PART II

APPEALS

Entry of appeal

3. (1) Any person who desires to appeal to the Tribunal from a decision of the Registrar of Patents in any matter in which a right of appeal is given under the Act shall, within three months after the date of the decision, file with the registrar of the Tribunal a notice in Form P.T. No. 1.

(2) A notice of appeal shall state the nature of the decision appealed against and whether the appeal is from the whole or part only and, if so, what part of the decision, and shall be accompanied by a statement in writing of the appellant's grounds of appeal.

(3) The appellant shall send a copy of the notice of appeal to the Registrar of Patents and to any person or persons who appeared or gave notice of opposition in the proceedings before the said Registrar.

(4) The appellant shall be responsible for the preparation of the record which shall be certified by the Registrar of Patents as correct in terms of sub-rule (7).

(5) The Registrar of Patents as well as the parties or their legal practitioners shall endeavour to exclude from the record all documents (more particularly such as are purely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the appeal, and generally to reduce the bulk of the record as far as practicable, and to avoid the production of unnecessary exhibits, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings, and furnish merely the formal particulars of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the record.

(6) The Registrar of Patents, after consultation with the registrar of the Tribunal, shall direct the number of copies of the record to be prepared, having regard to whether or not one or more assessors are likely to sit upon the hearing of the appeal.

(7) After the completion of the preparation of the record, the Registrar of Patents shall certify the record to be correct and forward it to the registrar of the Tribunal together with such copies thereof as he has directed to be prepared in terms of sub-rule (6).

4. (1) Any application for an extension of time in which to appeal shall be in Form P.T. No. 2 and shall state briefly the grounds upon which the application is based and where facts are alleged such facts shall be verified by affidavit.

Application for an extension of time in which to appeal

(2) The application accompanied by supporting documents shall be delivered to the registrar of the Tribunal and copies shall forthwith be served by the appellant on the Registrar of Patents and on any person or persons who appeared or gave notice of opposition in the proceedings before the said Registrar.

(3) The respondent shall be entitled to file an affidavit in reply within fourteen days from the date of service or within such longer period as may be ordered by the Tribunal, and the Tribunal may permit further affidavits to be filed. Copies of such affidavits shall be served on the Registrar of Patents and on the appellant or the respondent, as the case may be, immediately after the affidavits are filed.

5. (1) The registrar of the Tribunal shall, after obtaining directions from the president of the Tribunal, give to the Registrar of Patents, to the appellant and to any opposing party not less than fourteen days' notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing of the appeal, unless the president of the Tribunal directs that shorter notice shall be given.

Notice of hearing

(2) In any case where the setting down of the hearing of an appeal has been delayed, any party may apply to the registrar of the Tribunal to fix a date for the hearing, and thereupon the registrar of the Tribunal, after consulting any other party and the president of the Tribunal, shall set down the appeal for hearing after having given to the Registrar of Patents and to any other party not less than fourteen days' notice or such shorter notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing of the appeal as directed by the president of the Tribunal.

(3) If in the opinion of the registrar of the Tribunal an appeal is not being prosecuted timeously, he may lay the matter before the president of the Tribunal for directions and, if the president of the Tribunal is satisfied that the parties do not intend or are unable to proceed with the appeal, he may direct that the parties attend before him to show cause why the appeal should not be dismissed.

[SUBSIDIARY]

Patents Tribunal Rules

Evidence

6. Subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of section seventy-five, the evidence used on appeal to the Tribunal shall be the same as that used before the Registrar of Patents and no further evidence shall be given, except with the leave of the Tribunal.

Attendance of witnesses

7. The Tribunal may, at the request of any party, order the attendance at the hearing for the purpose of cross-examination of any person who has given evidence in the matter to which the appeal relates.

Security on appeal

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of section seventy-seven, any party may, at any time before the hearing of an appeal, apply to the Tribunal for an order that any opposing party shall, within such time, in such amount and in such manner as the Tribunal directs, give security for the payment of any costs which such opposing party may be ordered to pay.

(2) The party applying for an order for security for costs shall serve upon the opposing party a copy of the notice of the application for security at least seven days before the date of the hearing thereof.

(3) Any party ordered to give security for costs in terms of this rule may apply to the Tribunal for an order extending the time within which any security is to be given, and shall give not less than four days' notice of such application to the other party.

(4) In the event of the security not being given or being only partly given within the time directed by the Tribunal or any extension thereof, all proceedings in the appeal shall be deemed to be stayed, unless the Tribunal otherwise orders, and the appeal shall be set down for such order, whether of dismissal or otherwise, as the Tribunal may think fit.

Abandonment or failure to prosecute appeal

9. (1) An appellant may at any time abandon his appeal by giving notice of abandonment in Form P.T. No. 3 to the registrar of the Tribunal and upon such notice being given the appeal shall be deemed to have been dismissed by the Tribunal.

(2) The appellant shall serve a copy of the notice of abandonment on the respondent and on the Registrar of Patents.

(3) The respondent may, upon receipt of such notice, apply to the Tribunal for an order in respect of any costs incurred by him.

Frivolous or vexatious appeals

10. If it appears to the Tribunal that any notice of appeal against a decision of the Registrar of Patents discloses grounds of appeal which are frivolous or vexatious and that the appeal can be determined without a hearing, the Tribunal may dismiss the appeal summarily without calling on any person to attend the hearing of such appeal.

PART III

11. (1) Subject to the provisions of section sixty-six, an application to the Tribunal under section thirty for an order extending the term of a patent shall be made in Form P.T. (3) The period within which a counter-statement may be lodged by the patentee shall be two months from the date of receipt by him of the application. If such counter-statement is not lodged within the said period, opposition to the application shall be deemed to be abandoned.

(4) The applicant may within two months from the receipt of the copy of the counter-statement file evidence in support of his case and shall serve on the patentee a copy thereof.

(5) Within two months from the receipt of the copy of the applicant's evidence or, if the applicant does not file any evidence, within two months from the expiration of the time within which the applicant's evidence might have been filed, the patentee may file evidence in support of his case and shall serve on the applicant a copy of the evidence; and within two months from the receipt of the copy of the patentee's evidence, the applicant may file evidence confined to matters strictly in reply and shall serve on the patentee a copy of the evidence.

Costs

18. If the applicant notifies the Tribunal that he does not desire to proceed with an application, the Tribunal in deciding whether costs should be awarded to the other party shall consider whether proceedings might have been avoided if such other party had given reasonable notice to the applicant before the application to the Tribunal was filed.

PART V

TAXATION OF COSTS

22. The registrar of the Tribunal shall be the Taxing Officer for the purpose of taxing a bill of costs of a legal practitioner, and in the taxation of costs shall comply with such instructions as may from time to time be given to him by the Tribunal for that purpose.

Registrar of Patents
Tribunal to be Taxing
Officer

23. (1) With a view to affording the party who has been awarded an order for costs a full indemnity for all costs reasonably incurred by him in relation to his application or opposition, and to ensure that all such costs shall be borne by the party against whom such order has been awarded by the Tribunal, the Taxing Officer shall on every taxation allow all such costs, charges and expenses as appear to him to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of justice or for defending the rights of any party, but, save as against the party who incurred the same, no costs shall be allowed which appear to the Taxing Officer to have been incurred or increased through over-caution, negligence or mistake, or by payment of a special fee to counsel, unless the Tribunal otherwise orders, or special charges and expenses to witnesses or other persons or by other unusual expenses.

Necessary
costs to be allowed

(2) Upon the taxation of costs the Taxing Officer may, in determining the remuneration to be allowed, have regard to the skill, labour and responsibility involved, If, on having regard to the said matters, the Taxing Officer considers that there are special reasons why costs in excess of those prescribed in the Second Schedule should be allowed, he may, in respect of any particular application made or business done, allow such costs as seem to him reasonable and shall certify his decision in writing.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the charges made by any legal practitioner in respect of work performed by him under the provisions of the Act may refer such charges to the Taxing Officer for taxation.

24. In the taxation of costs the Taxing Officer shall be guided, as far as the circumstances of each particular case will permit, by the scale of fees prescribed in Part IV of the Second Schedule. In addition to these charges all disbursements shall be separately charged and shall be allowed by the Taxing Officer when reasonable.

Witnesses'
charges and allowances

25. (1) Witnesses requiring payment shall be paid for their attendance and travelling in accordance with the tariff prescribed in Part II of the Second Schedule.

(2) The charges for witnesses as fixed by tariff are to be considered as payable to the witness by the party who summoned or produced him and, in the event of any such party being awarded his costs against any other party, the said charges shall be allowed against such other party in the taxation of costs.

(3) Any person applying to the registrar of the Tribunal for the issue of a subpoena to compel the attendance of any witness shall by endorsement of such subpoena give an undertaking that all expenses due to the witness shall be tendered to such witness upon service of the subpoena, failing which no subpoena shall issue. If upon service of the subpoena all expenses due to such witness have not been paid, the subpoena shall have no force and effect.

(5) In the taxation of costs between party and party, nothing shall be allowed for any witness not examined unless upon proof that his evidence might reasonably have been believed to be material and necessary.

(6) If the number of witnesses summoned, or if the number of affidavits filed, is manifestly greater than is reasonably necessary, there shall only be allowed against the other party the charges for such witnesses or affidavits as were reasonably necessary.

(7) In the taxation of costs between party and party, no amount shall be allowed for any witness in respect of personal attendance or travelling expenses if the fact or facts which such witness is subpoenaed to prove have, before the issue of such subpoena, been admitted to the party taking out the subpoena by the opposite party:

Provided that such admission shall be in writing, signed by the party making it or his legal practitioner acting on his behalf.

(8) When the same person is a witness in more cases than one heard on the same day, he shall be entitled to no more than one fee for personal attendance and one allowance for travelling expenses, which shall be equally divided between such cases.

Taxation of
costs

26. (1) In all cases where a notice of taxation is necessary, seven days' notice together with a copy of the bill of costs shall be given by the legal practitioner on behalf of the party whose costs are to be taxed to the other party or to the legal practitioner of such other party.

Officer

28. The Taxing Officer may, without filing any formal documents, submit any point arising at a taxation for decision by the president of the Tribunal in chambers, and it shall be competent for the Taxing Officer and for the legal practitioners who appeared at the taxation to appear before the president of the Tribunal respecting such point.
