.

(2) Where an undertaking fails to perform a service to the standards contemplated in subsection (1), the consumer may require the undertaking to either—

(a) remedy any defect in the quality of the services performed or goods supplied; or

(b) refund to the consumer a reasonable portion of the price paid for the services performed and goods supplied, having regard to the extent of the failure.

Consumer's rights to safe, good quality
goods.

131.—(1) Every consumer has a right to receive goods that—

(a) are reasonably suitable for the purposes for which they are generally intended;

(b) are of good quality, in good working order and free of defects;

(c) will be useable and durable for a reasonable period of time, having regard to the use to which they would normally be put and to all the surrounding circumstances of their supply; and

(d) comply with any applicable standards set by industry sector regulators.

(2) In addition to the right set out in subsection (1), if a consumer has specifically informed an undertaking of the particular purpose for which the consumer wishes to acquire any goods, or the use to which the consumer intends to apply those goods, and the undertaking ordinarily offers to supply such goods or acts in a manner consistent with being knowledgeable about the use of those goods, the consumer has a right to expect that the goods are reasonably suitable for the specific purpose that the consumer has indicated.

Implied
of quality.

132.—(1) In any transaction or agreement pertaining to the supply of goods to a consumer, there is an implied warranty that the goods shall comply with the requirements and standards contemplated in section 131 (1) and (2) of this Act.

(2) Within three months after the delivery of any goods to a consumer, the consumer may return the goods to the undertaking that supplied those goods, without penalty and at the undertaking's risk and expense, if the goods fail to satisfy the requirements and standards contemplated in section 131 (1) of this Act and the undertaking shall either repair or replace the failed, unsafe or defective goods or refund to the consumer the price paid by the consumer for the goods.

133.—(1) The Commission shall promote the development, adoption and application of industry-wide codes of practice providing for effective and efficient systems to—

and recall.

(a) receive notice of consumer complaints or reports of product failures, defects or hazards; the return of any goods because of a failure, defect or hazard personal injury, illness or damage to property caused wholly or partially as a result of a product failure, defect or hazard and other indication of failure, defect or hazard ;

(b) monitor the sources of information contemplated in paragraph (a), and analyse the information received with the object of detecting or identifying any previously undetected or unrecognised potential risk to the public from the use of or exposure to those goods ;

(c) conduct investigations into the nature, causes, extent and degree of the risk to the public ;

(d) notify consumers of the nature, causes, extent and degree of the risk pertaining to those goods ; and

(e) if particular goods are unsafe, recall those goods for repair, replacement or refund.

(2) Where the Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that any goods may be unsafe, or that there is a potential risk to the public from the continued use of or exposure to the goods, and the undertaking that produced, distributed or imported those goods has not taken any step required by an applicable code contemplated in subsection (1), the Commission, by written notice, may require that undertaking to recall the goods on any term required by the Commission.

PART XVI—DUTIES OF MANUFACTURERS, IMPORTERS, DISTRIBUTORS AND SUPPLIERS OF GOODS AND SERVICES

134. A manufacturer, importer or distributor of goods shall label or describe the goods in a manner that will be easily traceable to the manufacturer, importer or distributor.

Duty to label
properly.

135.—(1) Upon becoming aware of any unforeseen hazard arising from the use of goods already placed on the market, the manufacturer or distributor of such goods shall notify the general public immediately of such risk or danger and cause such goods to be withdrawn from the market.

Duty to
hazardous goods from the market.

(2) An undertaking that violates the provisions of section 134 of this Act or subsection (1) commits an offence and—

(a) where the undertaking is a natural person, is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to payment of a fine not exceeding N10,000,000.00 or to both the fine and imprisonment ; and

(b) where the undertaking is a body corporate, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year :

(3) In the case of a body corporate referred to in subsection (2) (b), each director of the body corporate is liable to be proceeded against and on conviction dealt with as specified in subsection (2) (a).

(4) Where a consumer suffers loss or injury by the violation of any person of provisions of section 134 of this Act or subsection (1), the consumer shall have a right to be awarded compensation by the Commission.

Liability for defective goods.

136.—(1) Where a damage is caused wholly or partly by defective goods or the supply of a service, the undertaking that supplied the goods or service is liable for the damage.

(2) For the purpose of this Act, damage includes personal injury and damage to the consumer's property.

(3) An undertaking that supplied the defective goods or service is liable whether or not the user or consumer bought the goods or service from or entered into any contractual agreement with the undertaking.

(4) A person affected by the defective goods or services has the right to sue under this section.

(5) The liability of any undertaking under this section shall not be excluded or restricted.

Liability arising from sale or supply of goods not to be excluded.

137. (1) In the case of goods of a type ordinarily supplied for private use or consumption, where loss or damage arises from the goods proving defective while in consumer use or results from the negligence of an undertaking concerned in the manufacture or distribution of the goods, liability for the loss or damage cannot be excluded or restricted by reference to any contract term or notice contained in or operating by reference to a guarantee of the goods.

(2) For the purpose of this section—

(a) goods are to be regarded as “in consumer use” when a person is using them or has them in his possession for use, otherwise than exclusively for the purposes of a business ; and

(b) anything in writing is a guarantee if it contains or purports to contain some promise or assurance (however worded or presented) that defects will be made good by complete or partial replacement, or by repair, monetary compensation or otherwise.

138.—(1) Liability for breach of the obligations arising from a seller's implied undertaking as to title not be excluded or restricted by reference to any contract term.

Liability for breach of implied obligations by law.

(2) As against a person dealing as a consumer, liability for breach of the obligations arising from seller's implied undertakings as to conformity of goods with description or sample, or as to their quality or fitness for a particular purpose, shall not be excluded or restricted by reference to any contract term.

(3) As against a person dealing otherwise than as a consumer, the liability specified in subsection (2) may be excluded or restricted by reference to a contract term only if the term satisfies the requirement of reasonableness.

139. (1) Where the possession or ownership of goods pass under or in pursuance of a contract, subsections (2), (3) and (4) apply as regards the effect, if any, to be given to contract terms excluding or restricting liability for breach of obligation arising by implication of law from the nature of the contract.

Miscellaneous contracts under which goods pass.

(2) As against a person dealing as a consumer, liability in respect of the goods' correspondence with description or sample or quality or fitness for any particular purpose shall not be excluded or restricted by reference to any contract term.

(3) As against a person dealing otherwise than as a consumer, liability may be excluded or restricted by reference to a contract term only if the term satisfies the requirement of reasonableness.

(4) Liability in respect of—

(a) the right to transfer ownership of the goods or give possession, or

(b) the assurance of quiet possession to a person taking goods pursuant to a contract, shall not be excluded or restricted by reference to any contract term, except if the term satisfies the requirement of reasonableness.

140. Where a contract contains a term which excludes or restricts any liability to which a part of a contract may be the subject by reason of any misrepresentation made before the contract was made, or any remedy available to another party to the contract by reason of such a misrepresentation, that term shall have no effect.

Liability for misrepresentation.

141.—(1) A person is not bound by any contract term prejudicing or taking away the person's rights arising under, or in connection with, the performance of another contract, so far as those rights extend to the enforcement of another's liability which this Act prevents that other from excluding or restricting.

Evasion by means of secondary contract.

(2) This Act prevents—

(a) the exclusion or restriction of any liability ;

(b) making any liability or its enforcement subject to restrictive or onerous conditions ;

(c) excluding or restricting any right or remedy in respect of the liability or subjecting a person to any prejudice in consequence of the person pursuing any such right or remedy ; and

(d) excluding or restricting rules of evidence or procedure.

(3) An agreement in writing to submit present or future differences to arbitration is not to be treated under this Act as excluding or restricting any liability.

Supply of
services.

142.—(1) A contract is a contract for the supply of a service for the purposes of this Act whether or not goods are also transferred or to be transferred, or bailed or to be bailed by way of hire, under the contract and whatever is the nature of the consideration for which the service is to be carried out.

(2) For the purpose of this Act, a contract for apprenticeship is not a contract for the supply of a service.

(3) In a contract for the supply of a service where the supplier is acting in the course of a business, there is an implied term that the supplier will carry out the service with reasonable care and skill.

Implied term about time for execution of contract.

143. Where under a contract for the supply of a service by a supplier acting in the course of a business, the time for the service to be carried out is not fixed by the contract, left to be fixed in a manner agreed by the contract or determined by the course of dealing between the parties, it is implied that the supplier will carry out the service within a reasonable time.

Exclusion
terms.

144.—(1) Where a right, duty or liability would arise under a contract for the supply of a service, it may be negated or varied by express agreement or by the course of dealing between the parties or by such usage as binds both parties to the contract provided that an express term does not negate a term implied by this section unless it is inconsistent with it.

(2) A supplier of service shall not, while dealing with a consumer, exclude or restrict its liability for breach of any term implied under sections 142 (3) and 143 of this Act.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prejudice any rule of law which imposes on the supplier a duty stricter than that imposed by section 143 of this Act.

145. Where it is alleged that goods or services are defective, the onus of proof shall lie on the undertaking that supplied the goods or services. Onus of proof

PART XVII—ENFORCEMENT OF CONSUMERS' RIGHTS

146.—(1) A consumer may seek to enforce any right under this Act, a transaction or agreement, or otherwise resolve any dispute with an undertaking that supplied the goods or services to the consumer by— Enforcement of rights by a consumer.

(a) referring the matter directly to the undertaking that supplied the goods or services ;

(b) referring the matter to the applicable industry sector regulator with jurisdiction, if the undertaking is subject to the jurisdiction of the regulator ; or

(c) filing a complaint directly with the Commission.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), an aggrieved consumer can directly approach a court with appropriate jurisdiction to seek redress.

147. Where an industry sector regulator concludes that there is no reasonable probability of the parties resolving their dispute through the process provided for in the relevant industry code, the industry sector regulator may terminate the process by notice to the parties and the party who referred the matter to the industry sector regulator may then file a complaint with the Commission. Conclusion by industry sector regulator

148.—(1) A consumer shall file a complaint with the Commission in the prescribed manner and form, alleging that an undertaking has acted in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. Enforcement of rights by the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall directly initiate a complaint concerning any allegedly prohibited conduct on its own motion, an industry sector regulator or an accredited consumer protection group.

(3) Upon initiating or receiving a complaint under this Act, the Commission may—

(a) issue a notice of non-referral to the complainant in the prescribed form, if the complaint appears to be frivolous or vexatious or does not allege any fact which would constitute grounds for a remedy under this Act ;

(b) refer the complaint to an industry sector regulator with jurisdiction over the matter for investigation or resolution ; or

(c) direct an inspector to investigate the complaint as quickly as practicable.

(4) At any time during investigation, the Commission may designate one or more persons to assist the inspector conducting the investigation.

(5) After receiving a report of an investigation into a complaint, the Commission shall—

(a) issue a notice of non-referral to the complainant in the prescribed form ;

(b) make an order ; or

(c) issue a compliance notice.

Consent
order

149.—(1) Where a matter has been investigated by the Commission, and the Commission and the respondent agree on the proposed terms of an appropriate order, the agreed terms shall be made on the order of the Commission.

(2) The Commission may, if it deems fit, register the order in a court of competent jurisdiction and the court, without hearing any evidence, may confirm that agreement as a consent order.

(3) An order of the Commission or a consent order confirmed pursuant to the provision of this section may include an award of damages to the complainant.

Compliance
notice.

150.—(1) The Commission may issue a compliance notice in the prescribed form to an undertaking or association of undertakings whom the Commission on reasonable grounds believes has engaged in prohibited conduct, provided that before issuing a notice to a member of a regulated industry, the Commission shall consult the industry sector regulator that issued a licence to that regulated entity.

(2) A compliance notice shall set out—

(a) the undertaking or association of undertakings to whom the notice applies ;

(b) the provisions of this Act that have not been complied with ;

(c) details of the nature and extent of the non-compliance ;

(d) steps that are required to be taken and the period within which those steps shall be taken ; and

(e) the penalty that may be imposed under this Act if those steps are not taken.

(3) A compliance notice issued pursuant under this section remains in force until it is set aside by a court, or until the Commission issues a compliance certificate upon being satisfied that there has been sufficient compliance with the compliance notice.

(4) If an undertaking or association of undertakings to whom a compliance notice has been issued fails to comply with the notice, the Commission shall—

(a) shut down or close any premises from which the notice continues to be breached until the breach or non-compliance is remedied ;

(b) impose the appropriate administrative fine ; or

(c) refer the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction for prosecution.

151. —(1) The Commission may collaborate with, facilitate, or otherwise support any of the following activities carried out by a consumer protection group—

Redress by civil society groups.

(a) consumer advice and education activities and publications ;

(b) research, market monitoring, surveillance and reporting ;

(c) promotion of consumers' rights and advocacy of consumers' interests ;

(d) representation of consumers, either specifically or generally, in court ;

(e) alternative dispute resolution through mediation or conciliation ; and

(f) participation in national and international associations, conferences or forums concerned with consumer protection matters.

(2) An accredited consumer protection group may—

(a) commence or undertake any act to protect the interests of a consumer individually, or of consumers collectively, in any matter or before any forum contemplated in this Act ; and

(b) intervene in any matter before any forum contemplated in this Act, if the interests of consumers represented by that group are not otherwise adequately represented in that forum.

(3) In addition to any other authority set out in this Act, an accredited consumer protection group may direct a generally stated concern or complaint to the Commission in respect of any matter within the purpose of this Act.

(4) The Commission may accredit a consumer protection group if that group—

(a) functions predominantly to promote or represent the interests of all or a specific category of consumers generally ;

(b) is committed to achieving the purposes of this Act ; and

(c) engages in, or makes a realistic proposal to engage in, actions to promote and advance the consumers' interests.

(5) The Commission may impose reasonable conditions for the accreditation of a consumer protection group to provide the objectives of this Act and shall monitor the effectiveness of any such accredited consumer protection group and may reasonably require any accredited consumer protection group to provide information necessary for monitoring purposes.

Redress by the court.

152. Where upon an investigation by the Commission of a complaint by a consumer, it is proved that—

(a) the consumer's right has been violated, or

(b) a wrong has been committed by the way of trade, provision of services, supply of information or advertisement thereby causing injury or loss to the consumer, the consumer shall in addition to the redress which the Commission may impose, have a right of civil action for compensation or restitution in a court of competent jurisdiction.

obtain satisfactory written assurance.

153. (1) Where it appears to the Commission that an undertaking has in the course of business persisted in a course of conduct which is detrimental to the interests of consumers, the Commission shall use its best endeavors to obtain from the undertaking concerned a satisfactory written assurance that it will refrain from a continuation of that course of conduct.

(2) Where the Commission is unable to obtain from the undertaking in question the assurance referred to in subsection (1), or if that undertaking has given such assurance and it appears to the Commission or the States office that the undertaking has failed to observe the assurance, the Commission shall cause proceedings to be commenced against such undertaking in a court of competent jurisdiction to refrain the undertaking from continuing that course of conduct.

(3) The Commission may order a temporary closure of any premises or facilities reasonably believed to be carrying on in a manner detrimental to the interest of consumers until the Commission is satisfied otherwise or pending the commencement of action.

Compensation
order

154.—(1) A court by or before which an undertaking is convicted of an offence under this Act may, in addition to dealing with such undertaking in any other way, make an order requiring the undertaking to pay compensation for any personal injury, loss or damage resulting from that offence of such amount as it may deem fit or as assessed by competent professional authority.

(2) In determining whether to make a compensation order against any undertaking, and in determining the amount to be paid by any undertaking under such an order, the court shall have regard to the means of the undertaking if they appear or are known to the court.

155. Except where otherwise provided for in this Act, any person who contravenes any consumer right commits an offence under this Act and—

of consumer
rights.

(a) in the case of a natural person, is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to payment of fine not exceeding ₦10,000,000.00 or to both the fine and imprisonment ;

(b) in the case of a body corporate, is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than ₦100,000,000.00 or 10% of its turnover in the preceding business year, whichever is higher ; and

(c) in the case of a body corporate referred to in paragraph (b) of this section, each director of the body corporate is liable to be proceeded against and dealt with as specified in paragraph (a).

PART XVIII—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

156.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the provisions of the Public Officers Protection Act applies in relation to any suit instituted against any member or employee of the Commission or the Tribunal.

Limitation of suits against the Commission and the Tribunal.
Cap. 84:1
L.N. 2004

(2) Further to the provisions of subsection (1), a suit shall not lie or be instituted in any court against any member of the Commission, the Secretary or any other officer or employee of the Commission or the Chairman, members, staff, officers or employees of the Tribunal for any act done in pursuance or execution of the provisions of this Act or any other enactment or law, or of any public duty or authority in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of the provision of this Act or such enactment or law, duty or authority unless—

(a) it is commenced within three months next after the act, neglect or default complained of; or

(b) in the case of a continuation of damage or injury, within six months next after the damage or injury ceases.

(3) A suit shall not be commenced against any member of the Commission, the Secretary or any other officer or employee of the Commission or the Chairman, members, staff, officers or employees of the Tribunal before the expiration of a period of 30 days after a written notice of intention to commence suit shall have been served upon the Commission or Tribunal by the intending plaintiff, or the agent or other lawful representative of the plaintiff.

(4) The notice referred to in subsection (3) shall clearly state, the—

- (a) cause of action ;
- (b) particulars of the claim ;
- (c) name and address of the intending plaintiff ; and
- (d) relief sought by the plaintiff.

Issuance of Notices by or on behalf
of Commission.

157.—(1) Any notice given by the Commission under, or for the purpose of, this Act shall be—

(a) given in writing, under, the seal of the Commission signed by the Executive Vice Chairman, or by one or more of the members of the Commission, or by any person purporting to act under the direction of the Commission; and

(b) served in accordance with section 158 of this Act on the person or persons primarily concerned or on any person or persons deemed by the Commission to represent the person or persons primarily concerned.

(2) All documents purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Commission or to be sealed with the seal of the Commission shall, in all courts and in all proceedings under this Act, be deemed to have been so signed or sealed with due authority unless the contrary is established.

Service of notices.

158.—(1) Any notice or other document required or authorised to be served on or given to any person for the purpose of this Act may be served or given by delivering it to that person, or by leaving it at that person's usual or last known place of residence or business or at the address specified by that person in any notice, application, or other document made, given or tendered to the Commission under this Act, or by posting it by registered mail to the person at that place of residence or business or at that address.

(2) Where any notice or other document is sent to a person by registered mail, then, unless the contrary is shown, it shall be deemed to have been delivered to the person when it would have been delivered in the ordinary course of posting a mail, unless the contrary is established.

(3) In proving the delivery contemplated under subsection (2), it shall be sufficient to prove that there is return post office slip showing actual delivery.

(4) Where, for any purpose under this Act, a notice or document is required to be served on an undertaking, the notice or document may be served on the secretary, executive officer, manager, or other officer holding a similar position in the undertaking and for the purpose of this Act, service on an association or body shall, unless otherwise directed by the Commission, be deemed to be service on all persons or undertakings who are members of the association or body or who are represented on the association or body by those members.

159.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a person shall not—

(a) without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a notice issued under sections 157 and 158 of this Act ;

(b) in purported compliance with such a notice, furnish information, or produce a document, or give evidence, knowing it to be false or misleading ; or

(c) resist, obstruct, or delay an employee of the Commission acting pursuant to a warrant issued under section 30 (3) of this Act.

(2) A person shall not attempt to deceive or knowingly mislead the Commission in relation to any matter before it.

(3) A person, having been required to appear before the Commission pursuant to the provision of section 29 (2) of this Act, shall not, without reasonable excuse, refuse—

(a) or fail to appear before the Commission to give evidence ;

(b) to take an oath or make an affirmation as a witness ; or

(c) to produce to the Commission any book or document that is required to be produced by the Commission.

(4) Subject to the provision of subsection (3), a person who violates any of the provisions of this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction—

(a) in the case of a natural person, to a fine not exceeding ₦1,000,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding three months, or to both the fine and imprisonment ; and

(b) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding ₦10,000,000.00.

160.—(1) Any finding or decision given by the Commission under or for the purpose of this Act shall be sufficiently given in writing under the seal of the Commission or if signed by one or more members of the Commission or by an officer or employee of the Commission authorised for that purpose.

(2) A copy of a finding or decision of the Commission, certified to be a true copy by an officer or employee of the Commission authorised in that behalf to certify copies of determinations or decisions of the Commission shall be received in all courts as evidence of the determination or decision.

Offences
under this Part.

the Commission to be in writing.

(3) A document purporting to be a copy of a determination or decision of the Commission and certified to be a true copy in accordance with subsection (2), unless the contrary is established, shall be deemed to be a copy and to be so certified.

Delegation
Commission.

161.—(1) The Commission may delegate any of its powers subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may deem fit, and the delegation may be made either generally or in relation to any particular matter or class of matters.

(2) A person to whom the Commission delegates its power shall be either a member or an officer of the Commission.

(3) Subject to any general or special direction given or condition or restriction imposed by the Commission, any person to whom any power or function is delegated may exercise the power or perform the function in the same manner and with the same effect as if it had been conferred directly by this Act.

(4) Any person purporting to act pursuant to any delegation under this section shall be presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation, in the absence of proof to the contrary.

(5) Delegation of any power or function under this section shall not prevent the exercise of that power or performance of that function by the Commission.

(6) Until it is revoked or amended, every delegation shall continue in force according to its terms.

Civil or criminal proceedings in respect of any action
of the Commission.

162. (1) No proceedings, civil or criminal, shall lie against the Commission for anything it may do or fail to do in the course of the performance or intended performance of its functions, unless it is shown that the Commission acted without reasonable care or in bad faith.

(2) No civil proceedings shall lie against any member of the Commission, or any officer or employee of the Commission, for anything that member, officer or employee may do or say or fail to do or say in the course of carrying out of the functions of the Commission, unless it is shown that the person acted without reasonable care or in bad faith.

(3) A person shall not be excused from—

(a) complying with any requirement to furnish information, produce documents, or give evidence under this Act ;

(b) appearing before the Commission ;

(c) answering any question or producing any document, on the ground that to do so might tend to incriminate that person or another person.

(4) Except as may be required under any law, rule or regulation, no court or person is entitled to require any member of the Commission, or any officer or employee of the Commission or any other person present at any meeting of the Commission, to divulge or communicate any information furnished or obtained, documents produced, obtained or tendered, or evidence given, in connection with the functions of the Commission.

(5) Anything said, or information furnished, or document produced or tendered, or evidence given by any person to the Commission shall be privileged in the same manner as if that statement, information, document, or evidence were made, furnished, produced, or given in proceedings in a court.

163.—(1) The Commission may make regulations and issue guidelines and notices for the effective implementation and operation of the provisions of this Act, and in particular, prescribing—

Power to make regulations.

(a) the procedures to be followed under this Act with regard to applications, notices to and proceedings of the Commission ;

(b) the forms of applications and related documents required for the purposes of this Act ;

(c) fees, administrative penalties, charges or levies and such other related matters ; and

(d) how information required can be obtained or accessed to confidential information.

(2) The regulations, guidelines and notices referred to in subsection (1) may include procedural and enforcement rules, and regulations or guidelines—

(a) for the application of Part VIII of this Act prohibiting restrictive agreements ;

(b) for the application of Part IX of this Act prohibiting abuse of a dominant position ;

(c) on monopoly investigation under Part X of this Act ;

(d) on the assessment of Mergers under Part XII of this Act ;

(e) on the consumer protection regulation under Parts XV-XVII of this Act ;

(f) on market definition ;

(g) on leniency programme ; and

(h) any other regulation, guideline and notice as may be needed for the implementation of this Act.

Application of other enactments.

Cap. 124,
LFN, 2004.

164. The provisions of any other enactment, including the Investment and Securities Act, regulations or subsidiary laws in force relating to or connected with the subject matter of this Act shall be read with such modifications as are necessary to bring them in conformity with the provisions of this Act.

Repeals and savings.

Cap. C25,
LFN, 2004

165.—(1) The Consumer Protection Council Act, Cap. C25, Laws of the Federation of Nigeria, 2004, sections 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127 and 128 of the Investments and Securities Act, Cap. 124, Laws of the Federation of Nigeria, 2004 are repealed.

(2) Without prejudice to section 6 of the Interpretation Act, the repeal of the Act specified in subsection (1), shall not affect anything done under or pursuant to the Act.

(3) There shall be vested in the Commission all assets, funds, resources and other immovable property which before the commencement of this Act, were vested in the Consumer Protection Council established under the repealed Act.

(4) All rights, interest, obligations and liabilities of the Consumer Protection Council under the repealed enactment in place before the commencement of this Act under any contract or instrument, or in law or equity shall, by virtue of this Act, be assigned to and vested in the Commission established under this Act.

(5) Any contract or instrument referred to in subsection (4), shall be of the same force and effect against or in favour of the Commission established under this Act and shall be enforceable as fully and effectively as if, instead of the Consumer Protection Council under the repealed Act, the Commission established under this Act had been named or had been a party.

(6) The Commission established under this Act shall be subject to all obligations and liabilities to which the Consumer Protection Council under the repealed Act was subject to before the commencement of this Act.

(7) Any proceeding or course of action pending or existing before the commencement of this Act against the Consumer Protection Council under the repealed Act in respect of any right, interest, obligation or liability of the Consumer Protection Council under the repealed Act may be continued, or as the case may require, be commenced and the determination of any court of law or other authority or person may be enforced by or against the Commission established by this Act to the same extent that such course of action or determination might have continued, or enforced by or against the Consumer Protection Council under the repealed Act.

(8) Any regulation, order, bye-law or notice made or issued or deemed to be made or issued by, or for the purposes, of the Consumer Protection Council under the repealed Act existing before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made or issued by or for the purposes of the Commission established under this Act and shall continue in force until revoked or amended, subject to such modifications as may be applicable to the Commission established under this Act.

(9) As from the commencement of this Act, any disciplinary proceeding pending or existing against any staff or employee of the Consumer Protection Council shall be continued and completed by the Commission established under this Act.

166. The provisions of this Act shall have effect with respect to matters arising from the transfer by this section to the Commission of the property of the Council before this Act, and with respect to the other matters mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act.

Section 166 (2)

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Transfer of Assets

1.—(1) All Assets and funds which immediately before the commencement of this Act were vested in the Consumer Protection Council (hereinafter referred to as “the Council”) shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the Federal Competition and Consumer Protection Commission herein after referred to as “the Commission”).

(2) All bonds, hypothecations, securities, deeds, contracts, instruments, documents, and working arrangements with respect to the assets transferred, that subsisted immediately before the commencement of this Act and to which the Council was a party shall be as fully effective and enforceable against or in favour of the Commission as if, instead of the Council, the Commission had been named therein.

(3) Any cause of action or proceeding which existed or was pending with respect to the assets transferred by or against the Council immediately before commencement of this Act, shall be enforced or continued, as the case may be, by or against or in favour of the Commission in the same way that it might have been enforced or continued by or against the Council had this Act not been passed.

(4) No action or other proceeding shall be commenced against the Commission in respect of an employee or asset that has been transferred to the Commission, if had there been no transfer, the time for commencing the action or other proceeding would have expired.

(5) Nothing in this Act and nothing done as a result of a transfer under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall create any new cause of action in favour of—

(a) a holder of a debt instrument that was issued by the Council before the commencement of this Act ;

(b) a party to a contract with the Council that was entered into before the commencement of this Act.

(6) Any guarantee or surety-ship given or made by the Federal Government or any other person in respect of any debt or obligation of the Council, and which was effective immediately before the transfer of the principal debt or obligation, shall remain fully effective against the guarantor or surety on and after the transfer date in relation to the payment of the debt or the performance of the obligation, as the case may be, by the Commission, to which the principal debt or obligation was transferred.

Transfer of Employees

2.—(1) Upon the commencement of this Act, such number of persons employed by the Council, as may be required by the Commission shall be deemed to be staff of the Commission and shall be transferred to the service of the Commission on a merit and value basis and on terms not less favourable than those enjoyed immediately prior to the transfer.

(2) The service rendered by an employee transferred under subparagraph (1) to the Council shall be deemed to be service with the Commission for the purpose of determining employment related entitlements as specified in the relevant laws of employment in Nigeria.

(3) Until such time as conditions of service are drawn up by the Commission—

(a) the terms and conditions of service applicable to employees of the Council shall continue to apply to every person transferred to the Commission as if every such person were still in the service of the Council ; and

(b) the Commission shall continue to contribute towards any pension scheme to which the Council was contributing in respect of persons in the employment of the Council prior to the transfer date.

(4) Nothing in this paragraph shall operate to—

(a) prevent any employee of the Council from resigning or being dismissed from service ; and

(b) create an entitlement for any employee of the Council to become an employee of the Commission.

Directions to the Council

3.—(1) The Minister may give the members of the Board of the Council directions in writing in order to ensure the proper transfer of the assets of the Council to the Commission and the Council shall without delay, comply with every such direction.

(2) Without derogating from subparagraph (1), directions given under that sub- paragraph may provide for—

(a) the cessation of all or any of the functions of the Council ;

(b) the termination of any contract entered into between the Council and any person, provided that no such direction shall authorise the Council to breach the provision of any such contract ; and

(c) the production of any report and the provision of any information concerning the conduct of the Council or the members of the Board of the Council or anything done by or on behalf of the Council or the members of the Council.

I certify, in accordance with Section 2 (1) of the Acts Authentication Act, Cap. A2, Laws of the Federation of Nigeria 2004, that this is a true copy of the Bill passed by both Houses of the National Assembly.
