PART II

Plant Breeder’s Rights

The breeder’s rights

3. Subject to this section and any other formal requirements of this Act, a right to be known as a plant breeder’s rights shall be granted in respect of plant varieties of those genera or species listed in the Schedule, where the variety is—

- (a) new;
- (b) distinct;
- (c) homogenous;
- (d) stable; and
- (e) given a variety denomination which is acceptable for registration in accordance with section 24.

Novelty

4. (1) Subject to subsections \(2\) and \(3\), a variety shall be considered new, where the variety itself has not been offered for sale or marketed with the approval of the breeder or his successor in title—

- (a) in Trinidad and Tobago, for longer than one year before the date on which protection is applied for under this Act; and
- (b) abroad for longer than four years, before the effective national filing date.

(2) In the case of vines, forest trees, fruit trees and ornamental trees, including their root stocks, the fact that the variety itself may have been offered for sale or marketed abroad for up to six years before the effective national filing date, shall not be considered detrimental to its novelty.

(3) It shall not be considered detrimental to the novelty of a variety if that variety has been offered for sale or marketed in the country with the approval of its breeder or his successor in title, for up to four years prior to the inclusion of the genus or species to which the variety, belongs in the List of Genera and Species published pursuant to section 8 and for a maximum of six months after such inclusion where the application is filed within that six month period.

Distinctness

5. (1) The variety is distinct if it is clearly distinguishable from any other variety whose existence is a matter of common knowledge at the time of the filing of the application or where relevant, at the priority date identified under section 21.

(2) Common knowledge may be established by reference to various factors such as the exploitation of the variety already in progress, grant of a breeder's right in the variety, entry of the variety in a catalogue of varieties admitted to trade or entry in the register of varieties kept by a recognised professional association, or inclusion of the variety in a reference collection.

(3) The filing, in any state, of an application for a breeder's right, or for entry in a catalogue of varieties admitted to trade, shall be deemed to render the variety being the subject of the application a matter of common knowledge from the date of the application, provided that the application leads to the grant of the plant breeder's right or the entry in the catalogue, as the case may be.

Homogeneity

6. The variety shall be considered homogeneous if its plants show the same expression of the characteristics, subject to the variation which may be expected in view of the particular features of its sexual reproduction, or vegetative propagation.

Stability

7. The variety is stable if its relevant characteristics remain unchanged after repeated propagation or, in the case of a particular cycle of propagation, at the end of each such cycle.

List of Genera and Species to which this Act applies

8. (1) The Minister may by Order, subject to subsection \(2\), publish a list of those genera and species to which this Act applies and may also amend such list by adding new genera or species to it, modifying the names of the genera or species already published or by deleting such names, with effect from any prospective date specified in the Order.

(2) In compiling the list of genera or species, the Minister may exclude all varieties of that genus or species which are not characterised by a particular manner of reproduction or multiplication or by a certain end-use.

(3) Where a genus or species is deleted from the list of genera and species to which this Act applies with effect from a given date, the deletion shall not affect the rights of applicants who have filed applications for the protection of varieties of that genus or species before that date.

PART III

Entitlement to Protection

Right to apply protection

9. (1) Subject to this Part, the breeder of the variety or his successor in title is entitled to apply for protection under this Act.

(2) The breeder or his successor in title may be a natural or a legal person.

(3) Where two or more persons have bred, or discovered and developed, a variety jointly, entitlement to protection shall vest in them jointly, and subject to any agreement to the contrary between the joint breeders, their shares in the property of the breeder's rights shall be equal.

(4) where a variety has been bred, or discovered and developed, by several persons independently of each other, the entitlement to apply for the grant of the breeder's right belongs to the person who has first applied for protection or filed an application with an earlier priority date at the Office.

(5) Where a variety has been bred or discovered and developed, in execution of a commission or an employment contract, the entitlement to apply for protection shall belong in the absence of contractual provisions to the contrary, to the person who commissioned the work or to the employer.

Presumption of title

10. The applicant shall be considered entitled to protection, in the absence of proof to the contrary, but where the application is made by a successor in title, it shall be accompanied by sufficient proof of succession.

Application by person other than owner

11. (1) Where an application is filed by a person who is not entitled to protection, the person entitled, may bring an action before the Court for the assignment of the application to him or if the application is already granted, for the assignment of the plant breeder's right.

(2) The action shall be statute barred after five years from publication of the grant of the plant breeder's right, save that an action brought against a defendant who has acted in bad faith shall not be subject to any limitation period.

Persons entitled to file applications

12. (1) An application for the grant of a plant breeder's right may be filed by the owner of the variety who is a—

- (a) national or resident of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) national or resident of a Contracting Party;

(4) The Agent shall be given the power to act on his principal's behalf before the office and in legal proceedings relating to the protection of new varieties of plant.

(5) For the purpose of instituting legal proceedings by or against any person represented in the manner defined in subsection \(3\), the place which the Office identifies as the address of the representative, or where there are several representatives, the address of the main representative, or representative first designated, is deemed to be the place where the right in the variety is located.

(b) the offering for sale; or

(c) the marketing, of the reproductive or vegetative propagating material, as such, of the variety.

(2) In the case of an ornamental variety, prior authorization of the holder of that right shall also be required where plants of the protected variety or parts thereof, normally marketed for purposes other than propagation, are used commercially as propagating material in the production of ornamental plants or cut flowers of that variety.

(3) Authorisation by the holder of the plant breeder's right shall not be required for the utilization of the variety protected by that right, as an initial source of variation for the purpose of creating other varieties or for the marketing of such other varieties, but shall, however, be required when the repeated use of the variety protected by a plant breeder's right is necessary for the commercial production of another variety.

Maintenance of propagating material

16. (1) The holder of a plant breeder's right shall be under an obligation to provide the Office with propagating material capable of producing plants which correspond to the characteristics defined for the variety when the right was granted, throughout the period for which the right is exercisable.

(2) The holder of a plant breeder's right shall also provide the Office with all such information and assistance as the Office may request for the purpose of ensuring that the holder of the plant breeder's right is fulfilling his obligations under subsection \(1\), including facilities for the inspection by or on behalf of the Office of the measures taken for the maintenance of the variety.

Period of protection

17. (1) Subject to subsection \(2\), the plant breeder's right shall expire at the end of the eighteenth calendar year following the grant thereof, in respect of vines, forest trees, fruit trees and ornamental trees including in each case, their rootstocks.

(4) The Controller shall declare the plant breeder's right forfeit where the holder of the right—

- (a) is no longer in a position to provide the Office on request with the propagating material capable of producing plants which correspond to the characteristics defined for the variety when the right was granted;
- (b) does not fulfil his obligation under section 16\(2\); and
- (c) does not pay the renewal fee that is due, having been reminded to do so by the Office, and after three months have elapsed since the date of the reminder.

(5) An appeal shall lie to the Court against any decision of the Office under this section.

(6) A licence agreement made under this Act, becomes ineffective if the plant breeder's right under which it was granted is declared null and void or forfeit, save however that no payment of any royalty which was due before the date of annulment or forfeiture can be demanded by the licensee in view of that annulment or forfeiture.

(5) The rejection or withdrawal of an application shall also be published in a periodical.

Priority

21. (1) The applicant may avail himself of the priority of an earlier application (hereinafter referred to as the "right of priority") that has been duly filed for the same variety, by himself or by his predecessor in title, with the Authority of a Contracting Party.

(2) Where the application filed with the Office is preceded by several applications, priority may be based only on the earliest application.

(3) The right of priority shall be expressly claimed in the application filed with the Office and may only be claimed within a period of twelve months from the date of filing of the earliest application, but the day of filing shall not be included in the said period.

Documents and material to be furnished for priority

22. (1) In order to avail himself of the right of priority, the applicant shall submit to the Office, within three months from filing the application in Trinidad and Tobago, a copy of the documents that constitute the earlier application, certified to be a true copy by the Authority with which that application was filed.

(2) The Office may request that a translation of the earlier application, be produced within three months from the date of receipt of the request.

(3) The effect of the right of priority shall be that, with respect to the conditions of protection attached to the variety, the application shall be deemed to have been filed at the date of the filing of the earlier application.

(4) The applicant shall be entitled to declare that he will submit the material mentioned in section 20\(3\) or any additional documents required by the Office at a later date, but no later than four years after the end of the priority period, unless the earlier application mentioned in subsection \(1\), has been withdrawn in the country in which it was filed or has been rejected there.

24. (1) The applicant for a plant breeder's right must, within three months after the filing of the application, propose in accordance with subsection \(4\), a variety denomination, which should be made on the form issued by the Office for that purpose.

(2) A variety denomination may consist of one word, combination of words subject to a maximum of three, combination of words and figures, of words and letters or of letters and figures, but shall not consist wholly of figures save however that in a word/figure combination, the figures shall have a meaning in relation to the words.

(3) No person shall use as a variety denomination a designation which—

- (a) does not enable the variety to be identified;
- (b) is liable to mislead a person of average attentiveness or to cause confusion concerning the origin, derivation, characteristics, value or identity of the variety, or the identity of the breeder;
- (c) is identical or can be confused with a variety denomination which in the country or in another State party to the Convention designates an existing variety of the same or of a related botanical species, save however that the denomination is admissible, if the other variety is not registered and has not been grown for some considerable time;

- (d) is identical or can be confused with a designation in which a third party enjoys a prior right which would prohibit the use of the designation as a variety denomination;
- (e) is contrary to public policy or morality;
- (f) refers solely to attributes which are also common in other varieties of the species concerned;
- (g) consists of a botanical or common name of a genus or species, or includes such a name, where this is likely to mislead or cause confusion;
- (h) suggests that the variety is derived from or related to another variety when this is not the case;
- (i) includes words such as “variety”, “cultivar”, “form”, “hybrid”, “cross” or translation of such words;
- (j) is, for reasons other than those mentioned above, not suitable as a generic designation of the variety.

(4) Where a variety is already protected by a contracting party or where an application for the protection of the same variety is filed in such State, only the variety denomination which has been proposed or registered in that other State, may be proposed and registered and the Controller shall not register any other designation as a denomination for the variety, save however, that where the variety denomination used in the other State is inappropriate for linguistic reasons, or for any of the reasons mentioned in the preceding paragraph, the applicant may be requested to propose another variety denomination.

Publication

25. The Controller shall publish in a periodical the variety denominations which have been proposed to it or registered or cancelled by it.

Use of the variety denomination

26. (1) Any person who offers for sale or markets propagating material of a variety protected in Trinidad and Tobago shall, even after the expiration of the protection, use the registered variety denomination in so far as prior rights do not prevent such use.

(2) When a protected variety is offered for sale or marketed, a trademark, trade name or other similar indication may be associated with the registered variety denomination provided that the denomination is easily recognizable.

(3) The holder of a plant breeder’s right may not invoke any trademark, trade name or other right in his possession against a variety denomination legitimately used in the offering for sale or marketing of the variety by another person, even after the expiration of the protection.

Prior rights of third parties

27. Prior rights of third parties in a designation are not affected by this Act.

Cancellation of a registered variety denomination

28. (1) The Controller shall cancel any registered variety denomination at the request of—

- (a) any person or on his own initiative, if the denomination should not have been registered or if subsequently, facts become known which would have justified the rejection of the denomination;
- (b) the holder of the plant breeder's right or of a third person, if a final court decision is delivered according to which the variety denomination must be cancelled or if it is established that a third-party right exists in the denomination and the holder of the plant breeder's right agrees to the cancellation;
- (c) a person who is obliged to use the variety denomination under section 26\(1\), if he is prohibited by a final court decision from using that denomination, provided that the holder of the plant breeder's right had participated or had been given the possibility to participate in the court proceedings.

(2) In the case of the cancellation of the variety denomination, the Office shall request the holder of a plant breeder's right to submit, within an appropriate period fixed by it, a proposal for a new variety denomination, which shall be registered if it is considered admissible for that Office but where the proposal is not acceptable, the request for submission shall be repeated.

(3) The Office shall establish, at the request of the holder or a third person, a provisional variety denomination where the holder or the third person demonstrates a legitimate interest.

(4) Where, after the period for submitting a proposal for a new variety denomination has expired, the holder of the plant breeder's right has not submitted the requested proposal, the Office may establish on its own initiative, a provisional variety or permanent variety denomination.

Filing date

29. The filing date of the application is fixed by the Office as the day on which the application form and the technical questionnaire, duly completed, are received.

PART IX Examination of the Application

Formal examination of application; consequences of defects

30. (1) The Controller shall examine whether the application and its supporting documents contain all indications required under this Act and whether the required amount of propagating material has been submitted on the due date and at the proper place.

(2) Where any of the requirements under subsection \(1\) has not been complied with, the application for the grant of a plant breeder's right shall be rejected, unless the Controller grants to the applicant a further period to complete the application or to submit the propagating material, but no such further period may be granted which will expire later than three months after the application date or the date fixed for submission of the material as the case may be.

Examination of novelty, distinctness, homogeneity and stability

31. (1) The Controller shall examine the variety to determine whether it fulfills the conditions of novelty and where that condition is not fulfilled, the Controller shall reject the application.

(2) The Controller shall invite the applicant, on a date fixed by him before the beginning of each year or testing period, to pay the prescribed fee, for that year or testing period and failure to do so, shall cause the application to be rejected.

(3) The Controller shall, after having received the testing fee for the first year or for the first testing period, examine whether the variety fulfills the conditions of distinctness, homogeneity and stability.

(4) Where the Controller determines that it is expedient to do so, he may arrange to have the examination done by another national or foreign governmental authority and shall base his decision on the results of that examination.

(5) The Controller may treat examination results obtained from, and expert opinions given by foreign governmental institutions, as results obtained from and opinions given by the Controller himself.

(6) Subject to section 22\(4\), the Controller may where necessary for the examination, request the applicant to submit additional material or documents within the period fixed by the Controller and where the applicant fails to do so, without giving valid reasons for such failure, the application shall be rejected.

(7) Where the examination shows that the application satisfies the conditions of novelty, distinctness, homogeneity and stability and that the proposed denomination of the variety can be registered, the Controller shall grant a plant breeder's right.

(8) Where the examination shows that the variety is neither distinct, homogeneous nor stable, the Controller shall reject the application.

(9) Where the examination shows that the proposed denomination of the variety cannot be registered, the Controller shall request the applicant to submit another denomination within a period fixed by him, failing which the application shall be rejected.

(10) Where the decision to grant a plant breeder's right or to reject an application is made, such decision shall be published in a periodical.

PART X Opposition

Opposition

32. (1) Within three months after the date of publication in a periodical any person may file an opposition against the grant of the right on payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) The opposition shall be based on the following grounds, namely that:

(b) the variety is not new or distinct at the pertinent dates in accordance with sections 4, 5 and 22\(3\);

(c) it is neither homogenous nor stable;

(d) the variety denomination that the office intends to register is inadmissible.

(3) Where the opposition is justified the decision that a plant breeder's right is to be granted shall, subject to subsection \(5\), be revoked and the application rejected.

(4) Where the opposition is not justified, it shall be rejected.

(5) Where the opposition based on the claim that the variety denomination is inadmissible is justified, the Controller shall revoke the decision that a plant breeder's right is to be granted and reopen the granting procedure by requesting the applicant to submit another denomination, failing which the application shall be rejected.

(6) Where no opposition is filed within a period mentioned in subsection \(1\) or if all oppositions filed within that period have been rejected, the Controller shall grant the plant breeder's right and register the variety denomination.

(7) The grant of a plant breeder's right shall be published in a periodical.

PART XI

Procedure in Cases of Requests for Annulment and Forfeiture

Procedure in cases of requests for annulment

33. (1) A request for annulment of a plant breeder's right may be filed by any person and shall not be deemed to have been filed unless the fee prescribed is paid.

(2) A request shall be filed in a written reasoned statement and it may be filed even after the plant breeder's right has expired.

(3) The request may not be filed during the period within which an appeal may still be made against the grant of the plant breeder's right or while proceedings on such appeal are still pending before the Court.

(4) The Controller shall declare the request inadmissible if it is not accompanied by a reasoned statement, or if it was filed during the period within which an appeal could still be made against the grant of the plant breeder's right, or while proceedings on such an appeal are still pending before the Court.

(5) If the request is admissible, the Controller shall hear the holder of the plant breeder's right and may obtain any other evidence and shall conduct the hearing on his own initiative; he shall continue the hearing if the request for the annulment is withdrawn.

PART XII

Rules on the Proceedings before the Office

(2) Hearings in proceedings concerning the assignment of an application, the transfer of a plant breeder's right or the annulment or forfeiture of such right shall be public, unless the legitimate interests of any person might be prejudiced thereby.

(3) In proceedings before the Office evidence may be obtained either by hearing any of the parties to the proceedings or experts or witnesses or by requesting the competent court of the country of residence of the person concerned to take such evidence.

(4) Evidence may also be obtained by requesting the submission of documents and other information by, or in the possession of any party in the proceedings, or information from another government authority, an expert opinion, by inspecting the installations of any party to the proceedings with that party's consent, or by requesting the submission of a sworn statement in writing by any party to the proceedings or by any witness or expert.

(5) A decision of the Controller may be based only on grounds or evidence on which any party to the proceedings whose rights are affected by that decision has had an opportunity to submit his comments.

(6) Facts or evidence which are not submitted in due time by any of the parties to the proceedings may be disregarded by the Office.

(7) Unless stated to the contrary in this Act, the Office may commence the necessary investigations on its own motion and in these investigations, it shall not be restricted to the facts, evidence and arguments provided by any of the parties to the proceedings.

(8) Any person may submit observations or suggestions to the Office concerning any proceedings pending before the Office, but that person shall not become a party to those proceedings by the mere fact of such submission.

(9) Observations and suggestions thus submitted shall be communicated to the applicant or the holder of the plant breeder's right as the case may be.

(10) The Controller shall confirm the receipt of such observations or suggestions but need not inform the person having submitted them of any steps taken by it or of its opinion on the observations or suggestions submitted.

(11) The Controller shall apply the same rules of procedure established for the hearing of an application under the Patents Act, 1996 to the hearing of an application under this Act, with such adaptations as may be necessary.
