EDITORIAL NOTE

The Niue Legislation 2019 was prepared under the Reprint of Statutes Act 1991 as a statement of the legislation of Niue as at 31 December 2019. This is a four volume collection:

Volumes 1, 2 and 3 presents the consolidated statutes.

Volume 4 presents the consolidated subsidiary legislation.

The four volumes are complemented by a volume with the Constitution and related materials, and by a booklet of Legislation Tables as at 31 December 2019.

The six books supersede the Niue Laws 2006 and the two reprints of 2007 – the Criminal Law Code and the Family Law Code.

Exceptionally, some legislation has not been reproduced in the four volumes of this reprint. Where that is the case, the text is annotated at the appropriate place. The prime examples of omissions are Acts which deal with treaty arrangements. In such cases, the texts are not of everyday use to the operation of the legal system and are readily available for public access on the internet. Other examples of omissions are the substantial bodies of law which deal in detail with particular areas of administration.

To consolidate and amend certain enactments relating to actions for damages on behalf of the families of persons killed by accident

1 Short title

This is the Deaths by Accidents Compensation Act 1952.

2 Interpretation

(1) In this Act –

“child”, in relation to any deceased person, means a son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, stepson, or stepdaughter of the deceased person;

“dependant”, in relation to any deceased person, means any wife, husband, parent, or child of that person who has suffered injury as a result of the death of the deceased person or who might reasonably have expected to enjoy some actual pecuniary benefit if the deceased person had not died, whether or not the wife, husband, parent, or child was either wholly or partially dependent upon the deceased person before his death;

“parent”, in relation to any deceased person, means a father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, stepfather, or stepmother of the deceased person;

“wife”, in relation to any deceased person, means the person who is his wife at his death; and includes every other person who has been his wife and is maintained or entitled to be maintained by him either wholly or partly at the time of his death or would have been so maintained or entitled but for the incapacity due to the accident from which his death resulted.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, in deducing any relationship which is included within the meaning of “parent” and “child” any illegitimate person and any person legally adopted outside Niue shall be treated as being, or as having been, the legitimate offspring of his mother and reputed father or, as the case may be, his adopters.

3 Act to bind the Crown

This Act shall bind the Crown.

PART 1

ACTIONS FOR DAMAGES

4 Right of action when death is caused by negligence

(1) Where the death of a person is caused by any wrongful act, neglect, or default, and the act, neglect, or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect of it, the person who would have been liable if death had not ensued shall be liable to an action for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death was caused under such circumstances as to amount in law to a crime.

(2) [Spent]

(3) Not more than one action shall lie under this Act for the same subject-matter of complaint.

5 Action to be for benefit of family

Every such action shall be for the benefit of the wife or husband and the parents and children of the person whose death has been so caused.

6 Persons who may bring action

(1) (a) Every such action shall be brought by and in the name of the executor or administrator of the deceased person.

(b) Where no action is so brought within 6 months after the date of the death of the deceased person, or where within 6 months after the date of the death of the deceased person, the executor or administrator declares in writing his desire not to bring the action, or where there is for the time being no executor or administrator of the deceased person, the action may be brought by and in the name of the person, or (if there are more than one) the names of all or of any of the persons, for whose benefit the action would have been if it had been brought by and in the name of the executor or administrator.

(2) Where any such action is brought by and in the name of any person or persons other than the executor or administrator of the deceased person, the action shall be for the benefit of the same person or persons, and shall be subject to the same procedure, as nearly as may be, as if it were brought by and in the name of the executor or administrator.

7 Amount of damages

(1) In every such action the Court may award –

(a) Such damages as it may think proportioned to the injury resulting from the death to the person or persons for whose benefit the action is brought; and

(b) Damages in respect of the amount of actual pecuniary benefit which the person or persons for whose benefit the action is brought might reasonably have expected to enjoy if the death had not occurred, whether or not the person or persons have been either wholly or partially dependent upon the deceased person before his death; and

(c) Damages in respect of the medical and funeral expenses of the deceased person if the expenses have been incurred by the person or any of the persons by whom or for whose benefit the action is brought.

Deaths by Accidents Compensation Act

(2) In awarding damages in any such action the court shall not take into account any gain, whether to the estate of the deceased person or to any dependant, that is consequent on the death of the deceased person.

8 Plaintiff to deliver full particulars

In every such action the plaintiff on the record shall be required to deliver to the defendant or his solicitor, in or together with the statement of claim, full particulars of the person or persons for whose benefit the action is brought, and of the nature of the claim in respect of which damages are sought to be recovered.

9 Money paid into Court

If the defendant pays money into court, it shall be sufficient if he pays it in one sum for the benefit of all persons entitled under this Act as a compensation for his wrongful act, neglect, or default, without specifying the shares into which it is to be divided.

10 Limitation of actions

(1) Except as provided in this section, no action shall be brought under this Act after the expiration of 2 years from the date of the death of the deceased person.

(2) Application may be made to the court, after notice to the intended defendant, for leave to bring such an action at any time within 6 years from the date of the death of the deceased person; and the court may grant leave accordingly, subject to such conditions (if any) as it thinks it is just to impose, where it considers that the delay in bringing the action was occasioned by mistake or by any other reasonable cause or that the intended defendant was not materially prejudiced in his defence or otherwise by the delay.

(3) Where any person who is under a disability at the date of the death of the deceased person is entitled, under the proviso to section 6(1), to bring an action in respect of that death, that action may be brought, without the leave of the court, within 2 years from the date when he ceased to be under a disability or sooner died, or an application for leave to bring that action may be made under section 6(2) within 6 years from the date when he ceased to be under a disability or sooner died, if when the action (without such leave) is commenced or the application is made, as the case may be –

(a) No other person has commenced an action under this Act in respect of the death of the deceased person or made an application for leave to bring such an action; and

(b) No grant of administration has been made in Niue in respect of the estate.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to be under a disability while he is an infant or of unsound mind.

PART 2

APPORTIONMENT OF DAMAGES

11 Interpretation

For the purposes of this Part –

(a) "trustee" means the trustee appointed by the Court;

(b) without prejudice to the generality of the expression "of unsound mind", a person shall be conclusively presumed to be of unsound mind while he is detained or kept in custody (otherwise than as a voluntary inpatient) under Part 26 of the Niue Act 1966.

12 Costs, medical and funeral expenses

Where any damages for which an action lies under this Act are recovered (either in an action or without any action being brought), the costs which are properly payable out of the damages and are not otherwise recovered may be paid there out, and the amount (if any) recovered in respect of the medical and funeral expenses of the deceased person may be refunded to the person or persons who paid them, and the balance of the damages may be allotted or disposed of by the court as provided in this Part.

13 Damages may be allotted

(1) Where the court makes an order under this Part and is satisfied that there was only one dependant of the deceased person, the balance of the damages shall be allotted to that dependant.

(2) Where the court makes an order under this Part and is satisfied that there were 2 or more dependants, the court may order –

- (a) That the balance of the damages or so much thereof as it may specify shall be allotted to any dependant exclusively, or shall be allotted in such proportions as the court determines among the dependants or among such 2 or more of them to the exclusion of the other or others of them as the court specifies;
- (b) That the balance of the damages or so much thereof as it may specify shall be held on trust as a class fund for the benefit of the dependants or of such 2 or more of them to the exclusion of the other or others of them as the court specifies.

14 Disposition of damages

(1) Where any amount is allotted to a dependant under section 13, that amount shall be paid to him unless he is an infant or of unsound mind or except in so far as the court orders that the whole or any part of that amount shall be held on trust under subsection (2).

(2) Where any amount is allotted to any dependant who is an infant or of unsound mind or the court orders that the whole or any part of the amount allotted to a dependant is to be held on trust for that dependant under this subsection, then, except so far as the court directs any immediate payment therefrom, and subject to any directions or conditions given or imposed by the court –

- (a) The amount shall be invested and held by the trustee upon trust –
 - (i) to make such payments (if any) to the dependant out of the income and capital of the amount as the court may specify; and
 - (ii) to apply the income and capital of the amount or so much of it as the trustee thinks fit for or towards the maintenance or education (including past maintenance or education provided after the death of the deceased person) or the advancement or benefit of the dependant;
- (b) The dependant shall have no power, either by himself or in conjunction with any other person or persons, to terminate the trusts upon which the amount is held or to modify or extinguish those trusts;
- (c) The interest of the dependant in the income and capital of the amount shall not, while it remains in the hands of the trustee, be alienated, or pass by bankruptcy, or be liable to be seized, sold, attached, or taken in execution by process of law.

(3) (a) Upon any dependant ceasing to be an infant or of unsound mind while any amount is held on trust for his benefit under subsection (2), the balance of that amount and of the income from it remaining in the hands of the trustee shall be paid to the dependant except in so far as the court may have ordered before the payment is made that the whole or any part of that amount shall continue to be held on trust under that subsection;

(b) Where the trustee has notice that an application has been made to the court for such an order he shall not make any payment under this subsection until the application has been disposed of.

(4) (a) The court may order that, if any dependant dies while any amount allotted to him is held on trust under subsection (2) (whether or not he is an infant or of unsound mind) any balance of the amount and of the income from it remaining in the hands of the trustee at his death, or so much of it as the court may specify, shall form part of the dependant's estate, or shall be added to the amount allotted to any other dependant or to the amounts allotted to all or any of the other dependants in such proportions as the court may specify or to any class fund set aside out of the balance of the damages, and shall be subject to the trusts of the amount or amounts or fund to which it is added.

(b) If and so far as that balance is not wholly disposed of under any order of the court made during the lifetime of the dependant for whose benefit it had been held, or made on an application to the court made not later than 6 months after that dependant's death, it shall form part of his estate.

15 Class fund

Where any amount is to be held on trust as a class fund for any dependants under section 13(2), that amount shall be invested and the trustee may, but subject to such directions and conditions as the court may give or impose, apply the income and capital of that amount or so much of it as the trustee thinks fit for or towards the maintenance or education (including past maintenance or education provided after the death of the deceased person) or the advancement or benefit of those dependants or of any one or more of them to the exclusion of the other or others of them in such shares and proportions and generally in such manner as the trustee thinks fit; and may so apply the income and capital of that amount notwithstanding that only one of those dependants remains alive.

16 Power to authorise advances

(1) The court may authorise moneys to be advanced to any dependant (whether by way of loan or otherwise) as it thinks fit and upon or subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, out of the damages or out of any amounts allotted to other dependants or out of any amount held on trust as a class fund, for any purpose that the court thinks proper in the interests of the dependants or any of them.

(2) Without limiting the generality of this section, it is hereby declared that any such advance may be made for the purpose of purchasing or otherwise acquiring a residential property for the use of the dependant either alone or in conjunction with any other dependants, or for the purpose of repaying any moneys secured by way of mortgage or otherwise on any residential property owned by the dependant and so used, or for the purpose of furnishing any such residential property.

(3) (a) Where moneys are advanced by way of loan, the court may give such directions in respect of the security to be taken, and may either prescribe the conditions upon or subject to which the moneys are to be advanced or authorise the trustee to prescribe the conditions at his discretion.

(b) The conditions may include power to the trustee to remit interest and principal moneys or any part thereof to the extent of the amount or value of any maintenance, education, advancement, or benefit which the dependant to whom the moneys are advanced may provide for any other dependants.

17 Variation of orders

The Court may vary any order made by it in respect of damages which have been recovered (either in an action or without an action being brought) under this Act and in respect of the income from it so far as the damages and income are for the time being in the hands of the trustee.

18 Considerations to be taken into account

In making or varying an order under this Part the court shall have regard to all relevant considerations including, where the damages are recovered in an action which is tried with a jury, any recommendation which the jury may make in respect of the order; and the court may when it considers that it is just and proper to do so, take into consideration all or any of the following matters –

- (a) Any gain to any dependant that is consequent on the death of the deceased person; and
- (b) Circumstances which have arisen after the date of the death of the deceased person; and
- (c) The probable future needs of the dependants.

19 Persons who may apply for order

An order or variation of an order under this Part may be made by the court of its own motion or on an application made by –

- (a) Any dependant of the deceased person;
- (b) The husband or wife of any such dependant;
- (c) Any near relation by blood or marriage of any such dependant;
- (d) [Repealed]
- (e) The trustee who holds the amount to which the application relates; or
- (f) Any other person who adduces proof of circumstances which in the opinion of the court make it proper that he should make the application.

ARTICLE 8

1. Members of the diplomatic staff of the mission should in principle be of the nationality of the sending State.
2. Members of the diplomatic staff of the mission may not be appointed from among persons having the nationality of the receiving State, except with the consent of that State which may be withdrawn at any time.
3. The receiving State may reserve the same right with regard to nationals of a third State who are not also nationals of the sending State.

ARTICLE 9

1. The receiving State may at any time and without having to explain its decision, notify the sending State that the head of the mission or any member of the diplomatic staff of the mission is persona non grata or that any other member of the staff of the mission is not acceptable. In the absence of specific agreement as to the size of the mission, the receiving State may require that the size of a mission be kept within limits considered by it to be reasonable and normal, having regard to circumstances and conditions in the receiving State and to the needs of the particular mission.

2. The receiving State may equally, within similar bounds and on a non-discriminatory basis, refuse to accept officials of a particular category.

ARTICLE 12

The sending State may not, without the prior express consent of the receiving State, establish offices forming part of the mission in localities other than those in which the mission itself is established.

ARTICLE 16

1. Heads of mission shall take precedence in their respective classes in the order of the date and time of taking up their functions in accordance with Article 13.

2. Alterations in the credentials of a head of mission not involving any change of class shall not affect his precedence.

3. This article is without prejudice to any practice accepted by the receiving State regarding the precedence of the representative of the Holy See.

ARTICLE 17

The precedence of the members of the diplomatic staff of the mission shall be notified by the head of the mission to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs or such other ministry as may be agreed.

ARTICLE 18

The procedure to be observed in each State for the reception of heads of mission shall be uniform in respect of each class.

ARTICLE 19

1. If the post of head of the mission is vacant, or if the head of the mission is unable to perform his functions, a chargé d'affaires ad interim shall act provisionally as head of the mission. The name of the chargé d'affaires ad interim shall be notified, either by the head of the mission or, in case he is unable to do so, by the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the sending State to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the receiving State or such other ministry as may be agreed.

2. In cases where no member of the diplomatic staff of the mission is present in the receiving State, a member of the administrative and technical staff may, with the consent of the receiving State, be designated by the sending State to be in charge of the current administrative affairs of the mission.

2. The exemption from taxation referred to in this Article shall not apply to such dues and taxes payable under the law of the receiving State by persons contracting with the sending State or the head of the mission.

ARTICLE 24

The archives and documents of the mission shall be inviolable at any time and wherever they may be.

However, the mission may install and use a wireless transmitter only with the consent of the receiving State.

2. The official correspondence of the mission shall be inviolable. Official correspondence means all correspondence relating to the mission and its functions.

3. The diplomatic bag shall not be opened or detained.

4. The packages constituting the diplomatic bag must bear visible external marks of their character and may contain only diplomatic documents or articles intended for official use.

5. The diplomatic courier, who shall be provided with an official document indicating his status and the number of packages constituting the diplomatic bag, shall be protected by the receiving State in the performance of his functions. He shall enjoy personal inviolability and shall not be liable to any form of arrest or detention.

6. The sending State or the mission may designate diplomatic couriers ad hoc. In such cases the provisions of paragraph 5 of this Article shall also apply, except that the immunities therein mentioned shall cease to apply when such a courier has delivered to the consignee the diplomatic bag in his charge.

7. A diplomatic bag may be entrusted to the captain of a commercial aircraft scheduled to land at an authorised port of entry. He shall be provided with an official document indicating the number of packages constituting the bag but he shall not be considered to be a diplomatic courier. The mission may send one of its members to take possession of the diplomatic bag directly and freely from the captain of the aircraft.

ARTICLE 28

The fees and charges levied by the mission in the course of its official duties shall be exempt from all dues and taxes.

 3. No measures of execution may be taken in respect of a diplomatic agent except in the cases coming under subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c) of paragraph 1 of this Article, and provided that the measures concerned can be taken without infringing the inviolability of his person or of his residence.
 4. The immunity of a diplomatic agent from the jurisdiction of the receiving State does not exempt him from the jurisdiction of the sending State.

ARTICLE 32

1. The immunity from jurisdiction of diplomatic agents and of persons enjoying immunity under Article 37 may be waived by the sending State.
2. Waiver must always be express.
3. The initiation of proceedings by a diplomatic agent or by a person enjoying immunity from jurisdiction under Article 37 shall preclude him from invoking immunity from jurisdiction in respect of any counterclaim directly connected with the principal claim.
4. Waiver of immunity from jurisdiction in respect of civil or administrative proceedings shall not be held to imply waiver of immunity in respect of the execution of the judgment, for which a separate waiver shall be necessary.

ARTICLE 33

1. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 of this Article, a diplomatic agent shall with respect to services rendered for the sending State be exempt from social security provisions which may be in force in the receiving State.
2. The exemption provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article shall also apply to private servants who are in the sole employ of a diplomatic agent, on condition:

- (b) articles for the personal use of a diplomatic agent or members of his family forming part of his household, including articles intended for his establishment.

2. The personal baggage of a diplomatic agent shall be exempt from inspection, unless there are serious grounds for presuming that it contains articles not covered by the exemptions mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article, or articles the import or export of which is prohibited by the law or controlled by the quarantine regulations of the receiving State. Such inspection shall be conducted only in the presence of the diplomatic agent or of his authorised representative.

ARTICLE 37

1. The members of the family of a diplomatic agent forming part of his household shall, if they are not nationals of the receiving State, enjoy the privileges and immunities specified in Articles 29 to 36.

2. Members of the administrative and technical staff of the mission, together with members of their families forming part of their respective households, shall, if they are not nationals of or permanently resident in the receiving State, enjoy the privileges and immunities specified in Articles 29 to 35, except that the immunity from civil and administrative jurisdiction of the receiving State specified in paragraph 1 of Article 31 shall not extend to acts performed outside the course of their duties. In other respects, they may enjoy privileges and immunities only to the extent admitted by the receiving State. However, the receiving State must exercise its jurisdiction over those persons in such a manner as not to interfere unduly with the performance of the functions of the mission.

2. Other members of the staff of the mission and private servants who are nationals of or permanently resident in the receiving State shall enjoy privileges and immunities only to the extent admitted by the receiving State. However, the receiving State must exercise its jurisdiction over those persons in such a manner as not to interfere unduly with the performance of the functions of the mission.

ARTICLE 39

1. Every person entitled to privileges and immunities shall enjoy them from the moment he enters the territory of the receiving State on proceeding to take up his post or, if already in its territory, from the moment when his appointment is notified to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs or such other ministry as may be agreed.

2. When the functions of a person enjoying privileges and immunities have come to an end, such privileges and immunities shall normally cease at the moment when he leaves the country, or on expiry of a reasonable period in which to do so, but shall subsist until that time, even in case of armed conflict. However, with respect to acts performed by such a person in the exercise of his functions as a member of the mission, immunity shall continue to subsist.

3. In case of the death of a member of the mission, the members of his family shall continue to enjoy the privileges and immunities to which they are entitled until the expiry of a reasonable period in which to leave the country.

4. In the event of the death of a member of the mission not a national of or permanently resident in the receiving State or a member of his family forming part of his household, the receiving State shall permit the withdrawal of the movable property of the deceased, with the exception of any property acquired in the country the export of which was prohibited at the time of his death. ARTICLE 40

1. If a diplomatic agent passes through or is in the territory of a third State, which has granted him a passport visa if such visa was necessary, while proceeding to take up or to return to his post, or when returning to his own country, the third State shall accord him inviolability and such other immunities as may be required to ensure his transit or return. The same shall apply in the case of any members of his family enjoying privileges or immunities who are accompanying the diplomatic agent, or travelling separately to join him or to return to their country.

2. In circumstances similar to those specified in paragraph 1 of this Article third States shall not hinder the passage of members of the administrative and technical or service staff of a mission, and of members of their families, through their territories.

3. Third States shall accord to official correspondence and other official communications in transit, including messages in code or cipher, the same freedom and protection as is accorded by the receiving State. They shall accord to diplomatic couriers, who have been granted a passport visa if such visa was necessary, and diplomatic bags in transit the same inviolability and protection as the receiving State is bound to accord.

4. The obligations of third States under paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this Article shall also apply to the persons mentioned respectively in those paragraphs, and to official communications and diplomatic bags, whose presence in the territory of the third State is due to force majeure.

ARTICLE 41

1. Without prejudice to their privileges and immunities, it is the duty of all persons enjoying such privileges and immunities to respect the laws and regulations of the receiving State. They also have a duty not to interfere in the internal affairs of that State.

2. All official business with the receiving State entrusted to the mission by the sending State shall be conducted with or through the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the receiving State or such other ministry as may be agreed.

ARTICLE 47

1. In the application of the provisions of the present Convention, the receiving State shall not discriminate as between States.
2. However, discrimination shall not be regarded as taking place:
 - (a) where the receiving State applies any of the provisions of the present Convention restrictively because of a restrictive application of that provision to its mission in the sending State;
 - (b) where by custom or agreement States extend to each other more favourable treatment than is required by the provisions of the present Convention.

ARTICLE 48

The present Convention shall be open for signature by all States Members of the United Nations or of any of the specialised agencies or Parties to the Statute of the International Court of Justice, and by any other State invited by the General Assembly of the United Nations to become a Party to the Convention, as follows: until 31 October 1961 at the Federal Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Austria and subsequently, until 31 March 1962, at the United Nations Headquarters in New York.

 - (ii) in an environmental standard, the activity is stated as one that must not be started or continued without development consent;
 - (iii) in an environmental standard, the activity is stated as being one that will or may have a significant environmental impact;
 - (iv) the activity will or may contravene an environmental standard; and
 - (b) the activity is not—
 - (i) an existing activity to which section 6 applies; or
 - (ii) an activity to which section 12(1) applies.
- (2) A person must not start an activity to which this section applies without first having been granted development consent to carry on the activity.
- (3) A person must not continue any activity to which this section applies without first having been granted development consent for continuing the activity.
- (4) Development consent for an activity to which this section applies —
 - (a) must be applied for in accordance with the environmental regulations; and

- (b) may be granted —
 - (i) with or without conditions (including a condition that a condition be amended, or one or more further conditions imposed, during the life of the consent); and
 - (ii) by the Department or the Minister, as the regulations require.
- (5) An independent environmental impact assessment of the activity must be carried out as part of the process of obtaining development consent.
- (6) An environmental impact assessment —
 - (a) must be carried out in accordance with the environmental regulations; and
 - (b) may be —
 - (i) a single process, comprising an initial assessment; or
 - (ii) a two step process, comprising both initial and full assessments.
- (7) Development consent for an activity to which this section applies must not be granted unless an environmental impact assessment of the activity has first been carried out.

9 Objections to granting of development consent

- (1) On receipt of an application for a development consent, the Director must give 2 weeks public notice that—
 - (a) provides a brief description of the application; and
 - (b) requests all interested persons to inform the Director whether they support the application or object to it and, if they do object, the reasons for that objection; and
 - (c) states the last day on which such information will be received and the name or official designation and address of the person to whom it should be sent.
- (2) The Director may —
 - (a) require an objector or an applicant to provide additional information; and
 - (b) delay consideration of the objection or response until the information is provided or, if the information is not provided within the time specified, refuse to consider the objection or response.
- (3) Before making a determination on an application in respect of which an objection has been made, the Director must endeavour to resolve the issues raised by the objection by means of consultation with the applicant and the objector, with a view to reaching agreement on the matters raised by the objection.

10 Consent holder must inform Department of change in circumstances

- (1) This section applies if the holder of development consent for an activity is required to notify, communicate, or report information to the Director or the Department as a condition of the development consent.
- (2) The consent holder must, as soon as practicable, notify the Department of any change in circumstances that has the effect of rendering any information previously notified, communicated, or reported false, incomplete, or misleading.

11 Suspension or cancellation of development consent

- (1) The Director may suspend a development consent granted for an activity, by written notice to the consent holder, if he or she considers on reasonable grounds that the holder is contravening or is likely to contravene any condition of the consent.

(2) A consent holder given notice under subsection (1) must cease carrying out the activity until the holder has proved, to the satisfaction of the Director, that the activity will be carried out in compliance with the conditions of the consent.

(3) If the holder does not so satisfy the Director within 15 working days of receiving notice under subsection (1), or such later time as the Director permits, the Director may, by written notice to the holder, cancel the consent (regardless of whether the consent was granted by the Director or the Minister).

(1) Section 8 does not apply to an activity to which it would otherwise apply if —

- (a) the activity is expressly authorised by an enactment other than this Act; or
- (b) the activity is of a kind expressly authorised by this Act, the environmental regulations, or an enactment other than this Act.

(2) However, if Cabinet, or a government department, or an officer of a government department is empowered under any enactment to grant a consent, licence, or other permission to any person that authorises that person to carry out an activity that will or may have a significant environmental impact, then, as the case may be, before granting the permission, —

- (a) Cabinet must be satisfied that—
 - (i) a contravention of any relevant environmental standard will not result from the granting of the permission; or
 - (ii) the person to whom the permission is granted will comply with the environmental standard when carrying out the activity; and
- (b) the government department or officer must obtain the consent of the Director, whether or not the enactment expressly requires the Director's consent.

(3) The Director may give consent for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) only if he or she is satisfied that—

- (a) a contravention of any relevant environmental standard will not result from the granting of the permission; or
- (b) the person to whom the permission is granted will comply with the environmental standard.

Environmental standards

13 Establishment of environmental standards

(1) Cabinet may make regulations establishing a standard for the carrying on of one or more activities of a kind described in the regulations as the subject-matter of the standard.

(2) A standard may state elements of the environment for whose protection it is established.

(3) A standard may specify—

- (a) activities that must not be started or continued without development consent (for the purposes of section 8(1)(a)(ii)); and
 - (b) activities that may be carried out without development consent (for the purposes of section 12(1)).
- (4) A standard must not be inconsistent with any other standard (including a protected plant species notice or a protected area notice).

- (b) doing anything in a manner that contravenes an environmental standard established for the protection of marine areas.

18 Activities affecting animals

A person must not carry out either of the following activities unless the activity is expressly authorised by this Act or the environmental regulations or has development consent:

A person must not carry out either of the following activities unless the activity is expressly authorised by this Act or the environmental regulations or has development consent:

Living modified organisms

22 Development, use, and testing of living modified organisms

(1) A person must not carry out any activity relating to the development, field testing, contained use, fermentation, or processing of a living modified organism unless the person has the written consent of the Director and the department responsible for the administration of the Biosecurity Act 2016 (the responsible department), whether granted with or without conditions.

(2) A person who causes or becomes aware of the unintentional release of a living modified organism must immediately notify the Director and the responsible department, and the Director, in conjunction with the responsible department, must—

- (a) take all action necessary in the circumstances to respond to the release (taking into account the precautionary principle that where there is a threat of serious or irreversible damage, lack of full scientific certainty is not to be used as a reason for postponing cost-effective measures to prevent environmental degradation); and
- (b) inform the Minister as soon as practicable.

Protected areas

23 Protected areas

(1) For the purposes set out in subsection (2), Cabinet may prescribe, —

- (a) on its own volition, an area of land to be a protected area;
- (b) on the request of a Village Council, an area of land within the Council's village to be a protected area, but only if the majority of magafaoa holding land in that part of the village have given their written consent to the request;
- (c) any place or land to be tapu.

(2) Cabinet may prescribe an area to be a protected area for any one or more of the following purposes —

- (g) sustainable use of natural resources.

(3) An area of land prescribed to be a protected area under this section is protected to the extent set out in the regulations.

- (4) Without limiting subsection (2), the protection may be —
 - (a) absolute, in which case no person may enter and no activities of any kind may be carried out in the protected area; or
 - (b) partial, in which case persons may enter and activities may be carried out in the manner specified in the notice.
- (5) To avoid doubt, partial protection of a protected area may relate to any matter, including the following:
 - (a) access to the area; and
 - (b) activities that may or may not be carried out in the area, including activities relating to killing or taking any thing from the area; and
 - (c) when activities may be carried out in the area (whether by reference to season, month, time of day, or otherwise).

24 Protected areas and environmental standards

Regulations made under section 23 that protect an area of land or a tapu, or any thing within that land or tapu, must be treated for all purposes as if they were an environmental standard made under this Act for the carrying on of any activity within the protected area.

25 Protected plant species

- (1) For the purposes of safeguarding Niue's environment, Cabinet may prescribe —
 - (a) of its own volition, a species or subspecies of plant as a protected species;
 - (b) on the request of a Village Council, a species or subspecies of plant to be a protected species within the Council's village or part of the village, but only if the majority of magafaoa holding land in the village or part of the village have given their written consent to the request.
- (2) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) may prescribe a species or subspecies of plant as—
 - (a) absolutely protected; or
 - (b) protected in the circumstances specified in the regulations.

26 Protected plant species and environmental standards

Regulations made under section 25 protecting a species or subspecies of plant must be treated for all purposes as if they were an environmental standard made under this Act for the carrying on of any activity.

Relationship of Act with other legislation and legal requirements

27 Relationship of Act with other legislation and legal requirements

- (1) To the extent that this Act is inconsistent with any other enactment, it overrides the other enactment.
- (2) To the extent that the environmental regulations are inconsistent with any other subordinate legislation, they override the other subordinate legislation.
- (3) In any enactment in relation to which the Director is required to give his or her consent or permission before an activity may be carried out, the Director may do so only if, in addition to any precondition specified in the enactment, he or she is also satisfied that—
 - (a) any relevant environmental standard will not be contravened by the giving of his or her consent or the granting of his or her permission; or

- (b) the person to whom the consent or permission is given or granted will comply with the environmental standard.

(4) To avoid doubt, complying with this Act in relation to an activity does not limit or affect the need to comply with any obligation imposed by any other enactment in relation to that activity (for example, a building consent, water extraction licence, or timber cutting licence).

PART 3
ENFORCEMENT

28 Failure to comply with Act is offence

(1) A person who carries out an activity to which section 8(1) applies without development consent, in contravention of the conditions of consent, or while consent is suspended, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to, —

(4) A person who fails or refuses to comply with section 22(2) or any request or requirement of an environment officer made under any of sections 46 to 49 commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 100 penalty units.

(5) In addition to any penalty imposed under subsections (1) to (3), the Court may order the person to pay the costs of any remedial actions taken by the Department or any other government department or public authority to rectify any consequences of the contravention or non-compliance concerned.

(6) The following offences are infringement offences:

- (a) an offence against subsection (3) for the contravention of an environmental standard in relation to noise;
- (b) any other offence against this Act that is declared by regulations made under section 46 to be an infringement offence.

29 General offences

(4) If the person does not pay the infringement fee or request a hearing within the period stated in the infringement notice, the Department must serve the person with a reminder notice in the prescribed form that contains the same or substantially the same particulars as the infringement notice.

(5) If the person does not pay the infringement fee or request a hearing within the period stated in the reminder notice, proceedings may be commenced against the person by filing the reminder notice with the Court and, for that purpose

- (a) the reminder notice must be treated as the information for the infringement offence; and
- (b) the Court is deemed to have made an order, on the date that the reminder notice is filed, that the defendant pay a fine equal to the amount of the infringement fee together with costs in the prescribed amount, but no conviction is entered against the person.

(6) A person requests a hearing by providing to the Department, within the period specified in the infringement notice or reminder notice, as the case may be, a notice, signed by the person, requesting a hearing and accepting or rejecting liability and, if accepting liability, the reasons, if any, why the Court should impose a lesser fine than the infringement fee for the offence.

(7) A person found guilty at a hearing held for the purposes of subsection (6) is liable to a fine equal to the amount of the infringement fee (unless the Court imposes a lesser amount) together with costs in the prescribed amount, but no conviction is entered against the person.

(8) To avoid doubt, if a person commits an infringement offence and proceedings against the person are taken in the normal manner under subsection the person is liable to pay not the infringement fee but the amount that the Court determines in accordance with section 26. However, no conviction may be entered against the person.

32 Civil remedies in relation to prospective environmental contraventions

(3) Where an amount that is ordered to be paid under subsections (1) or (2) is not paid within the specified time, a civil judgment may be filed with the Court and that judgment is enforceable against the offender in the same manner as if it were a judgment rendered against the offender in the Court in civil proceedings.

(4) The Court may in addition to any other punishment that may be imposed under this Act impose a fine for each day the offence continues until compliance is fulfilled.

35 Community service orders

(1) Upon the conviction of any person, the prosecution may make submissions to the Court on the appropriateness of a community service order and of the availability of any community service work.

(2) The Court may sentence a person to a community service order instead of or in addition to a fine.

(2) If an application for an approval or consent is made but not determined under this Act or the environment regulations, an environment officer may inspect the place in which the environment officer reasonably considers the proposed activity will take place.

(3) An environment officer may inspect any thing if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that the thing contravenes this Act, or any action has been, is being, or is about to be done to the thing in contravention of this Act.

(4) The owner or occupier of any place at which an environment officer exercises or attempts to exercise a power of inspection under this or any other Act—

47 Consents and approvals authorise inspections

(1) Every consent or approval issued under this Act or the environmental regulations authorises any environment officer to inspect any place to which the consent or approval relates (other than a private home) if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that something is being done in that place in contravention of this Act.

(2) The power to inspect conferred by subsection (1) is in addition to those conferred under section 46, and does not limit or affect them.

48 Power of environment officers to seize evidential items

(1) An environment officer may, without a Court order or a search warrant, seize any thing (a seized item) if—

(a) the seized item—

(i) is produced to the officer; or

(ii) is in plain view during an inspection authorised by this Act or any other Act; and

(b) the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that—

(i) an offence against this Act or the environmental regulations has been committed; and

(ii) the seized item is evidence of the commission of the offence.

(2) The environment officer must—

(i) tell the owner (or person in apparent possession) of the seized item the reason for its seizure; and

(ii) give the owner or person a receipt for the seized item; and

(b) remove the seized item to a place for safe keeping; and

(c) otherwise deal with the seized item in the same manner as if it were being seized under the authority of a search warrant under section 170 of the Criminal Law Code.

49 Power of environment officers to seize and remove certain waste

(1) An environment officer may, without a Court order or a search warrant, seize and remove from any land any item specified in subsection (2) if the Director believes on reasonable grounds that the item—

(2) The items referred to in subsection (1) are any vehicle, vessel, trailer, satellite dish, solar panel, gas cylinder, whiteware, or eware.

“whiteware” means a cooker, refrigerator, washing machine, or microwave oven.

50 Powers that are exercisable by warrant

(1) An environment officer may not enter a private home for the purposes of sections 46 to 49 except —

- (a) with the consent of the owner or occupier; or
- (b) under the authority of a warrant made by an order issued under this section on an application by the officer.

(2) In any other case, an environment officer may apply for a warrant under this section if the officer reasonably believes that the officer may not be able to exercise any powers under sections 46 to 49 without a warrant, for example because—

- (a) no person is present to grant access to a place that is locked or otherwise inaccessible; or
- (b) a person has denied the officer access to a place or there is reasonable ground for believing that a person may deny the officer access to a place; or
- (c) a person has prevented the officer from exercising any of those powers; or
- (d) there are reasonable grounds to believe that an attempt by the officer to exercise any of those powers without the warrant might defeat the purpose of the powers concerned or cause an adverse effect.

(3) A judicial officer may make an order issuing a warrant under this section if satisfied on evidence in writing given under oath by the environment officer that the warrant is necessary for the purpose in subsection (1) or (2), as the case may.

(4) A warrant under this section may authorise an environment officer to exercise such powers under sections 46 to 49 that are specified in the warrant, and the warrant expires at the close of 14 days after the date on which it is issued unless extended by a judicial officer for a further period not exceeding 14 days.

(5) In this section, judicial officer means a Judge of the High Court or, if a Judge is not present in Niue, a Commissioner of the High Court or any two Justices of the Peace.

(3) The levy must be paid to the Customs Office but is in addition to any other levy required under the Customs Act 1966 or any other enactment.

 - (i) a warrant for the arrest of a person has been issued in an extradition country by a court or authority; and
 - (ii) the person is, or is suspected of being, in Niue or on his or her way to Niue; and

- (v) as accurate a description as possible of the extraditable person, together with any other information which will help to establish that person's identity and nationality; and
- (vi) (I) a statement that the requirements of section 16(1) will be fulfilled; or
(II) a request for consent according to section 16(2).

6 Endorsement of extradition country's arrest warrant

(1) The Court may make an endorsement on the warrant authorising the execution of the warrant in Niue where—

- (ii) the Court is informed by affidavit that the person for whose arrest the warrant is in force is, or is suspected of being, in or on their way to Niue; and

(2) The Court may remand the person in custody, or, admit the person to bail subject to subsection (3), for such a period as may be necessary for the purposes of section 9.

(3) The Court shall not remand the person on bail unless there are special circumstances justifying such remand.

8 Consent to surrender by extraditable person

(1) A person may at any time notify the Court that he or she consents to surrender to the extradition country for the extradition offence for which surrender is sought.

(2) The person can consent to surrender even when the offence for which surrender is sought is not an extradition offence.

(3) After receiving notification of consent under subsection (1) the Court shall make a surrender order in respect of the person.

(4) The Court must not issue a surrender order under subsection (3) unless it is satisfied that the person has freely consented to the surrender for the offence or offences in full knowledge of the consequences.

(5) After the Court issues a surrender order under subsection (3), section 13 applies as if the person had been found eligible for surrender.

9 Determination of eligibility for surrender

(1) The Court must determine whether a person is eligible for surrender in relation to the offence for which surrender is sought.

 - (vi) the extradition country provided sufficient undertakings where they requested under section 11(2); and
 - (vii) if the conduct constituting the extradition offence had taken place within the jurisdiction of Niue, that conduct or equivalent conduct would have constituted an extradition offence under the laws of Niue.

(3) The Court is not entitled for the purpose of this section to receive evidence to contradict an allegation that the person to whom the proceedings relate has engaged in conduct that constitutes the offence for which surrender is sought.

10 Mandatory restrictions

An extradition request must be refused if—

- (i) the extradition offence is a political offence in relation to the extradition country; or
- (ii) on surrender to the extradition country, the person may be prejudiced at their trial, or punished, detained or restricted in their personal liberty, by reason of their race, religion, nationality or political opinion; or
- (iii) the person has been acquitted or pardoned by a competent tribunal or authority in the extradition country or Niue or has undergone the punishment provided by the law of the extradition country or Niue, in respect of the extradition offence or another offence constituted by the same conduct as constitutes the extradition offence.

- (i) having regard to all the circumstances of the case, it would be unjust or oppressive to surrender the person, because of—
 - (I) the trivial nature of the case; or
 - (II) the accusation of an offence against that person was not made in good faith in the interests of justice; or
 - (III) the amount of time that has passed since the offence is alleged to have been committed or was committed; or
- (ii) the person has been accused of an offence within the jurisdiction of Niue (other than the offence for which the surrender is sought), and the proceedings against the person have not been disposed of; or
- (iii) the person may be or has been sentenced to death and the extradition country is unable to sufficiently assure that—
 - (I) the person will not be sentenced to death; or
 - (II) the sentence will not be carried out; or
- (iv) the person is a New Zealand citizen and there is no treaty in force between Niue and the extradition country which provides for the extradition of New Zealand citizens; or there is no treaty between New Zealand and the extradition countries which provides for the extradition of New Zealand citizens from Niue.

(2) For the purpose of determining under subsection (1) whether an extradition request is to be refused or not, the Court may seek any undertakings from the extradition country that the Court thinks fit.

(3) Subsection (1) (iv) does not apply to an extradition request by New Zealand.

12 Procedure following determination of eligibility for surrender

(1) If the Court is satisfied that the person is eligible for surrender, the Court must—

- (ii) issue a warrant for the detention of the person pending the surrender of the person to the extradition country; and

The Court shall, on application, order that the offender be released unless sufficient cause is shown against the release, where a person is in custody in Niue at the expiration of one month from the date of the surrender order under section 13(2) or under section 14, whichever is the later.

16 Person extradited not to be tried for other offences

(1) A person who has been extradited shall not be proceeded against, sentenced or detained with a view to the carrying out of a sentence or detention order for any offence committed prior to his or her surrender other than that for which he or she was extradited, nor shall he or she be for any other reason restricted in his or her personal freedom, except when Niue consents.

(2) A request for consent under subsection (1) shall be submitted, accompanied by the documents mentioned in section 5 and a certified record of any statement made by the extradited person in respect of the offence concerned.

PART III

EXTRADITION TO NIUE

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), any persons who are not within the degrees of consanguinity but are within the degrees of affinity so prohibited may apply to the Court for its consent to their marriage, and the Court may make an order dispensing with that prohibition so far as it relates to the parties to the application, and, if such an order is made, that prohibition shall cease to apply to the parties.

2 Marriages to take place before Marriage Officer

(1) Every marriage shall take place in the presence of a Marriage Officer and of at least two other witnesses.

(2) In this section, “Marriage Officer” means any Judge or Commissioner of the High Court, the Registrar of the High Court, or any person appointed as a Marriage Officer under subsection (3).

(3) The Cabinet may appoint any minister of religion, or person whom it believes to be a fit and proper person, as a Marriage Officer.

(4) A marriage celebrated other than in accordance with this section is void.

3 Offence

If any person acts as a Marriage Officer in Niue without being qualified by office or appointment so to act, he is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.

4 Notice of marriage

(1) A Marriage Officer shall not solemnise or record any marriage, unless notice in writing of the intention of the parties to enter into the marriage has been given to the Marriage Officer by one of the parties at least 2 clear days before the day of the marriage.

(2) On receipt of that notice, the Marriage Officer shall publish it in such manner as he thinks sufficient to give due publicity to the intended marriage.

(3) On every such notice, there shall be payable by the person giving it such fee (if any) as may be prescribed by regulations, and all such fees shall be payable into the Niue Government Account.

(4) No marriage shall be invalidated by any breach of the requirements of this section.

5 Mode of solemnisation

Every marriage shall, subject to this Part, be solemnised in such manner as the Marriage Officer thinks fit.

6 Record of marriage

Every marriage shall, at the time of the solemnisation, be recorded in writing by the Marriage Officer in the form and with the several particulars prescribed by regulations under this Act, but no marriage shall be invalidated by any error or defect in that form or in the particulars so required to be recorded.

7 Signature of record

The aforesaid record of every marriage shall be signed by the parties, and by two witnesses, and by the Marriage Officer, all being present at the same time, and when the record has been so signed the marriage shall be deemed to be fully solemnised and shall take effect.

8 Transmission of record

The record of every marriage shall be forthwith delivered by the Marriage Officer to the Registrar of the Court, and shall be preserved by the Registrar in the same manner as if it was a record of the High Court.

9 Minimum age of marriage

A Marriage Officer shall not solemnise or record any marriage, unless the husband is at least 18 years of age and the wife is at least 15 years of age, but no marriage shall be invalidated by a breach of this section.

10 Marriage of minors

(1) A Marriage Officer shall not solemnise or record the marriage of any man under the age of 21 years or of any woman under the age of 19 years without the consent of one of the parents of the man or woman, if either of those parents is alive and resident in Niue.

(2) A Judge of the Court may in any case, if he thinks fit so to do, grant exemption from the requirements of this section.

(3) No marriage shall be invalidated by any breach of this section.

11 Offence by Marriage Officer

Every party or witness to a marriage who signs a record of it containing any statement known by him or her to be false is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to a fine not exceeding 0.5 penalty units.

13 Misrepresentation as to facts to procure marriage

Every person who, by any wilful misrepresentation made to a Marriage Officer, procures or attempts to procure the solemnisation by that officer of any marriage is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

14 Sanction of Court to be obtained

(1) Every minor in contemplation of his marriage may, with the sanction of the Court, given on the application of the minor or his guardian, make a valid and binding settlement or contract for a settlement of all or any part of his property, or property over which he has a power of appointment whether in possession, reversion, remainder or expectancy.

(2) Every conveyance, appointment and assignment of any such property, and every contract to make a conveyance of it, appointment, or assignment of it executed by the minor with the sanction of the Court for the purpose of giving relief to the settlement shall be as valid and effectual as if the minor were of full age.

(3) Where there is no guardian the Court may require a guardian to be appointed, and may also require that any persons interested or appearing to be interested in the property be served with notice of the application to the Court for its sanction.

(4) Where any appointment under a power of appointment or any disentailing assurance, has been executed under this section by any minor as tenant in tail, and afterwards that minor dies under age, the appointment or disentailing assurance shall thereupon become absolutely void.

(5) [Repealed]

(6) The authority conferred by this section shall not extend to powers of which it is expressly declared that they shall not be exercised by a minor.

(1) Save where otherwise provided by this Act, the legal capacity of a married woman, whether contractual, proprietary, testamentary, or of any other kind whatsoever, shall be the same as that of an unmarried woman.

(2) Save in respect of intestate succession, marriage shall not confer on either party any rights to or in respect of the property of the other.

(3) The rule of the common law that for certain purposes a husband and wife are deemed to be one person only is hereby abolished for all purposes, including the law of domicile.

(4) A husband shall not be responsible, as such, for torts committed by his wife.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect the validity or operation of a restraint on anticipation.

PART 2
DIVORCE

16 Nullity of marriage

The Court shall in proceedings for nullity of marriage have and exercise in Niue the same jurisdiction as is possessed for the time being by the courts in New Zealand.

17 Domicile of a married woman

The domicile of a married woman shall be determined as if she were an adult and single.

18 Grounds of divorce and jurisdiction of High Court

(1) Subject to subsection (2), any married person (the petitioner) may take proceedings in the High Court for the dissolution of his or her marriage with the other party to the marriage (the respondent) on any ground specified in subsection (3).

(2) No proceedings for divorce may be taken in the High Court unless—

- (a) The petitioner or the respondent is at the commencement of the proceedings domiciled in Niue; and
- (b) Where the ground alleged in the petition is one of those specified in subsection (3)(l), (m) and (n), has been domiciled or resident in Niue for 2 years at least immediately preceding the filing of the petition.

(3) A petition for divorce may be presented to the High Court on one or more of the following grounds, and on no other ground –

- (a) That the respondent has since the solemnisation of the marriage been guilty of adultery;
- (b) That the respondent, being the wife of the petitioner, has since the solemnisation of the marriage and without the consent of the petitioner been artificially inseminated with the semen of some man other than the petitioner;
- (c) That the respondent without just cause has wilfully deserted the petitioner and without just cause has left the petitioner continuously so deserted for 3 years or more;
- (d) That the respondent—
 - (i) Being the petitioner's husband, has for 3 years or more been an habitual drunkard or drug addict, and has either habitually left his wife without means of support or habitually been guilty of cruelty towards her; or
 - (ii) Being the petitioner's wife, has for a like period been an habitual drunkard or drug addict, and has either habitually neglected her domestic duties and rendered herself unfit to discharge them or habitually been guilty of cruelty towards him;
- (e) That the respondent has since the solemnisation of the marriage been convicted of attempting to commit the murder of the petitioner or any child (of any age) of the petitioner or respondent, or has been convicted of any offence under section 23 of the Criminal Law Code against the petitioner or any such child;
- (f) That the respondent has since the solemnisation of the marriage been convicted of incest, attempted rape or assault with intent to commit rape against any child (of any age) of the petitioner or respondent, or of sexual intercourse or attempted sexual intercourse with any such child under 15 years of age;
- (g) That the respondent, being the husband of the petitioner, has committed rape or buggery since the solemnisation of the marriage;
- (h) That the respondent has since the solemnisation of the marriage been convicted of murder;
- (i) That the respondent is a person of unsound mind and is unlikely to recover, and has been a patient for a period or periods of not less in the aggregate than 7 years within the period of 10 years immediately preceding the filing of the petition;

- (j) That the respondent is a person of unsound mind and is unlikely to recover, and has been continuously a person of unsound mind for a period of 7 years immediately preceding the filing of the petition, and has been a patient during the final 3 years of the said period of 7 years;
- (k) That the respondent is a person of unsound mind and is unlikely to recover, and has been a patient for a period of 5 years immediately preceding the filing of the petition;
- (l) That the petitioner and respondent are parties to an agreement for separation, whether made by deed or other writing or orally, and that the agreement is in full force and has been in full force for not less than 3 years;
- (m) That—
 - (i) the petitioner and respondent are parties to a decree, order, or judgment made in Niue or in any country if that decree, order, or judgment has in that country the effect that the parties are not bound to live together; and
 - (ii) that decree of separation, separation order, or other decree, order, or judgment is in full force and has been in full force for not less than 3 years;
- (n) That the petitioner and respondent are living apart and are unlikely to be reconciled, and have been living apart for not less than 7 years.

19 Grounds of refusal of divorce

If the Court is of opinion—

- (a) That, in the case of a petition based on a matrimonial wrong, the petitioner's own habits or conduct induced or contributed to the wrong complained of so as to disentitle the petitioner to a divorce or the petitioner has condoned the wrong complained of; or
- (b) That, in the case of the adultery of the respondent, the petitioner has been in any manner accessory to or has connived at the adultery—

the Court shall dismiss the suit; but, subject to section 20, in all other cases, if the Court is satisfied that the case of the petitioner has been established, the Court shall pronounce a decree of divorce.

20 Discretion to refuse decree in certain cases

(1) (a) Where a petition for divorce is presented on any of the grounds specified in section 18 (3) (1) (m) and (n), and the petitioner has proved his or her case, the Court shall have a discretion whether or not to grant a decree of divorce.

- (b) The Court shall not, in the exercise of that discretion, refuse to grant a decree by reason only of the adultery of either party after their separation.

(2) The Court may dismiss any petition for divorce if there has been collusion between the petitioner and the respondent with intent to cause a perversion of justice.

21 Co-respondent as a party

In any proceedings in the Court for divorce on the ground of adultery, the Court may make the person with whom the respondent is alleged to have committed adultery a co-respondent in the proceedings.

22 Agreement no bar to divorce

No covenant or agreement between the parties to proceedings for divorce shall operate as a bar to the institution or prosecution of the proceedings.

23 No appeal to Court of Appeal

No appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal from any decree of the Court for divorce.

24 Order for maintenance of divorced wife

(1) When a decree of divorce is made by the Court, the Court may, in and by the decree, order the husband to pay towards the future maintenance of his wife (whether petitioner or respondent), so long as she remains unmarried, a reasonable sum at such times and in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

(2) Every such order shall be deemed to be a maintenance order under Part 23 and all the provisions of that Part shall, so far as applicable, apply to it accordingly.

(3) In addition to or instead of making an order under subsection (1), the Court may, when making any such decree, order the husband to pay to the wife such capital sum as the Court thinks fit.

25 Order as to custody of children

The Court may in and by any decree of divorce or of nullity, or at any time and from time to time thereafter, make such order as it thinks fit as to the custody of the children of the marriage.

26 Molestation of divorced wife by her husband

If, at any time after a decree of divorce or of dissolution of a voidable marriage has been pronounced at the suit of the wife, her former husband—

(a) Commits any trespass by entering or remaining upon or in any land, house, or building which is in her occupation or in which she dwells or is present; or

(b) Attempts or threatens to commit any such trespass; or

(c) Molests her by watching or besetting her dwellinghouse or place or business, employment, or residence, or by following or waylaying her in any road or other public place—he is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to a fine not exceeding 0.5 penalty units.

PART 3

The Cabinet may make regulations to provide for the registration of births and deaths and the due administration of it.

28 Legitimacy

(1) Every person, whether born before 1 January 1967, and whether born in Niue or not, and whether or not his parents or either of them were domiciled in Niue at the time of his birth, shall for all the purposes of the law of Niue be deemed to be the legitimate child of each of his parents, and all other relationships in respect of that person shall be deemed to be traced through lawful wedlock accordingly.

(2) The provisions of this section—

(a) In so far as it affects wills, shall have effect only in relation to the wills of testators who die after 1 January 1967, and

(b) In so far as it affects instruments other than wills, shall have effect only in relation to instruments executed after the commencement of this Act.

(3) All wills of testators who have died before 1 January 1967, and all other instruments executed before 1 January 1967, shall be governed by the enactments and rules of law which would have applied to them if this Act had not been passed.

(4) The estates of all persons who have died intestate as to the whole or any part of it before 1 January 1967 shall be distributed under the enactments which would have applied to them if this Act had not been passed.

(5) No action shall lie against any executor or administrator or trustee of the estate of any person who dies after 1 January 1967 or the trustee under any instrument executed after 1 January 1967 by any person whose relationship to the deceased or to any other person or, as the case may be, to the settlor or to any other person is in any degree traced otherwise than through lawful wedlock, by reason of the executor or administrator or trustee having made any distribution of the estate or trust disregarding the claims of the person so related where at the time of making the distribution the executor, administrator, or trustee had no notice of the relationship of that person to the deceased or the settlor or any other person.

PART 4 ADOPTION

29 Interpretation

In this Part –

“adopted child” means any person in respect of whom an adoption order is in force;

“adoption order” means an adoption order made by the Land Court;

“adoptive parent” means any person who adopts a child under an adoption order; and, in the case of an order made in favour of a husband and wife on their joint application, means both the husband and wife; but does not include a spouse who merely consents to an adoption;

“child” means a person who is under the age of 21 years;

“father”, in relation to any child born out of wedlock, means the natural father;

“Land Court” means the Land Division of the High Court.

30 Adoption by Niuean custom invalid

No adoption by Niuean custom made after 1 November 1969 shall be of any force or effect, whether in respect of intestate succession or otherwise.

31 Land Court may make adoption orders

(1) Subject to this Part, the Land Court may, upon an application made by any person, whether domiciled in Niue or not, make an adoption order in respect of any child, whether Niuean or European, and whether domiciled in Niue or not.

(2) An adoption order may be made on the application of spouses jointly in respect of a child.

(3) An adoption order may be made in respect of the adoption of a child by the mother or father or the child, either alone or jointly with his or her spouse.

32 Prohibition of payments in consideration of adoption

Except with the consent of the Land Court, it shall not be lawful for any person to give or receive or agree to give or receive any payment or reward in consideration of the making of arrangements for an adoption or proposed adoption.

33 Restrictions on making adoption orders

(1) No adoption order shall be made under this Part unless the Land Court is satisfied that –

- (a) The child to be adopted is under the age of 21 years at the date of the filing of the application; and
- (b) The applicant or, in the case of a joint application, one of the applicants, has attained the age of 25 years and is at least 21 years older than the child, or is the mother or father of the child; and
- (c) The applicant (if unmarried) is at least 30 years older than the child; and
- (d) Where the child is female and the sole applicant is male, the applicant is the father of the child, or there are special circumstances which justify the making of an order; and
- (e) The child, if in the opinion of the Land Court is above the age of 12 years, consents to the adoption; and
- (f) The applicant is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of the child and of sufficient ability to maintain the child, and the adoption will not be contrary to the welfare and interests of the child.

(2) In order to satisfy itself as to the matters mentioned in subsection (1)(f) the Land Court shall call for a report on it by Cabinet or by an officer of the Niue Public Service nominated for the purpose by Cabinet.

(3) No adopted child shall, in the lifetime of an adoptive parent and while the adoption order remains in force, be adopted by any other person save the husband or wife of that parent.

34 Consents to adoptions

(1) No adoption order shall be made without the consent of the parents or of the surviving parent (if any) of the child, whether that child is born in lawful wedlock or not, but no such consent shall be required from any parent if the Land Court is satisfied that the child has been deserted by that parent, or that that parent is for any reason unfit to have the care and custody of the child, or if the Land Court for any other reason whatsoever considers that the consent of that parent should be dispensed with.

(2) Every consent given under subsection (1) shall be given in writing and witnessed by one of the persons specified in section 78(1) of the Niue Act 1966 and every such witness shall certify that the parent signing the consent fully understands the effect of an adoption order.

(3) Where the application for an adoption order is made by either a husband or a wife alone, no order shall be made without the consent of the spouse of the applicant, save that no such consent shall be required if the Land Court is satisfied that the spouses are living apart and that their separation is likely to be permanent.

35 Effect of adoption order

(1) Every adoption order shall confer the surname of the adoptive parent on the adopted child, with such first or Christian name as the Court, on the application of the person who is applying for the adoption order, may fix.

(2) Upon an adoption order being made, the following shall have effect for all purposes, whether civil, criminal, or otherwise, but subject to the provisions of any enactment which distinguishes in any way between adopted children and children other than adopted children, namely –

- (a) The adopted child shall be deemed to be the child of the adoptive parent, and the adoptive parent shall be deemed to be the parent of the child, as if the child had been born to that parent in lawful wedlock:
Provided that, where the adopted child is adopted by his mother either alone or jointly with her husband, the making of the adoption order shall not prevent the making of an affiliation order or maintenance order, or of an application for an affiliation order or maintenance order, in respect of the child;
- (b) The adopted child shall be deemed to cease to be the child of his existing parents (whether his natural parents or his adoptive parents under any previous adoption), and the existing parents of the adopted child shall be deemed to cease to be his parents, and any existing adoption order in respect of the child shall be deemed to be discharged under section 37:
Provided that, where the existing parents are the natural parents, this paragraph shall not apply for the purposes of any enactment relating to forbidden marriages or to the crime of incest;
- (c) The relationship to one another of all persons (whether the adopted child, the adoptive parent, the existing parents, or any other persons) shall be determined under this subsection so far as they are applicable;

PART 5
GUARDIANSHIP

38 Objective of Part

The objective of this Part is to define and regulate the authority of parents as guardians of their children, their power to appoint guardians, and the powers of the courts in relation to the custody and guardianship of children.

39 Interpretation

In this Part –

“child” means a person under the age of 20 years;

“near relative” means a step-parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, brother, or sister; and includes a brother or sister of the half-blood as well as of the full-blood;

“upbringing” includes education and religion.

40 Definition of custody and guardianship

“custody” means the right to possession and care of a child;

“guardianship” means the custody of a child (except in the case of a testamentary guardian and subject to any custody order made by the Court) and the right of control over the upbringing of a child, and includes all rights, powers, and duties in respect of the person and upbringing of a child that were at 1 January 1970 vested by any enactment or rule of law in the sole guardian of a child.

Jurisdiction

41 Personal jurisdiction

(1) The Court shall have jurisdiction under this Part –

- (a) Where any question of custody, guardianship, or access arises as an ancillary matter in any proceedings in which the Court has jurisdiction; or
- (b) Where the child who is the subject of the application or order is present in Niue when the application is made; or
- (c) Where the child, or any person against whom an order is sought, or the applicant, is domiciled or resident in Niue when the application is made.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) the Court may decline to make an order under this Part if neither the person against whom it is sought nor the child is resident in Niue and the Court is of the opinion that no useful purpose would be served by making an order or that in the circumstances the making of an order would be undesirable.

Natural Guardianship

42 Guardianship of children

(1) Subject to this Part, the father and the mother of a child shall each be a guardian of the child.

(2) Subject to this Part, the mother of a child shall be the sole guardian of the child if –

(3) Where the mother of a child is, or was at the time of her death, its sole guardian by virtue of subsection (2) the father of the child may apply to the Court to be appointed as guardian of the child, either in addition to or instead of the mother or any guardian appointed by her, and the Court may make such order on the application as it thinks proper.

(4) On the death of the father or the mother the surviving parent, if he or she was then a guardian of the child, shall, subject to this Part, be the sole guardian of the child.

43 Declaration as to guardianship of father

Any man who alleges that he is a guardian of a child by virtue of section 6 (other than by a virtue of an order under subsection (3)) may apply to the Court for an order declaring that he is a guardian of the child, and, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the allegation is true, and that the man has not been deprived of his guardianship the Court may make the order.

88 Applications

Any application to the Court for or in relation to a maintenance order or an affiliation order may, except where otherwise expressly provided, be made either by the person in whose favour the order is to be or has been made or by any other person.

89 Affiliation orders

(1) On application made to the Court by or by the authority of a woman who is the mother of a child or who is with child, the Court may, if it is satisfied that the defendant (not being her husband) is the father of that child, make an order (herein called an affiliation order) adjudging the defendant to be the father of that child accordingly.

(2) No affiliation order shall be so made unless the application is made before or within 6 years after the birth of the child, unless the defendant has contributed to or made provision for the maintenance of the child, or has since the birth of the child cohabited with the mother as man and wife, in which case the application may be made at any time after the expiration of the said period of 6 years, if within 2 years immediately preceding the application the defendant has contributed to or provided for the maintenance of the child or has so cohabited with its mother.

(3) If at any time the defendant has been absent from Niue, the period of his absence shall not be counted in computing the respective periods of 6 years or 2 years.

(4) No such application shall be made unless the child is under 16 years of age at the time of the application.

90 Evidence

(1) The evidence of the mother of the child or of any woman who is with child as aforesaid shall not be necessary for the making of an affiliation order.

(2) No person shall be adjudged to be the father of a child upon the evidence of the mother or of a woman who is with child as aforesaid, unless her evidence is corroborated in some material particular to the satisfaction of the Court.

91 Maintenance order in favour of illegitimate child

When an affiliation order has been made by the Court against any person as the father of a child, whether already born or not, the Court may, at the same time or at any time thereafter, make a maintenance order in favour of the child against the person so adjudged to be the father of the child.

92 Maintenance order against father in favour of child

(1) The Court may make a maintenance order against the father of any child (not being an illegitimate child) in favour of that child if the Court is satisfied that the father has failed or intends to fail to provide that child with adequate maintenance.

(2) When the father and child are living apart from each other, and the Court is satisfied that there is reasonable cause for the child continuing so to live apart from the father, the father shall not be deemed to have made provision for the adequate maintenance of the child merely by reason of the fact that he is ready and willing to support the child if and so long as the child lives with him.

93 Maintenance order against mother in favour of child

(1) The High Court may make a maintenance order in favour of a child against the mother of that child, if it is satisfied that the mother is of sufficient ability in that behalf and has failed or intends to fail to make provision for the adequate maintenance of the child.

(2) When the mother and child are living apart from each other, and the Court is satisfied that there is reasonable cause for the child continuing so to live apart from the mother, the mother shall not be deemed to have made provision for the adequate maintenance of the child merely by reason of the fact that she is ready and willing to support the child if and so long as the child lives with her.

94 Maintenance order against husband

(1) The Court may make a maintenance order against a husband in favour of his wife, if it is satisfied that the husband has failed or intends to fail to provide his wife with adequate maintenance.

(2) Unless the Court is satisfied that the wife is a destitute person, no maintenance order shall be made against the husband if it is proved that he is not of sufficient ability to contribute to her maintenance.

(3) When the husband and wife are living apart from one another and the wife has, in the opinion of the Court, reasonable cause for refusing or failing to live with her husband, the husband shall not be deemed to have provided her with adequate maintenance merely by reason of the fact that he is ready and willing to support her if and so long as she lives with him.

95 Maintenance order against wife

(1) The Court may make a maintenance order against a married woman in favour of her husband, if it is satisfied that the husband is a destitute person and that his wife is of sufficient ability to contribute to his maintenance.

(2) No such order shall be made if the Court is satisfied that there is reasonable cause for the failure of the wife to contribute to the maintenance of her husband.

96 Maintenance order against any person in favour of father or mother

The Court may make a maintenance order against any person in favour of the father or mother of that person, if it is satisfied that the father or mother, is a destitute person and that the defendant is of sufficient ability to contribute to the maintenance of that destitute person.

Every person who disobeys a maintenance order commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 1 penalty unit and imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

101 Orders in absentia

If the Court is satisfied that a defendant is absent from Niue, or that his residence is unknown, or that he cannot be found, the Court may hear and determine the application ex parte and make a maintenance order or affiliation order accordingly.

102 Repeated applications

The dismissal of an application for a maintenance order or affiliation order shall not, unless the Court so orders, be a bar to the making of a further application in the same matter against the same defendant.

103 Payments not to be made in advance

(1) No money payable under a maintenance order shall, without the precedent consent of a Judge of the High Court, be paid more than one year in advance of the due date of it.

(2) If any money is paid in breach of this section, it shall not be taken into account in any proceedings for the enforcement of the maintenance order or for the punishment of any disobedience to it; but no money so paid in breach of this section shall be recoverable by the person by whom it was paid.

104 Cancellation, variation, and suspension of orders

(1) The High Court may at any time make an order cancelling an affiliation order, or cancelling, varying, or suspending any maintenance order or substituting a new maintenance order, on the grounds—

- (a) That the order was obtained by fraud or perjury; or
- (b) That since the making of the order new and material evidence has been discovered; or
- (c) That since the making of the order the circumstances have so changed that the order ought to be so cancelled, varied, or suspended, or that a new order ought to be substituted for it.

(2) The power hereby conferred to cancel or vary an order shall include the power to remit wholly or in part any arrears due under the order, and any such arrears may be remitted either on the grounds hereinbefore in this section mentioned or, if the Court thinks fit, on the ground that the defendant is not of sufficient ability to pay them.

105 Payment of maintenance money

Any maintenance order may direct the money payable under it to be paid either to the person in whose favour the order is made or to any other person on behalf of that person.

106 Security for obedience to maintenance orders

(1) Whenever a maintenance order is made, the High Court may, by the same order or by order made at any later time, direct the defendant to give security for his obedience to the maintenance order.

(2) Every such security shall, as the Court determines, be either the payment into Court of such sum of money, not exceeding 4 penalty units, as the Court directs, or the giving of a bond to Her Majesty with one or 2 sureties to be approved by the Court in a sum not exceeding 4 penalty units, conditioned for due obedience to the maintenance order.

(3) When such security has been required, the Court may commit the defendant to prison until the order requiring security has been complied with, but no person shall be so detained in custody for a longer period than 6 months.

(4) All money so paid into Court or recovered by suit or otherwise under any such bond shall be available, under the direction of the Court, for the satisfaction of all claims under the maintenance order.

(5) The Court may, on being satisfied that the security is no longer required, order any amount so paid into Court to be repaid to the defendant, or cancel any bond so given.

107 Operation of agreements

No agreement shall be effective so as to take away or restrict any liability imposed on any person by this Part to contribute to the maintenance of any other person, or affect the operation of any maintenance order or the right of the High Court to make any such order.

108 Purport and duration of maintenance orders

(1) Every maintenance order shall be an order for the periodical payment, at such times and in such manner as the Court thinks fit, of such sum of money as the Court thinks reasonable.

116 Evidence of intent

In any prosecution for an offence against this Part, the fact that the defendant has at any time within 3 years after leaving Niue habitually made default in obeying an order of maintenance or in providing his wife or child with adequate maintenance shall be sufficient evidence, unless the contrary is proved, that the defendant left Niue with intent so to make default.

140 A residuary devise

That, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the will, such real estate or interest therein as shall be comprised or intended to be comprised in any devise in such will contained, which shall fail or be void by reason of the death of the devisee in the lifetime of the testator, or by reason of such devise being contrary to law or otherwise incapable of taking effect, shall be included in the residuary devise (if any) contained in such will.

141 A general devise

That a devise of the land of the testator, or of the land of the testator in any place or in the occupation of any person mentioned in his will, or otherwise described in a general manner, and any other general devise which would describe a customary, copyhold, or leasehold estate if the testator had no freehold estate which could be described by it, shall be construed to include the customary, copyhold, and leasehold estates of the testator, or his customary, copyhold and leasehold estates, or any of them, to which such description shall extend, as the case may be, as well as freehold estates, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the will.

That where any real estate (other than or not being a presentation to a church) shall be devised to any trustee or executor, such devise shall be construed to pass the fee simple or other the whole estate or interest which the testator had power to dispose of by will in such real estate, unless a definite term of years, absolute or determinable, or an estate of freehold, shall thereby be given to him expressly or by implication.

146 Trustees under an unlimited devise

That where any real estate shall be devised to a trustee, without any express limitation of the estate to be taken by such trustee, and the beneficial interest in such real estate, or in the surplus rents and profits thereof, shall not be given to any person for life, or such beneficial interest shall be given to any person for life, but the purposes of the trust may continue beyond the life of such person, such devise shall be construed to vest in such trustee the fee simple, or other the whole legal estate which the testator had power to dispose of by will in such real estate, and not an estate determinable when the purposes of the trust shall be satisfied.

147 Devises of estates tail

That where any person to whom any real estate shall be devised for an estate tail or an estate in quasi entail shall die in the lifetime of the testator leaving issue who would be inheritable under such entail, and any such issue shall be living at the time of the death of the testator, such devise shall not lapse, but shall take effect as if the death of such person had happened immediately after the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the will.

148 Gifts to children

(1) The Court shall continue to have jurisdiction and authority in relation to the granting and revoking of probate of wills and letters of administration with or without a will annexed of the estates of deceased persons, and in regard to the hearing and determining of proceedings relating to testamentary matters and matters relating to the estates of deceased persons.

(2) Without restricting subsection (1) or any other enactment, the Court shall have jurisdiction to make a grant of probate or letters of administration in respect of a deceased person, whether or not the deceased person left any estate in Niue or elsewhere, and whether or not the person to whom the grant is made is in Niue.

157 Discretion of Court as to person to whom administration is granted

(1) (a) In granting letters of administration with or without a will annexed, or an order to administer with or without a will annexed, in respect of the estate of any deceased person or any part of it, the Court shall have regard to the rights of all persons interested in the estate of the deceased person or the proceeds of sale of it, and, in particular, administration with a will annexed may be granted to a devisee or legatee, and any such administration may be limited in any way the Court thinks fit.

(b) Subject to subsection (2) where the deceased died wholly intestate as to his estate, administration shall be granted to some one or more persons beneficially interested in the estate of the deceased, if they make an application for the purpose.

(2) Where by reason of the insolvency of the estate or other special circumstances the Court thinks it necessary or expedient to do so, it may –

(a) Grant administration to such person or persons as it thinks expedient notwithstanding that some other person is appointed an executor or that, apart from this subsection, some other person would by law be entitled to a grant of administration;

(b) Grant probate to one or more of the executors appointed by a will, notwithstanding that some other person or persons may also be appointed as an executor or executors.

(3) A grant may be made under subsection (2) notwithstanding that any person excluded from the grant would be competent to take it.

(4) Before determining to exclude from any such grant any person who, apart from this section, would by law be entitled to, or be included in, the grant, and wishes to have, or to be so included in, the grant, the Court shall have regard to his competency and solvency, his ability effectively to administer the estate, the rights of all persons interested in the estate, and any changes in circumstances between the making of the will (if any) and the time when the Court is asked to make the grant.

158 Administration pending legal proceedings

(1) Where any legal proceedings touching the validity of the will of a deceased person, or for obtaining, recalling, or revoking any grant of administration, are pending, the Court may grant administration of the estate of the deceased to a temporary administrator, who shall, until he is discharged or removed under section 170, have all the rights and powers of a general administrator, other than the right of distributing the balance of the estate remaining after payment of debts, funeral and testamentary expenses, duties, and fees, and every such temporary administrator shall be subject to the immediate control of the Court and act under its direction.

(2) The Court may, out of the estate of the deceased, grant to a temporary administrator appointed under this section reasonable remuneration.

(b) Unless the Court otherwise directs, every grant of special administration shall continue until the administrator to whom the grant is made is discharged or removed under section 170.

(3) The Court may, for the purpose of any legal proceedings to which the administrator under the special administration is a party, order the transfer into Court of any money or securities belonging to the estate, and all persons shall obey any such order.

(4) If the administrator capable of acting as such returns to and resides within the jurisdiction of the Court while any legal proceedings to which a special administrator is a party are pending, the administrator who so returns may be made a party to the legal proceedings and the Court may order that the costs of and incidental to the special administration and the legal proceedings shall be paid by such person and out of such fund as it may specify.

(5) Nothing in this section shall restrict section 170.

160 Administration during minority of executor

(1) Where a person who is sole executor of a will is at the date of the testator's death a minor who is not entitled to a grant of probate under subsection (3), administration with the will annexed may be granted to such person as the Court thinks fit, until the minor becomes entitled to and obtains a grant of probate to him; and on his attaining full age or sooner becoming entitled to a grant of probate under that subsection and not before, probate of the will may be granted to him.

(2) Where a testator by his will appoints a person who at his death is a minor who is not entitled to a grant of probate under subsection (3) to be an executor, the appointment shall not operate to transfer any interest in the estate of the deceased to the minor or to constitute him an administrator for any purpose, unless and until probate is granted to him under this section.

165 Administration bond

(1) (a) Every person to whom a grant of administration (other than the probate of a will) is made shall, previously to the issue of it, execute a bond to the Registrar to enure for the benefit of the Registrar for the time being, with 2 sureties approved by the Court, conditioned for duly collecting, getting in, and administering the estate of the deceased, which bond shall be in such form as may be prescribed by rules.

(b) It shall not be necessary for any trustee, corporation or any person obtaining administration to the use or for the benefit of Her Majesty, to execute any such bond, and in any case in which the Court is willing to dispense with sureties under subsection (2) it may dispense with the bond.

(2) In every case in which a bond is required under subsection (1), the bond shall be in a penalty equal to the amount under which the estate of the deceased is sworn, if that amount does not exceed 20,000 dollars, and shall be in a penalty of 20,000 dollars where the amount exceeds that sum; but the Court may dispense with one or both of the sureties, or direct that the penalty be reduced in amount, and may also if it thinks fit direct that more bonds than one be given, so as to limit the liability of any surety to such amount as the Court thinks reasonable.

The Court may, on being satisfied that the condition of any such bond or security has been broken, order the Registrar to assign the bond or security to some person to be named in the order and that person or his administrator may thereupon sue upon the bond or security in his own name as if the bond or security had been originally given to him, and shall be entitled to recover thereon as trustee for all persons interested the full amount recoverable in respect of any breach of the condition of the bond or security.

167 Administration as evidence

(2) Upon proof (whether by affidavit or otherwise) of service of the order, or upon the Court dispensing with service of the order, if the executor who is so called upon does not appear or upon cause being shown, the Court may make such order for the administration of the estate, and as to costs, as appears just.

(1) Every administrator or person who makes any payment or disposition or assumes any liability, or who permits any payment or disposition to be made, or who does any act, or who permits any act to be done, in good faith under an administration shall, notwithstanding any defect or circumstances whatsoever affecting the validity of the administration or its subsequent revocation, have the same indemnity and protection in so doing and in respect of all commission and remuneration earned by him in so doing, as he would if the administration were valid and not revoked.

(2) Where an administration is revoked, all payments and dispositions made in good faith to an administrator before the revocation shall be valid discharges to the person making the same; and the administrator who acted under the revoked administration may retain and reimburse himself out of the estate that comes into his hands in respect of any acts, payments, dispositions, liabilities, commission, and remuneration in respect of which he is indemnified as aforesaid or which the person to whom administration is afterwards granted might have properly made.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) shall affect or prejudice the rights of any person entitled to any money or property that has been the subject of a payment or disposition to which that subsection relates against any person (other than the administrator in that capacity) to whom the payment or disposition has been made, but the person so entitled shall have the same remedy against the person (other than the administrator in that capacity) to whom the payment or disposition was made as he would have had against the administrator if the payment or disposition had not been made.

(4) Nothing in this section shall restrict section 195.

193 Following of assets

(1) In any case where an administrator or trustee has made a distribution of any assets forming part of the estate of any deceased person or subject to any trust and there is nothing in any Act to prevent the distribution from being disturbed, the Court may –

- (a) Make, subject to such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, in respect of any interest in any such assets that is for the time being retained by the person to whom those assets were distributed or his administrator or any person who has received any interest in those assets from either of them otherwise than in good faith and for full valuable consideration an order on any claim to which section 35 of the Trustee Act 1956 applies, or an order requiring the transfer of payment of any such interest in any such assets to the administrator of the deceased or the trustee or to any person who under any enactment or rule of law has a right to follow the assets;
- (b) Order that any person to whom any assets were so distributed or his administrator shall pay to any applicant for an order on any claim to which section 35 of the Trustee Act 1956 applies, or to the administrator of the deceased or the trustee or to any person who under any enactment or rule of law has a right to follow the assets a sum not exceeding the net value of the assets at the date of the distribution, or in a case where full valuable consideration has not been given a sum not exceeding the amount by which that net value exceeds the value of the consideration at that date, together (if the Court thinks equitable) with interest on it from that date until the date of the order at such rate as the Court may specify;
- (c) Order that any person who has received any interest in any such assets from the person to whom they were distributed or his administrator, otherwise than in good faith and for full valuable consideration, shall pay to any applicant for an order on any claim to which section 35 of the Trustee Act 1956 applies, or to the administrator of the deceased or the trustee, or to any person who under any enactment or rule of law has a right to follow the assets, a sum not exceeding the net value of that interest at the date of the distribution, or in a case where full valuable consideration has not been given a sum not exceeding the amount by which that net value exceeds the value of the consideration at that date, together (if the Court thinks equitable) with interest on it from that date until the date of the order at such rate as the Court may specify;
- (d) In making any such order fix such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit and for the purpose of giving effect to any such order, make such further order as it thinks fit.

(2) The remedies given to any person by subsection (1) are in addition to all other rights and remedies (if any) available to that person, and nothing in that subsection shall restrict any such other rights and remedies.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), no application for an order under subsection (1) shall be heard by the Court –

- (a) [Repealed]
- (b) In the case of an application to which section 194 (b) (i) applies, unless that application is made within 1 year after the satisfaction by the administrator or trustee of any claim in respect of any right or remedy against him;
- (c) In any other case, unless the application for an order under subsection (1) is made within the time within which the applicant could have enforced his claim in respect of the estate without special leave of the Court if the assets had not been distributed:

Provided that, with the special leave of the Court, the application may be heard by the Court on an application made within the time within which the applicant could have enforced his claim in respect of the estate with special leave of the Court if the assets had not been distributed.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), in any case where an administrator or trustee has made a distribution of any assets forming part of the estate of any deceased person or subject to any trust, and any person who is entitled to apply for an order under subsection (1) has, within the time specified in subsection (3), made an application to the Court for an order on any claim to which section 35 of the Trustee Act 1956 applies, and that person was not aware of the distribution at the time when he made that application, that person or any other person on whose behalf that application is deemed to be made, may apply to the Court under subsection (1), and the application may be heard by the Court after the expiration of the period prescribed by subsection (3) if it is made within 6 months after the date on which that person first became aware of the distribution.

194 Freedom to exercise remedies

Notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary, in any case where an administrator or trustee has made a distribution of any assets forming part of the estate of any deceased person or subject to any trust –

- (a) Any person may exercise the remedies (if any) given to him by section 193 (1) and all other rights and remedies available to him (including all rights which he may have to follow assets and any money or property into which they have been converted) without first exercising the rights and remedies (if any) available to him against the administrator or the trustee in consequence of the making of the distribution;
- (b) If any person exercises any right or remedy available against the administrator or the trustee in consequence of the distribution of any such assets, the administrator or trustee may –
 - (i) apply to the Court for any order which may be made under section 193 (1);
 - (ii) in any proceedings against him in respect of the exercise of any such right or remedy, by leave of the Court and in accordance with the rules of court relating to such notices, issue a third party notice against any person against whom he may apply for an order under subparagraph (i).

195 Restriction on following assets

In any case where an administrator or trustee has made a distribution of any assets forming part of the estate of any deceased person or subject to any trust, relief (whether under section 193 (1) or in equity or otherwise) against any person other than the administrator or trustee or in respect of any interest of any such person in any assets so distributed and in any money or property into which they have been converted, may be denied wholly or in part, if –

- (a) The person from whom relief is sought received the assets or interest in good faith and has altered his position in the reasonably held belief that the distribution was properly made and would not be set aside; and
- (b) In the opinion of the Court it is inequitable to grant relief or to grant relief in full, as the case may be.

196 Liability of person fraudulently obtaining or retaining estate of deceased

If any person other than the administrator, to the defrauding of creditors or without full valuable consideration, obtains or receives or holds any part of the estate of a deceased person or effects the release of any debt or liability due to the estate of the deceased, he shall be charged as executor in his own wrong to the extent of the estate received or coming into his hands, or the debt or liability released, after deducting –

- (a) Any debt for valuable consideration and without fraud due to him from the deceased person at the time of his death which might properly be retained by an administrator; and
- (b) Any payment made by him which might properly be made by an administrator.

Powers and Procedure of Court

197 Direction to executor to prove or renounce

The Court shall have power to direct any person named as executor in a will to prove or renounce probate of the will, and (subject to this Part and any other enactment and the Rules) to do such other things as it thinks fit concerning the granting and revocation of administration, and the hearing and determination of proceedings relating to testamentary matters and matters relating to the estates of deceased persons.

198 Production of instruments purporting to be testamentary

The Court may, whether any suit or other proceeding is or is not pending with respect to any administration, order any person to produce any paper or writing, being or purporting to be testamentary, which may be shown to be in the possession or under the control of that person; and if it is not shown that any such paper or writing is in the possession or under the control of any person, but it appears that there are reasonable grounds for believing that he has knowledge of any such paper or writing, the Court may direct that person to attend for the purpose of being examined in open court, or upon interrogatories, respecting the same; and that person shall be bound to answer any such questions or interrogatories, and, if so ordered, to produce and bring in any such paper or writing, and shall be subject to the like process of contempt in case of default in not attending or in not answering any such questions or interrogatories, or not bringing in any such paper or writing, as he would have been subject to in case he had been a party to a suit in the Court and had made any such default; and the costs of any such suit or proceeding shall be in the discretion of the Court.

199 Continuance of legal proceedings

If, while any legal proceeding is pending in any court by or against an administrator to whom a temporary administration has been granted, that administration is revoked, the Court may order that the proceeding be continued by or against the new administrator in like manner as if the same had been originally commenced by or against him, but subject to such conditions and variations, if any, as that court directs.

200 Question of fact may be tried by a jury

(1) If any question of fact arises in any proceeding under this Part, the Court may cause the same to be tried by a jury before the Court itself, or before any Judge of the Court, and may settle an issue for that purpose.

(2) In every such case the subsequent proceedings in respect of that issue shall be the same as if it had been settled in an ordinary action.

201 Practice of Court in its administration jurisdiction

The practice of the Court in regard to administration shall, except where otherwise provided, be regulated, so far as the circumstances of the case will admit, by the practice of the Court.

202 Power to make rules

Cabinet may make rules of Court, including rules –

- (a) Prescribing the forms of administration;

- (b) Prescribing the practice in obtaining a grant of administration, and the procedure and practice of the Court and the duties of the Registrar;
- (c) Regulating the procedure and practice of the Court with respect to non-contentious or common form probate business;
- (d) Regulating the procedure and practice of the Court with respect to contentious probate business;
- (e) Regulating the practice and procedure of the Court in relation to the resealing of probates or letters of administration under Sub-Part 2, and in particular for the purpose of imposing upon persons applying under it for the resealing of probates or letters of administration, or relieving any such persons from, any requirements that may be imposed upon persons applying to the Court for original grants of probate or letters of administration;
- (f) Prescribing orders of priority among applicants for administration which shall apply unless the Court in special circumstances otherwise directs;
- (g) Generally for carrying the provisions of this Act into effect.

Caveats

203 Caveat may be lodged

(1) Any person may lodge with the Registrar a caveat against any application for administration at any time previous to the granting of administration, and every such caveat shall set forth the name of the person lodging it, and an address within Niue at which notices may be served on him.

(2) Every such caveat shall, unless application for administration is sooner made, lapse upon the expiration of one year from the date of the lodging of the caveat.

(3) (a) Any such caveat may be withdrawn by the caveator at any time by notice in writing lodged with the Registrar.

(b) A copy of every such notice shall be served on any person who has applied for administration or to whom an order nisi, under section 204 has been granted.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person who has lodged a caveat from lodging a subsequent caveat, whether or not any caveat previously lodged has lapsed or been withdrawn.

204 Where a caveat lodged, Court may grant order nisi

In every case where a caveat has been lodged and has neither lapsed nor been withdrawn, the following provisions shall apply –

- (a) The Court may, upon application on behalf of the person applying for administration, supported by affidavits upon which, if there had been no caveat, administration would have been granted, make an order nisi for the grant of administration to the person applying, and every such order shall name a time and place for showing cause against the same, and the Court may enlarge any such order;
- (b) Every such order nisi, and every order enlarging the same, shall be served on the caveator by delivering a copy of the same at the address mentioned in his caveat;
- (c) If before the day named in the order nisi or the day to which the order is enlarged the caveat is withdrawn, the order nisi may be made absolute at any time thereafter;
- (d) In any case to which paragraph (c) does not apply, if on the day named in the order nisi, or on the day to which the order is enlarged, the caveator does not appear, the order nisi may be made absolute, upon an affidavit of service; but if the caveator appears, the hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as nearly as may be as in an ordinary action, and the Court may order –

- (i) that the order nisi be made absolute or discharged; or
 - (ii) that the application for administration be made in solemn form, and any order made under subparagraph (i) or (ii) may be with or without costs as may be just, and, if the Court so directs, those costs may be paid out of the estate;
- (e) Upon the hearing of the order nisi the parties may, subject to the Rules, verify their cases in whole or in part by affidavit, but so that the deponent in every such affidavit shall, on the application of the opposite party, be subject to be cross-examined by or on behalf of the opposite party orally in open court, and after cross-examination may be re-examined orally in open court by or on behalf of the party by whom the affidavit was filed.

Miscellaneous Provisions

205 Administration granted to trustee companies

(1) No grant of probate of the will of any deceased person or letters of administration of the estate of a deceased person, either with or without a will annexed, shall be made to any company unless the company is expressly authorised by an Act to apply for and obtain the grant.

(2) A grant of probate or letters of administration to a syndic of a company shall be deemed to be a grant to that company; and where a power is granted to a company or to the directors of a company by will to nominate any person as executor of the will, a grant to a person so nominated shall be deemed to be a grant to the company.

(3) Nothing in this section shall –

- (a) Prevent the grant of probate of the will of any deceased person to any company or to a syndic of the company in any case where the company is appointed as executor of the will and the actual document providing for the appointment was made before 1 January 1963;
- (b) Prevent the grant of probate of the will of any deceased person to any person nominated as executor of the will by a company or the directors of a company pursuant to a power granted by any testamentary instrument, if the actual document granting the power was made before 1 January 1963;
- (c) Prevent the resealing in Niue of probate or letters of administration granted to a company in any other country;
- (d) Affect any grant of probate or letters of administration subsisting at 1 January 1971.

206 Other Acts providing for payment without administration

Nothing in this Part shall affect the powers of any person or body to make any payment to, or register any person to be, the owner of any property under any enactment authorising the payment of money belonging to the estate of a deceased person without requiring administration of the estate to be obtained.

207 Bondsmen and sureties deemed to be trustees

Every person who, in the capacity of bondsman or surety for another, receives money or other property belonging to the estate of any deceased person shall be deemed to be a trustee within the meaning of the Trustee Act 1956 in respect of that money or property, and may under that Act apply for relief and to be discharged from the custody of the money or property.

SUB-PART 2

ADMINISTRATION GRANTED OUT OF NIUE

208 Interpretation

(1) For the purposes of this Sub-Part “probate or letters of administration” includes an exemplification of any probate or letters of administration, or a duplicate of it sealed with the seal of the court granting the same, or a copy certified as correct by or under the authority of the court granting the same, and also includes an exemplification or a copy certified by or under the authority of any court, or a duplicate sealed under the seal of any court, of any instrument which is filed in or issued out of that court and which within the jurisdiction of that court operates to make any person the administrator of any property of a deceased person as if probate or letters of administration had been granted to him by that court.

(2) The filing in or the issuing out of any court of any instrument which operates to make any person an administrator in the manner described in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be equivalent to the granting of probate or letters of administration by that court to that person.

209 Estate of person dying abroad not to vest without administration

(1) Estate in Niue belonging to any person who dies abroad shall not vest in any person under any bequest or devise, or under an intestacy, or by inheritance, until administration of that estate is obtained in Niue; or, if probate or letters of administration of the estate have been granted in any place out of Niue, unless the probate or letters of administration are resealed in Niue as provided in this Sub-Part.

(2) Upon the estate in Niue becoming legally vested under this section, the legal estate shall vest as from the time of the death of the person from whom it is obtained.

210 Resealing of probate

(1) Where any probate or letters of administration granted in a competent court in any country are produced to and a copy deposited with the Registrar of the Court the probate or letters of administration may be sealed with the seal of the Court, and shall have the like force and effect and have the same operation in Niue, and every executor and administrator thereunder shall perform the same duties and be subject to the same liabilities, as if the probate or letters of administration had been originally granted by the Court.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Court from making an independent grant of administration in Niue.

211 Seal not to be affixed till fees are paid and administration bond effected

(1) The seal of the Court shall not be affixed to any probate or letters of administration granted in any Commonwealth country (other than Niue) or in the Republic of Ireland, or by a competent court in any other country, so as to give operation as if the grant had been made by the Court, until all such fees have been paid as would have been payable if the probate or letters of administration had been originally granted by the Court ; and, further, no such letters of administration shall be so sealed until such bond is entered into as would have been required if the letters had been originally granted by the Court:

(2) The Court may if it thinks fit dispense with the bond or reduce the amount of the penalty thereunder.

(3) Where letters of administration are at any time granted to any Public Trustee or other like public official of any Commonwealth country (other than Niue) or of the Republic of Ireland or of any other country to which section 210 is declared to apply, it shall not be necessary, upon the resealing in Niue of the letters of administration, for the Public Trustee or other official, as the case may be, to execute any such bond.

212 No probate granted out of Niue to be evidence unless resealed

Probate or letters of administration granted in any place out of Niue shall not be received in evidence of the title of any person to any estate in Niue until the probate or letters of administration are resealed in Niue as provided in this Sub-Part.

213 Effect of sections 209 and 212

Nothing in sections 209 and 212 shall restrict any other enactment relating to the payment or devolution of any estate without administration.

SUB-PART 3

DISTRIBUTION OF INTESTATE ESTATES

214 Succession on intestacy

Where any person dies intestate as to any real or personal estate, that estate shall be distributed in the manner or be held on the trusts mentioned in this section, namely –

- (a) If the intestate leaves a husband or wife, the surviving husband or wife shall take the personal chattels absolutely and, in addition, the residue of the estate shall stand charged with the payment of a sum of $12,000 to the surviving husband or wife with interest on it from the date of the death until paid or appropriated, at the rate from time to time prescribed by or under section 186, and, subject to providing for that sum and the interest on it, the residue of the estate shall be held –
 - (i) if the intestate leaves issue, in trust as to one-third for the surviving husband or wife absolutely, and as to the other two-thirds on the statutory trusts for the issue of the intestate;
 - (ii) if the intestate leaves no issue, in trust as to two-thirds for the surviving husband or wife absolutely, and as to the other one-third if the intestate leaves both parents, in trust for the father and mother in equal shares absolutely or, if the intestate leaves only one parent, in trust for the surviving father or mother absolutely;
 - (iii) if the intestate leaves no issue or parent, in trust for the surviving husband or wife absolutely;
- (b) If the intestate leaves issue but no husband or wife, the estate shall be held on the statutory trusts for the issue of the intestate;
- (c) If the intestate leaves no husband or wife or issue but a parent or parents, the estate shall be held in trust for the parents in equal shares if they both survive the intestate but if only one of them survives the intestate for that one;
- (d) If the intestate leaves no husband or wife or issue or parent, the estate shall be held in trust for the following persons living at the death of the intestate, and in the following order and manner, namely:

Firstly, on the statutory trusts for the brothers and sisters (whether of full or of half blood) of the intestate; but if no person takes an absolutely vested interest under such trusts; then

Secondly, in trust for the grandparents of the intestate and, if more than one survive the intestate, in equal shares; but if there is no member of this class; then

Thirdly, on the statutory trusts for the uncles and aunts of the intestate, being brothers and sisters (whether of full or of half blood) of a parent of the intestate;

- (e) In default of any person taking an absolute interest under the foregoing provisions, the estate shall belong to the Crown as bona vacantia, and in place of any right to escheat; and the Crown may (without prejudice to any other powers), out of the whole or any part of the property devolving on it, provide for dependants, whether kindred or not, of the intestate, and other persons for whom the intestate might reasonably have been expected to make provision.

215 Statutory trusts in favour of issue and other classes of relatives

(1) Where the estate of any intestate, or any part of it, is directed to be held on the statutory trusts for the issue of the intestate, the same shall be held upon the following trusts, namely –

- (a) In trust, in equal shares if more than one, for all or any the children or child of the intestate, living at the death of the intestate, who attain full age or marry under that age, and for all or any of the issue living at the death of the intestate who attain full age or marry under that age of any child of the intestate who predeceases the intestate, the said issue to take through all degrees, according to their stocks, in equal shares if more than one, the share which their parent would have taken if living at the death of the intestate, and so that no issue shall take whose parent takes an absolutely vested interest:

Provided that if any person capable of taking under this paragraph (including this proviso) dies before taking an absolutely vested interest leaving any child or children who shall be living at the expiration of 21 years from the death of the intestate or who shall sooner attain full age or marry under that age, that child or those children shall take, in equal shares if more than one, the share which his, her, or their parent would have taken if he or she had not so died;

- (b) The statutory power of advancement, and the statutory provisions which relate to maintenance, education, and benefit, and the accumulation of surplus income, shall apply, and when a person becomes entitled to a vested share or interest under the statutory trusts, that person shall be entitled on attaining the age of 18 years or sooner marrying to give a valid receipt for his share or interest;
- (c) The administrator may permit any minor who has a vested or contingent interest in any personal chattels to have the use and enjoyment of the chattels in such manner and subject to such conditions (if any) as the administrator may consider reasonable, and without being liable to account for any consequential loss.

(2) If the trusts in favour of the issue of the intestate fail by reason of no child or other issue attaining an absolutely vested interest –

- (a) The estate of the intestate and the income of it and all statutory accumulations, if any, of the income, or so much of it as may not have been paid or applied under any power affecting the same, shall go, devolve, and be held under this Part as if the intestate had died without leaving issue living at the death of the intestate;
- (b) References in this Part to the intestate “leaving no issue” shall, subject to this section, be construed as “leaving no issue who attain an absolutely vested interest”;

- (c) References in this Part to the intestate “leaving issue” or “leaving a child or other issue” shall, subject to this section, be construed as “leaving issue who attain an absolutely vested interest”.

(3) Where under this Part the estate of an intestate or any part of it is directed to be held on the statutory trusts for any class of the relatives of the intestate, other than issue of the intestate, the same shall be held on trusts corresponding to the statutory trusts for the issue of the intestate as if those trusts were repeated with the substitution of references to the members or member of that class for references to the children or child of the intestate.

216 Application to cases of partial intestacy

(1) Where any person dies leaving a will effectively disposing of part of his estate this Sub-Part, shall have effect in respect of the part of his estate not so disposed of, subject to the will and subsection (2).

(2) Where the deceased leaves a husband or wife who acquires a beneficial interest under the will of the deceased, the references in section 214 to a sum of $12,000 payable to a surviving husband or wife, and to interest on that sum, shall be taken as references to that sum diminished by the value of the beneficial interest at the date of death, and to interest on that sum as so diminished, and, accordingly, where the value exceeds that sum, section 214 shall have effect as if references to that sum and to interest were omitted.

(3) References in subsections (1) or (2) to a beneficial interest acquired under a will shall be construed –

- (a) As including a reference to a beneficial interest acquired by virtue of the exercise by the will of a general power of appointment, but not a special power of appointment;
- (b) As not including a reference to a beneficial interest in any personal chattels.

(4) For the purposes of this section the administrator may ascertain and fix the value of the beneficial interest under section 28 of the Trustee Act 1956, and no action shall lie against the administrator if he distributes the estate in accordance with the value that he has honestly and reasonably so fixed.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

217 Right of successor on intestacy to disclaim

(1) Subject to this section, where a successor has become entitled under this Part to an interest as a beneficiary in the whole or any part of the real and personal property which passes on the intestacy of any person –

- (a) The successor may, by deed delivered to the intestate person’s administrator, disclaim that interest if at the date of the disclaimer he has attained full age and is of sound mind;
- (b) The Court may, by order, disclaim the interest on behalf of the successor or authorise the disclaimer of the interest by or on behalf of the successor if at the date of the disclaimer the successor has not attained full age or is not of sound mind.

(2) No disclaimer under this section shall be valid unless –

- (a) The disclaimer is made by the successor in his lifetime; and
- (b) The disclaimer relates to the whole of the successor’s interest as a beneficiary in the real and personal property which passes on the intestacy of the person, including property which any other person has disclaimed under this section; and

- (c) The disclaimer is made within one year after the date of the first grant in Niue of administration in respect of the estate or will of the intestate person or within such extended period as may be allowed by the Court.
- (3) No disclaimer under this section shall be valid if –
 - (a) The successor has entered into enjoyment of the whole or any part of the interest to which he has become entitled as aforesaid; or
 - (b) The successor has transferred, assigned, mortgaged, settled, or otherwise disposed of that interest or of any part of it or of any property which would include that interest or any part of it if it were not disclaimed, or has covenanted or agreed to do any such thing; or
 - (c) There is any valuable consideration for the disclaimer; or
 - (d) The disclaimer provides for any assignment of the disclaimed interest or in any manner provides who is to be entitled to that interest; or
 - (e) The successor is bankrupt when the disclaimer is made.
- (4) Every disclaimer under this section shall be irrevocable.
- (5) Where a disclaimer which complies with all the requirements of this section has been made by or on behalf of any successor and the disclaimer is not void and does not become void by reason of its being deemed under section 218 to be a transfer of the disclaimed interest –
 - (a) The property which passes on the intestacy of the person shall be distributed, and estate duty in his estate shall be assessed, as if the successor had died immediately before the intestate person leaving only such issue (if any) as the successor would have left if he had died immediately before the intestate person;
 - (b) The successor shall be deemed for all purposes neither to have become entitled to nor to have disposed of the disclaimed interest or any part of it.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall affect any right which any successor may have to disclaim any property apart from this section.
- (7) Every disclaimer under this section shall be deemed to be made at the first point of time when everything has been done in respect of the disclaimer which is necessary to comply with the requirements of this section and of any order of the Court which relates to the disclaimer and is made under this section.

218 Effect of bankruptcy on disclaimer

- (1) Where a successor disclaims the interest as a beneficiary to which he is entitled in any real or personal property which passes on the intestacy of any person, or disclaims any interest as a beneficiary in any real or personal property to which he is entitled under the will of a deceased person, then, for the purposes of any rule of law relating to the protection of creditors –
 - (a) The successor shall be deemed to have accepted the disclaimed interest; and
 - (b) The disclaimer shall be deemed to be a transfer of the disclaimed interest by the successor to the person or persons who become entitled to it in consequence of the disclaimer.
- (2) Where any such successor has disclaimed any such interest in any property and there is no possibility of the disclaimer being void or voidable otherwise than by reason of its being deemed to be a transfer of the disclaimed interest, the deceased person's administrator may distribute the disclaimed interest or any part of it as if there were no possibility of the disclaimer being or becoming void or voidable by reason of its being deemed to be a transfer of the disclaimed interest if, at the date of the distribution –

Family Law Code

- (a) The successor is not bankrupt; and
- (b) The administrator has no reason to believe that the successor is about to become bankrupt; and
- (c) The administrator has no reason to believe that the disclaimer is void or voidable or is about to become void or voidable by reason of its being deemed to be a transfer of the disclaimed interest.

(3) No action shall lie against any such administrator by reason of his distributing any disclaimed interest as aforesaid or by reason of his having failed to make any inquiry as to whether the successor was about to become bankrupt or as to whether the disclaimer was void or voidable or about to become void or voidable by reason of its being deemed to be a transfer of the disclaimed interest; but nothing in this subsection or in subsection (2) shall affect any right which any person may have to follow and recover any property to which the disclaimer relates.

(2) Section 75(2) and (3) shall be deemed to be also applicable to this section.

(4) Where an original company as hereinbefore defined was, when it ceased to carry on business in Niue liable under this Act for any income tax or was liable to be assessed for any such tax, and such tax has not been paid, the new company shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the agent of the original company and shall be liable for all tax payable by the original company. It shall also be liable for all tax for which the original company would have been liable if it had continued to carry on business in Niue.

75 Defining when a company is under the control of any persons

(4) In this section –

“nominee”, in relation to any person, means any other person who may be required to exercise his voting power in relation to any company in accordance with the direction of that person, or who holds shares or debentures directly or indirectly on behalf of that person; and includes the husband or wife of that person and any relatives of that person by blood, marriage, or adoption;
“person” includes a company and a local or public authority.

(1) Where in any debenture issued by a company the rate of interest payable is not specifically determined, but is determinable from time to time by reference to the dividend payable by the company or otherwise howsoever, the interest paid on the debenture shall be considered part of the assessable income of the company and not of the debenture holder.

(2) Section 100 shall not apply with respect to any such debenture or to the interest paid or payable thereunder.

77 Interest on debentures issued in substitution for shares

(1) For the purposes of this section –

(3) The provisions of section 76 and of any other enactment shall apply with respect to all debentures to which subsection (2) applies and to the interest payable thereunder, in the same manner as if those debentures and that interest were debentures and interest of the kinds referred to in section 76.

78 Payment of excessive remuneration or share of profits to relatives in certain cases

(1) Where –

- (a) Any taxpayer carries on any business or undertaking and employs or engages any relatives of a director or shareholder of the company to perform services in connection with that business or undertaking; or

and the Financial Secretary is of the opinion that the remuneration, salary, share of profits or other income payable to or for the benefit of that relative or company under the contract of employment or engagement or the terms of the partnership exceeds such an amount as is reasonable having regard to the nature and extent of the services rendered, the value of the contributions made by the respective partners by way of services or capital or otherwise, and any other relevant matters, the Financial Secretary may for the purposes of this Act allocate the total profits or income of the business or undertaking before deduction of any amount payable to that relative or company between the parties to the contract or the partners or any of them in such shares and proportions as he considers reasonable and the amounts so allocated shall be deemed to be income derived by the person to whom those amounts are so allocated and by no other person.

(2) Where any sum paid or credited by a company, being or purporting to be remuneration for services rendered by any person who is a relative of a director or shareholder of the company, is allocated to that company under subsection (1), the amount so allocated to the company shall be deemed to be a dividend paid by the company to that person and received by him as a shareholder of the company.

(3) For the purposes of this section “relative” means a husband or wife, or a relative by blood within the fourth degree of relationship (whether legitimate or illegitimate), or a relative by marriage or adoption, and includes a trustee for a relative.

(4) Notwithstanding section 35(1) it shall be grounds for objection under Part 4 to an assessment of income tax that any determination of the Financial Secretary made for the purposes of this section is erroneous and the Court hearing the objection, shall have power to review the determination of the Financial Secretary, and shall for that purpose have all the powers and functions of the Financial Secretary in making that determination, and the decision of the Court shall except for the purposes of objection thereto take effect as if it were the determination of the Financial Secretary; but nothing in this subsection shall restrict the right of the Financial Secretary or the objector to appeal against the decision of the Court under Part 4.

(5) [Spent]

- (d) Each party to the contract has a real and effective control of the remuneration, salary, share of profits, or other income to which he is entitled under the contract;
- (e) The remuneration, salary, share of profits, or other income payable to a relative, or to a company, a director or shareholder of which is a relative, is not of such an amount that the transaction would constitute in whole or in part a gift for gift duties purposes if the Estate and Gift Duties Act 1968 (NZ) were in force in Niue.

79 Excessive remuneration by company to shareholder or director

Where any sum paid or credited by a company, being or purporting to be remuneration for services rendered by any person who is a shareholder or director of the company, exceeds such amount as in the opinion of the Financial Secretary is reasonable, the amount of the excess shall not be an allowable deduction in computing the assessable income of the company, and shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a dividend paid by the company to that person and received by him as a shareholder of the company.

84 Relief from double taxation

Income derived by a Trustee

86 Special provisions with respect to trustees

With respect to income derived by a trustee the following provisions shall apply –

- (a) If and so far as the income of the trustee is also income derived by a beneficiary entitled in possession to the receipt of it under the trust, the trustee shall in respect of it be deemed to be the agent of that beneficiary, and shall be assessable and liable for income tax thereon accordingly, and all the provisions of this Act as to agents shall, so far as applicable, apply accordingly. Where any income is derived by a beneficiary as aforesaid subject to a condition, obligation, or trust requiring him to maintain or support any other person (whether out of the income so derived or otherwise) and that beneficiary would, apart from that condition, obligation or trust, be entitled to a special exemption in respect of the maintenance and support provided by him for that other person, that beneficiary shall be assessed for income tax and shall be entitled to the same special exemptions as if he were beneficially entitled to the income free from any such condition, obligation, or trust;
- (b) If and so far as the income of the trustee is not also income derived by any beneficiary as aforesaid, the trustee shall be assessable and liable for income tax on that income in the same manner as if he was beneficially entitled to it, save that the rate of tax shall be computed by reference to that income alone, and that the trustee shall not be entitled to any deduction by way of special exemption, and that no tax shall be payable if the assessable income does not exceed $100, and that the amount of tax payable in any case shall, where necessary, be reduced so as not to exceed the amount by which the assessable income exceeds $100:

Provided that in any case where a trustee is required or is empowered at his discretion to pay or apply income derived by him to or for the benefit of specified beneficiaries or to or for the benefit of some one or more of a number of specified beneficiaries, or of a specified class of beneficiaries, a beneficiary in whose favour the trustee so pays or applies income shall be deemed to be entitled in possession to the receipt of the amount paid to him or applied for his benefit by the trustee under the trust:

Provided also that where the income of the trustee is also income derived by any beneficiary who is an infant but whose interest in that income is vested, the beneficiary shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be entitled in possession to the receipt of that income under the trust;

- (c) The trustee shall in every case make a return of the whole incomes so derived by him as trustee, and each such return shall be separate and distinct from any return of income derived by him under any other trust or in his own right;
- (d) Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to exempt a beneficiary from any income tax which would be payable by him had he derived the income to which he is entitled under the trust directly instead of through a trustee;
- (e) Where any company or corporation is a trustee any income assessable to the trustee under paragraph (b) shall be assessable at the rate applicable to a trustee other than a company or a corporation.

87 Income received by trustee after death of deceased person

It is hereby declared that any amount received in any income year by the trustee of the estate of a deceased person shall be deemed to be assessable or (as the case may require) non-assessable income derived by the trustee in that year if it does not represent assessable or non-assessable income derived by the deceased person during his lifetime but would have been included in his assessable or non-assessable income if he had been alive when it was received.

88 Deduction from estate income of irrecoverable book debts of deceased taxpayer

Where the amount of any debt owing to a deceased taxpayer at the date of his death has been included in the assessable income of the taxpayer or of the trustee of his estate for any income year, and the debt or any part of it is proved to the satisfaction of the Financial Secretary to be irrevocable and to have been actually written off by the trustee as a bad debt, the amount so written off shall be deemed to be a loss incurred by the trustee in the income year in which the amount was written off, and shall be allowable as a deduction first against any income derived by the trustee in that income year which is assessable to the trustee as income not derived by a beneficiary entitled in possession to the receipt of it under the trust during that year, and then, as to any balance, against any income derived in that year by or in trust for a beneficiary who has a vested interest in the capital of the estate to the extent that the loss is chargeable against the capital of that beneficiary; and any balance not allowed as a deduction in that year shall, so far as it extends, be allowable as a deduction in the same manner successively during the six succeeding years.

PART 6

To make provision for the incorporation of societies which are not established for the purpose of pecuniary gain

- 1 Short title

This is the Incorporated Societies Act 1908.
- 2 [Repealed]
- 3 Interpretation

In this Act –
“prescribed” means prescribed by this Act or by regulations; “Registrar” means the Registrar of Incorporated Societies;
“society” means a society incorporated under this Act.
- 4 Incorporated societies
 - (1) Any society consisting of not less than 15 persons associated for any lawful purpose but not for pecuniary gain may, on application being made to the Registrar under this Act, become incorporated as a society under this Act.
 - (2) No such application shall be made except with the consent of a majority of the members of the society.

5 Pecuniary gain

Persons shall not be deemed to be associated for pecuniary gain merely by reason of any of the following circumstances, namely –

- (a) That the society itself makes a pecuniary gain, unless that gain or some part of it is divided among or received by the members or some of them;
- (b) That the members of the society are entitled to divide between them the property of the society on its dissolution;
- (c) That the society is established for the protection or regulation of some trade, business, industry, or calling in which the members are engaged or interested, if the society itself does not engage or take part in any such trade, business, industry, or calling, or any part of branch thereof;
- (d) That any member of the society derives pecuniary gain from the society by way of salary as the servant or officer of the society;
- (e) That any member of the society derives from the society any pecuniary gain to which he would be equally entitled if he were not a member of the society;
- (f) That the members of the society compete with each other for trophies or prizes other than money prizes.

6 Rules of incorporated societies

(1) The rules of a society shall state or provide for the following matters –

- (a) The name of the society, with the addition of the word “Incorporated” as the last word in that name;
- (b) The objects for which the society is established;
- (c) The modes in which persons become members of the society;
- (d) The modes in which persons cease to be members of the society;
- (e) The mode in which the rules of the society may be altered, added to, or rescinded;

- (l) Such other matters as the Registrar may require to be provided for in any particular instance.

(2) The rules of the society may contain any other provisions which are not inconsistent with this Act or with law.

(3) The rules of the society and any amendment of those rules shall be printed or typewritten.

7 Application for incorporation

Every application for the incorporation of a society shall be made to the Registrar in manner following –

- (a) Two copies of the rules of the society having written an application for incorporation in the form in Schedule 1 or to the like effect shall be signed by not less than 15 persons being members of the society, and each subscriber to the application shall add to his signature his description and address, and his signature shall be attested by a witness who is not a subscriber. When any body corporate is a subscriber its seal shall be affixed to the said application;

- (b) The 2 copies of the said rules so signed shall be delivered to the Registrar, together with the prescribed fee and together with a statutory declaration made by an officer of the society or by a solicitor to the effect that a majority of the members of the society have consented to the application, and that the rules so signed or sealed are the rules of the society.

8 Registrar to register society if in order

The Registrar, on being satisfied that the requirements of this Act have been observed, shall thereupon do the following things –

- (a) Enter the name of the said society in the register kept by him under this Act, together with such other particulars with respect to the society as he thinks fit;
- (b) Issue under his seal a certificate that the society is incorporated under this Act;
- (c) Register the rules of the society by sealing with his seal the said copies of it;
- (d) Return one of those copies to the subscribers and retain the other copy.

9 Certificate of incorporation

Every certificate of incorporation issued under the seal of the Registrar shall be conclusive evidence that all statutory requirements in respect of registration and of matters precedent and incidental to it have been complied with, and that the society is authorised to be registered and has been duly registered and incorporated under this Act.

10 Members to be a body corporate

Upon the issue of the certificate of incorporation the subscribers to the rules of the society, together with all other persons who are then members of the society or who afterwards become members of the society under the rules thereof, shall, as from the date of incorporation mentioned in the certificate, be a body corporate by the name contained in the said rules, having perpetual succession and a common seal, and capable forthwith, subject to this Act and to the said rules, of exercising all the functions of a body corporate and of holding land.

11 Name of society

No society shall be registered under a name which is identical with that of any other society registered under this Act, or of a company carrying on business in Niue (whether registered in Niue or not), or of any other body corporate established or registered in Niue under any Act, or so nearly resembles that name as to be calculated to deceive, except where that other society or company or body corporate, as the case may be, signifies its consent in such manner as the Registrar requires, and the Registrar is satisfied that registration of the society by the proposed name will not be contrary to the public interest.

11A Change of name

(1) If, through inadvertence or otherwise, a society at its first registration, or on its registration by a new name, is registered by a name which is in contravention of section 11, or of any enactment other than this Act, relating to restrictions on the use of any name, the society shall, within a period of 6 weeks from the date of its being required by the Registrar to do so, or such longer period as he may allow change its name under section 21 to a name that is not in contravention as aforesaid.

(2) If a society makes default in complying subsection (1) it commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 0.5 penalty units for every day on which the offence has continued.

(3) No fee shall be payable to the Registrar in respect of an alteration of the rules of a society if the alteration only changes the society's name under the requirements of subsection (1).

12 Appeal from Registrar to High Court

An appeal shall lie to the High Court from any refusal of the Registrar to register a society or any enactment of the rules of a society, and the decision of the Court on any such appeal shall be final.

13 No liability on members for obligation of society

Except when otherwise expressly provided in this Act, membership of a society shall not of itself impose on the members any liability in respect of any contract, debt, or other obligation made or incurred by the society.

14 Members to have no right to property of society

Except when otherwise expressly provided by this Act or by the rules of a society, membership of a society shall not be deemed to confer upon the members any right, title, or interest, either legal or equitable, in the property of the society.

15 Contracts by society

(1) Any contract which, if made between private persons, must be by deed shall, when made by a society, be in writing under the common seal of the society.

(2) Any contract which, if made between private persons, must be in writing signed by the parties to be charged with it may, when made by a society, be in writing signed by any person acting on behalf of and under the express or implied authority of the society.

(3) Any contract which, if made between private persons, might be made without writing may, when made by a society, be made without writing by any person acting on behalf of and under the express or implied authority of the society.

16 Service on society

Any summons, notice, order, or other document required to be served upon a society may be served by leaving the same at the society's registered office, or by sending it through the post in a registered letter addressed to the society at that office.

17 Security for costs where society is plaintiff

Where a society is the plaintiff in any action or other legal proceeding, and there appears by any credible testimony to be reason to believe that if the defendant is successful in his defence the assets of the society will be insufficient to pay his costs, any Court or Judge having jurisdiction in the matter may require sufficient security to be given for those costs, and may stay all proceedings until that security is given.

18 Registered office

(1) Every society shall have a registered office to which all communications may be addressed.

(2) Notice of the situation of that office, and of any change shall be given to the Registrar and recorded by him.

(3) Until that notice is given, the society shall be deemed not to have complied with this section as to having a registered office.

(4) If any society carries on its operations without having a registered office, every officer of the society and every member of the committee or other governing body of the society shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 0.5 penalty units for every day during which those operations are carried on.

19 Restriction of operations of society

(1) If any society carries on or proposes to carry on any operation which is beyond the scope of the objects of the society as defined in its rules, the Registrar may give notice in writing to the society not to carry on that operation.

(2) If after the receipt of that notice the society fails or refuses to conform, every officer of the society and every member of the committee or other governing body of the society shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 0.5 penalty units for every day during which that failure or refusal continues, unless he proves that the failure or refusal has taken place without his authority or consent.

20 Society not to engage in operations involving pecuniary gain

(1) No society shall do any act of such a nature that if the doing thereof were one of the objects for which the society was established the members of the society would be deemed to be associated for pecuniary gain within the meaning of sections 4 and 5.

(2) Every society which does any such act shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 2 penalty units.

(3) Every member who aids, abets, procures, assists, or takes part in the doing of any such act by a society shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 0.5 penalty units, and all such members shall be jointly and severally liable to any creditor of the society for all debts and obligations incurred by the society in or in consequence of the doing of that act.

(4) Every member who derives any pecuniary gain from any act done by the society in breach of this section shall be deemed to have received the same to the use of the society, and the same may be recovered by the society accordingly.

21 Alteration of rules

(1) A society may alter its rules in the manner provided by the said rules, but subject to this Act.

(2) Every such alteration shall be in writing, signed or sealed in duplicate by at least 3 members of the society, and the documents so signed or sealed shall be delivered to the Registrar, accompanied by a statutory declaration made by a solicitor or at least one member to the effect that the said alteration has been made in accordance with the rules of the society.

(3) The Registrar, if satisfied that the alteration has been duly made, and that the rules as so altered conform in all respects to this Act, shall register the alteration in like manner as in the case of the original rules, and the said alteration shall take effect according to its tenor. Such registration shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent to the making of the alteration, or to the registration, have been duly fulfilled.

(3A) Notwithstanding subsection (3) the Court, on an application made to it by any member of the society, if it is satisfied that any such condition as aforesaid has not been duly fulfilled, declare the alteration to be void in whole or in part, and order that the registration be cancelled in whole or in part, and may by the order give such directions and make such provisions as seem just in the circumstances of the case. On the delivery to the Registrar of a sealed copy of the Court's order he shall forthwith amend the register accordingly.

(4) No alteration in the objects of a society shall be registered unless the Registrar is satisfied either that the alteration is not of such a nature as to prejudicially affect any existing creditor of the society, or that all creditors who may be so affected consent to the alteration.

(5) In the case of any alteration of the name of a society the Registrar may refuse to register the alteration until the making of it has been publicly advertised in such manner as the Registrar thinks fit.

22 Register of members

(1) Every society shall keep a register of its members.

(2) The register shall contain the names, addresses, and occupations of those members and the dates at which they became members.

(3) Every society shall when required by the Registrar so to do, send to him a list of the names, addresses, and occupations of its members, accompanied by a statutory declaration verifying that list and made by some officer of the society.

23 Annual financial statement

(c) All mortgages, charges, and securities of any description affecting any of the property of the society at the close of the said year.

(2) The said statement shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by some officer of the society to the effect that the statement has been submitted to and approved by the members of the society at a general meeting.

(3) If any default is made by a society in the observance of this section, every officer of the society shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 0.5 penalty units for every day during which the default continues.

24 Voluntary winding up of society

(1) A society may be wound up voluntarily if the society, at a general meeting of its members, passes a resolution requiring the society so to be wound up, and the resolution is confirmed at a subsequent general meeting called together for that purpose and held not earlier than 30 days after the date on which the resolution so to be confirmed was passed.

(2) In subsection (1) "resolution" means a resolution carried by a majority of the valid votes cast by members voting at a general meeting in person or, if so allowed by the society's rules, by proxy; and for the purposes of that subsection the resolution shall be taken to be confirmed at the subsequent general meeting if the confirmation is carried by such a majority.

27 Division of surplus assets on winding up

(1) On the winding up of a society or on its dissolution by the Registrar, all surplus assets after the payment of all costs, debts, and liabilities shall, subject to any trust affecting the same, be disposed of in manner provided by the rules of the society or if such assets cannot be disposed of under the rules, then as the Registrar directs.

(2) If the said surplus assets are subject to any trust, they shall be disposed of as the Court or a Judge directs in the case of a winding up by the Court, or as the Registrar directs in the case of a voluntary winding up or in the case of a dissolution by the Registrar, but an appeal shall lie from any such decision of the Registrar to the Court at the suit of any person interested.

(3) The decision of the Registrar under this section shall be final, unless notice of appeal is delivered to the Registrar within one month after the decision has been given.

28 Dissolution by Registrar

(1) If at any time the Registrar is satisfied that a society is no longer carrying on its operations or has been registered by reason of a mistake of fact or law he may make under his seal a declaration that the society is dissolved as from the date of the declaration, and shall thereupon publish the declaration in the Gazette, and make in the register an entry of the dissolution of the society.

(2) On the making of that entry the society shall be dissolved as from the date of the declaration.

(3) At any time after that the Registrar, on being satisfied that the declaration was made in error and ought to be revoked, may revoke the same by a declaration published in the Gazette, and shall thereupon make an entry of that revocation in the register and the society shall be revived from the date of the dissolution as if no such dissolution had taken place.

29 Corporate body may become member of society

Any corporate body, whether incorporated under this Act or in any other manner, may be a member of a society incorporated under this Act, unless the purposes for which the society is established are ultra vires of the said corporate body.

30 Pecuniary gain received by member

“action” includes counterclaim and set-off;

“freight” includes the profit derivable by a shipowner from the employment of his ship to carry his own goods or movables, as well as freight payable by a third party, but does not include passage money;

“movables” means any movable tangible property other than the ship, and includes money, valuable securities, and other documents;

Marine Insurance

3 Marine insurance defined, mixed sea and land risks

(1) A contract of marine insurance is a contract whereby the insurer undertakes to indemnify the assured, in manner and to the extent thereby agreed, against marine losses – that is to say, the losses incident to marine adventure.

(2) A contract of marine insurance may, by its express terms or by usage of trade, be extended so as to protect the assured against losses on inland waters or on any land risk which may be incidental to any sea voyage.

(3) Where a ship in course of building, or the launch of a ship, or any adventure analogous to a marine adventure, is covered by a policy in the form of a marine policy, the provisions of this Act, in so far as applicable, shall apply to it; but, except as provided by this section, nothing in this Act shall alter or affect any rule of law applicable to any contract of insurance other than a contract of marine insurance as defined by this Act.

4 Marine adventure and maritime perils defined

(1) Subject to this Act, every lawful marine adventure may be the subject of a contract of marine insurance.

(2) In particular there is a marine adventure where –

(a) Any ship, goods, or other movables (“insurable property”) are exposed to maritime perils;

- (b) The earning or acquisition of any freight, passage money, commission, profit, or other pecuniary benefit, or the security for any advances, loan, or disbursements, is endangered by the exposure of insurable property to the marine perils;
- (c) Any liability to a third party may be incurred by the owner of, or other person interested in or responsible for, insurable property by reason of maritime perils.
 - (3) “Maritime perils” means the perils consequent on or incidental to the navigation of the sea – perils of the seas, fire, war perils, pirates, rovers, thieves, captures, seizures, restraints, and detentions of princes and peoples, jettisons, barratry, and any other perils, either of the like kind or designated by the policy.

Insurable Interests

5 Avoidance of wagering or gaming contracts

- (1) Every contract of marine insurance by way of gaming or wagering is void.
- (2) A contract of marine insurance is deemed to be a gaming or wagering contract –
 - (a) Where the assured has not an insurable interest, and the contract is entered into with no expectation of acquiring such an interest; or
 - (b) Where the policy is made “interest or no interest”, or “without further proof of interest than the policy itself”, or “without benefit of salvage to the insurer”, or subject to any other like term.
- (3) Where there is no possibility of salvage a policy may be effected without benefit of salvage to the insurer.

6 Insurable interest defined

- (1) Subject to this Act, every person has an insurable interest who is interested in a marine adventure.
- (2) In particular a person is interested in a marine adventure where he stands in any legal or equitable relation to the adventure, or to any insurable property at risk therein, in consequence of which he may benefit by the safety of or due arrival of insurable property, or may be prejudiced by its loss, or by damage to it, or by the detention of it, or may incur liability in respect of it.

7 When interest must attach

- (1) (a) The assured must be interested in the subject-matter insured at the time of the loss, though he need not be interested when the insurance is effected.
- (b) Where the subject-matter is insured “lost or not lost”, the assured may recover although he may not have acquired his interest until after the loss, unless at the time of effecting the contract of insurance the assured was aware of the loss and the insurer was not.
- (2) Where the assured has no interest at the time of the loss, he cannot acquire interest by any act or election after he is aware of the loss.

8 Defeasible or contingent interest

- (1) A defeasible interest is insurable, as also is a contingent interest.
- (2) In particular, where the buyer of goods has insured them he has an insurable interest, notwithstanding that he might at his election have rejected the goods, or have treated them as at the seller’s risk, by reason of the latter’s delay in making delivery or otherwise.

9 Partial interest

A partial interest of any nature is insurable.

10 Reinsurance

(1) The insurer under a contract of marine insurance has an insurable interest in his risk, and may reinsure in respect of it.

(2) Unless the policy otherwise provides, the original assured has no right or interest in respect of such reinsurance.

11 Bottomry

The lender of money on bottomry or respondentia has an insurable interest in respect of the loan.

12 Master's and seamen's wages

The master or any member of the crew of a ship has an insurable interest in respect of his wages.

13 Advance freight

In the case of advance freight, the person advancing the freight has an insurable interest in so far as such freight is not repayable in case of loss.

14 Charges of insurance

The assured has an insurable interest in the charges of any insurance which he may effect.

15 Quantum of interest

(1) Where the subject-matter insured is mortgaged, the mortgagor has an insurable interest in the full value of it, and the mortgagee has an insurable interest in respect of any sum due or to become due under the mortgage.

(2) A mortgagee, consignee, or other person having an interest in the subject-matter insured may insure on behalf and for the benefit of other persons interested as well as for his own benefit.

(3) The owner of insurable property has an insurable interest in respect of the full value of it, notwithstanding that some third person may have agreed, or be liable, to indemnify him in case of loss.

16 Assignment of interest

(1) Where the assured assigns or otherwise parts with his interest in the subject-matter insured, he does not thereby transfer to the assignee his rights under the contract of insurance, unless there is an express or implied agreement with the assignee to that effect.

(2) The provisions of this section do not affect a transmission of interest by operation of law.

Insurable Value

17 Measure of insurable value

Subject to any express provision or valuation in the policy, the insurable value of the subject-matter insured must be ascertained as follows:

- (a) In insurance on ship the insurable value is the value, at the commencement of the risk, of the ship, including her outfit, provisions and stores for the officers and crew, money advanced for seamen's wages, and other disbursements (if any) incurred to make the ship fit for the voyage or adventure contemplated by the policy, plus the charges of insurance upon the whole; and, in the case of a steamship, includes also the machinery, boilers, and coals and engine stores if owned by the assured; and in the case of a ship engaged in a special trade, the ordinary fittings requisite for that trade;

- (b) In insurance on freight, whether paid in advance or otherwise, the insurable value is the gross amount of the freight at the risk of the assured, plus the charges of insurance;
- (c) In insurance on goods or merchandise the insurable value is the prime cost of the property insured, plus the expenses of and incidental to shipping and the charges of insurance upon the whole;
- (d) In insurance on any other subject-matter the insurable value is the amount at the risk of the assured when the policy attaches, plus the charges of insurance.

Disclosure and Representations

18 Disclosure by assured

(1) Subject to this section, the assured must disclose to the insurer, before the contract is concluded, every material circumstance known to the assured, and the assured is deemed to know every circumstance which, in the ordinary course of business, ought to be known by him. If the assured fails to make such a disclosure, the insurer may avoid the contract.

(2) Every circumstance is material which would influence the judgment of a prudent insurer in fixing the premium or determining whether he will take the risk.

(3) In the absence of inquiry the following circumstances need not be disclosed, namely:

- (a) Any circumstance which diminishes the risk;
- (b) Any circumstance known or presumed to be known to the insurer. The insurer is presumed to know matters of common notoriety or knowledge, and matters which an insurer in the ordinary course of his business, as such, ought to know;
- (c) Any circumstance as to which information is waived by the insurer;
- (d) Any circumstance which is superfluous to disclose by reason of any express or implied warranty.

(4) Whether any particular circumstance which is not disclosed is material or not is in each case a question of fact.

(5) The term "circumstance" includes any communication made to or information received by the assured.

19 Disclosure by agent effecting insurance

Subject to section 18 as to circumstances which need not be disclosed, where an insurance is effected for the assured by an agent, the agent must disclose to the insurer –

- (a) Every material circumstance known to himself; and an agent to insure is deemed to know every circumstance which in the ordinary course of business ought to be known by him or to have been communicated to him; and
- (b) Every material circumstance which the assured is bound to disclose, unless it comes to his knowledge too late to communicate it to an agent.

20 Representations pending negotiation of contract

(1) Every material representation made by the assured or his agent to the insurer during the negotiations for the contract, and before the contract is concluded, must be true. If it is untrue, the insurer may avoid the contract.

(2) A representation is material which would influence the judgment of a prudent insurer in fixing the premium or determining whether he will take the risk.

(3) A representation may be either a representation as to a matter of fact or as to a matter of expectation or belief.

(4) A representation as to a matter of fact is true if it is substantially correct ie if the difference between what is represented and what is actually correct would not be considered material by a prudent insurer.

(5) A representation as to a matter of expectation or belief is true if it is made in good faith.

(6) A representation may be withdrawn or corrected before the contract is concluded.

(7) Whether a particular representation is material or not is in each case a question of fact.

21 When contract is deemed to be concluded

A contract of marine insurance is deemed to be concluded when the proposal of the assured is accepted by the insurer, whether the policy is then issued or not; and for the purpose of showing when the proposal was accepted reference may be made to the slip or covering note, or other customary memorandum of the contract, although it is unstamped.

The Policy

22 Contract must be embodied in policy

(1) No action shall be brought on a contract of marine insurance unless it is embodied in a marine policy under this Act.

(2) The policy may be executed and issued either at the time when the contract is concluded or afterwards.

23 What policy must specify

A marine policy must specify –

- (a) The name of the assured or of some person who effects the insurance on his behalf;
- (b) The subject-matter insured and the risk insured against;
- (c) The voyage or period of time, or both, as the case may be, covered by the insurance;
- (d) The sum or sums insured;
- (e) The name or names of the insurers.

24 Signature of insurer

(1) (a) A marine policy must be signed by or on behalf of the insurer.

(b) In the case of a corporation the corporate seal may be sufficient, but nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the subscription of a corporation to be under seal.

(2) Where a policy is subscribed by or on behalf of two or more insurers, each subscription, unless the contrary is expressed, constitutes a distinct contract with the assured.

25 Designation of subject-matter

(1) The subject-matter insured must be designated in a marine policy with reasonable certainty.

(2) The nature and extent of the interest of the assured in the subject-matter insured need not be specified in the policy.

(3) Where the policy designates the subject-matter insured in general terms, it shall be construed to apply to the interest intended by the assured to be covered.

(4) In the application of this section regard shall be had to any usage regulating the designation of the subject-matter insured.

26 Failure to execute and stamp policy

(1) If any person, whether as an insurer or as the agent of an insurer, directly or indirectly receives or takes credit in account for any premium or consideration for any contract of marine insurance, and does not before or within 30 days after receiving or taking credit for such premium or consideration duly execute or procure to be duly executed, a policy of such insurance, he shall be liable to a fine of 2 penalty units.

(2) If any person, whether as an insurer or as the agent of an insurer, pays any sum of money upon any loss under a contract of marine insurance which is not expressed in a duly executed policy, or if he in any way settles any claim made in respect of such a contract, he shall be liable to a fine of 2 penalty units.

(3) This section does not apply to contracts of reinsurance of risks in respect whereof policies have been duly executed.

(4) This section applies to that agent of an insurer, whether such insurer resides or carries on business in Niue or elsewhere.

27 Voyage and time policies

(1) (a) Where the contract is to insure the subject-matter at and from or from one place to another or others, the policy is called a “voyage policy” and where the contract is to insure the subject-matter for a definite period of time, the policy is called a “time policy”.

(b) A contract for both voyage and time may be included in the same policy.

(2) A time policy which is made for any time exceeding 12 months is invalid; but a time policy may contain an agreement to the effect that, in the event of the ship being at sea or the voyage otherwise not completed on the expiration of 12 months, the subject-matter of the insurance shall be held covered until the arrival of the ship at her destination, or for a reasonable time after it not exceeding 30 days.

28 Valued policy

(1) A policy may be either valued or unvalued.

(2) A valued policy is a policy which specifies the agreed value of the subject-matter insured.

(3) Subject to this Act, and in the absence of fraud, the value fixed by the policy is, as between the insurer and assured, conclusive of the insurable value of the subject intended to be insured, whether the loss is total or partial.

(4) Unless the policy otherwise provides, the value fixed by the policy is not conclusive for the purpose of determining whether there has been a constructive total loss.

29 Unvalued policy

An unvalued policy is a policy which does not specify the value of the subject-matter insured, but, subject to the limit of the sum insured, leaves the insurable value to be subsequently ascertained in the manner hereinbefore specified.

30 Floating policy by ship or ships

(1) A floating policy is a policy which describes the insurance in general terms, and leaves the name of the ship or ships and other particulars to be defined by subsequent declaration.

(2) The subsequent declaration or declarations may be made by endorsement on the policy or in other customary manner.

(3) Unless the policy otherwise provides, the declarations must be made in the order of despatch or shipment. They must, in the case of goods, comprise all consignments within the terms of the policy, and the value of the goods or other property must be honestly stated, but an omission or erroneous declaration may be rectified even after loss or arrival, provided the omission or declaration was made in good faith.

(4) Unless the policy otherwise provides, where a declaration of value is not made until after notice of loss or arrival, the policy must be treated as an unvalued policy as regards the subject-matter of that declaration.

31 Premium to be arranged

(1) Where an insurance is effected at a premium to be arranged, and no arrangement is made, a reasonable premium is payable.

(2) Where an insurance is effected on the terms that an additional premium is to be arranged in a given event, and that event happens but no arrangement is made, then a reasonable additional premium is payable.

32 Construction of terms in policy

Subject to this Act, and unless the context of the policy otherwise requires the terms and expressions mentioned in Schedule 2 have, when contained in a policy, the meaning and operation attributed to them in that Schedule.

Double Insurance

33 Double insurance

(1) Where 2 or more policies are effected by or on behalf of the assured on the same adventure and interest or any part of it, and the sums insured exceed the indemnity allowed by this Act, the assured is said to be over-insured by double insurance.

(2) Where the assured is over-insured by double insurance –

- (a) The assured, unless the policy otherwise provides, may claim payment from the insurers in such order as he thinks fit, provided that he is not entitled to receive any sum in excess of the indemnity allowed by this Act;
- (b) Where the policy under which the assured claims is a valued policy, the assured must give credit as against the valuation for any sum received by him under any other policy, without regard to the actual value of the subject-matter insured;
- (c) Where the policy under which the assured claims is an unvalued policy, he must give credit, as against the full insurable value, for any sum received by him under any other policy;
- (d) Where the assured receives any sum in excess of the indemnity allowed by this Act, he is deemed to hold such sum in trust for the insurers, according to their right of contribution among themselves.

Warranties

34 Nature of warranty

(1) A warranty, in the following sections relating to warranties, means a promissory warranty – that is to say, a warranty by which the assured undertakes that some particular thing shall or shall not be done, or that some condition shall be fulfilled, or whereby he affirms or negatives the existence of a particular state of facts.

(2) A warranty may be express or implied.

(3) A warranty as above defined is a condition which must be exactly complied with, whether material to the risk or not. If it is not so complied with, then, subject to any express provision in the policy, the insurer is discharged from liability as from the date of the breach or warranty, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by him before that date.

35 When breach of warranty excused

(1) Non-compliance with a warranty is excused when, by reason of a change of circumstances the warranty ceases to be applicable to the circumstances of the contract, or when compliance with the warranty is rendered unlawful by any subsequent law.

(2) Where a warranty is broken, the assured cannot avail himself of the defence that the breach has been remedied, and the warranty complied with, before loss.

(3) A breach of warranty may be waived by the insurer.

36 Express warranties

(1) An express warranty may be in any form of words from which the intention to warrant is to be inferred.

(2) An express warranty must be included in or written upon this policy, or must be contained in some document incorporated by reference into the policy.

(3) An express warranty does not exclude an implied warranty, unless it is inconsistent therewith.

37 Warranty of neutrality

(1) Where insurable property, whether ship or goods, is expressly warranted neutral, there is an implied condition that the property shall have a neutral character at the commencement of the risk, and that so far as the assured can control the matter, its neutral character shall be preserved during the risk.

(2) (a) Where a ship is expressly warranted neutral, there is also an implied condition that, so far as the assured can control the matter, the ship shall be properly documented – that she shall carry the necessary papers to establish her neutrality, and that her papers shall not be falsified or suppressed, and that simulated papers shall not be used.

(b) If any loss occurs through breach of this condition, the insurer may avoid the contract.

38 No implied warranty of nationality

There is no implied warranty as to the nationality of a ship, or that her nationality shall not be changed during the risk.

39 Warranty of good safety

Where the subject-matter insured is warranted “well” or “in good safety” on a particular day, it is sufficient if it is safe at any time during that day.

40 Warranty of seaworthiness of ship

(1) In a voyage policy there is an implied warranty that at the commencement of the voyage the ship shall be seaworthy for the purpose of the particular adventure insured.

(2) Where the policy attaches while the ship is in port, there is also an implied warranty that she shall, at the commencement of the risk, be reasonably fit to encounter the ordinary perils of the port.

(3) Where the policy relates to a voyage which is performed in different stages, during which the ship requires different kinds of or further preparation of equipment, there is an implied warranty that at the commencement of each stage the ship is seaworthy in respect of such preparation or equipment for the purposes of that stage.

(4) A ship is deemed to be seaworthy when she is reasonably fit in all respects to encounter the ordinary perils of the seas of the adventure insured.

(5) In a time policy there is no implied warranty that the ship shall be seaworthy at any stage of the adventure; but where, with the privity of the assured, the ship is sent to sea in an unseaworthy state, the insurer is not liable for any loss attributable to unseaworthiness.

41 No implied warranty that goods are seaworthy

(1) In a policy on goods or other movables there is no implied warranty that the goods or movables are seaworthy.

(2) In a voyage policy on goods or other movables there is an implied warranty that at the commencement of the voyage the ship is not only seaworthy as a ship, but also that she is reasonably fit to carry the goods or other movables to the destination contemplated by the policy.

42 Warranty of legality

There is an implied warranty that the adventure insured is a lawful one, and that, so far as the assured can control the matter, the adventure shall be carried out in a lawful manner.

The Voyage

43 Implied condition as to commencement of risk

(1) Where the subject-matter is insured by a voyage policy “at and from” or “from” a particular place, it is not necessary that the ship should be at that place when the contract is concluded, but there is an implied condition that the adventure shall be commenced within a reasonable time, and that if the adventure is not so commenced the insurer may avoid the contract.

(2) The implied condition may be negated by showing that the delay was caused by circumstances known to the insurer before the contract was concluded, or that he waived the condition.

44 Alteration of port of departure

Where the place of departure is specified by the policy, and the ship instead of sailing from that place sails from any other place, the risk does not attach.

45 Sailing for different destination

Where the destination is specified in the policy, and the ship instead of sailing for that destination sails for any other destination, the risk does not attach.

46 Change of voyage

(1) Where, after the commencement of the risk, the destination of the ship is voluntarily changed from the destination contemplated by the policy, there is said to be a change of voyage.

(2) Unless the policy otherwise provides, where there is a change of voyage the insurer is discharged from liability as from the time of change ie as from the time when the determination to change it is manifested; and it is immaterial that the ship may not in fact have left the course of voyage contemplated by the policy when the loss occurs.

47 Deviation

(1) Where a ship without lawful excuse deviates from the voyage contemplated by the policy, the insurer is discharged from liability as from the time of deviation, and it is immaterial that the ship may have regained her route before any loss occurs.

(2) There is a deviation from the voyage contemplated by the policy –

(a) Where the course of the voyage is specifically designated by the policy, and that course is departed from; or

(b) Where the course of the voyage is not specifically designated by the policy, but the usual and customary course is departed from.

(3) The intention to deviate is immaterial; there must be a deviation in fact to discharge the insurer from his liability under the contract.

48 Several ports of discharge

(1) Where several ports of discharge are specified by the policy, the ship may proceed to all or any of them, but in the absence of any usage or sufficient cause to the contrary she must proceed to them, or such of them as she goes to, in the order designated by the policy. If she does not, there is a deviation.

(2) Where the policy is to “ports of discharge” within a given area, which are not named, the ship must, in the absence of any usage or sufficient cause to the contrary, proceed to them, or such of them as she goes to, in their geographical order. If she does not, there is a deviation.

49 Delay in voyage

In the case of a voyage policy the adventure insured must be prosecuted throughout its course with reasonable despatch, and if without lawful excuse it is not so prosecuted, the insurer is discharged from liability as from the time when the delay became unreasonable.

50 Excuses for deviation or delay

(1) Deviation or delay in prosecuting the voyage contemplated by the policy is excused –

(a) Where authorised by any special term in the policy; or

(b) Where caused by circumstances beyond the control of the master and his employer; or

(c) Where reasonably necessary in order to comply with an express or implied warranty; or

(d) Where reasonably necessary for the safety of the ship or subject-matter insured; or

(e) For the purpose of saving human life, or aiding a ship in distress where human life may be in danger; or

- (f) Where reasonably necessary for the purpose of obtaining medical or surgical aid for any person on board the ship; or
- (g) Where caused by the barratrous conduct of the master or crew, if barratry is one of the perils insured against.
 - (2) When the cause excusing the deviation or delay ceases to operate, the ship must resume her course and prosecute her voyage with reasonable despatch.

Assignment of Policy

51 When and how policy is assignable

(1) A marine policy is assignable unless it contains terms expressly prohibiting assignment. It may be assigned either before or after loss.

(2) Where a marine policy has been assigned so as to pass the beneficial interest in the policy, the assignee of the policy is entitled to sue thereon in his own name; and the defendant is entitled to make any defence arising out of the contract which he would have been entitled to make if the action had been brought in the name of the person by or on behalf of whom the policy was effected.

(3) A marine policy may be assigned by endorsement thereon or in other customary manner.

52 Assured who has no interest cannot assign

Where the assured has parted with or lost his interest in the subject-matter insured, and has not, before or at the time of so doing, expressly or impliedly agreed to assign the policy, any subsequent assignment of the policy is inoperative: Provided that nothing in this section affects the assignment of a policy after loss.

The Premium

53 Policy effected through broker

(1) Unless otherwise agreed, where a marine policy is effected on behalf of the assured by a broker, the broker is directly responsible to the insurer for the premium, and the insurer is directly responsible to the assured for the amount which may be payable in respect of losses or in respect of returnable premium.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed, the broker has, as against the assured, a lien upon the policy for the amount of the premium and his charges in respect of effecting the policy; and, where he has dealt with the person who employs him as a principal, he has also a lien on the policy in respect of any balance on any insurance account which may be due to him from such person, unless when the debt was incurred he had reason to believe that such person was only an agent.

54 Effect of receipt on policy

Where a marine policy effected on behalf of the assured by a broker acknowledges the receipt of the premium, such acknowledgement is, in the absence of fraud, conclusive as between the insurer and the assured, but not as between the insurer and the broker.

Loss and Abandonment

55 Included and excluded losses

(1) Subject to this Act, and unless the policy otherwise provides, the insurer is liable for any loss proximately caused by a peril insured against; but subject as aforesaid, he is not liable for any loss not proximately caused by a peril insured against.

(2) In particular –

- (a) The insurer is not liable for any loss attributable to the wilful misconduct of the assured; but unless the policy otherwise provides, he is liable for any loss proximately caused by a peril insured against, even though the loss would not have happened but for the misconduct or negligence of the master or crew;

- (b) Unless the policy otherwise provides, the insurer on ship or goods is not liable for any loss proximately caused by delay, although the delay is caused by a peril insured against;
- (c) Unless the policy otherwise provides, the insurer is not liable for ordinary wear and tear, ordinary leakage and breakage, inherent vice or nature of the subject-matter insured, or for any loss proximately caused by rats or vermin, or for any injury to machinery not proximately caused by maritime perils.

56 Partial and total loss

(1) A loss may be either total or partial. Any loss other than a total loss, as hereinafter defined, is a partial loss.

(2) A total loss may be either an actual total loss or a constructive total loss.

(3) Unless a different intention appears from the terms of the policy, an insurance against total loss includes a constructive as well as an actual total loss.

(4) Where the assured brings an action for a total loss, and the evidence proves only a partial loss, he may, unless the policy otherwise provides, recover for a partial loss.

(5) Where goods reach their destination in specie, but by reason of obliteration of marks or otherwise they are incapable of identification, the loss (if any) is partial and not total.

57 Actual total loss

(1) Where the subject-matter insured is destroyed, or so damaged as to cease to be a thing of the kind insured, or where the assured is irretrievably deprived of it, there is an actual total loss.

(2) In the case of an actual total loss no notice of abandonment need be given.

58 Missing ship

Where the ship concerned in the adventure is missing, and after the lapse of a reasonable time no news of her has been received, an actual total loss may be presumed.

59 Effect of transshipment

Where, by a peril insured against, the voyage is interrupted at an intermediate port or place under such circumstances as, apart from any special stipulation in the contract of affreightment, to justify the master in landing and reshipping the goods or other movables, or in transshipping them, and sending them on to their destination, the liability of the insurer continues, notwithstanding the landing or transshipment.

60 Constructive total loss defined

(1) Subject to any express provision in the policy, there is a constructive total loss where the subject-matter insured is reasonably abandoned on account of its actual total loss appearing to be unavoidable, or because it could not be preserved from actual total loss without an expenditure which would exceed its value when the expenditure had been incurred.

(2) In particular there is a constructive total loss –

- (a) Where the assured is deprived of the possession of his ship or goods by a peril insured against, and
 - (i) it is unlikely that he can recover the ship or goods, as the case may be, or

- (ii) the cost of recovering the ship or goods would exceed their value when recovered; or
 - (b) In the case of damage to a ship, where she is so damaged by a peril insured against that the cost of repairing the damage would exceed the value of the ship when repaired; or
 - (c) In the case of damage to goods, where the cost of repairing the damage and forwarding the goods to their destination would exceed their value on arrival.
- (3) In estimating the cost of repairs, no deduction is to be made in respect of general average contributions to those repairs payable by other interests, but account is to be taken of the expense of future salvage operations and of any future general average contributions to which the ship would be liable if repaired.

61 Effect of constructive total loss

Where there is a constructive total loss, the assured may either treat the loss as a partial loss or abandon the subject-matter insured to the insurer and treat the loss as if it were an actual total loss.

62 Notice of abandonment

- (1) (a) Subject to this section, where the assured elects to abandon the subject-matter insured to the insurer he must give notice of abandonment.
- (b) If he fails to do so, the loss can be treated only as a partial loss.
- (2) Notice of abandonment may be given in writing, or by word of mouth, or partly in writing and partly by word of mouth, and may be given in any terms which indicate the intention of the assured to abandon his insured interest in the subject-matter insured unconditionally to the insurer.
- (3) Notice of abandonment must be given with reasonable diligence after the receipt of reliable information of the loss, but where the information is of doubtful character the assured is entitled to a reasonable time to make inquiry.
- (4) Where notice of abandonment is properly given, the rights of the assured are not prejudiced by the fact that the insurer refuses to accept the abandonment.
- (5) (a) The acceptance of an abandonment may be either express or implied from the conduct of the insurer.
- (b) The mere silence of the insurer after notice is not an acceptance.
- (6) (a) Where notice of abandonment is accepted, the abandonment is irrevocable.
- (b) The acceptance of the notice conclusively admits liability for the loss and the sufficiency of the notice.
- (7) Notice of abandonment is unnecessary where, at the time when the assured receives information of the loss, there would be no possibility of benefit to the insurer if notice were given to him.
- (8) Notice of abandonment may be waived by the insurer.
- (9) Where an insurer has reinsured his risk, no notice of abandonment need be given by him.

63 Effect of abandonment

- (1) Where there is a valid abandonment, the insurer is entitled to take over the interest of the assured in whatever may remain of the subject-matter insured, and all proprietary rights incidental to it.
- (2) Upon the abandonment of a ship the insurer of it is entitled to any freight which is in the course of being earned, and which is earned by her subsequent to the casualty causing the loss, less the expenses of earning it incurred after the casualty; and where the ship is carrying the owner's goods, the insurer is entitled to a reasonable remuneration for the carriage of them subsequent to the casualty causing the loss.

Partial Losses (Including Salvage and General Average and Particular Charges)

64 Particular average loss

(1) A particular average loss is a partial loss of the subject-matter insured, which is caused by a peril insured against, and which is not a general average loss.

(2) (a) Expenses incurred by or on behalf of the assured for the safety or preservation of the subject-matter insured, other than the general average and salvage charges are called particular charges.

(b) Particular charges are not included in particular average.

65 Salvage charges

(1) Subject to any express provision in the policy, salvage charges incurred in preventing a loss by perils insured against may be recovered as a loss by those perils.

(2) (a) "Salvage charges" means the charges recoverable under maritime law by a salvor independently of contract, and does not include the expenses of services in the nature of salvage rendered by the assured or his agents, or any person employed for hire by them, for the purpose of averting a peril insured against.

(b) Such expenses, where properly incurred, may be recovered as particular charges or as a general average loss, according to the circumstances under which they were incurred.

66 General average loss

(1) A general average loss is a loss caused by or directly consequential on a general average act. It includes a general average expenditure as well as a general average sacrifice.

(2) There is a general average act where any extraordinary sacrifice or expenditure is voluntarily and reasonably made or incurred in time of peril for the purpose of preserving the property imperilled in the common adventure.

(3) Where there is a general average loss, the party on whom it falls is entitled, subject to the conditions imposed by maritime law, to a rateable contribution from the other parties interested, and such contribution is called a general average contribution.

(4) Subject to any express provision in the policy, where the assured has incurred a general average expenditure he may recover from the insurer in respect of the proportion of the loss which falls upon him; and, in the case of a general average sacrifice, he may recover from the insurer in respect of the whole loss without having enforced his right of contribution from the other parties liable to contribute.

(5) Subject to any express provision in the policy, where the assured has paid or is liable to pay a general average contribution in respect of the subject insured he may recover it from the insurer.

(6) In the absence of express stipulation, the insurer is not liable for any general average loss or contribution where the loss was not incurred for the purpose of avoiding or in connection with the avoidance of a peril insured against.

(7) Where ship, freight, and cargo, or any two of those interests are owned by the same assured, the liability of the insurer in respect of general average losses or contributions is to be determined as if those subjects were owned by different persons.

Measure of Indemnity

67 Extent of liability of insurer for loss

(1) The sum which the assured can recover in respect of a loss on a policy by which he is insured, in the case of an unvalued policy to the full extent of the insurable value, or in the case of a valued policy to the full extent of the value fixed by the policy, is called the measure of indemnity.

(2) Where there is a loss recoverable under the policy, the insurer, or each insurer if there are more than one, is liable for such proportion of the measure of indemnity as the amount of his subscription bears to the value fixed by the policy in the case of a valued policy, or to the insurable value in the case of an unvalued policy.

68 Total loss

Subject to this Act and to any express provision in the policy, where there is a total loss of subject-matter insured –

- (a) If the policy is a valued policy, the measure of indemnity is the sum fixed by the policy;
- (b) If the policy is an unvalued policy, the measure of indemnity is the insurable value of the subject-matter insured.

69 Partial loss of ship

Where a ship is damaged, but is not totally lost, the measure of indemnity, subject to any express provision in the policy is –

- (a) Where the ship has been repaired, the assured is entitled to the reasonable cost of the repairs, less the customary deductions, but not exceeding the sum insured in respect of any one casualty;
- (b) Where the ship has been only partially repaired, the assured is entitled to the reasonable cost of such repairs, computed as above, and also to be indemnified for the reasonable depreciation (if any) arising from the unrepaired damage, provided that the aggregate amount shall not exceed the cost of repairing the whole damage, computed as above;
- (c) Where the ship has not been repaired, and has not been sold in her damaged state during the risk, the assured is entitled to be indemnified for the reasonable depreciation arising from the unrepaired damage, but not exceeding the reasonable cost of repairing such damage, computed as above.

70 Partial loss of freight

Subject to any express provision in the policy, where there is a partial loss of freight the measure of indemnity is such proportion of the sum fixed by the policy in the case of a valued policy, or of the insurable value in the case of an unvalued policy, as the proportion of freight lost by the assured bears to the whole freight at the risk of the assured under the policy.

71 Partial loss of goods, merchandise

Where there is a partial loss of goods, merchandise, or other movables, the measure of indemnity, subject to any express provision in the policy is –

- (a) Where part of the goods, merchandise, or other movables insured by a valued policy is totally lost, the measure of indemnity is such proportion of the sum fixed by the policy as the insurable value of the part lost bears to the insurable value of the whole, ascertained as in the case of an unvalued policy;
- (b) Where part of the goods, merchandise, or other movables insured by and unvalued policy is totally lost, the measure of indemnity is the insurable value of the part lost, ascertained as in the case of total loss;

- (c) Where the whole or any part of the goods or merchandise insured has been delivered damaged at its destination, the measure of indemnity is such proportion of the sum fixed by the policy in the case of a valued policy, or of the insurable value in the case of an unvalued policy, as the difference between the gross sound and damaged values at the place of arrival bears to the gross sound value;
- (d) “Gross value” means the wholesale price or, if there is no such price, the estimated value, with in either case freight, landing charges, and duty paid beforehand; provided that, in the case of goods or merchandise customarily sold in bond, the bonded price is deemed to be the gross value.

72 Apportionment of valuation

(1) Where different species of property are insured under a single valuation, the valuation must be apportioned over the different species in proportion to their respective insurable values, as in the case of an unvalued policy.

(2) The insured value of any part of a species is such proportion of the total insured value of the same as the insurable value of the part bears to the insurable value of the whole, ascertained in both cases as provided by this Act.

(3) Where a valuation has to be apportioned, and particulars of the prime cost of each separate species, quality, or description of goods cannot be ascertained, the division of the valuation may be made over the net arrived sound values of the different species, qualities, or descriptions of goods.

73 General average contributions and salvage charges

(1) Subject to any express provision in the policy, where the assured has paid or is liable for any general average contribution the measure of indemnity is the full amount of such contribution if the subject-matter liable to contribution is insured for its full contributory value, but if such subject-matter is not insured for its full contributory value, or if only part of it is insured, the indemnity payable by the insurer must be reduced in proportion to the under-insurance, and where there has been a particular average loss which constitutes a deduction from the contributory value, and for which the insurer is liable, that amount must be deducted from the insured value in order to ascertain what the insurer is liable to contribute.

(2) Where the insurer is liable for salvage charges, the extent of his liability must be determined on the like principle.

74 Liabilities to third parties

Where the assured has effected an insurance in express terms against any liability to a third party, the measure of indemnity, subject to any express provision in the policy, is the amount paid or payable by him to such third party in respect of such liability.

75 General provisions as to measure of indemnity

(1) Where there has been a loss in respect of any subject-matter not expressly provided for in the foregoing provisions of this Act, the measure of indemnity shall be ascertained, as nearly as may be, in accordance with those provisions, in so far as applicable to the particular case.

(2) Nothing in this Act relating to the measure of indemnity shall affect the rules relating to double insurance, or prohibit the insurer from disproving interest wholly or in part, or from showing that at the time of the loss the whole or any part of the subject-matter insured was not at risk under the policy.

76 Particular average warranties

(1) Where the subject-matter insured is warranted free from particular average, the assured cannot recover for a loss of part, other than a loss incurred by a general average sacrifice, unless the contract contained in the policy is apportionable; but if the contract is apportionable, the assured may recover for a total loss of any apportionable part.

(2) Where the subject-matter insured is warranted free from particular average, either wholly or under a certain percentage, the insurer is nevertheless liable for salvage charges, and for particular charges and other expenses properly incurred under the provisions of the suing and labouring clause in order to avert a loss insured against.

(3) Unless the policy otherwise provides, where the subject-matter insured is warranted free from particular average under a specified percentage, a general average loss cannot be added to a particular average loss to make up the specified percentage.

(4) For the purpose of ascertaining whether the specified percentage has been reached, regard shall be had only to the actual loss suffered by the subject-matter insured. Particular charges and the expenses of and incidental to ascertaining and proving the loss must be excluded.

77 Successive losses

(1) Unless the policy otherwise provides, and subject to this Act, the insurer is liable for successive losses, even though the total amount of such losses may exceed the sum insured.

(2) Where under the same policy a partial loss which has not been repaired or otherwise made good is followed by a total loss, the assured can only recover in respect of the total loss.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the insurer under the suing and labouring clause.

78 Suing and labouring clause

(1) Where the policy contains a suing and labouring clause, the engagement entered into by it is deemed to be supplementary to the contract of insurance, and the assured may recover from the insurer any expenses properly incurred under the clause, notwithstanding that the insurer may have paid for a total loss, or that the subject-matter may have been warranted free from particular average, either wholly or under a certain percentage.

(2) General average losses and contributions and salvage charges, as defined by this Act, are not recoverable under the suing and labouring clause.

(3) Expenses incurred for the purpose of averting or diminishing any loss not covered by the policy are not recoverable under the suing and labouring clause.

(4) It is the duty of the assured and his agents in all cases to take such measures as may be reasonable for the purpose of averting or minimising a loss.

Rights of Insurer on Payment

79 Right of subrogation

(1) Where the insurer pays for a total loss either of the whole, or, in the case of goods, of any apportionable part of the subject-matter insured, he becomes entitled to take over the interest of the assured in whatever may remain of the subject-matter so paid for, and he is subrogated to all the rights and remedies of the assured in and in respect of that subject-matter as from the time of the casualty causing the loss.

(2) Subject to the foregoing provisions, where the insurer pays for a partial loss he acquires no title to the subject-matter insured, or such part of it as may remain, but his is subrogated to all rights and remedies of the assured in and in respect of the subject-matter insured as from the time of the casualty causing the loss, in so far as the assured has been indemnified, according to this Act, by such payment for the loss.

80 Right of contribution

(1) Where the assured is over-insured by double insurance, each insurer is bound, as between himself and the other insurers, to contribute rateably to the loss in proportion to the amount for which he is liable under his contract.

(2) If any insurer pays more than his proportion of the loss, he is entitled to maintain an action for contribution against the other insurers, and is entitled to the like remedies as a surety who has paid more than his proportion of the debt.

81 Effect of under-insurance

Where the assured is insured for an amount less than the insurable value, or, in the case of a valued policy, for an amount less than the policy valuation, he is deemed to be his own insurer in respect of the uninsured balance.

Return of Premium

82 Enforcement of return

Where the premium or a proportionate part of it is by this Act declared to be returnable

- (a) If already paid, it may be recovered by the assured from the insurer; and
- (b) If unpaid, it may be retained by the assured or his agent.

83 Return by agreement

Where the policy contains a stipulation for the return of the premium or a proportionate part of it on the happening of a certain event, and that event happens, the premium or the proportionate parts is returnable to the assured.

84 Return for failure of consideration

(1) Where the consideration for the payment of the premium totally fails, and there has been no fraud or illegality on the part of the assured or his agents, the premium is returnable to the assured.

(2) Where the consideration for the payment of the premium is apportionable, and there is a total failure of any apportionable part of the consideration, a proportionate part of the premium is under the like conditions returnable to the assured.

(3) In particular –

- (a) Where the policy is void, or is avoided by the insurer as from the commencement of the risk, the premium is returnable, provided that there has been no fraud or illegality on the part of the assured; but if the risk is not apportionable, and has once been attached, the premium is not returnable;
- (b) Where the subject-matter insured or part of it has never been imperilled, the premium or a proportionate part is returnable: Provided that where the subject-matter has been insured “lost or not lost”, and has arrived in safety at the time when the contract is concluded, the premium is not returnable unless at such time the insurer knew of the safe arrival;

- (c) Where the assured has no insurable interest throughout the currency of the risk, the premium is returnable; provided that this rule does not apply to a policy effected by way of gaming or wagering;
- (d) Where the assured has a defeasible interest which is terminated during the currency of the risk, the premium is not returnable;
- (e) Where the assured has over-insured under an unvalued policy, a proportionate part of the premium is returnable;
- (f) Subject to the foregoing where the assured has over-insured by double insurance, a proportionate part of several premiums is returnable:
Provided that if the policies are effected at different times, and any earlier policy has at any time borne the entire risk, or if a claim has been paid on the policy in respect of the full sum insured no premium is returnable in respect of that policy; and when the double insurance is effected knowingly by the assured, no premium is returnable.

Mutual Insurance

85 Modification of Act in case of mutual insurance

(1) Where two or more persons mutually agree to insure each other against marine losses there is said to be a mutual insurance.

(2) The provisions of this Act relating to the premium do not apply to mutual insurance, but a guarantee, or such other arrangement as may be agreed upon, may be substituted for the premium.

(3) The provisions of this Act, in so far as they may be modified by the agreement of the parties, may in the case of mutual insurance be modified by the terms of the policies issued by the association, or by the rules and regulations of the association.

(4) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) this Act applies to a mutual insurance.

Supplemental

86 Ratifications by assured

Where a contract of marine insurance is in good faith effected by one person on behalf of another, the person on whose behalf it is effected may ratify the contract even after he is aware of the loss.

87 Implied obligation varied by agreement or usage

(1) Where any right, duty, or liability would arise under a contract of marine insurance by implication of law, it may be negated or varied by express agreement, or by usage, if the usage be such as to bind both parties to the contract.

(2) The provisions of this section extend to any right, duty, or liability declared by this Act which may be lawfully modified by agreement.

88 Reasonable time, a question of fact

Where by this Act any reference is made to reasonable time, reasonable premium, or reasonable diligence, the question what is reasonable is a question of fact.

89 Application of common law

The rules of the common law including the law merchant, save in so far as they are inconsistent with the express provisions of this Act, shall continue to apply to contracts of marine insurance.

Section 32

Rules for the Construction of Policies

The following are the rules referred to by this Act for the construction of a policy where the context does not otherwise require:

- 1 Where the subject-matter is insured “lost or not lost”, and the loss has occurred before the contract is concluded, the risk attaches unless at such time the assured was aware of the loss and the insurer was not.
- 2 Where the subject-matter is insured “from” a particular place, the risk does not attach until the ship starts on the voyage insured.
- 3
 - (a) Where a ship is insured “at and from” a particular place, and she is at that place in goods safety when the contract is concluded, the risk attaches immediately.
 - (b) If she is not at that place when the contract is concluded the risk attaches as soon as she arrives there in good safety; and, unless the policy otherwise provides, it is immaterial that she is covered by another policy for a specified time after arrival.
 - (c) Where chartered freight is insured “at and from” a particular place, and the ship is at that place in good safety when the contract is concluded, the risk attaches immediately. If she is not there when the contract is concluded, the risk attaches as soon as she arrives there in good safety.
 - (d) Where freight other than chartered freight is payable without special conditions, and is insured “at and from” a particular place, the risk attaches pro rata as the goods or merchandise are shipped; provided that if there is cargo in readiness which belongs to the shipowner, or which some other person has contracted with him to ship, the risk attaches as soon as the ship is ready to receive such cargo.
- 4 Where goods or other movables are insured “from the loading thereof”, the risk does not attach until such goods or movables are actually on board, and the insurer is not liable for them while in transit from the shore to the ship.
- 5 Where the risk on goods or other movables continues until they are “safely landed”, they must be landed in the customary manner and within a reasonable time after arrival at the port of discharge, and if they are not so landed the risk ceases.
- 6 In the absence of any further licence or usage, the liberty to touch and stay “at any port or place whatsoever” does not authorise the ship to depart from the course of her voyage from the port of departure to the port of destination.
- 7 The term “perils of the seas” refers only to fortuitous accidents or causalities of the seas. It does not include the ordinary action of the winds and waves.
- 8 The term “pirates” includes passengers who mutiny and rioters who attack the ship from the shore.
- 9 The term “thieves” does not cover clandestine theft or theft committed by any one of the ship’s company, whether crew or passengers.
- 10 The term “arrest, etc. of kings, princes, and people” refers to political or executive acts, and does not include a loss caused by riot or by ordinary judicial process.
- 11 The term “barratry” includes every wrongful act wilfully committed by the master or crew to the prejudice of the owner or, as the case may be, the charterer.
- 12 The term “all other perils” includes only perils similar in kind to the perils specifically mentioned in the policy.
- 13 The term “average unless general” means a partial loss of the subject-matter insured other than a general average loss, and does not include “particular charges”.
- 14 When a policy contains the words “warranted free from particular average unless the ship is stranded, sunk or burnt”, or any similar expression, and any such accident has happened to the ship, the insurer is liable for the expected losses, although the loss is not attributable to such accident, provided that when the accident occurs the risk has attached and (if the policy is on goods) the damaged goods are on board.

- 15 The term “ship” includes the hull, materials and outfit, stores and provisions for the officers and crew, and, in the case of vessels engaged in a special trade, the ordinary fittings requisite for the trade; and also, in the case of a steamship, the machinery, boilers, and coals and engine stores, if owned by the assured.
- 16 The term “freight” includes the profit derivable by a shipowner from the employment of his ship to carry his own goods or movables, as well as freight payable by a third party, but does not include passage money.
- 17 The term “goods” means goods in the nature of merchandise, and does not include personal effects or provisions and stores, for the use on board.
- 18 In the absence of any usage to the contrary, deck cargo and living animals must be insured specifically, and not under the general denomination of goods.

“document of title” includes any bill of lading, dock warrant, warehouse keeper’s certificate, and warrant or order for the delivery of goods, and any other document used in the ordinary course of business as proof of the possession or control of goods, or authorising or purporting to authorise, either by endorsement or by delivery, the possessor of the document to transfer or receive goods thereby represented;

“mercantile agent” means an agent having in the customary course of his business as such agent authority either to sell goods, or to consign goods for the purpose of sale, or to buy goods, or to consign goods for the purpose of sale, or to buy goods, or to raise money on the security of goods;

“pledge” includes any contract pledging or giving a lien or security on goods, whether in consideration of an original advance, or of any further or continuing advance, or of any pecuniary liability.

(2) A person shall be deemed to be in possession of goods, or of the documents of title of goods, where the goods or documents are in his actual custody, or are held by any other person subject to his control or for him on his behalf.

3 Powers of mercantile agent with respect to disposition of goods

(1) Where a mercantile agent is, with the consent of the owner, in possession of goods or of the documents of title to goods, any sale, pledge, or other disposition of the goods made by him when acting in the ordinary course of business of a mercantile agent shall, subject to this Part be as valid as if he were expressly authorised by the owner of the goods to make the same:

Provided that the person taking under the disposition acts in good faith, and has not at the time of the disposition notice that the person making the disposition has not authority to make the same.

(2) Where a mercantile agent has, with the consent of the owner, been in possession of goods or of the documents of title to goods, any sale, pledge, or other disposition which would have been valid if the consent had continued to be valid notwithstanding the determination of the consent, provided that the person taking under the disposition has not at the time thereof notice that the consent has been determined.

(3) Where a mercantile agent has obtained possession of any documents of title to goods by reason of his being or having been, with the consent of the owner, in possession of the goods represented by it, or any other documents of title to the goods, his possession of the first mentioned documents shall, for the purposes of this Part be deemed to be with the consent of the owner.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, the consent of the owner shall be presumed in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

4 Effect of pledges of documents

A pledge of the documents of title to goods shall be deemed to be a pledge of the goods.

5 Pledge for antecedent debt

Where a mercantile agent pledges goods as security for debt or liability due from the pledgor to the pledgee before the time of the pledge, the pledgee shall acquire no further right to the goods than could have been enforced by the pledgor at the time of the pledge.

6 Rights acquired by exchange of goods or documents

The consideration necessary for the validity of a sale, pledge, or other disposition of goods under this Part may be either a payment in cash, or the delivery or transfer of other goods, or of a document of title to goods, or of a negotiable security, or any other valuable consideration; but where goods are pledged by a mercantile agent in consideration of the delivery or transfer of other goods, or of a document of title to goods, or of a negotiable security, the pledgee shall acquire no right or interest in the goods so pledged in excess of the value of the goods, documents, or security when so delivered or transferred in exchange.

7 Agreements through clerks

For the purpose of this Part an agreement made with a mercantile agent through a clerk or other person authorised in the ordinary course of business to make contracts of sale or pledge on his behalf shall be deemed to be an agreement with the agent.

8 Provisions as to consignors and consignees

(1) Where the owner of goods has given possession of the goods to another person for the purpose of consignment or sale, or has shipped the goods in the name of another person, and the consignee of the goods has not had notice that such person is not the owner of the goods, the consignee shall, in respect of advances made to or for the use of such person, have the same lien on the goods as if such person were the owner of the goods, and may transfer any such lien to another person.

(2) Nothing in this section shall limit or affect the validity of any sale, pledge, or disposition by a mercantile agent.

9 Effect of transfer of document of title to goods on vendor's lien and right of stoppage in transitu

(1) Where a document of title to goods has been lawfully transferred to a person as a buyer or owner of the goods, and that person transfers the document to a person who takes the document in good faith and for valuable consideration, the last mentioned transfer shall have the same effect for defeating any vendor's lien or right of stoppage in transitu as the transfer of a bill of lading has for defeating the right of stoppage in transitu.

(2) This section shall be construed subject to section 48 of the Sale of Goods Act 1908.

10 Mode of transferring documents

For the purposes of this Part the transfer of a document may be by endorsement, or where the document is by custom or by its express terms transferable by delivery, or makes the goods deliverable to the bearer, then by delivery.

11 Saving of rights of true owner

Nothing in this Part shall –

- (a) Authorise a mercantile agent to exceed or depart from his authority as between himself and his principal, or exempt him from any liability, civil or criminal, for so doing; or

- (b) Prevent the owner of goods from recovering the goods from a mercantile agent or his trustee in bankruptcy at any time before the sale or pledge; or
- (c) Prevent the owner of goods pledged by a mercantile agent from having the right to redeem the goods at any time before the sale of it on satisfying the claim for which the goods were pledged and paying to the mercantile agent, if by him required, any money in respect of which such agent would by law be entitled to retain the goods or the documents of title thereto, or any of them, by way of lien as against the owner, or from recovering from any person with whom the goods have been pledged any balance of money remaining in his hands as the produce of the sale of the goods after deducting the amount of his lien; or
- (d) Prevent the owner of goods sold by a mercantile agent from recovering from the buyer the price agreed to be paid for the same, or any part of that price, subject to any right of set-off on the part of the buyer against such agent.

12 Saving for common law powers of mercantile agent

PART 2

BILLS OF LADING

13 Rights of action and liabilities to vest in consignees and endorsees

Every consignee of goods named in a bill of lading, and every endorsee of a bill of lading, to whom the property in the goods therein mentioned passes on or by reason of such consignment or endorsement, shall have transferred to and vested in him all rights of action, and be subject to the same liabilities, in respect of such goods as if the contract contained in the bill of lading had been made with himself.

14 Right of stoppage in transitu or claims for freight not affected

Nothing herein shall prejudice or affect any right of stoppage in transitu, or any right to claim freight against the original shipper or owner, or any liability of the consignee or endorsee by reason or in consequence of his being such consignee or endorsee or of his receipt of the goods by reason or in consequence of such consignment or endorsement.

15 Bill of lading in hands of consignee

Every bill of lading in the hands of the shipper or of a consignee or endorsee for valuable consideration, representing goods to have been shipped on board a vessel, shall be conclusive evidence of such shipment as against the master or other person signing the same, notwithstanding that such goods or some part thereof may not have been so shipped, unless such holder of the bill of lading has had actual notice at the time of receiving the same that the goods were not in fact laden on board.

15A “Received for shipment” bills of lading

(1) In this section “received for shipment” bill of lading means a shipping document issued under this section, signed by a person purporting to be authorised to sign the same, and acknowledging that the goods to which the document relates have been received for shipment.

(2) No “received for shipment” bill of lading shall be issued –

- (a) Until the goods are in possession of the owner of the ship or of some person duly authorised on his behalf;
- (b) Except for a named ship in which space has been actually reserved;

(c) Earlier than 21 days before the time when the ship is expected to be in port in readiness to load, but the issue of a “received for shipment” bill of lading shall be sufficient evidence until the contrary is proved that the requirements of this subsection have been complied with.

(3) Every “received for shipment” bill of lading shall contain a provision that, in the event of the goods being unavoidably shut out from the named ship, the shipowner shall forward the goods by his next available ship, or, at his option, by a ship of some other owner, or by a ship sailing within a specified number of days, but otherwise on the same terms and conditions, mutatis mutandis, as if the goods were actually shipped by the named ship.

(4) Every “received for shipment” bill of lading shall for all purposes be deemed to be a valid bill of lading with the same effect and capable of negotiation in all respects and with the same consequences as if it were a bill of lading acknowledging that the goods to which it relates had been actually shipped on board.

16 When master may be exonerated from liability

The master or other person so signing any bill of lading may exonerate himself in respect of such misrepresentation by showing that it was caused without any default on his part, and wholly by the fraud of the shipper or of the holder, or some person under whom the holder claims.

17–20 [Repealed]

“report” means the report required by the customs laws to be made by the master of any importing ship;

“shipowner” includes the master of the ship and every other person authorised to act as agent for the owner or entitled to receive the freight, demurrage, or other charges payable in respect of such ship;

“warehouse” includes all warehouses, buildings and premises in which goods when landed from ships may be lawfully placed;

“warehouse owner” means the occupier of any warehouse as earlier defined;

“wharf” includes all wharves, quays, docks, and premises in or upon which any goods when landed from ships may be lawfully placed;

22 Power to shipowner to enter and land goods in default of entry and landing by owner of goods

Where the owner of goods imported from foreign parts into Niue fails to make entry of it, or, having made entry of it, to land the same or take delivery of it, and to proceed with all convenient speed by the times severally mentioned in this section, the shipowner may make entry of and land or unship the said goods at the times, in the manner, and subject to the conditions following:

- (a) If a time for the delivery of the goods is expressed in the charterparty, bill of lading, or agreement, then at any time after the time so expressed:
- (b) If no time for the delivery of the goods is expressed in the charterparty, bill of lading, or agreement, then at any time after the expiration of 72 hours exclusive of a holiday, after the report of the ship:
- (c) If any wharf or warehouse is named in the charterparty, bill of lading, or agreement as the wharf or warehouse where the goods are to be placed, and if they can be conveniently there received, the shipowner in landing them by virtue of this enactment shall cause them to be placed on such a wharf or in such a warehouse;
- (d) In other cases the shipowner, in landing goods by virtue of this enactment, shall place them on or in some wharf or warehouse on or in which goods of a like nature are usually placed, such wharf or warehouse being, if the goods are dutiable, a wharf or warehouse duly approved by the Minister of Customs for the landing of dutiable goods;
- (e) If at any time before the goods are landed or unshipped the owner of the goods is ready and offers to land and take delivery of the same, he shall be allowed so to do, and his entry shall in such case be preferred to any entry made by the shipowner;
- (f) If any goods are for the purpose of convenience in assorting the same landed at the wharf where the ship is discharged, and the owner of the goods at the time of such landing has made entry and is ready and offers to take delivery of it and to convey the same to some other wharf or warehouse, such goods shall be assorted at landing; and shall if demanded, be delivered to the owner of it within 24 hours after assortment, and the expense of and consequent on such landing and assortment shall be borne by the shipowner;
- (g) If at any time before the goods are landed or unshipped the owner of it has made entry for the landing and warehousing of it at any particular wharf or warehouse other than that at which the ship is discharging and has offered and been ready to take delivery of it, and the shipowner has failed to make such delivery, and has also failed at the time of such offer to give the owner of the goods correct information of the time at which such goods can be delivered, then the shipowner shall, before landing or unshipping such goods under the power hereby given to him, give the owner of the goods or of such wharf or warehouse as last mentioned 24 hours' notice in writing of his readiness to deliver the goods, and shall, if he lands or unships the same without such notice, do so at his own risk and expense.

23 Continuation of lien for freight if shipowner gives notice

(1) If at any time when any goods are landed from any ship and placed in the custody of any person as a wharf or warehouse owner the shipowner gives to the wharf or warehouse owner notice in writing that the goods are to remain subject to a lien for freight or other charges payable to the shipowner to an amount to be mentioned in such notice, the goods so landed shall in the hands of the wharf or warehouse owner continue liable to the same lien, if any, for such charges as they were subject to before the landing.

(2) The wharf or warehouse owner receiving such goods shall retain them until the lien is discharged as mentioned, and if he fails so to do shall make good to the shipowner any loss thereby occasioned to him.

(3) On production to the wharf or warehouse owner of a receipt for the amount claimed as due, and delivery to the wharf or warehouse owner of a copy of it or a release of freight from the shipowner, the said lien shall be discharged.

24 Lien to be discharged on deposit with warehouse owner

The owner of the goods may deposit with the wharf or warehouse owner a sum of money equal in amount to the sum so claimed by the shipowner and thereupon the lien shall be discharged, but without prejudice to any other remedy which the shipowner may have for the recovery of the freight.

25 Right of warehouse owner, if no notice is given, to pay deposit to shipowner

If such deposit is made with the wharf or warehouse owner and the person making the same does not within 15 days after making it give the wharf or warehouse owner notice in writing to retain it, stating in such notice the sum, if any, which he admits to be payable to the shipowner, or that he does not admit any sum to be so payable, the wharf or warehouse owner may at the expiration of such 15 days pay the sum so deposited over to the shipowner, and shall by such payment be discharged from all liability in respect of it.

26 Course to be taken if notice to retain is given

If such deposit is made with the wharf or warehouse owner, and the person making the same does within 15 days after making it give to the wharf or warehouse owner notice as aforesaid;

- (a) The wharf or warehouse owner shall immediately apprise the shipowner of such notice, and shall pay or tender to him out of the sum deposited the sum admitted by such notice to be payable, and shall retain the balance or, if no sum is admitted to be payable, the whole of the sum deposited for 30 days from the date of the said notice;
- (b) At the expiration of such 30 days, unless legal proceedings have in the meantime been instituted by the shipowner against the owner of the goods to recover the said balance or sum, or otherwise for the settlement of any disputes between them concerning such freight or other charges as aforesaid, and notice in writing of such proceedings has been served on him, the wharf or warehouse owner shall pay the said balance or sum over to the owner of the goods, and shall by such payment be discharged from all liability in respect of it.

26A Arbitration deemed to be legal proceedings

(1) In section 26(b) “legal proceedings” shall be deemed to include arbitration.

(2) For the purposes of section 26, as affected by subsection (1), an arbitration shall be deemed to be commenced when one party to the submission serves on the other party or parties a notice requiring him or them to appoint an arbitrator, or, where the submission provides that the reference shall be to a person named or designated in the submission, requiring him or them to submit the dispute to the person so named or designated.

(3) Any such notice as is mentioned in subsection (2) may be served either

- (a) By delivering it to the person on whom it is to be served; or
- (b) By leaving it at the usual or last known place of abode in Niue of that person; or
- (c) By sending it by post in a registered letter addressed to that person at his usual or last known place of abode in Niue, as well as in any other manner provided in the submission; and where a notice is sent by post in manner prescribed by paragraph (c) service of it shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been effected at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

27 After 90 days warehouse owner may sell goods by public auction

If the lien is not discharged and no deposit is made as earlier mentioned, the wharf or warehouse owner may, and if required by the shipowner shall, at the expiry of 90 days from the time when the goods were placed in his custody, or, if the goods are of a perishable nature, at such earlier period as may be fixed by Lloyd's Agent or any surveyor to be appointed by such wharf or warehouse owner, sell by public auction either for home use or exportation, the said goods, or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy the charges earlier mentioned.

28 Notices of sale to be given

(1) Before making such sale the wharf or warehouse owner shall give notice of it by advertisement in one newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood, a copy of which shall be kept posted up in some conspicuous part of the said wharf or warehouse.

(2) If the address of the owner of the goods has been stated on the manifest of the cargo, or on any of the documents in the possession of the wharf or warehouse owner, or is otherwise known to him, such wharf or warehouse owner shall give notice of the sale to the owner of the goods by letter sent by post.

(3) But the title of a bona fide purchaser of such goods shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission to send notice as earlier mentioned, nor shall any such purchaser be bound to inquire whether such notice has been sent.

29 Moneys arising from sale, how to be applied

In every case of any such sale as aforesaid the wharf or warehouse owner shall apply the moneys received from the sale in the following order:

- (a) If the goods are sold for home use, in payment of any Customs or excise duties owing in respect thereof;
- (b) In payment of the expenses of the sale;
- (c) In the absence of any agreement between the wharf or warehouse owner and the shipowner concerning the priority of their respective charges, in payment of the rent, rates, and other charges due to the wharf or warehouse owner in respect of the said goods;
- (d) In payment of the amount claimed by the shipowner as due for freight or other charges in respect of the said goods;
- (e) But in the case of any agreement between the wharf or warehouse owner and the shipowner concerning the priority of their respective charges, then such charges shall have priority according to the terms of such agreement; and
- (f) The surplus, if any shall be paid to the owner of the goods.

30 Warehouse owner's rent and expenses

Where goods are placed in the custody of a wharf or warehouse owner under the authority of this Part, the said owner shall be entitled to rent in respect of the same, and shall also have power at the expense of the owner of the goods to do all such reasonable acts as in the judgment of the said wharf or warehouse owner are necessary for the proper custody and preservation of such goods, and shall have a lien on it for the said rent and expenses.

31 Warehouse owner's protection

Nothing in this Part shall compel any wharf or warehouse owner to take charge of any goods which he would not be liable to take charge of if this Part has not passed, nor shall he be bound to see to the validity of any lien claimed by any shipowner under this Part.

PART 5

UNPAID VENDORS OF WAREHOUSED GOODS

32 Interpretation

In this Part –

“bonded warehouse” means a building approved and appointed by the Minister of Customs for the warehousing of goods without payment of duty on the first entry;

“pledgee” means the person in whose favour the deposit or the warrants or certificates is made;

“sale” means any absolute disposition of goods, whether for payment to be made in cash or upon credit;

“subpurchaser” means any person purchasing from or under the person to whom the original bonder or storer of goods in a bonded or free warehouse sold the same and delivered the warrants or certificates relating to it;

“warehouse keeper” means the person having the management of any bonded or free warehouse, whether the warehouseman himself or a person employed by him;

“warehouse keeper's book” means the book in which the warehouse keeper enters a list of all goods received in and delivered out of the warehouse managed by him;

“warehouseman” means the person for whose immediate benefit and under whose control the storage of goods in a bonded or free warehouse is carried on;

“warrants” or “certificates” means any receipt or undertaking issued by or on behalf of the warehouseman, and signed by him or on his behalf, acknowledging the receipt in a specified warehouse of goods to be held on behalf of a person named and described, giving the particulars of the goods stored, the marks or brands (if any) on it, the terms upon which the goods are stored, and containing an undertaking on the part of the warehouseman to deliver the same to the endorsee, holder, or bearer of the warrant or certificate.

33 Unpaid vendor's lien determined on delivery of bond warrants to bona fide holder for value

In all cases where warrants or certificates for goods liable to the payment of Customs duties are issued, importing a receipt of such goods by or on behalf of any bonded warehouseman and an undertaking to deliver the same to the holder of the warrants or certificates on presentation and demand, and on payment of the duties, rents, and charges lawfully demandable, and such warrants or certificates are delivered over on a sale of the goods by the person to whom the said warrants or certificates are issued by or on behalf of the warehouseman, the rights legal and equitable, of such person, as an unpaid vendor, to stop actual delivery of the goods comprised in and affected by such warrants or certificates shall be deemed at an end when such warrants or certificates are delivered over bona fide and for value, on either a sale or pledge of the said goods by any person purchasing from the original bonder of it.

34 Possession of warrants prima facie evidence of ownership

On a sale or pledge of goods stored in any bonded warehouse, the possession of warrants or certificates importing a receipt and undertaking to deliver as aforesaid shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the ownership of the holder of the said warrants or certificates in the goods and merchandise affected by it.

35 Holder of warrant entitled to delivery

Any holder of a warrant or certificate importing the obligations mentioned shall be entitled on request and on compliance with the terms of the contract implied by such warrants or certificates between the warehouseman and the original bonder of the goods, to have delivery of it, or to have his name entered upon the books of the warehouse keeper as the owner of the said goods.

36 Registered holder of warrant deemed to be owner

Save in the event of fraud being proved in the procurement of the entry of the name of the holder of the certificates or warrants in the warehouse keeper's books, the person whose name is so entered shall be conclusively deemed the then owner in possession of the said goods, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained.

37 Lien of registered transferee of warrant determined on delivery of warrant bona fide and for value

In the event of any transfer being entered in the books of the warehouse keeper, and the then owner of bonded goods delivers over the warrants or certificates relating to or affecting the same to any other person on a sale or pledge of the said goods, and such warrants or certificates are afterwards delivered over bona fide and for value to any subpurchaser or pledgee by the person receiving the same from the owner whose name is entered as aforesaid, the rights legal and equitable of the said owner as an unpaid vendor to stop the actual delivery of the goods comprised in and affected by such warrants or certificates shall be deemed at an end as from the time of the bona fide delivery of the warrants or certificates to the first subpurchaser or pledgee for value.

38 Warrants of free goods put on the same footing as bond warrants

Where goods are stored in any free warehouse, and warrants or certificates, importing on behalf of the warehouseman a receipt of the goods and an undertaking to deliver the same on presentation and demand and on payment of the rents and charges lawfully demandable, are delivered to and accepted by the person originally warehousing such goods, the respective rights and liabilities of the warehouseman and warehouse keeper, and of the persons to whom the said warrants or certificates were originally issued, or are afterwards delivered or redelivered upon a resale or pledge bona fide and for value of the goods, or in whose name the ownership may be transferred in the books of the warehouse keeper, or who afterwards acquires possession bona fide and for value of the said warrants or certificates, shall be the same in all respects as is provided with regard to goods liable to the payment of customs duties and stored in a bonded warehouse.

39 Provisions same in respect of bonded and free warehouses

The provisions herein relative to the rights of or incident to the ownership of goods stored in a bonded warehouse shall be as applicable to the ownership of goods stored in a free warehouse as if such provisions had been respectively repeated and expressly applied thereto.

40 Vendor's lien not prejudiced save as against bona fide subpurchaser or pledgee for value

Nothing herein shall in any way prejudice the rights of an unpaid vendor of goods to stop delivery of it until payment of the price payable to him whenever such rights may be lawfully exercised without detriment or injury to any subpurchaser or pledgee bona fide and for value, or to the rights of any trustee in bankruptcy claiming under the purchaser from the unpaid vendor.

41 Goods not to be transferred in books of warehouseman except on production of warrant

(1) No entry shall be made in the books of any warehouseman or keeper of any bonded or free warehouse transferring the ownership or possession of any goods, unless the person applying for such entry to be made produces and delivers up the warrants or certificates originally issued.

(2) Thereupon the warehouseman or the keeper of his warehouse may cancel the said warrants or certificates and issue others in lieu and such new warrants or certificates may in like manner be cancelled and others issued in substitution of it.

42 Special contracts restraining negotiability of warrants

(1) Notwithstanding anything herein the person originally storing goods in any bonded or free warehouse, and the warehouseman thereof, may enter into a special contract restraining the negotiability of the warrants or certificates issued in respect of the said goods, or providing some special method of transfer of the property in and possession of such goods.

(2) In every such case the terms of such special contract shall be incorporated in and made to appear upon the face of the said warrants or certificates, so that the holder of it may have his attention expressly directed to it.

43 Warehouseman's lien not prejudiced by sale or transfer of goods

No transfer of the ownership or possession of the goods stored in any bonded or free warehouse shall in any way prejudicially affect the lien or rights of the warehouseman in respect of any rent or charges previously incurred or become payable on account of the goods the ownership or possession whereof may be so transferred as aforesaid.

PART 6

BOOK PURCHASERS PROTECTION

44 Validity of agreements for purchase of books

(1) Every agreement for the purchase of any book or part of a book, or of engravings, lithographs, or pictures, or of any other like matter, whether illustrated or not ("printed matter"), shall be absolutely void in every case where such printed matter is not to be delivered to the purchaser at the date of such agreement in a completed form, and so as to embrace the whole of the volumes or numbers of the printed matter, unless the purchaser of such printed matter first signs an agreement on a form in which, in red capital letters not less than great primer, the following words and figures are printed – namely, "The total liability of the purchaser under this agreement is [inserting the amount in similar printed letters and also printed figures of like size]" and unless such form is printed or written in black, wholly or partly, across and subsequent to the printing of such red letters and figures.

(2) The vendor of such printed matter, or his agent, shall at the time of signing of the agreement aforesaid also hand over to the purchaser a duplicate of the agreement, having printed on it in addition the words "Duplicate to be kept by purchaser”, and the name and address in full of the vendor; and the vendor shall not be entitled to recover under such agreement unless he produces an acknowledgement by the purchaser that he has received such duplicate of the agreement as aforesaid.

(3) In any action in any court on any contract for the purchase of such printed matter, the court may determine the value of the said printed matter, proof of which shall be on the vendor.

Certain Goods to Bear Indication of Origin

3 Power to require indication of origin

(1) Cabinet may by regulation –

- (a) Direct that goods of any class or description specified in the order shall, in the case of goods intended for importation into Niue at the time of their importation or exposure for sale in Niue, or in the case of goods manufactured in Niue at the time of their manufacture or exposure for sale in Niue, bear an indication of origin;
- (b) Prohibit the sale or the exposure for sale in Niue of goods of any class or description specified in the regulation unless they bear an indication of origin;
- (c) Exclude specified items from any class or description of goods.

(2) A regulation under this section shall specify in every case –

- (a) The manner in which the indication of origin is to be applied to the goods; and
- (b) The date on which the regulation is to come into force (not being a date earlier than 3 months from the date of the making of the regulation, except in the case of a regulation revoking a previous regulation either entirely or as respects some of the goods to which that regulation relates, or a regulation made for amending a previous regulation in consequence of a direction having been given with respect to that regulation under this section relating to provisional exemptions); and
- (c) Whether the goods are to bear the indication of origin at the time of importation or of manufacture or of exposure for sale wholesale.

(3) If, where regulations have been made under this Act with respect to any goods, it is shown to the satisfaction of the Minister by persons appearing to him to have a substantial interest in the matter that the application of the provisions of the regulation or of some of those provisions, to any particular class or description of those goods has caused, or is likely to cause, injury or hardship to the said persons, or any of them, the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, direct that the regulation, or any particular provisions of the regulation shall cease to apply to goods of that class or description or shall apply to those goods subject only to such modifications and conditions as the Minister thinks fit, and the regulation shall, while the direction is in force, have effect subject to it.

(2) If the Minister is satisfied, after considering such representations (if any) as may be made to him by any persons appearing to have a substantial interest in the matter, that having regard to the special circumstances of the trade, difficulties would arise if this section applied to goods of any class or description, or goods sold under any particular designation, and that public interests in Niue would not be materially prejudiced by exempting the goods from the operation of this section, he may, by notice in the Gazette, direct that this section shall not apply to those goods, or that goods shall not be treated as falling under this section by reason only that they are so designated.

(3) This section shall not have effect in respect of the application of a name or trade mark to articles used or to be used for any of the following purposes as coverings, labels, reels, or otherwise as articles in or with which goods manufactured or produced in Niue or are to be sold or exposed for sale, if –

- (c) That he had at the time of the commission of the alleged offence no reason to suspect the genuineness of the trade mark, mark or trade description; and

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to render liable to any prosecution of punishment any servant of a master resident in Niue who acts in good faith in obedience to the instructions of that master, and, on demand made by or on behalf of the prosecutor, has given full information as to his master.

14 Power of employer to exempt himself from penalty on conviction of actual offender

(1) Where an employer or principal is charged with the offence of having acted in contravention of, or of having failed to comply with any provision of this Act or any regulation made under this Act he shall be entitled on information duly laid by him and on giving not less than 3 days' notice of his intention to the prosecution to have any other person whom he charges as the actual offender brought before the court at the time appointed for hearing the charge, and if, after the commission of the offence has been proved, the employer or principal proves to the satisfaction of the court that he has used due diligence to enforce compliance with this Act or of the regulation, and that the said other person had committed the offence in question without his consent, connivance, or wilful default, the said other person shall, subject to section 7 (5), be convicted of the offence, and the employer or principal shall be exempt from any penalty.

(5) (a) Upon any minor attaining the age of 20 years or marrying under that age while any amount is held on trust for his benefit under subsection (4), the balance of that amount and of the income therefrom remaining in the hands of the trustee shall be paid to the minor except in so far as the Court may have ordered before the payment is made that the whole or any part of that amount shall continue to be held on trust under that subsection.

- (b) Where the trustee has made an application or received notice that an application has been made to the Court for such an order he shall not make any payment under this subsection until the application has been disposed of.

(9) Notwithstanding subsection (8) or the terms of any requirement made under that subsection, no person authorised to practise medicine shall conduct any such internal examination if he considers that to do so may be prejudicial to the suspect's health, or if he is satisfied that the suspect is not prepared to permit an internal examination to be conducted.

(10) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, where the suspect fails to permit an internal examination to be conducted under this section and subsequently applies for bail, the Court may (without limiting its discretion to refuse bail) decline to consider the application until the expiry of 2 days after the day on which the requirement to do so was made or until the suspect sooner permits such an examination to be conducted, if the Court is satisfied that the requirement was properly made on reasonable grounds; and, in any such case, the Court may order that the suspect shall continue to be detained in police custody until the expiry of that period or until the suspect sooner complies, as the case may be.

(4) If, on the conviction of any person for an offence against section 5, the Court is satisfied that any motor vehicle, aircraft, or ship or boat or other vessel owned by the convicted person (whether solely or as joint tenant or tenant in common with any other person or persons) or in which he or she has any interest (whether pursuant to a hire purchase agreement, leasing agreement, or otherwise) at the time of his conviction was used by the convicted person in the commission of that offence (whether or not he was the driver or person in charge), the Court shall, unless in the circumstances of the case the Court considers that it would be unjust to do so, order, in addition to any other penalty imposed, that the motor vehicle, aircraft, or ship or boat or other vessel be forfeited to the Government.
