4. Upon the entry into force of this Agreement, each Contracting Party shall endeavor to prepare, to the extent possible, information regarding measures referred to in subparagraph 1(b) of Article 6 which are taken by prefectures in the case of Japan or by departments in the case of the Republic of Colombia, which shall be forwarded to the other Contracting Party.

2. Compensation shall be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investments at the time when the expropriation was publicly announced or when the expropriation occurred, whichever is the earlier. The fair market value shall not reflect any change in value occurring because the expropriation had become publicly known earlier.

3. The compensation shall be paid without delay and shall include interest at a commercial rate established on a market basis, accrued from the date of expropriation to the date of payment. It shall be effectively realizable and freely transferable and shall be freely convertible into the currency of the Contracting Party of the investors concerned, and into freely usable currencies at the market exchange rate prevailing on the date of expropriation.

8. The sub-committees established pursuant to paragraph 5 shall meet upon the request of either Contracting Party.

Article 21
Measures on Health, Safety, Environment and Labor

1. Each Contracting Party recognizes that it is inappropriate to encourage investment activities of investors of the other Contracting Party and of a non-Contracting Party by relaxing its domestic health, safety or environmental measures or by lowering its labor standards. Accordingly, each Contracting Party should not waive or otherwise derogate from such measures or standards as an encouragement for the establishment, acquisition or expansion in its Area of investments by investors of the other Contracting Party and of a non-Contracting Party.

2. Each Contracting Party may adopt, maintain or enforce any measure that it considers appropriate to ensure that investment activities in its Area are undertaken in a manner not incompatible with its environmental law, provided that such measure is consistent with this Agreement.

Article 22
Denial of Benefits

A Contracting Party may deny the benefits of this Agreement to an investor of the other Contracting Party that is an enterprise of that other Contracting Party and to its investments if the enterprise is owned or controlled by an investor of a non-Contracting Party and the denying Contracting Party:

- (a) does not maintain diplomatic relations with the non-Contracting Party; or
- (b) adopts or maintains measures with respect to the non-Contracting Party that prohibit transactions with the enterprise or that would be violated or circumvented if the benefits of this Agreement were accorded to the enterprise or to its investments.

Article 23
Special Formalities
and Information Requirements

1. Nothing in Article 2 shall be construed to prevent a Contracting Party from adopting or maintaining a measure that prescribes special formalities in connection with investment activities of investors of the other Contracting Party in its Area, such as a requirement that investors be residents of the Contracting Party or that investments be legally constituted under the laws or regulations of the Contracting Party, provided that such formalities do not materially impair the protections afforded by the Contracting Party to investors of the other Contracting Party and to their investments pursuant to this Agreement.

2. Notwithstanding Articles 2 and 3, a Contracting Party may require an investor of the other Contracting Party or its investments to provide routine information concerning those investments solely for informational and statistical purposes. The Contracting Party shall protect any confidential business information from any disclosure that would prejudice the competitive position of the investor or its investments. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent a Contracting Party from otherwise obtaining or disclosing information in connection with the equitable and good faith application of its law.

CHAPTER III
Settlement of Disputes
between the Contracting Parties

Article 24
Settlement of Disputes
between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes arising between the Contracting Parties with respect to the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be settled, as far as possible, through consultations. Such consultations shall be requested in writing by either Contracting Party.
2. Any dispute between the Contracting Parties as to the interpretation or application of this Agreement, not satisfactorily settled through consultations within sixty (60) days after the request for consultation referred to in paragraph 1, shall be referred for decision to an arbitration board.
3. An arbitration board referred to in paragraph 2 shall be established for each dispute. Such arbitration board shall be composed of three arbitrators, with each Contracting Party appointing one arbitrator within a period of thirty (30) days from the date of receipt by either Contracting Party from the other Contracting Party of request for arbitration through diplomatic channels, and the third arbitrator to be agreed upon as President by the two arbitrators so chosen within a further period of thirty (30) days, provided that the third arbitrator shall not be a national of either Contracting Party nor be affiliated with either of the Contracting Parties, nor have dealt with the dispute.
4. If the necessary appointments referred to in paragraph 3 have not been made within the periods referred to in that paragraph, either Contracting Party may, unless otherwise agreed, request the President of the International Court of Justice to make such appointments. If the President of the International Court of Justice is prevented from performing the above mentioned duty or is a national of either Contracting Party, the Vice-President shall be requested to make the necessary appointments. If the Vice-President is prevented from performing the above-mentioned duty or is a national of either Contracting Party, the necessary appointments shall be made by the most senior judge who is not a national of either Contracting Party.

5. The arbitration board shall determine its own procedural rules. The arbitration board shall decide the dispute in accordance with this Agreement and the rules and principles of international law applicable to the subject matter. The arbitration board shall reach its decisions by a majority of votes. Such decisions shall be final and binding. Unless otherwise agreed, the decision shall be rendered within six months following the appointment of the President of the arbitration board in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4.

6. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own arbitrator and its representation in the arbitral proceedings. The cost of the President of the arbitration board in discharging his or her duties and the remaining costs of the arbitration board shall be borne equally by the Contracting Parties. The fees and expenses of the arbitrators may not exceed the limits established from time to time in the ICSID and effective at the time of the establishment of the arbitration board.

Article 25 Limitation of Claims

1. With regard to disputes relating to financial services, paragraphs 2 through 6 of Article 24 only applies to disputes regarding matters that affect the operation, management, maintenance, use, enjoyment and sale or other disposal of investments or the investments of investors of a Contracting Party already established, acquired or expanded in the Area of the other Contracting Party in accordance with its laws and regulations.

The request shall be accompanied by a brief summary of the factual and legal basis of the investment dispute sufficient to present the problem clearly. Procedure for such remedies shall in no case exceed six months from the date of receipt of the written notification from the disputing investor requesting the commencement of the procedure by the disputing Party and shall not prevent the disputing investor from requesting consultations and negotiations referred to in Article 26.

2. In the event that an investment dispute cannot be settled through consultations and negotiations within the period of time set out in paragraph 5:

- (a) the disputing investor, on its own behalf, may submit to arbitration under this Chapter a claim:

- (d) the relief sought and the approximate amount of damages claimed.

4. In cases where the disputing investor is a national or an enterprise of a Contracting Party, that disputing investor must deliver evidence establishing that it is a national or an enterprise of a Contracting Party with the notice of intent referred to in paragraph 3.

5. If the investment dispute cannot be settled within seven months and fifteen days from the date on which the disputing investor requested the disputing Party in writing for consultations and negotiations referred to in Article 26, the disputing investor may submit a claim referred to in paragraph 2 to one of the following arbitrations:

8. The disputing investor shall provide with the notice of arbitration:

2. For investment disputes with regard to paragraph 3 of Article 4:

- (a) necessary consent for the submission to the arbitration will be given by the competent authority of the disputing Party set out in Article 41; and
- (b) in cases where the written agreement referred to in paragraph 3 of Article 4 stipulates a dispute settlement procedure, such procedure shall prevail over this Chapter.

3. The consent given by paragraph 1 and the submission by a disputing investor of an investment dispute to arbitration shall satisfy the requirements of:

- (a) Chapter II of the ICSID Convention or the ICSID Additional Facility Rules, for written consent of the parties to a dispute; and
- (b) Article II of the New York Convention, for an agreement in writing.

Article 29
Conditions and Limitations
to the Consent and to the Claims

1. An investor of a Contracting Party whose investments were not established, acquired or expanded in accordance with the laws and regulations of the other Contracting Party which are not inconsistent with this Agreement shall not resort to the dispute settlement under this Chapter to settle an investment dispute with respect to such investments.

2. With regard to investment disputes with respect to investments or investment activities of a disputing investor relating to financial services, this Chapter only applies to claims regarding investments already established, acquired or expanded in the Area of the disputing Party in accordance with its laws and regulations, as well as the investment activities associated with such investments.

3. With regard to investment disputes with respect to investments or investment activities of a disputing investor relating to activities or services that are part of a public retirement plan or social security system established by the laws and regulations of the disputing Party, this Chapter only applies to claims regarding investments already established, acquired or expanded in the Area of the disputing Party in accordance with its laws and regulations, as well as the investment activities associated with such investments.

4. No investment dispute may be submitted to arbitration set forth in paragraph 5 of Article 27, if more than three years have elapsed since the date on which the disputing investor acquired or should have first acquired, whichever is the earlier, the knowledge of the breach alleged under paragraph 2 of Article 27 and knowledge that the disputing investor, in the case of subparagraph 2(a) of Article 27, or the enterprise, in the case of subparagraph 2(b) of Article 27, had incurred loss or damage.

5. No claim may be submitted to arbitration under this Chapter unless:

- (a) the disputing investor consents in writing to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set out in this Chapter; and

- (b) the notice of arbitration is accompanied:
 - (i) for claims submitted to arbitration under subparagraph 2(a) of Article 27, by disputing investor's written waiver; or

7. The consent and waiver required by this Article shall be delivered to the disputing Party.

8. Where the disputing Party has deprived the disputing investor of the control of an enterprise, a waiver from the enterprise under subparagraph 5(b)(ii) shall not be required.

9. Once the disputing investor has submitted an investment dispute to administrative tribunal or court of the disputing Party or to any of the arbitration under paragraph 5 of Article 27, that election shall be definitive and the disputing investor may not submit thereafter the same dispute to the other arbitrations set forth in paragraph 5 of Article 27.

10. Neither Contracting Party shall give diplomatic protection, or bring an international claim, in respect of an investment dispute which the other Contracting Party and an investor of the former Contracting Party have consented to submit or submitted to arbitration set forth in paragraph 5 of Article 27, unless that other Contracting Party has failed to abide by and comply with the award rendered in such investment dispute. Diplomatic protection, for the purposes of this paragraph, shall not include informal diplomatic exchanges for the sole purpose of facilitating a settlement of the investment dispute.

Article 30
Establishment of a Tribunal

1. Unless the disputing parties agree otherwise, a Tribunal shall comprise three arbitrators, one arbitrator appointed by each of the disputing parties and the third, who shall be the presiding arbitrator, appointed by agreement of the disputing parties.

2. If the disputing investor or the disputing Party fails to appoint an arbitrator or arbitrators within seventy-five (75) days from the date on which the investment dispute was submitted to arbitration under this Chapter, the Secretary-General may be requested by either of the disputing parties to appoint the arbitrator or arbitrators not yet appointed from the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators subject to the requirements of this Article. The Secretary-General should make such appointment in its discretion and, to the extent practicable, after having heard the disputing parties.

3. Unless the disputing parties agree otherwise, the presiding arbitrator shall not be a national of either Contracting Party, nor have his or her usual place of residence in the territory of either Contracting Party, nor be affiliated with either of the disputing parties, nor have dealt with the investment dispute in any capacity.

4. In appointing the arbitrators, the disputing parties consider that arbitrators of a Tribunal should have expertise and competence in the fields of international public law, the law on foreign investment or the subject-matters of the investment dispute arisen between the disputing parties.

5. For the purposes of paragraph 2, each of the disputing parties may indicate up to three nationalities, the appointment of arbitrators of which is unacceptable to it. In this event, the Secretary-General may be requested not to appoint as arbitrator any person whose nationality is indicated by either of the disputing parties.

6. The disputing parties may agree on the fees to be paid to the arbitrators. Article 31 Governing Law

The Tribunal shall decide the issues in dispute in accordance with this Agreement and applicable rules of international law.

Note: In accordance with international law and where relevant and appropriate, a Tribunal may take into consideration the law of the disputing Party. However, a Tribunal does not have jurisdiction to determine the legality of a measure, alleged to constitute a breach of this Agreement, under the domestic law of the disputing Party.

Article 32 Transparency in Arbitral Proceedings for the other Contracting Party

The disputing Party shall provide the other Contracting Party with:

- (a) written notice of the investment dispute submitted to the arbitration no later than thirty (30) days after the date of the submission; and

Article 34
Preliminary Questions

Before ruling on the merits, the Tribunal shall address and decide as a preliminary question any objection to jurisdiction and admissibility by the disputing Party. When deciding on any objection of the disputing Party, the Tribunal may, if warranted, award to the prevailing disputing party reasonable costs including attorney's fees incurred in submitting or opposing the objection. In determining whether such an award is warranted, the Tribunal shall consider whether the claim was frivolous or whether the objection was frivolous, and shall provide the disputing parties a reasonable opportunity to comment.

Article 35
Interim Measures of Protection

A Tribunal may order an interim measure of protection to preserve the rights of a disputing party or to facilitate the conduct of arbitral proceedings, including an order to preserve evidence in the possession or control of a disputing party. The Tribunal may not order attachment or enjoin the application of the measure alleged to constitute a breach referred to in paragraph 2 of Article 27.

Article 36
Expert Reports

Without prejudice to the appointment of other kinds of experts where authorized by the applicable arbitration rules, a Tribunal, at the request of a disputing party or, unless the disputing parties disapprove, on its own initiative, may appoint one or more experts to report to it in writing on any factual issue concerning environmental, health, safety and other scientific matters raised by a disputing party in a proceeding, subject to such terms and conditions as the disputing parties may agree.

Article 37

1. Where two or more claims have been submitted separately to arbitration under paragraph 2 of Article 27, and the claims have a question of law or fact in common and arise out of the same events or circumstances, any disputing party may seek a consolidation order in accordance with the terms set forth in paragraphs 2 through 10.

2. A disputing party that seeks a consolidation order under this Article shall deliver, in writing, a request to the Secretary-General to establish a Tribunal under this Article, and shall specify in the request:

- (a) the names and addresses of all the disputing parties sought to be covered by the order;
- (b) the nature of the order sought; and

3. Unless the Secretary-General finds within sixty (60) days after receiving a request under paragraph 2 that the request is manifestly unfounded, a Tribunal shall be established under this Article.

4. Unless all the disputing parties sought to be covered by the order otherwise agree, a Tribunal established under this Article shall comprise three arbitrators:

- (a) one arbitrator appointed by agreement of the disputing investors;
- (b) one arbitrator appointed by the disputing Party; and
- (c) the presiding arbitrator appointed by the Secretary-General, provided, however, that the presiding arbitrator shall not be a national of either Contracting Party, nor have his or her usual place of residence in the territory of either Contracting Party, nor be affiliated with either of the disputing parties, nor have dealt with the investment dispute in any capacity.

5. If, within the sixty (60) days after the Secretary-General receives a request made under paragraph 2, the disputing Party fails or the disputing investors fail to appoint an arbitrator in accordance with paragraph 4, the Secretary-General, on request of any disputing party sought to be covered by the order, shall appoint the arbitrator or arbitrators not yet appointed. If the disputing Party fails to appoint an arbitrator, the Secretary-General shall appoint a national of the disputing Party, and if the disputing investors fail to appoint an arbitrator, the Secretary-General shall appoint a national of the Contracting Party other than the disputing Party.

6. Where a Tribunal established under this Article is satisfied that two or more claims that have been submitted to arbitration under paragraph 2 of Article 27 have a question of law or fact in common, and arise out of the same events or circumstances, the Tribunal may, in the interest of fair and efficient resolution of the claims, and after hearing the disputing parties, by order:

- (a) assume jurisdiction over, and hear and determine together, all or part of the claims;
- (b) assume jurisdiction over, and hear and determine one or more claims, the determination of which it considers would assist in the resolution of the other claims; or
- (c) instruct one of the Tribunals previously established under Article 30 to assume jurisdiction over and to hear and determine together, all or part of the claims, provided that;
 - (i) that Tribunal, at the request of any disputing investor not previously a disputing party before that Tribunal, shall be reconstituted with its original members except for the arbitrator for the disputing investors who shall be appointed pursuant to subparagraph 4(a) and paragraph 5; and
 - (ii) that Tribunal shall decide whether any prior hearing shall be repeated.

7. Where a Tribunal has been established under this Article, a disputing investor that has submitted a claim to arbitration under paragraph 2 of Article 27 but that has not been named in a request made under paragraph 2, may make a written request to the Tribunal established under this Article that it be included in any order made under paragraph 6 and shall specify in the request:

- (a) the name and address of the disputing investor;
- (b) the nature of the order sought; and
- (c) the grounds on which the order is sought.

8. A Tribunal established under this Article shall conduct its proceedings in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, except as modified by this Chapter.

9. As regards the claims over which a Tribunal established under this Article has assumed jurisdiction pursuant to the order referred to in subparagraphs 6(a) and (b), Tribunals established under Article 30 shall not have jurisdiction. As regards the claims over which a Tribunal established under Article 30 has assumed jurisdiction pursuant to the order of the Tribunal established under this Article under subparagraph 6(c), the other Tribunals established under Article 30 shall not have jurisdiction.

10. On application of a disputing party, a Tribunal established under this Article, pending its decision under paragraph 6, may order that the proceedings of a Tribunal established under Article 30 be stayed, unless the latter Tribunal has already suspended its proceedings.

Article 38 Draft Awards

In any investment dispute submitted to arbitration under this Chapter, at the request of a disputing party, a Tribunal shall, before rendering a decision or award, submit to the disputing parties a proposed decision or award. Within sixty (60) days after the date of submission of the proposed decision or award, the disputing parties may submit written comments to the Tribunal concerning any aspect of the draft decision or award. The Tribunal shall consider any such comments and render its decision or award within one hundred and five (105) days of the date of submission of the proposed decision or award.

Article 39 Awards

1. The award rendered by the Tribunal shall include:
 - (a) a judgment whether or not there has been a breach by the disputing Party of any obligation under this Agreement with respect to the disputing investor and its investments; and
 - (b) one or both of the following remedies, only, if there has been such breach:
 - (i) monetary damages and applicable interest; and
 - (ii) restitution of property, in which case the award shall provide that the disputing Party may pay monetary damages and any applicable interest, in lieu of restitution.

A Tribunal may also award costs including attorney's fees in accordance with the applicable arbitration rules.

2. Subject to paragraph 1, when a claim under subparagraph 2(b) of Article 27 is submitted:

3. A Tribunal may not award punitive damages.

Article 40 Finality and Enforcement of the Award

1. The award rendered in accordance with Article 39 shall be final and binding upon the disputing parties in respect of the particular case. The disputing Party shall carry out as soon as possible the provisions of the award and provide in its Area for the enforcement of the award in accordance with its relevant laws and regulations.

2. If the disputing Party fails to abide by or comply with an award, upon a request of the Contracting Party other than the disputing Party, an arbitration board in conformity with Article 24 may be established. The requesting Party may seek in such proceedings:
