3. Without prejudice to paragraph 1, the Parties agree to hold consultations in the framework of the Joint Committee where Egypt or an EFTA State considers that one or more EFTA States or Egypt respectively have taken measures which are likely to create, or have created, an obstacle to trade, in order to find an appropriate solution in conformity with the WTO TBT Agreement.

ARTICLE 14

In order to find such a solution, the Parties shall immediately hold consultations within the Joint Committee. If, as a result of the consultations, the Parties do not reach an agreement within thirty days of the initiation of the consultations on a solution to avoid the safeguard measures, the Party intending to apply safeguard measures may apply the provisions of Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and the WTO Agreement on Safeguards.

The total value of imports of the products subjected to such measures may not exceed 20 per cent of total imports of industrial products from the EFTA States during the last year for which statistics are available.

4. Such measures shall be applied for no longer than five years, except where a longer duration is authorized by the Joint Committee. They shall cease to apply at the latest on expiry of the maximum transitional period.

5. Such measures may not be introduced for a given product if more than three years have elapsed since the abolition of all duties, quantitative restrictions and charges and measures having equivalent effect for the product concerned.

6. Egypt shall inform the Joint Committee of any exceptional measures it intends to adopt and, at the request of an EFTA State, consultations shall be held on the measures and sectors concerned before they are implemented. When adopting such measures, Egypt shall provide the Joint Committee with a schedule for the abolition of the customs duties introduced or increased pursuant to this Article. ARTICLE 20

Re-export and serious shortage

1. Where compliance with the provisions of Article 10 leads to:

 - (b) a serious shortage, or threat thereof, of a product essential to the exporting Party;

and where the situations referred to above give rise or are likely to give rise to major difficulties for the exporting Party, that Party may take appropriate measures laid down in paragraph 2.

2. The difficulties arising from the situations referred to in paragraph 1 shall be submitted for examination to the Joint Committee. The Committee may take any decision needed to put an end to the difficulties. If it has not taken such a decision within thirty days of the matter being referred to it, the exporting Party may apply appropriate measures on the exportation of the product concerned. The measures shall be non-discriminatory and be eliminated when conditions no longer justify their maintenance.

3. In the selection of measures, priority must be given to the action which least disturbs the functioning of this Agreement.

4. The measures taken shall be subject to periodic consultations within the Joint Committee with a view to their elimination as soon as circumstances permit.

ARTICLE 21

General exceptions

Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude prohibitions or restrictions on imports, exports or goods in transit justified on grounds of public morality, public policy or public security, of the protections of health and life of humans, animals or plants, of the protection of national treasures possessing artistic, historic or archaeological value, of the protection of intellectual property or of regulations concerning gold and silver or conservation of exhaustible natural resources. Such prohibitions or restrictions shall not, however, constitute a means of arbitrary discrimination or disguised restriction on trade between the Parties.

ARTICLE 22

Security exceptions

Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent a Party from taking any measures which:

- (a) it considers necessary to prevent the disclosure of information contrary to its essential security interests;
- (b) relate to the production of, or trade in, arms, munitions or war materials or to research, developments or productions indispensable for defence purposes, provided that such measures do not impair the conditions of competition in respect of products not intended for specifically military purposes; or

4. The Parties shall regularly review this Article and Annex V to this Agreement with a view to their effective implementation and their future development. ARTICLE 26

Trade in services

1. The Parties reaffirm their respective commitments under the terms of the General Agreement on Trade in Services (hereinafter referred to as "the GATS") and in particular the commitment to accord each other most-favoured nation treatment (hereinafter referred to as "MFN") in trade in service sectors covered by these commitments.

2. In accordance with the GATS, this treatment shall not apply to:

- (a) advantages accorded by any Party under the provisions of an agreement as defined in Article V of the GATS or under measures adopted on the basis of such an agreement; or
- (b) other advantages accorded pursuant to the list of MFN exemptions annexed by any Party to the GATS.

ARTICLE 27

Right of establishment and liberalisation of services

1. The Parties shall consider extending the scope of this Agreement to include the right of establishment of companies of one Party in the territory of another Party and the liberalization of the supply of services by companies of one Party to service consumers in another Party.

2. The Joint Committee shall make the necessary recommendations for the implementation of the objectives set out in paragraph 1. When formulating these recommendations, the Joint Committee shall take into account the experience gained by the implementation of the MFN treatment granted to each other by the Parties in accordance with their respective obligations under the GATS, and in particular Article V thereof.

3. The objective set out in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be the subject of a first examination by the Joint Committee at the latest five years after the entry into force of this Agreement.

2. The Parties shall hold consultations with a view to facilitating the movement of capital between Egypt and the EFTA States and achieve its complete liberalization as soon as conditions are met.

ARTICLE 30

Balance of payments difficulties

Where an EFTA State or Egypt is in serious balance of payments difficulties, or under threat thereof, the EFTA State concerned or Egypt respectively may, in conformity with the conditions laid down within the framework of the GATT 1994 and Articles VIII and XIV of the Statutes of the International Monetary Fund, take restrictive measures with regard to current payments if such measures are strictly necessary. The EFTA State concerned or Egypt, as appropriate, shall inform the other Parties immediately thereof and shall provide as soon as possible a timetable for the removal of such measures.

CHAPTER VI COMPETITION AND OTHER ECONOMIC MATTERS

Rules of competition concerning undertakings

1. The following are incompatible with the proper functioning of this Agreement in so far as they may affect trade between Egypt and an EFTA State:

- (b) abuse by one or more undertakings of a dominant position in the territories of the Parties as a whole or in a substantial part thereof.

2. The Joint Committee shall, within five years of the entry into force of this Agreement, adopt by decision the necessary rules for the implementation of paragraph 1.

3. If, in the absence of the rules referred to in paragraph 2, a Party considers that a particular practice by an undertaking or undertakings of another Party is incompatible with the terms of paragraph 1, and if such practice causes or threatens to cause serious prejudice to its interest or material injury to its domestic industry, including its service industry, it may take appropriate measures after consultation within the Joint Committee or after thirty working days following referral for such consultation.

4. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary adopted in conformity with paragraph 2, the Parties shall exchange information taking into account the limitations imposed by the requirements of their national secrecy laws, such as in particular rules concerning professional and business secrecy.

The Party requesting consultations shall at the same time notify the other Parties in writing thereof and supply all relevant information.

to their abolition. The measures shall be abolished when conditions no longer justify their maintenance, or, if the dispute is submitted to arbitration, when an arbitral award has been rendered and complied with.

2. Measures according to paragraph 1 may be taken without prior consultations in the Joint Committee in cases of a material breach of this Agreement by another Party. A material breach shall consist of the repudiation of this Agreement not sanctioned by the general rules of international law or a grave violation of an essential element of this Agreement, creating an environment not conducive for consultations or where a delay would be detrimental to the objectives of this Agreement.

The Parties undertake to review this Agreement in light of international economic developments, i.a. in the framework of the WTO, and to examine in this context and in the light of any relevant factor, the possibility of further developing and deepening the co-operation under this Agreement and to extend it to areas not covered therein. The Parties may instruct the Joint Committee to examine this possibility and, where appropriate, to make recommendations to them, particularly with a view to opening up negotiations.
